WESTFIELD FOUND CHATHAM NO CINCH

Denmen's Men Were Compelled to Struggle Hard to Defeat Their Opponents.

A FINE EXHIBITION

SCORE WAS THREE TO TWO IN FAVOR OF HOME TEAM.

Hot Contest Waged and Lively Scenes on the Diamond—Few Errors Made During the Game—The Lineups.

Mainly through a balloon trip, managed, conducted and enjoyed by Mr. Speir, Westfield took the decision away from Chatham Saturday afternoon. It only lasted two innings, but the Westfields found it time enough to cull three full-grown runs, just one more than the Chathams could coax from the store-house.

There were other reasons besides the pitcher's wildness for the merry-go-round, an error or two and a steam-heated gabfest contributing their mite. The torpedoes were loosed in the second. Barry hit safely, and went through the open door to second. Rothfuss mishandled the ball after Hickman's hit and Barry shifted to third, Hickman landing on first. Speir hit Burke and filled the bases. Then Speir dropped an easy one from his airship and Goldberg sent it on its way rejoicing. Barry came back to the old home once more, and Hickman smiled hopefully from the third perch. Then Hickman quietly folded up his smile and stole for home.

The umpire said he got there before the ball. Chatham immediately kicked the dogs of war and the howling that ensued was a lovely mess of discord and rage. They didn't give Umpire Cullum a chance to call time, and Burke galloped home. And when the noise of battle died away and Chatham went out to try again, the three runs were stuck fast to the score.

Burke started another tempest by jollying the umpire. Something he said as the side retired angered Cullum, and the latter threw down his mask and refused to go on unless somebody was substituted for the airy Burke. But the diplomatic Denman quieted the storm, and the game went on.

And it went on in proper style. From that juncture straight through to the last throw, the contest was as pretty a one as the crowd could wish. Speir settled down and handed out trouble and perplexity to the Westfield batters in large quantities. Waller was in his regular form, and the game speedily revolved itself into a pitcher's battle in which the honors were evenly divided

Each man only allowed four hits. Waller struck out seven men, and Speir blanked five. The fielding was snappy on both sides. Chatham only made the one error in the second, and Westfield made two errors. They were costly, however.

It was in the lucky seventh that Chatham dodged the whitewash brush. Adams hit through shortstop and third, and reached second on Carey's error. Rothfuss sacrificed him to third, and sent him home with a long drive to left field.

Westlake reached second on a passed ball by Burke, and another pass sent him in to third. Curley fouled out to Burke. Warren landed for a half-grown hit that was gathered in by Barry, who threw to Carey. The latter slapped the ball on the wrist but it wouldn't stand still, and Westlake carried home the second run. Speir struck out, and Waller and the rest of the Westfielders ran a successful blockade for the remaining two innings.

Batting order and summary:

HILLSIDE CLUB'S AUSPICIOUS OPENING

Initial Play for Golf Committee Cup Attracts Large Field of Enthusiasts.

THE COURSE IS FAIR

C. B. MORGAN WINS FIRST HONORS FOR TROPHY.

Clubhouse the Scene of Much Social Activity—Many Improvements—Season Promises to be Full of Interesting Events.

Weather conditions were about right for the opening of the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club on Saturday. The course, although not quite in its usual condition, the recent rains having made it a little soft, were fair and the members of the club turned out in large numbers for the initial weekly competition for the Golf committee cup. C. B. Morgan won first honors for the cup, with a net score of 81, while Leighton Calkins and S. D. Lounsbery finished second and third with net scores of 82 and 83 respectively.

While there was a goodly number entered in the competition, many who made high scores, did not post. On the average, however, the scores were good.

A pleasing feature causing favorable comment was noted in the improvements made about the clubhouse and grounds. Additions have been built, giving the extra needed room for social functions and the serving of dinners, while the increased room for the women is greatly appreciated. There was much social activity about the clubhouse and all agreed that the coming season will be a banner one in the history of the club.

As for the course the Greens committee has spared no pains and expense in making it what it should be and there is yet considerable work to be done in the way of improvements. There is no doubt but what it is one of the best in the Metropolitan district and during the season it will be the centre of attraction for those who are enthusiastic over the ancient game. That the game has lost none of its popularity was clearly shown on Saturday.

These scores were posted for the Golf committee cup:

C. B. Morgan, 93, 12—81; Leighton Calkins, 86, 4—82; S. D. Lounsbery, 89, 6—83; Roger F. Murray, 90, 6—84; J. E. Erickson, 95, 11—84; D. W. Taylor, 103, 16—87; Walter Peterson, 95, 6—89; W. L. Glenney, 113, 20—93; Charles A. Stover, 109, 15—94; J. A. Lane, 114, 18—96; H. D. Hibbard, 104, 7—97.

WHOLE FAMILY TAKEN ILL

SCOTCH PLAINS PEOPLE SUFFERED FROM PTOMAINE POISONING.

Ptomaine poisoning affected the whole family of Henry Keuhn, of Scotch Plains, yesterday. The father was seriously ill, and prompt action on the part of a physician was necessary to save him.

On Saturday night the entire family, consisting of Mr. Keuhn, his daughter, Mamie, and two sons, George and Christopher, ate some canned peas for supper. Early yesterday morning all of them were seized with nausea and weakness, and vomited excessively. Mr. Keuhn and the girl were the worst sufferers.

Dr. Westcott, of Fanwood, was summoned, and arrived just in time to save Mr. Keuhn from collapse. He was in a serious condition, and has not recovered yet. The boys were relieved without much trouble, but Mamie is still ill from the effects of the poison.

Dr. Westcott was positive the illness was caused by ptomaines.

SERMON TO ODD FELLOWS

REV. J. O. M'KELVEY'S ADDRESS TO LODGE MEMBERS.

In observance of the anniversary of the founding of the order, the Odd Fellows gathered for religious service at Warren chapel last night. Good sized delegations were present from Queen City and Plainfield Lodges, the two local organizations of the order.

Reviewing the order from its inception in Baltimore, and painting its growth from five members to a million, Rev. J. O. McKelvey, the pastor, said many complimentary things of the I. O. O. F.

320 HEIRS TO THE ESTATE

MRS. JOSEPHINE MANNING AMONG THOSE WHO WILL BE BENEFITTED.

Judge Louis Schenck, in the Somerset Orphan's Court at Somerville Saturday, signed an order of distribution by which the $8,000 estate of the late Richard H. VanCleef, of Millstone, will be divided among 320 heirs, among whom are Mrs. Josephine Manning, of this city; Mrs. Abner Coriel, Jr., and Peter Dumont, of Dunellen.

Richard H. VanCleef died at Millstone on April 16, 1902, leaving no father or mother, or children, or brothers or sisters. His nearest relatives were first cousins. Howard M. VanCleef was named as administrator and then the work of getting information of the heirs began. Senator Van Cleef spent two years following up the heirs and has unearthed them in various parts of the country, from ocean to ocean and from Maine to Mexico. The task was a gigantic one. In all 320 heirs were located, but there may be others at present unknown and if so they have forfeited their right to a part of the estate.

The shares of these heirs range from $300 or $400 for the first cousin to $1 for the most distant relatives.

Memorial Service.

A service in memory of Mrs. John H. French, who for sixteen years was secretary of the W. C. T. U., was held in the rooms of the Union on Madison avenue, yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Mrs. Tomlinson, county president, was in charge and spoke in an eulogistic manner of Mrs. French and her long faithful service. An impressive part of the service was the arrangement of beautiful floral tributes about the table and chair used by Mrs. French. Other words of tribute were spoken by various members.

Miss Evelina Vivian, of Plymouth, England, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Burner, of Jackson avenue.

HAUL OF $1,500 AT WESTFIELD STATION

The Central Railroad's Ticket Office Robbed While Agent is Away From His Post.

SEVERAL SUSPECTS

THIEVES GAIN ENTRANCE THROUGH A WINDOW.

Detectives at Work on the Case—Carrigg, the Agent, Only on Duty at Westfield for Two Weeks.

While the agent was eating lunch in a restaurant, thieves broke into the Westfield station of the Central Railroad shortly after midnight Saturday and stole $1,500. The robbery was done cleanly, the thieves getting away without being seen or leaving the slightest clue upon which the police can work.

Saturday afternoon and evening most of the commuters bought their tickets for May, increasing the usual balance at the station by $1,200 or more. It is supposed that the thieves knew of this fact, and timed their raid accordingly.

Daniel F. Carrigg, twenty-three years old, is the agent. He left the station, he says, at 12 o'clock, to get some lunch. He claims the chief dispatcher wired him permission to do so. When he returned a half hour later every drawer in the office was wide open and all the money was missing.

Entrance had been gained by the robbers through an outside window. This was unbarred and had yielded readily to force. It is supposed two or more men were in the gang, and that they had been posted near the office to watch for a favorable moment. The agent's departure gave them the chance looked for. They worked swiftly, and must have had all the money within reach inside of ten minutes.

The best detectives in the railroad service are on the case and every possible effort will be made to track the robbers down. So much familiarity was shown with the workings of the office and the habits of the agent that it is believed local men did the trick.

While the police will not acknowledge that they have anything in the way of a clue to work on, it is known that several suspects are under surveillance. Arrests are probable within a day or two.

Carrigg, the agent, has only been on duty at Westfield for two weeks. He came there from Trenton Junction, where he had been employed as agent for two years. He succeeded J. D. Duffy, who was discharged.

P. H. S. WON IN THE TENTH

CRANFORD HIGH SCHOOL'S PITCHER KEPT PLAINFIELD GUESSING.

Apparently outclassed the Cranford High School team gave the Plainfield High School aggregation a surprise on Saturday by holding them down to four runs. In the meantime they scored three runs. It required ten innings to decide the contest. The Plainfield boys could not find Bargus, the opposing twirler, easily, while Cranford had little trouble in hitting both Hansey and Smith, who took turns pitching for the local team. A feature was a difficult catch by Craig of what appeared to be a safe hit. The lineup:

Plainfield—Long, 3b; Craig, ss; Rockwell, cf; Davis, c; Book, 1b; Quinn, rf; Hansey and Smith, p; Scott, lf; Thompson, 2b.

Cranford—Cox, lf; Plume, cf; Washburn, ss; Smith, 2b; Bargus, p; Cooper, 1b; Bingham, 3b; C. Cooper, rf; Becker, c.

Score by innings:

SCHOOL BOARD SITE IS AGAIN SUBMITTED

Borough Board of Education Arranges to Have the North Plainfielders Vote on It.

ON GROVE STREET

LOT WILL COST ONLY SIX HUNDRED DOLLARS IT IS SAID.

Cost of Building Will be $13,400—Action to be Taken on the Question on Monday, May 16.

Another opportunity to vote on the question of a new school house will be given the borough citizens. At a special executive session Saturday night the Board of Education decided to submit the question at a public meeting to be held Monday evening, May 16.

Land lying on Grove street will be submitted as the site. After careful and wholly unbiased consideration, the Board has decided that the location picked is the most desirable for the proposed school among the several that were offered.

The lot is 200 feet in extent, and lies in the middle of the west side of Grove street, beyond Walnut street. It is conveniently located for the children of the Prideville section, Walnut street running right through the west end of the borough. Children from the other direction will not have far to go. The lot belongs to the McLaughlin heirs, of whom John McLoughlin is representative.

It is proposed to put up a four room, frame structure. The lot will cost $600 and the building will probably require $13,400. The total $14,000, is what the Board will ask of the people.

In the building proposed there is no more accommodation than the Board can use just as soon as school opens next fall after the long vacation. The structure will be filled immediately. It is not the aim of the Board to plan for future growth in the proposed building. Another new school will be needed not long after the one talked of goes into commission, and some site on the other side of Somerset street will have to be secured.

There is scarcely any doubt that the proposition will be carried. All the elements of opposition that figured in the recent defeat of the plan have said that the submission of a proper site would win their approval, and the location offered is believed to be plainly the best that can be secured.

PARSIFAL DESCRIBED BY A LOCAL PASTOR

Rev. C. E. Herring Chooses Wagner's Opera As a Subject for a Sermon.

INTERESTINGLY TOLD

DIVERSE OPINIONS OF GREAT MEN ON THE WORK.

Large Audience Gathered in First Presbyterian Church Despite Threatening Weather—Treated in An Impartial Way.

In spite of the threatening weather a considerable congregation gathered in the First Presbyterian church last night, attracted by the announcement of the pastor's subject, "Parsifal."

Rev. Mr. Herring cited opinions of a number of men of letters as to the claim Parsifal has to rank as Wagner's masterpiece. Characterized by Nordau as an almost conclusive evidence of degeneracy, upheld by others as inspiring and uplifting to the highest degree, the work has been the subject of more debate than all the other operas of Wagner combined.

Wagner's original conception of the work, that of depicting in an opera the purity and self-abnegation of Christ, his steadfastness and unswerving service or the salvation of others and the repentance and devotion of the Magdalen, was, upon the advice of friends, reconsidered, a reconsideration which lasted for ten years. During those years other operas, those of the Ring and Lohengrin also were written.

Finally the varied knowledge of religions which the great composer possessed suggested the combination of certain features of the Buddhistic allegory of the conquest of self, with portions of the thirteenth century Christian legend of the Holy Grail.

The innocence of Parsifal has its parallel, said Mr. Herring, in that negative righteousness which although it does no potential wrong, does not count for anything on either side until the humanizing touch of grief has kindled the desire to be of use to our fellows.

The vision of Christ which greeted the eyes of Parsifal as he experienced his awakening, was a manifestation of the force which tends to elevate the soul, a force which only needs our personal co-operation to enable it to conquer the evil force which desires our destruction.

Mr. Herring went on to describe how Parsifal went forth in his newfound strength, and spent many years in successful conflict with evil; returning finally to heal Amfortas' wound and become his successor as custodian of the Grail. This intervening struggle was compared by the preacher to the development from innocence through righteousness to perfection, which is the lot of those who, deferring the consummation of their original designs in favor of their present opportunities for usefulness find themselves at the last stronger and more able by far than they had ever expected.

The tendency to become like one's ideals was exemplified, said Mr. Herring, in the changed appearance of Parsifal at his return. The features bore a strong resemblance to Leonardo Da Vinci's Christ; indicating the effect of long-continued contemplation of an ideal.

That Wagner never gave up entirely his original intention of representing Christ and the Magdalen is witnessed in the scene where the repentant Kundry, at the castle of the Grail kneels before Parsifal, wipes his feet upon the hair of her head. The names, to be sure, are different but the scene which is the same, forms the only jarring note in the whole wonderful story.

MISS CONROY DEAD.

Bright Young Woman Passes Away After a Long Illness.

Death ended Miss Lillian May Conroy's long illness yesterday, at her home on Linden avenue. She will be laid away in Hillside tomorrow afternoon, after a service at the house. Rev. Dr. Earp, the pastor of Grace M. E. church, will officiate, assisted by Rev. G. L. Gardner, of Jersey City, a former pastor of Grace.

Miss Conroy was a member of Grace M. E. church and of the King's Daughters, and attended the First M. E. Sunday-school. She was twenty-four years old. Her grievous sufferings were borne with a patience and sweetness that fittingly rounded out a life of consistent Christianity.

POLITICAL NOTES.

All of the Republican Congressmen in this State expect to attend the Republican State Convention at Trenton on May 10.

C. R. H. Hawkins and J. J. Porter, of Elizabeth, and H. C. Hewitt, of Cranford, members of the State committee, have issued a call for the election of delegates from Union County to take place tomorrow evening for the New Jersey Colored Republican Association convention to take place in Trenton, Monday, May 9, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, in the Mt. Zion A. M. E. church, Perry street.

The members of the U. S. Grant Club, that worked for McKinley in his first campaign against Bryan, are trying to find a place to store a big oil painting of the martyred president that was presented to them early in the memorable campaign by a rich New Yorker. At present the painting is hanging in Robert Trevin's barber shop, but the members regard the painting so highly that they want a perfectly safe place for it. The portrait is a fine one.

In talking over the oil painting Saturday night, several of the club members said that it would probably find a place in a club again next fall. It is pretty certain that the organization will become active once more when the parties line up again for the coming presidential battle.

—The telephone company has disconnected the wire to the old engine house of the borough and ran one to the new headquarters.

—The Lehigh Valley Railroad Company will, commencing May 15, put a through World's Fair sleeper in service. It will leave Jersey City on the Black Diamond Express and run through to St. Louis via. Lake Shore and Big Four routes from Buffalo.

LITERARY.

The Red Book for May is at hand with one of the gayest and most artistic cover of all that decorate the newsstands. This is the first number of the second year of this energetic magazine, and it has but faint resemblance to the unpretentious little periodical of last May with which the publication began. Steadily increasing in quantity and quality of reading matter and illustrations as it is, it has become one of the most attractive of all fiction magazines, and the promise is that the improvement will continue steadily. The generous patronage of the leading advertisers seems to prove that the magazine has won its way in business circles as well as among readers.

AMONG MEN IN THE SHOPS

SEEN AND HEARD IN PLAINFIELD'S INDUSTRIAL PLANTS.

Nick Nickerson, of the Potter plant, is on the sick list.

J. Fred Wharton, assistant foreman at Pond's, was laid off last week.

Three patternmakers were laid off at the Pedrick-Ayer plant, last week.

Con Donahue, of the borough, has resigned his position at the Pond plant.

The Welmont Manufacturing Company is rushed with work. The employes are working overtime every night.

John Canary has resigned his position at the Crescent Embossing Company's works on West Second street.

John Thompson, of Essex street, one of the Pond shop foremen, will leave for England on May 5 on a health-seeking trip.

Edward Taylor, of West Second street, has resumed his position in the drawing room at the Pond Machine Tool Company's plant.

Leo Boss, of the Perrin Fereres glove factory, attended the funeral of Chas. Meginer, who was found dead in a hotel in New York.

Work is slack at the Potter Press Company's shop. Several men were given a week's notice Saturday that their services would no longer be needed until after July 1 at least.

William McComb, of the Manganese Steel Safe Company's plant, is setting up a large vault for the United States Morgage and Trust Company in the Ansonia building, corner Seventy-third street and Broadway, New York.

John Hess, of the Pond Machine Tool Company plant, met with a painful accident while at work at the Pedrick-Ayer plant Saturday. While the lad was lifting a heavy lathe centre, it slipped and fell on his right foot, bruising it badly.

William Biglow, of the Pedrick-Ayer plant, is suffering from a mashed finger which he received while lifting a milling machine Saturday. The forefinger of his left hand was caught under the machine as it was being lowered to the floor. The wound was dressed at the shop.

The first edition of The Progress Reporter, a semi-monthly paper issued by the Niles-Bement Tool Company, has made its appearance. The object of the publication is to keep the employes of this large company informed as to the new machines and devices which are constantly being brought out. The columns are open to any employe of the company.

The 48" double planer, which was built at the Pond shop some time ago, and shipped to the Snow Pump Works, at Cambridge, Mass., has proved to be a great success. Two more machines of the same design are now under construction at the Pond plant. The machine has four uprights, six tool heads and two cross rails. The feed mechanism is common to both sets of uprights. The arrangement of the bed for building this extra pair of uprights is such that it can be moved to different positions, and the bed for different lengths of work. This type of planer was designed for railway and engine building shops, for planing the ends of connecting rods. It is a time-saver for this class of work, keeping both pair of uprights as near together as possible, the time lost between the points of the tools is less than the time lost in running back on a standard planer, practically doubling the capacity.

Old Engine Stormbound.

On account of the stormy weather, the old Gazelle hand engine was not sent back here from Elizabeth until Saturday. It was intended to send it home, as announced, either Thursday or Friday, but the rainy weather compelled a postponement of the trip.

—An excellent picture of C. M. Keyser, the popular New Jersey Central conductor, appears in the last issue of The Railroad Employee. He has been with the Central since 1871, serving as passenger brakeman, extra baggagemaster and passenger conductor.

JOURNALISTIC OPINIONS.

QUESTIONS OF THE DAY DISCUSSED BY THE PRESS.

Against Sunday Ball Playing.

The sentiment against Sunday ball playing is being shown earlier this season than heretofore, and the efforts to prevent the desecration of the Sabbath in this respect are apparently to be more determined than ever. The feeling is strong against Sunday ball playing in this State.—Elizabeth Journal.

Presidents' Autographs.

The following prices were paid separately for a set of letters of the Presidents: Washington, $56; John Adams, $17; Jefferson, $11; Madison, $4.50; Monroe, $6; John Quincy Adams, $2; Jackson, $5.50; VanBuren, $1.75; Harrison, $8; Tyler, $4.50; Polk, $3.50; Taylor, $15; Fillmore, $3.75; Pierce, $4; Buchanan, $3; Lincoln, $16; Johnson, $16; Grant, $44; Hayes, $3.50; Garfield, $1.50; Arthur, $4.50; Cleveland, $6; Harrison, $4.50; Cleveland, $2.25; McKinley, $5. Some of these figures are as surprising as anything in the history of autograph collecting. But it is to be regretted that strenuousness was not submitted to the comparative test.—Evening Sun.

The First Newspaper.

The bicentennial anniversary of the first American newspaper, the Boston News-Letter, has naturally called forth a considerable amount of comment upon the changes of two hundred years. The Boston News-Letter was first issued in the week of April, 17-24, 1704, by John Campbell, postmaster of Boston. It was printed sometimes on a single foolscap sheet, and frequently on a half sheet, with two columns on each side. Foreign news occupied three-fourths of the paper, and the domestic news, which would fill probably a half column occupied the remainder of the space. There were no advertisements and no marriage notices, and only one or two deaths were noticed at a time. The art of newspaper reporting in the United States originated with the News-Letter. When six pirates were executed near Boston, in 1704, the exhortation to the malefactors and the prayer of the officiating clergyman while the pirates were on the scaffold were reported "as near as could be taken in the great crowd. The report filled nearly half of the paper, and the unnamed reporter may be regarded as the pioneer in his useful craft.

It is not quite accurate to say that the News-Letter was the first newspaper printed in America. It was preceded by a publication called Publick Occurrences, a small quarto sheet with one page blank, issued in Boston on September 25, 1690. The editor was too aggressively democratic for the times, and his sheet was suppressed by the Governor on the day of its birth, for indulging in "reflections of a very high nature." In 1719 the News-Letter, found a rival in the Boston Gazette; "but with its name changed to the Massachusetts Gazette and Boston News-Letter, it grew to be the chief organ of British rule in America down to the evacuation of Boston."—Trenton State Gazette.

Advertise!

The cobwebs hung across his door,
He didn't advertise;
The dust lay thick upon the floor—
He didn't advertise;
He said that printers and their ink
Could never make the people think,
He guessed that he would save his chink
And wouldn't advertise.

The business world began to laugh—
He didn't advertise;
His rating fell away one-half—
He didn't advertise;
Expenses grew and profits fell,
Yet still he had the goods to sell,
And vowed that "times were dull as—" well
He wouldn't advretise.

The sheriff came with solemn face—
He came to advertise,
And tacked a notice on the place—
He came to advertise;
He looked so staid and solemn, yet,
He had to satisfy this debt,
Official duties must be met,
And so he advertised.

A hearse came slowly on its way,
And didn't advertise;
The funeral train was small that day—
He didn't advertise;
His friends and neighbors stood around,
They slowly lowered him in the ground
And grasses grew above his mound,
Who didn't advertise.

WELL ARMED FORGER

John A. Delaney Wanted In Four Cities.

CAPTURED IN DESPERATE STRUGGLE

Prisoner, In Bed When Police Called, Reached For Three Revolvers and Bowie Knife—Would Have Added Murder to Effect Escape.

PHILADELPHIA, May 2.—John A. Delaney, who, the police say, is wanted in St. Louis, New York, Washington and particularly by the authorities of Baltimore, who charge him with forgery, was arrested at the Hotel Hanover after a sensational struggle with two detectives, who owe their lives to their presence of mind. The arrest was made in the presence of Delaney's wife, who was in bed. The wife comes from a good family in Baltimore and did not know that he was wanted by the police until the detectives broke into their bedroom. The couple were married in January. She had always believed him to be a traveling man.

According to the police, Delaney and his wife left Baltimore on a trip which she supposed was for business. The detectives located them at the Hanover. Assuring themselves that the couple were in bed, Detectives Thomas of Baltimore and Tall of this city broke in the door, and a struggle instantly ensued in the dark with Delaney, who had jumped from bed at the first sound. A porter turned on a light, and the prisoner was soon subdued, but not until after he had attempted to reach a revolver that was under a pillow and another under the bed. While dressing he said he wanted a vest and stepped to a trunk, but the detectives anticipated him and found a third pistol. He made three more moves, such as to get a collar or a handkerchief, and in each place the detectives found a bowie knife. Having been foiled at every turn, Delaney gave up and, according to the detectives, said he would have made his escape if he could have reached any one of the six weapons, even though he had to kill both of them.

Mrs. Delaney, dumfounded at the whole proceeding, almost went into hysterics from surprise and fear.

Among Delaney's personal effects were found chloroform and a sponge, a silk bag which, the detectives say, is patterned after the kind used by sandbagging highwaymen, two pieces of rope, a chisel and a razor.

The prisoner was taken to the city hall and held without bail to await requisition papers from Maryland.

Mrs. Delaney's mother and sister were telegraphed for, and they have taken the heartbroken woman home.

Delaney told the police that his present plight was due to his attempt to have his wife remain in the same social position she was in when he married her. Delaney also said he was at one time confidential agent of Chris Von der Ahe of St. Louis.

Kaiser and the Bridge.

MAINZ, Hesse, May 2. — Emperor William in opening the railway bridge across the Rhine here congratulated the minister of public works upon the completion of this German engineering triumph, which also had long been recognized as a strategical necessity. His majesty added: "I hope from the bottom of my heart that peace, which is necessary for the continued development of industry and trade, may be preserved. I am convinced, however, that if the bridge should ever be used for more serious transport work it would be found fully trustworthy."

Fighting In Asia Minor.

CONSTANTINOPLE, May 2. — According to official advices, there has been serious fighting in the Sassun district of Asia Minor between the troops and Armenian insurgents numbering 2,000. The troops lost twenty killed and twenty-three wounded. Twelve villages in the Talori district have been destroyed, but whether by insurgents or Kurds is not known. There are 10,000 troops in the disturbed area. Private advices say that the Kurds attacked two villages north of Sassun, losing twenty-six killed.

Plainfield, N. J., May 2, 1904.

Parker's enemies in the Democratic party seem to be busily engaged making friends for him.

Who is writing those dispatches from St. Petersburg anyway, Finley Peter Dunn or Mark Twain?

The New York World's lamentations on the extravagance of Roosevelt would make a school boy laugh.

If he can be prevailed upon to accept a nomination, it is quite certain that James F. Buckle will poll a record-breaking number of votes for the mayoralty.

A note of the unusually peaceful condition in Republican party politics in this county is made by the Newark Evening News. Despite the love-feast of the two factions, there's bound to be another rebellion in the ranks whenever any opposition to Fowler becomes apparent.

IMPORTANT CHANGES IN STATE GAME LAWS

In a Number of Instances the Open Season for Fish and Game Has Been Lengthened.

DEER LAW AMENDMENT

SHORE BIRDS MAY BE KILLED BETWEEN MAY AND DECEMBER.

Bass and Perch Season Commences May 20—When Snipe May be Shot—Fishing for Pickerel.

Several important changes were made in the fish and game laws at the recent session of the Legislature. In numerous instances the open season for taking fish and game has been changed, and sportsmen should familiarize themselves with the present laws in order to avoid trouble.

The open season for water wild fowl, including ducks, geese, swan, etc., will hereafter begin on the first day of September, which is just one month earlier than heretofore. The shooting of what are generally known as shore birds, which include curlews, plover and snipe, with the exception of Wilson or English snipe, is legal from May 1 to December 31, instead of from July 15 to December 31, as formerly. A spring season is given for Wilson or English snipe, and these birds may now be lawfully shot during the months of March, April, September, October, November and December.

While the general public is prohibited from shooting English or ring-necked pheasants, except between November 10 and December 31, both dates inclusive, the Legislature graciously permits owners of game preserves to begin shooting these birds on October 1 and continue until December 31.

That section of the law which provided for having in one's possession deer during the prohibitive season, even though obtained lawfully outside the State, has been amended so as not to interfere "with deer that have been legally killed or taken in other States and brought into this State properly tagged to show where they were killed or taken."

It will be remembered that much trouble was caused last year by the enforcement of the law prohibiting the closed season for game The law as it then stood read as follows:

It shall be unlawful for any owner, lessee or custodian of any dog to permit such dog to run at large in woods or fields inhabited by rabbits or game birds, except when said dog is in the custody or charge of its owner, lessee, or custodian, during the close herein provided for hare (commonly known as rabbit), under a penalty of $20 for each offense.

This was amended so as to read:

It shall be unlawful for any owner, lessee or custodian of any dog to permit such dog to run at large in woods or fields inhabited by rabbits or game birds, except only between the first day of October and the first day of February following; provided, however, that at all times during the year such dog or dogs may be allowed to run when the owner, lessee or custodian is with such dog or dogs; but at no such time shall any dog be allowed to run rabbits at night, under $20 for each offense; and it is further provided that this act shall in no wise apply to fields or woods inhabited by deer.

The changes in the seasons for taking fish will interest many. The first day of the open season for black bass, Oswego bass, calico bass, white bass and pike perch is now May 20 instead of June 15. This change is generally deprecated by anglers, and will probably be repealed at the next session. The same change is made in the open season for pike and pickerel, which now begins May 20, and besides it is made lawful to take these fishes during the entire month of January, which permits fishing through the ice. The Essex fasciatus, which is known variously as Long Island pickerel, varied pickerel and grass pike, is removed from the protection of the law, and may be taken at any time. This is a small variety of pickerel which haunts trout streams and is very destructive to young trout.

Pastor's Wife Surprised.

Mrs. Lindholm, wife of Rev. L. T. Lindholm, pastor of Swedish Pilgrim Congregation, was pleasantly surprised Friday night, the occasion being the anniversary of her birthday. She was the recipient of many handsome flowers and a substantial purse of money. During the evening there was a programme of vocal instrumental music and refreshments were served.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

There is a gang of boys in town ranging in age from 14 to 20 years of age who are doing all they can to make the lives of the other residents miserable. The many petty as well as dangerous "jokes" which have been committed in the village for several months past are the work of "the gang" and it is about time, the residents think, that some action should be taken to end them. Several weeks ago the door of a residence on Front street was opened and a large stone thrown into the room, narrowly missing striking a stove in its travels. Later the well curb on the same street was taken off, leaving the mouth of the well exposed so that pedestrians were liable to fall down it and be seriously injured, if not killed. Gates have disappeared and never been found again by their owners. The latest work by them was the breaking of a window in Wade's grocery store late on Saturday night and the throwing of the piles of canned goods around the place, if not purloining some of the stock. The iron fence in front of John G. Cook's residence on Park avenue was also broken. A number of warnings have been given the members of the gang but the residents are beginning to believe there is only one cure for the evil and that is a trip to Elizabeth where they will be the guests of Warden Dodd for a time.

The Scotch Plains ball team was obliged to postpone the opening of their season Saturday afternoon on account of the weather conditions. The Park A. C., of Newark, which was to try conclusions with the local team, failed to put in an appearance, much to the regret of the "fans," who had gathered to see Manager Hand's colts line-up. While the day was a fairly good one here for baseball it is said to have rained hard in Newark and for this reason the Parks took it for granted that the game would be called off. As there was no way to reach their manager by 'phone in time for them to make the trip the locals had to disappoint the lovers of the game and put the time in on practise.

The authorities will no doubt be asked to put an end to the Sunday games of baseball, which have been a regular thing for several years past at Berkely Heights. Neighbors who lived near the grounds and others are complaining of the depredations committed by those who are drawn to the place each week by the excitement of the game. Fences are broken and other nuisances committed that the peace loving residents of Berkely object to, so it said that complaint is to be made and the Sunday games will soon be a thing of the past.

The threatening weather of Saturday afternoon could not deter many of the Plainfield lovers of the National game from attending the opening game here and see the pick of the popular City League of several years ago, in action again. It was too bad to disappoint them but the elements ruled otherwise and it could not be helped.

A team composed of local players played the Berkelys at Berkely Heights Sunday afternoon. This accounts for the mysterious exodus of a number of the local cranks who were last seen wandering towards the mountains during the early hours of the afternoon.

The annual letter of the local Baptist church to the East N. J. Baptist Association, which meets at Rahway, was read and adopted at the morning service Sunday morning.

The baseball game at Elizabethport, yesterday, between the Stars and Poughkeepsies, was enjoyed by a number of the local members of the "fraternity."

The members of the Bayside Wheelmen, of Newark, who indulged in a Century run yesterday, breakfasted and were chicked at Lee's Hotel.

The Y. M. C. A. bowling team defeated the Turn Verein team in a match game bowled Friday night on the Suburban's alleys.

The monthly observance of the Lord's Supper was held at the close of the morning service at the Baptist church yesterday.

The weekly meeting of the B. Y. P. U., of the Baptist church, was held last night in the church parlor.

The weekly meeting of the Epworth League was held last night in the class rooms of the Methodist church.

Japanese by Means of Pontoon Bridges Crossed the River In Face of Russian Fire and Gallantly Charged the Enemy In Their Earthworks--Latest Details Up to 7 O'clock This Morning.

LONDON, May 2.—Advices from Wiju state that the Twelfth division of the Japanese army forced a crossing of the Yalu river above Wiju just before dawn. The second pontoon bridge across the river near Wiju was completed at 8 o'clock Saturday night, and the Imperial guards of the Second division immediately crossed.

The Russian left flank has been turned by a general attack begun at dawn, nearly all the Japanese batteries on the south bank of the river and a flotilla of gunboats co-operating with the army. Previously detachments of the Imperial guard and of the Second division attacked and dispersed the enemy on islands in the river and occupied the islands. In these engagements sixteen of the Imperial guard were seriously and nine slightly wounded, while there were no casualties in the Second division.

The enemy retreated, carrying many dead and wounded toward Chiutienchang. A Russian cavalryman taken prisoner said that the Twenty-second, Twenty-third and Twenty-seventh infantry regiments of the eastern Siberian sharpshooters formed the van of the Russian force. Lieutenant Senyoloff, commanding the mountain scouts of the Twenty-second regiment, was found dead and was buried at Wiju.

A Harbin dispatch says:

"From General Kuropatkin's telegrams it appears that the Japanese, having crossed to the right bank of the Yalu near the village of Sindiagu, occupied the villages of Khussan and Litzaven. General Sassulitch, with a view of reoccupying Litzaven and the heights near Khussan, ordered a thorough reconnoissance of the positions which the Japanese occupied and then sent a detachment commanded by Staff Lieutenant Colonel Lind to attack the enemy.

"The positions near Litzaven and Khussan were defended by a Japanese force consisting of two battalions of the Fourth regiment of the guard, with mountain guns, and a small force of cavalry of the guard. With the assistance of our artillery from Potietinsky our troops dislodged the Japanese from their position, losing two sharpshooters killed and thirteen wounded. The Japanese left on the position they vacated ten dead and twenty-six wounded. They also carried away a number of their wounded, and others scrambled down the cliffs to the Yalu. The enemy succeeded in removing their mountain guns.

"After occupying the heights near Sindiagu, where our troops came under a heavy fire from a Japanese battery posted north of Wiju, two of our guns shelled a pontoon bridge and compelled the Japanese to dismantle it.

"The Japanese troops at Litzaven and Khussan retreated partly to the Yalu and partly northward.

"Up to the present ten carbines and many cartridges and maps have been found on the Japanese positions.

"At 10 o'clock in the morning a Japanese force of 1,500 infantry with twelve guns began to cross the river at Ambikhe and Schogapoudzy. Near Ambikhe there was a small Russian detachment under Lieutenant Colonel Goussey, which was compelled to retire under the sustained fire of two Japanese batteries of six guns each. Four men were wounded, and Lieutenant Colonel Goussey was bruised on the head and left arm. Our mountain guns were unable to return the enemy's fire on account of the excessive range, and re-enforcements were sent to the detachment with orders to drive the Japanese beyond the Yalu.

"General Mistchenko reports that Japanese warships at the mouth of the Yalu opened fire on the Russian troops on the right bank, the cannonade lasting for twenty minutes. No damage was done."

A report from Mukden says:

"On April 30 from 10 o'clock in the morning until 5 in the afternoon the Japanese shelled our position at Turenchen from their batteries on the left bank, where they had posted twenty-four field guns and twelve 120 millimeter siege guns, which were cleverly mounted in masked earthworks. They fired a minimum of 2,000 projectiles. Our troops stuck stubbornly to the pontoon at Turenchen.

"On the morning of April 30 the Japanese crossed the Yalu at Sindiagu, attacking our troops posted on the heights near the village of Khussan and turning our left flank. Owing to the great superiority of the Japanese forces we retreated to a position near the village of Potietinsky.

"Our losses at the Turenchen pontoon were Lieutenant Pakhaloff killed and Lieutenant Colonel Mahler, commanding a battery of the Sixth artillery brigade, seriously wounded in the head; Colonel Mester, Captain Vorobieff, Captain Sapojnikoff, Lieutenant Philadelphoff and Captain Atroschenko wounded. Lieutenant Rutropoff of the Twenty-second regiment was seriously wounded in the head on the pontoon near Khussan.

"Our losses in men have not yet been definitely ascertained, but up to the present it is only known that three were killed and nineteen wounded."

A late Tokyo report says that the Japanese army under General Kuroki has forced the Yalu river and with a gallant infantry charge covering a frontage of four miles drove the Russians from Chiutiencheng and the heights on the right bank of the Iho or Aida river, which enters the Yalu from the north almost opposite Wiju. The Japanese turned the left flank of the Russian position and in the battle swept away the new front interposed by the Russians to check their onward movement.

The present position of the Japanese is a dominating one, and they may force the abandonment of the defenses erected by the Russians at Antung and other points lower down the river.

A late report from St. Petersburg says the general staff account of the operations on the Yalu river yesterday is as follows:

"At 4 o'clock in the morning Japanese field batteries with forty-seven guns opened a terrific fire on our position at Turenchen and on our troops posted near Poeitntinsky.

"The overwhelming superiority of the Japanese in artillery and the heavy losses their fire inflicted on our troops occupying these positions made it clear to General Sassulitch that it was impossible to hold Turenchen. Consequently the troops were ordered to retire from Turenchen while still holding the Potientinsky road."

A Tokyo report says the Japanese have captured Chiutiencheng, ten miles north of Antung, which is regarded as the key to the Russian position on the right bank of the Yalu river. It is reported that the Russians will retreat to Fenghuancheng, which is on the road to Liaoyang.

The Japanese naval movements against Vladivostok have failed of success because of the dense fogs which prevailed in the vicinity of that port.

A Tokyo dispatch, dated this morning at 7 o'clock, says a supplemental report from General Kuroki states:

"The enemy's strength included all of the Third division, two regiments of the Sixth division, one cavalry brigade, about forty quick firing guns and eight machine guns. We have taken twenty-eight quick firing guns, many rifles, much ammunition, more than twenty officers and many noncommissioned officers and men as prisoners. I am informed that Major Kashtalinsky, commander of the Third East Siberian rifle brigade, and Lieutenant General Zassalitch, commander of the Second Siberian army corps, were wounded. Our casualties number about seventy, and the Russian loss is more than 800 men."

Tokyo reports say the Japanese losses on the Yalu yesterday were about 700 killed and wounded.

The Russians lost over 800 men. The Japanese captured twenty-eight quick firing guns, twenty officers and many men. The Russians made two stands, but were forced from both.

A St. Petersburg dispatch dated this morning at 2:30 o'clock says: "Information received here shows that Rear Admiral Yeszen, commanding the Vladivostok squadron, had a narrow escape while on his raiding expedition. Through the wireless messages of the enemy which he intercepted the admiral found that he was surrounded by Japanese warships, but owing to a dense fog he was able to slip into Vladivostok harbor unobserved."

Rochester Bakers on Strike.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., May 2.—Members of Bakers' union No. 14 have struck over a disagreement with their employers as to the hours of work. About 100 men went out. The men wanted all day work, asking to be permitted to do their work between the hours of 5 a. m. and 9 p. m. Nineteen of the smaller bakeries conceded their demands, but the Master Bakers' association, composed of thirty-five of the large bakeries, refused to do so, claiming that their customers demand warm bread in the morning and that under the hours proposed it would be impossible to meet this demand.

General Strike For "Open Shops."

OIL CITY, Pa., May 2.—The effect of a resolution of the Builders and Contractors' Association of Northwestern Pennsylvania and Western New York to have "open shops," beginning May 1, will be that the men employed in the building trades in the section covered by the association will strike today. The carpenters, masons and bricklayers in the following towns are affected: Fredonia, Jamestown and Olean, N. Y.; Erie, Warren, Titusville, Franklin, Dubois, Ridgeway, Corry and Oil City, Pa. In this city the strike order affects 900 men.

Chinese Go to British Markets.

SHANGHAI, May 2.—Two Chinese officials, the Taotais Chang and Key, who purposed to visit the United States to buy machinery for the government arsenal at Szechwan, have changed their minds owing to the restrictions enforced at San Francisco upon incoming Chinese and will now go to England to make their purchases.

Italian Order For Lipton.

NAPLES, May 2.—Sir Thomas Lipton, who is visiting Naples on his steam yacht Erin, was entertained at dinner at the palace on Saturday night by King Victor Emmanuel and Queen Helena. Subsequently his majesty created Sir Thomas a knight commander of the Order of the Crown of Italy.

THE SICK CHILD.

How to Beguile the Tedium of the Hours of Convalescence.

How to amuse the sick child is a problem to the wornout mother. The most difficult period of a child's illness is without doubt the convalescence.

Above all, a little invalid's table is a necessity. This has short legs which can be folded or spread out so that they rest on either side of the patient. On this the child's meals can be served, and it also forms an excellent resting place for toys, paper dolls, etc.

When the child is very ill its eyes will travel, like a grown person's, all over the wall paper and the pattern of the carpet until even the arrangement of the furniture haunts the tired brain. The wise mother will change things about a little now and then and place bits of color where they will be pleasing to the eye. I know of one mother who hung a brightly flowered piece of cretonne across the foot of the bed, a different color every day, and on it as the patient grew better she pinned paper dolls, butterflies and pretty pictures, which would cheer and amuse the weary baby eyes. Anything growing has a great attraction for a sick child because it can watch the changes day by day. A fern ball hung close to the bedside, two or three grains of barley stuck around a well washed turnip, a handful of cress seed sprinkled on a wet bit of flannel in a saucer—even these will amuse a child.

A talent for cutting out paper dolls is a great advantage to a mother. Chains of dancers, sheep, dogs, horses, etc., delight the little ones. Punch and Judy shows improvised from a couple of pocket handkerchiefs knotted are also extremely fascinating, but the stories enacted should not be of an exciting nature, and ogres and hobgoblins should be carefully eliminated for fear of their return during the night hours.

When the child is better the little table will be found very useful to hold gayly colored picture books, games, dominos and cards. Paper dolls, too, will keep the little girls busy by the hour, and tin soldiers will do the same for the little boys.

Above all, the mother should always appear cheerful in order to drive all fear and nervousness from the child's mind. The mood of the mother reflects itself in the child and either retards or accelerates recovery.

SQUARE ENTRANCE HALL.

How to Furnish One So It Will Look Like a Room.

The hall in the illustration is in an English country house and it shows the prevailing style of furnishing the entrance hall like a living room.

The ceiling and walls are painted in Pompeiian red and the woodwork is of fumed oak. The stairway is carpeted in red and it winds to meet a balcony with three arches. The stained glass window of pale yellow allows the sun to light up the farther end of the hall.

The fireplace is of shaded red and green tiling and the settles on either side are of fumed oak. The floors are hard wood polished and the carpet is of red, blue and green. The massive furniture matches the woodwork, while the antique effect is heightened by pieces of armor and tapestry on the walls.

Keeping Boarders

Why Some Women Succeed and Others Fail

"POOR woman! She sank all her money in that house and failed."

"I wonder why it is that some women have to turn away boarders and have a waiting list while others have most of their rooms empty?"

The woman who had been in the business a long time smiled understandingly. "It isn't hard to get boarders," she began. "It's the keeping them which is difficult. Some women appear to think that the only thing necessary is to furnish a house—plus meals—and then to advertise. 'Charge them the most possible, feed them the least possible and let them look out for themselves,' is a policy which has closed up more than one boarding house. Now, in the old days, before apartment houses sprang up like mushrooms in every direction, people who couldn't afford a housekeeping flat had perforce to put up with the boarding house and thank their stars if they got decent treatment. But that is all over now. They don't go to a boarding house now because they have to, but because they will be more comfortable there for the money they wish to spend, and if the landlady doesn't make them so, why, they won't stay, that is all."

"Tell us about some of your acquaintances who have made a success of it."

"Well, there is Mrs. Jones. She was left a widow with a large house and not much else. Mrs. Jones now owns two houses and is thinking of taking a third. She lets rooms to bachelors, and men come there who want the seclusion of a private house without the expense. If I were to take you to Mrs. Jones' house you would understand why she has succeeded. The location, for instance, is extremely good.

"When you ring the highly polished brass knocker you are admitted by a respectable looking manservant in a dark blue uniform. There is a reception room, very plainly furnished with empire furniture, but this is seldom used, as the men receive their guests in their own quarters. The house is divided into two and one room suits, each having a tub and running water. A little money and a deal of careful planning brought this about before the first tenant knocked for admission. 'You can't expect gentlemen to live in a house without accommodations, and I do not choose to cater to the other class. They do not pay well enough, and they would lower the tone of my house,' this wise woman remarked in explaining her plan of action. Mrs. Jones began by having the very nicest class of men, and when these found that the house was quiet and well run and that the inmates were all of equal social standing they began to recommend it to their friends. The result is that now she has a long waiting list. She herself hardly ever sees her tenants, and the checks are sent to her monthly or weekly. Complaints are handed to the butler in writing, and she attends to them in her private office. The only women servants in the house are the chambermaids, and they are spotless in black gowns and white caps, collars, cuffs and aprons.

"Another woman I know has made a success of her house by serving breakfast on a tray to each room between 7:30 and 9 o'clock. She does this without extra charge. It does away with the lagging breakfast table and is besides most agreeable to her guests. Another woman makes a specialty of bachelor girls. Her house is prettily furnished, studio fashion, and, as she insists on a good introduction before admission, there are no stupid and insulting restrictions afterward.

"In every case the owner of the house would rather leave her rooms untenanted than fill them even temporarily with the sort of people who would be distasteful to her regular guests.

"As a result, she usually does not have any rooms vacant. You can't get people even in a boarding house and if you want good paying, congenial inmates for your place you must give them what they are used to. I believe that is the secret of success in the business."

A RECORD MEET.

League of American Wheelmen Gather at Boston.

BOSTON, May 2.—Under the auspices of the Massachusetts division of the League of American Wheelmen more than 5,000 cyclists, mounted on every known make of bicycle, gathered at the Chestnut hill reservoir, partook of a luncheon and made a run through the park system.

Lieutenant General Nelson A. Miles, U. S. A. retired, was present at the luncheon as a guest and made a brief address.

S. A. Sargent of Brookline rode an old fashioned "bone shaker," which was built in Paris and is said to be the first bicycle brought to the United States.

E. H. Corson of Rochester, N. H., rode the old style Star machine, on which he coasted down Mount Washington twenty-three years ago.

More than half the cities and towns in Massachusetts were represented at the meet, and some of the riders came from New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington.

Pittsburg Champions Won.

CHICAGO, May 2.—The locals outbatted and outfielded the Pittsburg champions, but lost, 3 to 1. A hit into the crowd, which under ground rules counted for three bases, gave the visitors their first run. A similar hit, following a pass and a sacrifice with a long fly, scored the other two. Two errors and a double steal, with a single, saved the home team from a shutout.

Utica Could Not Connect.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., May 2.—Syracuse defeated Utica in an exciting game of baseball here by a score of 2 to 1. Utica could not connect with the home pitchers when hits meant runs.

TRAIN FOR FAIR WRECKED.

Eight Killed and Many Injured by a Derailment In Missouri.

KIMMSWICK, Mo., May 2.—A misunderstanding of orders by the engineer of a train on the St. Louis, Iron Mountain and Southern railroad resulted in a serious wreck at Wickes Siding, about a mile and a half north of here, in which eight were killed and seventeen injured.

The train was running as a world's fair special. The engine struck an open switch, and, with the exception of the last sleeper, all the coaches were derailed. The wreck occurred while the train was going at an excessive rate of speed.

The main road of the line was blocked by a stalled freight train at Wickes Siding. Orders were issued for all northbound and southbound trains to use the switch at that point instead of the main line. Five trains passed the siding in the interval between the breakdown of the freight car and the arrival of the world's fair special.

A "Flower of Benevolence" Society.

PITTSBURG, May 2.—At the hearing of the eighteen Assyrians charged by Attorney Nassib A. Shibley of New York with intimidating fellow countrymen through a secret society known as the "Flower of Benevolence" Shadal Obvihilal testified that he had joined the society owing to threats that had been made against him by members of the organization and had paid money into it which he understood was used to pay fines and attorney's fees of members who had assaulted people. Obvikhilal said he had received orders to assault several members of the Assyrian colony under promise that he would be got out of the trouble by the society. He said that he knew of Paul Peters, Elizabeth Bocollal and Seline Antro being beaten and threatened for refusing to pay money to the society.

More Trouble For the Sultan.

ATHENS, May 2. — Advices have been received here to the effect that the porte has communicated to the Greek minister at Constantinople, M. Gryparis, the report of the vali of Smyrna concerning the affair between Turkish gendarmes and Greeks in Smyrna, in which M. Delyannis, secretary of the Greek consulate, was slightly wounded, throwing the entire responsibility for the incident on the Greek consular agents. Premier Theotokis has had a conference with King George on the subject. It is feared that the attitude of the porte will result in seriously straining the relations between Greece and Turkey.

To See "Two Little Sailor Boys."

NEW YORK, May 2.—Among the passengers who arrived on the steamer Germanic from Southampton are Captain Angas E. Collins, Count and Countess Coloridi, Mrs. Kate Wiggins and Mr. Walter Howard, who has come over to see his play, "Two Little Sailor Boys," produced at the Academy of Music in this city. The Germanic also has on board eighteen or twenty South African natives belonging to the Zulu, Matabeles and other tribes. They are to go to the St. Louis exposition as exhibits.

Twenty Injured at St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, May 2.—The hurricane roof of the ferry steamer Alonzo C. Church collapsed last evening while the steamer was crowded with sightseers viewing the United States gunboat Nashville, at anchor in the river harbor here, and about twenty people were injured, a number of them seriously.

Robber Got $2,000 and Tickets.

WESTFIELD, N. J., May 2.—The ticket office of the local station of the Central Railroad of New Jersey was robbed here during a brief absence of the agent. About $2,000 in cash and a number of railroad tickets were taken.

CONVENTION AT BOSTON.

Daughters of the Revolution Assemble In Historic Church.

BOSTON, May 2.—The thirtieth annual convention of the general society Daughters of the Revolution opened here with a service of prayer and thanksgiving in Christ's church, the Old North church in Salem street, in whose belfry the lights signaling to Paul Revere the march of the British troops was hung 129 years ago. The convention will be in session one week.

At the opening exercises the historic old edifice was crowded to the doors, and present in the congregation were delegates from the various chapters of each of the thirteen original states of the Union. The service was conducted according to the form prescribed by the general society. Rev. Charles W. Duane, rector of the church, officiated, and he was assisted by Rev. William H. Van Allen, rector of the Church of the Advent, this city, and Rev. Dr. Leonard K. Storrs, rector of St. Paul's church, Brookline.

Rev. Mr. Van Allen preached the sermon. His theme was the duty owed by the present generation of Americans to their forefathers. In his address he said that more men of the type of Carroll, Jefferson and Washington were needed today. He believed that there were few men in America at the present time who would do the good "that has been done by Grover Cleveland and Theodore Roosevelt, whose names should forever be placed upon the roll of honor."

Continuing, he said:

"It is too bad that the national house at the present time is overshadowed by corporations, Signs of anarchy, tyranny and conspiracy are breeding and may at any moment cause trouble."

He concluded with an appeal for the cultivation of those patriotic sentiments that characterized the lives of the founders of the nation.

At the conclusion of the service the visiting delegates viewed the collection of historic relics on exhibition at the church, and many of them climbed the stairs to the belfry chamber where the signal lights were displayed on the night of April 18, 1775.

HARP OF TARA IN REQUEST.

Irishmen Trying to Bring the Historic Relic to St. Louis.

WASHINGTON, May 2. — Senator Kean of New Jersey and several representative Irish Americans have been in correspondence with the president and the secretary of state in regard to a proposition to exhibit in St. Louis the "ancient harp of Tara's halls."

Mr. Boyd, secretary of the Jersey City branch of the United Irish League of America, asked Senator Kean in the name of that organization to aid "us in the achievement of the laudable enterprise. The ancient harp is dear to the Irish race the world over and as fresh in their memory as when it sounded the last note in old Tara's halls." Mr. Boyd said the Jersey City branch had adopted a resolution requesting President Roosevelt to use his good offices with the custodians or other proper authorities of Ireland's ancient harp used in the days of King Brian Boru, now in the museum of Trinity college, Dublin, Ireland, for permission to have the harp exhibited at the St. Louis fair.

Negro Riddled With Bullets.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., May 2.—A special from Prattville, Ala., says: "News reached this city that Gaines Hall, the negro who, it is alleged, assaulted Mrs. Josiah Owens, has been caught at Kingston by a posse, who took him to the scene of the crime and tied him to a tree. The body was then riddled with bullets. Several persons have visited the place and report the lifeless body still there. It is said the negroes refuse to take the body down and bury it. It is reported that Mrs. Owens is in a very critical condition. The town is quiet, but excitement runs high"

Consecration of Bishop Stang.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., May 2.—With all the impressive ceremonial and pomp of the Roman Catholic church ritual and with a full representation of the clergy of southern New England in attendance Rev. William Stang was consecrated bishop of the Fall River diocese at the Cathedral of Sts. Peter and Paul in this city. Right Rev. Matthew Harkins of the Providence diocese acted as consecrating prelate, assisted by Right Rev. John Brady, auxiliary bishop of Boston, and Right Rev. Michael Tierney, bishop of Hartford, Conn.

France and Italy Friends.

PARIS, May 2.—Owing to the early hour of President Loubet's return it was attended with little demonstration. Foreign Minister Delcasse, interviewed on his arrival, expressed the greatest satisfaction with President Loubet's reception in Italy, saying that popular feeling sanctioned the action of the two governments, which really was the realization of a true community of interest. The agreements concerning the Mediterranean were now completed, and what formerly divided the two countries had become a bond of union.

BOSTON'S BREAD SHY

Bakers Quit Work--Supply Is Cut Off.

300,000 LOAVES A DAY REQUIRED

Strikers Want More Pay, Union Shops and a Union Label on Every Loaf—Many Other Districts Affected.

BOSTON, May 2.—A strike of more than 1,400 bakers in this city, Cambridge and Chelsea went into effect at 6 o'clock last night. Every bakery in the three cities is affected, with the exception of the Hebrew bakeries. The men quit work at 6 o'clock, and the night shifts failed to appear.

The daily output of bread in Boston is from 300,000 to 350,000 loaves, and this supply will be practically cut off. In all of the bakeries the employers were making feeble attempts to keep their shops in operation, but all admitted that the outlook for a production of any size was poor.

The large hotels and restaurants will not be affected, as the employees of these places that bake their own bread and pastry are members of the Cooks and Waiters' union and will not be called out. The smaller hotels and restaurants that depended on the bakeries for their supply of bread, cake and pastry will be seriously inconvenienced.

The proprietors of the bakeries, banded together in the Master Bakers' association, have refused absolutely to grant the demands of the men and have declared that in the future they will operate "open shops."

The employees demands were embodied in a new working agreement which provides for an increase of wages, union shops and the use of the union label on every loaf of bread made.

The master bakers were willing at first to renew the working agreement in force during the past year, but now declare that they will not sign any agreement nor recognize the union in any way.

The strike of the bakers is not confined to Boston, Chelsea and Cambridge. Strikes have been ordered in the districts centering in Lynn, Salem and Brockton. At Fall River and Waltham the unions have deferred action for one week in the hope that the master bakers will concede their demands.

Chilean Electrician Drowned.

SCHENECTADY, N. Y., May 2.—As the result of a boating accident in the Mohawk river A. Robles, the son of a leading official in the Chilean government, was drowned, and his companion escaped a similar fate. Robles, who had been in the testing department of the General Electric works in this city for several months, having been sent here by Chile to secure a technical education to enable him to take up special work in connection with the department of public works of his government, went out in a boat in company with E. D. Lattis of this city and was upset. Ernest Lavitt, a foreman in the works, who was camping in the vicinity, witnessed the accident and attempted to rescue the men. He caught Lattis as he was going down for the last time, but Robles was lost.

Farmer Killed Four of Family.

FORT WORTH, Tex., May 2.—A special from Paris, Tex., says that William Sheffield, his wife and two daughters have been murdered near Walliant, I. T., by John Wallenburg, a young farmer, who, it is reported, afterward committed suicide by taking poison upon reaching the flooded Red river with a posse in close pursuit, finding that he could not cross the stream. Wallenburg was a son-in-law of Sheffield. His wife had deserted him and returned to her father's house. This, it is thought, led to the tragedy. Wallenburg first shot his wife and then killed the other members of the family, one of the victims being a girl about five years old.

Colored Methodists at Chicago.

CHICAGO, May 2.—Beginning this morning and lasting until May 21 there has been opened in Chicago the twenty-second international quadrennial conference of the African Methodist Episcopal church, the largest colored religious organization in the world. Five hundred delegates and more than 2,000 colored religious workers from all parts of the world attended the meeting. At the opening of the conference Bishop H. D. Shalter of Charleston, S. C., delivered the quadrennial sermon.

SPORTING NEWS.

DIAMOND DUST.

The baseball game between Leal's School and Morristown Academy was cancelled on Saturday on account of the rain at Newark.

The Jersey City Journal in speaking of a baseball game played yesterday between the Pearsalls A. C. and the Pacific A. C., of Jersey City, said on Firday that the Pacific A. C. team would be strengthened by the assistance of four of the Elizabeth Y. M. C. A. players. Members of the Y. M. C. A. do not usually play Sunday ball and this must be new departure.

HANDBALL.

In the handball championship tournament at the Y. M. C. A., Harry Thompson forfeited a game to C. B. Koons on Saturday evening.

BURGLARS CARRIED OFF SAFE

FANWOOD RAILROAD STATION ENTERED, BUT LITTLE STOLEN.

Thieves broke into the Fanwood railroad station last night and stole all the money that could be reached. They carried off the small safe bodily. Most of the day's receipts were in the pockets of Agent Hunt, at his home.

Entrance was gained through a back window. The safe, despite its several hundred pounds' weight, was bundled off like a money box. There was only something like fifteen or twenty dollars in it, and that is all the burglars secured. Agent Hunt had several hundred dollars of the company's money in his clothes.

Laurels Won.

The Dunellen Juniors went to Bound Brook on Saturday, where they crossed bats with the Laurels, of that place. A very interesting game was the result, the Laurels winning by a score of 2 to 1. "Mollie" Bogardus pitched an excellent game for the Dunellen boys. The following is the score by innings:

| | | | | | | | | | | |

Played Crap on Sunday.

A dozen or more boys, ranging in age from twelve to sixteen, were caught playing crap opposite Tier's on the borough side of the lake yesterday afternoon. Marshals Sherman, Meyers, Blake and Dooley raided the game and captured four of the young gamblers. They will be arraigned tonight before Recorder Doud.

STRANGE CUSTOMS OF OTOES.

Eat Seeds of Pond Lilies; Their Favorite Meat Is Polecat—An Exciting Rabbit Hunt.

Matt Duhr, an Oklahoma Indian authority, visited the Otoe tribe near Red Fork recently, and these, says the Kansas City Journal, are some of his comments:

"The Otoe dancing hall is a fit place for heathen to worship in. It is a horribly decorated round house. The orchestra consisted of one thing, by them called a drum. Pounding with a sledge hammer on the bottom of an empty pork barrel would make just as doleful noises.

"The pagan religious services were suddenly and roughly disturbed by a redskin espying a jack rabbit in the distance. Most of the Indians forgot their worship and chased the long-eared scamp. They pursued it for about four hours, when the cunning animal took refuge in the thickets on the margins of Red Rock creek.

"Lots of the Otoe squaws are now gathering the seeds of pond lilies and dig the nicely tasting roots of the famous plants. Large quantities of the tender pond lily pods are gathered when green and are boiled and greatly relished. Polecat venison appears to be one of the favorite meats eaten by the Otoes. They never eat possum or eels and give pretty good heathen reasons for their repugnance to or veneration of these creatures.

"Faw-Faw, chief of the Otoes, dresses in costly civilized apparel, a huge turkey feather adorns his enormous slouched hat, and each of his cheeks has a large blue star tattooed therein."

TRAINING A BRONCHO.

Real Education Begins After He Has Been "Broken"—"Busters" Are the Heroes of the Plains.

After being "broken" the bronco's real education begins, writes Minnie J. Reynolds, in the Four-Track News. He must learn to wheel or to stop instantly, while rushing at full speed, by the gentle pressure of a finger on his rein. He must learn to brace himself and stand stiff when a cow is roped that she may not pull him. He must learn to skillfully avoid an enraged "cow brute" rushing full at him, intent upon impaling him upon her horns. Many a man who can break a horse has not the sense to educate him afterwards; and some broncos, left too long upon the range, until their wicked ways are fixed by age, can never be broken. "Bronco busting" is a fascinating occupation, and the best man at the trade in a cow country is something such a hero as the king of the ring in bull-fighting countries. But it is killing work, and if no crazy "bronk," fresh from the hills, puts the horse-breaker out of business, rheumatism, settling in racked joints and muscles, does the job before many years.

MEALS TAKEN IN DRINKS.

People Who Patronize the Soda Fountains Want Either Something Substantial or Something Novel.

Everyone interested in the matter of sane living must wonder at the things the average person drinks. It's a question whether people seek to save time by drinking foods or are merely gratifying their taste. Half an hour passed at an [illegible] soda fountain, says the Record, will show the [illegible] to be indulging in egg [illegible]rs in which fruits, ice [illegible]od is placed.

[illegible] chocolate is a small [illegible]der people live at all, [illegible]nsanity displayed in [illegible]ing. As for the crav- [illegible] he average person will [illegible] thing he has never [illegible]eard of before. [illegible]ng mixers of drinks count that day lost whose low [illegible]ding sun sees no new drink [illegible]. They add the name to their list, and every other person jumps at the chance to taste this new mystery. [illegible] part of it is that so many through it.

—The Plainfield Board [illegible] will hold a regular monthly meeting tomorrow.

TRAFFIC TIED UP.

A Flat Car Jumped the Tracks at Fanwood This Morning, Blocking Both Tracks.

A flat car loaded with lumber jumped the tracks of the New Jersey Central at Fanwood this morning and delayed traffic for a couple of hours. The car was attached to an eastbound train and in leaving the tracks landed crossways, holding up all the east bound trains. The actual damage was slight. As soon as one of the wreck crews arrived with the steam crane, the work of opening up traffic was completed in a short time.

POLICE ON TRAIL OF WESTFIELD BURGLARS

In Hot Pursuit of Two Suspects, Whom It is Hoped to Apprehend Shortly.

EVIDENCE SECURED

THE FANWOOD ROBBERY ONLY A RUSE.

Guilty Ones Aimed to Throw Detectives Off the Scent—Men Under Suspicion Have Skipped Out.

Two suspects have been marked by the Westfield and the Central Railroad police for participation in the Westfield station robbery. The crime has been traced so far that the officers are certain the two men are the guilty ones, and every effort is being made to apprehend them.

The suspects are Westfield hackmen, Tim McCarthy and Tom McGibney. A chisel was left behind by the thieves, and the police say they discovered that one of the two suspects took it from the house of the carpenter owning it. The hackmen saw the police officers going to the carpenter's yesterday, and a short time afterwards both of them disappeared. They have not been seen since, and the police of New York and other places have been asked to watch the depots and the Fall River line boats for them. One of the men formerly lived in Boston and it is suspected that they may go there.

Carigg, station agent, went out to his midnight lunch with one of the hackmen. For several nights before the robbery the two men made a practice of coming to the station and inviting him to lunch. Saturday when the one man asked the agent out, the latter readily accepted the invitation. That, according to the police, is just what the men had been working up to, and while the one man kept the agent at the restaurant, his confederate cleaned out the money in the station. Carigg was at first suspected of collusion, but after the police had examined him they became convinced that he had been the victim of a plot, and so reported to the railroad. The officials had been on the point of discharging the man, but the police so strongly declared everything to be in favor of his innocence that the company absolved the agent from blame.

It is the firm belief of the officers that the Fanwood station robbery, the night after the Westfield affair, was worked by the two men to throw the officers from the trail. All day yesterday the cops searched Fanwood for trace of the safe that was stolen, without avail. If hoboes or ordinary thieves had done the job, they claim, the safe would have been blown open and rifled near the depot, and not carted around. The inference is that the hackmen bundled the safe in the carriage belonging to one of them, and carried it away to hide. They hoped by that, it is said, to create the idea that a gang of professionals is making a systematic raid all along the Central.

All the evidence, the police says, points to the guilt of the missing men, and the officers say they are sure of securing conviction if they are caught.

CONGREGATION SEEKS TO REDUCE ITS DEBT

Swedish Evangelical Pilgrim Church People to Hold a Concert on May 19.

WANT TO RAISE $500

WILLIAM HOLMES TO HAVE CHARGE OF ENTERTAINMENT.

Present Debt Amounts to $1,400—Rev. L. T. Lindholm Doing a Good Work—Congregation Small.

The members of the Swedish Evangelical Pilgrim church are trying hard to raise $500 in order to reduce the debt on their church edifice. When the present pastor, L. T. Lindholm, took charge of the work about a year ago, there was a debt of more than $1,600. This has been reduced during the year to $1,400.

The members, which at present are thirty-three in number, besides making sacrifices to meet the current expenses, are doing what they can to raise this sum among themselves, but as they are few and poor, their gifts are not numerous. The Congregational Union, of New Jersey, has promised $100 if the church is successful in raising the $400. The pastor has been trying to collect the sum by asking friends of the church to subscribe something, but he has not been fully successful.

William Holmes has interested himself in the cause and under his direction a first class concert will be held in the Congregational church on West Seventh street, Thursday, May 19. The church is doing a good work among the Scandinavian population of the city. The congregations Sunday evenings, which averages about 100, consists principally of young girls who work in the American families of the city. To many of them it is their only place where they can meet for a social hour and the pastor is very anxious to see it become more and more like home.

If it was not for the work of the church many would drift away from good influence.

OFFICERS ARE RE-ELECTED

The annual reports of the secretary and treasurer and the chairmen of the various committees were read, showing the condition of the society to be most encouraging, financially and spiritually. These reports will be presented Sunday night at the twenty-ninth anniversary meeting of the society to be held in the church. Rev. ## SCHOOL BOND BIDS TO BE OPENED JUNE 6

Common Council Arranges to Raise $60,000 to Begin Work on $125,000 High School.

ROUTINE TRANSACTIONS

WOODEN BLOCK PAVEMENT FOR WATCHUNG AVENUE.

Town Improvement Association to Care for City Park—Appropriation for Memorial Day—The Monthly Reports.

One of the most important things done at the May meeting of the Common Council, last night, was the adoption of a resolution offered by Mr. Daniel, providing for the issuance of $60,000 worth of school bonds with which to erect Plainfield's new High School. Sealed proposals will be advertised for to be opened on Monday night, June 6. The bonds and method of proceedure in issuing them are the same as in the first instance when the McKee State school law was declared unconstitutional. It is arranged that the bonds shall be in denomination of $1,000 each and shall bear date of June 1, 1904.

By way of explanation Mr. Daniel stated that City Treasurer Arnold had suggested that bonds of smaller amount be issued, but it was believed that in issuing the entire $60,000 the city would save money. The work of preparing these bonds will be started at once.

Another matter of importance was the introduction of an ordinance by Mr. Gloak, providing for the extension of the sanitary sewers through Leland, Arlington, Hillside and Evergreen avenues, Union street and Denmark road. A public hearing was granted on this matter, and as there being no objection, the ordinance was adopted on its first and second readings and ordered advertised.

Still another matter of considerable importance was that in reference to the permanent improvement of Watchung avenue, between North avenue and Second street. Mr. Gloak introduced an ordinance providing for this improvement and it was adopted on first and second readings. The ordinance provides that the avenue shall be paved its entire width, thirty-six feet, between the streets named with wooden block treated by the creoresinate process and to a depth of ten inches. The expense of this work is to be borne by the city and the Public Service Corporation, each paying half, $1,291. This improvement has the approval of the trolley company and no doubt it will be made within the near future. As to the pavement the city has received a favorable opinion from B. T. Fendall, city engineer of Baltimore, who declares that it gave entire satisfaction in that city.

The Town Improvement Association of Plainfield and North Plainfield through its president, Mrs. Pierre Malli, agreed to take care of the city park from the present date to November 1, next, for the sum of $100, that is the association will give the park such care and attention as the fund will permit. This proposition is in accordance with the custom of other years and in accordance with Mr. Daniel s resolution was accepted.

Mrs. John O. Lawrence, owning property at 1214 and 1216 North avenue, asked the Council to continue the $500 exemption from taxes which her late husband, a veteran of the Civil War, was allowed. The petition was made through her counsel, J. B. Coward, the exemption having been disallowed. The matter was referred to the corporation counsel.

Then followed the consideration of many matters of minor importance. The $1,000 bond of John E. Keely for the faithful performance of a contract to sprinkle the streets of the city, was received and filed. Residents on North avenue, between Terrill road and Frederick street, petitioned for lights, as did also Paul Taylor Brown for lights on Woodland avenue. The Babcock Estate petitioned for a four-way hydrant on Madison avenue, near the Babcock building, for the better protection of the large buildings. These petitions were all referred to the proper committees.

The Council received an invitation to attend the graduation of hospital nurses to be held in the Crescent Avenue Presbeyterian church, on May 26, and Mr Daniel offered a motion extending thanks for the invitation and that the same be accepted.

CITY MUST RAISE $68,341 FOR SCHOOLS

This Amount Does Not Include Appropriation Made by the State.

CAUSE OF INCREASE

REPAIRS NEEDED AT LINCOLN AND IRVING BUILDINGS.

Bids for Coal Supply Are Received—The High School's Annual Musical to be Held on May 26.

More money than last year will be required to run the city schools during the fiscal twelve month approaching. According to the estimate submitted to the Board of Education by the Finance Committee last night the city will have to raise $68,341 62, aside from the State monies apportioned, for school purposes.

This estimate will be laid before the Board of School Estimate, for submission to the Common Council. The advance is explained by the comparatively heavy expense to be borne in repairs to the Lincoln and Irving Schools, and by the increase in salaries in accordance with the established rate. The fiscal year closes on July 1.

Bids for the coal supply were received. Seven different dealers submitted figures, which ranged from $5.70 to $6 for larger sizes and from $4.39 to $4 85 for pea coal. The bids were turned over to the Fuel Committee.

Propositions for the re-roofing of the Lincoln School and the repair of the mason work on the Irving School. These bids were also turned over to committee for consideration.

Superintendent Maxson reported that the High School pupils have arranged for their annual musical. It will be held on May 26. The place has not yet been fixed upon definitely, but it will probably be the Seventh-Day Baptist church, as usual.

Checks for ten dollars were turned over to the Board by Superintendent Maxson from the pupils of the Franklin and Bryant Schools, representing contributions to the library fund.

TROLLEY TO CRESCENT OVAL

P. S. C. CONDITIONALLY PROMISES TO LAY TRACKS.

The Public Service Corporation, in response to a request from members of the Alis Club and others interested in the baseball season on Crescent Oval, has agreed to run a temporary spur from the tracks at the corner of Randolph road and Park avenue to the oval, provided the Board of Governors of Muhlenberg Hospital and the Common Council will give consent to have the tracks laid along Randolph road.

B. A. Mumford, of the baseball committee from the club, appeared before the Board of Governors at the meeting last night, and later interviewed members of the Council. It is believed that the consents will be secured. The company is ready to start the work and complete it before Saturday, as soon as the authority is obtained.

Charles J. Fisk, president of the Board of Governors of Muhlenberg Hospital, has agreed to meet representatives of the trolley company and Alis Club at Crescent Oval, tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock for a conference regarding a temporary extension of the tracks to the oval.

Chancellor Magie declined to interfere with the meeting, and it will be held today as advertised.

Captain Treat and his wife, who have spent the wintre South, have returned to their home at Truell Court.

COMMON COUNCIL PURCHASES CREMATORY

By Vote of Seven to Two City Fathers Decide to Pay $2,100 for the Plant.

HAD MUCH TO CONSIDER

TO HOLD IT UNTIL EMPOWERED BY LAW TO INAUGURATE SYSTEM.

Councilmen Lee and Murphy Vote Against Proposition—Lee Voices Sentiment of His Constituants—Murphy's Reason.

Although it is impossible at present for the Common Council to adopt a municipal system of garbage collection, steps toward that improvement were taken at the May meeting, held last night. It was decided by a vote of seven to two to purchase the crematory plant on DeKalb avenue, formerly owned by the old Plainfield Sanitary Company, and now the property of James F. Buckle. Mr. Gloak offered a resolution to that effect, the purchase price being $2,100, and Councilmen Tolles, Bullock, Daniel, Gloak, Higham, Randolph and Tyler supported the resolution, while Councilmen Lee and Murphy voted in the negative.

It required nearly two hours' time to arrive at this conclusion, the Council being in executive session that long, but when the members returned to the regular session, every one except Mr. Daniel had a few words to say in explaining his vote.

Mr. Murphy stated that he was opposed to the purchase of the plant at present, believing such action to be premature. He said that according to the law the city cannot avail itself of a system of garbage collection or disposal and until this is possible he would vote against purchasing the crematory plant.

Mr. Lee, in explaining his reasons for voting in the negative, said that he did so because the residents in the vicinity of the plant are opposed to it and don't want it operated. However, if the plant is successfully operated, he said he would vote for its continuance.

Mr. Randolph took the stand that if the plant proves objectionable he would vote to put a stop to the nuisance. Mr. Tyler said that while at present there is no way to secure Legislative enactment giving the city the right to take advantage of this plant, it is the hope of the Council that through such action later on such a thing will be possible and the city hopes to have a good method of disposing of its garbage. He considered the action of purchasing the plant Mr. Bullock expressed the opinion that the property is very cheap and for that reason he intended voting for the resolution. Mr. Gloak said he favored the purchase of the property, believing that there is no more suitable place in the city for the disposition of garbage. He had given the matter much consideration and thought it time to act.

Mr. Higham said that while a majority of the people in the vicinity of DeKalb avenue opposed the operation of the crematory he believed that their petition should have as much weight as the one presented some time ago against the placing of a saloon in that vicinity. He believed that the residents in that part of the town were able to judge whether the plant would be a nuisance and they should be listened to. The garbage question he said is an important one and he realized that the property in question could be purchased at a bargain. He then advocated the resolution on the ground that if F. G. Smith, the owner of this system of garbage disposal, guarantees to make the plant work successfully, he could see no reason why he should vote against the proposition.

President Tolles referred to the fact that the property is a cheap one and he felt sure that its operation would not be objectionable to the residents.

The vote was then taken with the result as stated. According to the resolution, the city is to pay $2,100 for the property. There will be an issue of three bonds of $700 denomination each, dated May 2, 1904 and bearing interest at the rate of five per cent. The Council will advertise the bonds for sale and July 5, 1904, has been fixed as the time when sealed proposals will be opened for the same. The interest money is to be raised in the usual manner through the collection of taxes.

Mr. Daniel moved that the street committee be empowerd to arrange for the proper examination of the title to the property before the city acquires it.

NOT TO WITHDRAW FROM THE FEDERATION

Monday Afternoon Club Votes Down Proposition to Leave the State Organization.

OFFICERS ARE CHOSEN

MRS. ROBERT LOWRY IS ELECTED PRESIDENT.

Programme to be Divided Between English History and Miscellaneous Subjects—Committees to be Appointed.

By a vote of two to one, the Monday Afternoon Club, decided to remain in the State Federation of Women's Clubs, at the annual meeting yesterday. Just why the question of withdrawing from the State organization should have been brought up could not be learned.

It appears as if the motion to withdraw was put suddenly, without any particular aim other than to get the sense of the club on the proposition. Not much discussion was held, and a two thirds vote turned the motion down.

These officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. Robert Lowry; vice presidents, Mrs. B. J. Shreve, Mrs. Eugene Hatch, Mrs. H. M. Maxson; recording secretary, Miss Mary Whiton; corresponding secretary, Miss Hubbell; treasurer, Mrs. E. J. Patterson. Mrs. Hatch, Mrs. Maxson and Mrs. Patterson serve in their respective offices for its first time. The others are re elections. Votes of thanks were extended to the retiring officers.

Plans for the coming year were discussed at length. It was decided to divide the programme of lectures and studies between English history from 1750 to 1800 and miscellaneous subjects. The history will take up half of the year, continuing the line followed all through the twelve months just closed.

Committees will be appointed in a short time and announced at the next meting. The programme will also be made public at that session.

Y. M. C. A.'S GYMNASTICS

ANNUAL EXHIBITION ATTRACTS UNUSUALLY LARGE CROWD.

An exceptionally large crowd witnessed the annual spring gymnastic exhibition at the Y. M. C. A. last night. Physical Director C. E. A. Heywood, made a short address, stating incidentally that the classes would disband for the summer months, but the swimming pool and the shower baths would still be at the service of the members.

The evening's exhibitions were apparatus work, by members of Leaders' corps, the acrobatic feats on the low bar; E. W. Pionter, on horse; W. E. Neal. F. N. Marcley's work on the parallel bars was roundly applauded. High bar work by W. C. Cahoone; ring feats, C. Zimmer; maze run, by R. H. Collins and high dive by W. C. McNaughton, were other attarctions.

The exhibition hockey game between Sebring's five and Collins' team was snappy, Sebring's team winning by a score of 2 to 1. The lineup: Sebring, captain—Cahoone, Emmons, Joseph, Shepard; Collins, captain—Jacots, McNaughton, McCollough, Bentcliff.

A basketball game between the Business Men, and the Y. M. C. A. first team concluded the programme. The Business Men put up a good game, being strengthened by Whitley, one of the first team players. Spicer did some fast playing for the Business Men, while the honors for the first team were divided between Neal and Cahoone. The business men were defeated by the score of 17 to 13. The lineup: First team—Scull, rf; Smith, lf; Cahoone, c; Heinecke, rg; Neal, lg. Business Men—Spicer, rf; Hecker, lf; Whitley, c; Letson, rg; Browning, lg. Referee, Charles B. Morse. Halves, 20-minutes.

Motorman Knocked Unconscious.

An exciting incident marked a trip taken by Mrs. Leader, of this city, on a Somerville trolley car last week. Near Somerville the feed wire broke and the motorman stepped off the car to lift it from the road. As his hand touched the wire, he was thrown unconscious to the ground, despite the protection of a rubber glove. He was at first thought to be dead, and great excitement ensued among the passengers. He escaped, however, with severe burns.

COLD WATER WEDDING IN TEMPERANCE HALL

Fellow Members Witness the Marriage of Couple Belonging to Sons of Temperance.

IN HOWELL DIVISION

MISS IDA MAY BAUER AND PIERRE MOORE WED.

Rev. Mr. Leggett Officiates—Healths are Drunk with Coffee and Lemonade—A Merry Time.

Hymen would have none of Bacchus at the wedding of Pierre H. Moore and Miss Ida May Bauer last night. The marriage was a Sons of Temperance affair in every feature, and the wine cup, no matter how surcharaged with joy and celebration, would not have been allowed even a peep in at the festivities.

Bride and groom are prominent workers in the temperance cause, and fellow members of Howell Division, Sons of Temperance. The ceremony was performed in Sons of Temperance Hall, on East Second street, in the presence of a large gathering of temperance workers.

All the members of Howell Division were in attendance, as special guests. Grand Worthy Patriarch Compton, of Metuchen, was there as the representative of the order in the State. Large delegations were present from Americus Division, of Metuchen; Roselle Division, of Roselle, and Lincoln Division, of Elizabeth.

The hall was elaborately decorated with flags and buntings. The festal character of the occasion was further emphasized by a long, cloth covered table, where the wedding supper was served.

At 9 o'clock the bridal party ranged themselves before the patriarch's chair, marching down the hall to the strains of the Mendelssohn wedding march, played on the organ by Miss Lydia Edgar. Rev. Lester Leggett, the retiring pastor of the Third Street chapel, performed the ceremony.

The bride was gowned in cream-colored silk, and carried a trailing bouquet of roses. She was attended by Miss Try Mattox, who was dressed in lavelle. William Penwell was best man.

After the ceremony the temperance workers crowded about the couple to shower them with congratulations. When the handshaking and kissing had ceased a wedding supper, tendered by the Division, was served. The guests were confined to Sons of Temperance members. The toasts were drunk in coffee and lemonade.

The bride is the only daughter of Mrs. Ida Bauer, of North avenue. The groom is in business for himself as a paperhanger and decorator. He is very well known around town, mainly for his trick bioycle riding on an old-fashioned high wheel.

The couple received many handsome gifts. They will reside on North avenue.

STREET SPRINKLING BEGUN

SEASON'S WORK STARTED BY CONTRACTOR THIS MORNING.

John E. Keely, official street sprinkler, this morning began the work for the season. For some days past he has been very busy getting the sprinkling carts, horses and harness in condition to start work. Six carts are now engaged in covering the city and Mr. Keely will make every effort to give entire satisfaction. His equipment is in first-class shape and he intends keeping it so.

The sprinkling is to be done in a systematic manner, that is a list of all streets to be watered have been compiled and the work to be done on each noted. During the past week Mr. Keely has been scouring the country for suitable horses and he believes that he now has the best collection of horses for this work to be found anywhere.

Literary Society Entertainment.

The Dunellen Literary Society was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Titsworth, of West Fifth street, last night. Refreshments were served after a pleasant programme of readings and recitations.

Hope's New Alleys.

An important meeting will be held by the Hope Chapel Y. M. A. tonight. It is expected that the organization will vote on the proposition to install new bowling alleys.

SENATOR KEAN ON WORK OF CONGRESS

Much Accomplished During Second Session of Fifty-Eighth Congress.

NEW JERSEY MEASURES

INTERESTED IN PLAINFIELD POST-OFFICE BILL.

Senior Senator Wants Public Building for Elizabeth—Appropriation for Princeton Battle Monument.

In the estimation of United States Senator John Kean, of Elizabeth, the second session of the fifty-eighth Congess was a busy one. When asked to give his idea of the work of the session and what had been accomplished, Senator Kean dictated the following statement in Washington the other day:

"It is said that this session is the shortest in number of days of all 'long sessions,' but it must be remembered that Congress met on the ninth of November, and has been continuously in session almost ever since. I think if an examination were made it would be found that this Congress has really been a working Congress. The time has been spent continuously at work and the number of hours, both in sessions of committees and of both Houses far exceeds that of any other Congress.

"The first matter which we had under consideration and in which I, as a member of the Committee of Foreign Affairs, was deeply interested, was the Cuban reciprocity treaty which was ratified.

"The next matter of public importance before the committee was the Panama canal treaty. That was successfully closed. The legislation for the government of the Panama canal zone did not come before the Committee on Foreign Relations, but I was deeply interested in it, as it was most desirable that everything should be done to accomplish this work which has been the desire of all for so many years.

"As to local interests, I was interested in getting an appropriation for the Princeton battle monument. I succeded in having it pass the Senate, and I am sorry it did not pass the House, but I hope it may at an early date next winter.

"In regard to public buildings I have been interested in the postoffice at Elizabeth. Up to the present time it has been impossible for the department to find a satisfactory site, and in order that the existing appropriation should not fail I had an amendment put to the sundry civil bill extending the appropriation beyond the sixth day of June, 1904, for another year. I also introduced a bill for the erection of a public building at Plainfield, but as the committee had decided not to report any bills at this session it is still in the committee. I hope that it may be favorably reported next year, and also passed.

"I introduced a bill in the interest of the citizens of Perth Amboy, for an amendment to the 'Dingley Bill' in regard to the refining of ore in bond, which was reported favorably by the Committee on Finance and passed by the Senate.

"I was interested in having put on the general deficiency bill an amendment which allows the State of New Jersey and the State of Wisconsin to reopen their claims before the comptroller. The amendment became a law, being accepted in conference. New Jersey also has a claim from the Spanish-American war, which it will now receive through a bill introduced by Mr. Loudenslager, which passed both Houses."

Senator Kean is chairman of the committee on audit and control of the contingent expenses of the Senate. Although not a large committee, it is nevertheless one of the most important of the Senate. Before expenditures can be made for the welfare of the senators, the expedition of business, the purchase of furniture, payment for stenographic reports before committees, expenses of horses and wagons for delivering mail, and every other incidental expense, vouchers are carefully scrutinized by Senator Kean before payment. His training as a banker has fitted him peculiarly for the work, and it is taken care of more expeditiously than ever before.

David S. Pond, of this city, was recently announced as one of the honor men at Princeton University.

A Plainfield citizen tells how to cure them all.

C. H. Lippencott, of 89 Chatham street, says: "I was a victim of kidney complaint and dreadful backache as bad in damp weather or when I caught a cold, that I could not get about. I was in the hardware business at this time and the heavy lifting and being on my feet so much greatly aggravated the trouble. I was at my worst when I concluded to try Doan's Kidney Pills and I got them at L. W. Randolph's drug store. It only required a few doses to convince me that I had the right remedy. My backache disappeared before I had finished the first box."

AMUSEMENTS.

"Hang out your banners on the outer wall, the cry is 'still they come.'" When William Shakespeare wrote those words he might have been telling of the starry bills offered week after week at Keith's, for they fit the case to a nicety. In addition "Still they come" is profoundly prophetic, for the offering for the coming week is a bill of the first magnitude, stronger, if that is possible, than any that has been seen, where nothing but the best is ever shown, in many a long day.

The Eden Musee has had many novelties but none of a more interesting or scientific character than "The Magic Kettle," which is now being exhibited there. Under this name a large number of interesting experiments are shown with liquid air. Upon the stage is an ordinary tea kettle, sitting apparently upon a gas stove. By the quantity of steam issuing from the spout, the contents of the kettle are boiling furiously. A few feats of magic follow in which liquid air plays a small part.

KENTUCKY DERBY.

Elwood Came Across Continent to Take Race.

ED TIERNEY SECOND, BRANCAS THIRE

Duel Was Between Elwood, Ed Tierney and Brancas, the Horses Running In a Bunch Most of the Distance.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 3.—After a winter of racing Elwood, C. H. Durnell's bay colt, son of Free Knight, came across the continent and took the most hotly contested Kentucky Derby since the famous race between Proctor Knott and Spokane. The winner was the longest priced horse in the race, and, as usual, Tennessee and the Blue Grass went broke. Ed Tierney was second and Brancas third. Time, 2:08½. The track was about two seconds slow.

The thirtieth running of the Kentucky Derby, the oldest event of its kind in the American turf, marked the opening of the spring meeting of the new Louisville Jockey club. A crowd of 18,000 persons saw the race. The conditions of the race call for entries of foals of 1901, three-year-olds; distance, one mile and a quarter; value to the winner, $5,600.

Proceeds was favorite at post odds of even money, Brancas was second choice at 2 to 1, Ed Tierney was quoted at 4 to 1 and Prince Silverwings and Elwood at 6 and 10 to 1 respectively, while in some books as good as 15 to 1 could be had on Elwood. The field of five was sent away almost immediately to a good start. Passing the grand stand for the first time, Proceeds took the lead and began to cut out the pace, with Prince Silverwings, the choice of the Blue Grass breeders, second and crowding him. Brancas was third, with Ed Tierney and Elwood close up. This order was maintained until the half mile was reached, where Proceeds had increased his lead to nearly three lengths. Almost immediately the favorite began to drop back, and Prince Silverwings moved along to the front, hitting a terrific pace. Helgesen, on Proceeds, allowed himself to be drawn into a duel with Prince Silverwings, which lasted past the three-quarters and on to the seven furlongs, with Brancas, Elwood and Ed Tierney storming along within biting distance of the leaders. Here the pace slackened. Proceeds began to tire, and the eagerly outstretched brown head bobbed lower. Prince Silverwings was in no better plight, and the pair, which had run their hearts out in a vain duel, began to slip back almost at the same instant when the mile post was reached, the nose of Brancas nipped out in front for a second and was gone. Elwood and Ed Tierney were beginning to come. The field charged into the stretch with Elwood and Brancas almost neck and neck and Ed Tierney about half a length away. Out from the bunch moved Elwood and Ed Tierney, each with plenty of speed in reserve, and from the three-sixteenths pole it was a duel to the wire, with Elwood first and Ed Tierney's nose at his flank. Brancas, who had tired somewhat, was only a length back of Ed Tierney. Prince Silverwings finished six lengths behind the winner and three lengths in front of Proceeds.

English Lad Won by a Nose.

CHICAGO, May 3.—After swerving all over the stretch English Lad, favorite in the winter books for the American Derby, with a spurt of speed got up just in time to beat Witful a nose in the feature event at Worth. Gregor K. was a close third. This was English Lad's first start this year, and the bookmakers, under the impression that he was not ready to stand a hard race, offered 10 to 1 against his chances of landing in first place. The mile was covered in 1:40 3-5.

Racing at Delmar Park.

ST. LOUIS, May 3. — Responsive, Frank Rice and The Bobby were the winning favorites of Kinloch's racing card at Delmar park. The track was slow, and only those horses which could get into the path next the rail had a chance to win. Jerry, in the fourth race, showed such astonishing improvement over his last race at the fair grounds that Judge Murphy called his trainer, W. McCarthy, into the stand after the race and warned him against in and out running.

Ostrich Got Montague Stakes.

NEW YORK, May 3.—The Montague stakes, at one mile and a sixteenth, the feature event on the card at Jamaica, was won by Ostrich, a head in front of the despised outsider, Careless, who was quoted in the betting at 12 to 1. The Highweight handicap went to Lord of the Valley at 12 to 1, with Schoharie, 10 to 1, second. The weather was bright and cool and the attendance large.

McGee Won Elmridge Feature.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 3.—McGee, an odds on favorite, won the feature of an ordinary card at Elmridge. Five horses started in this race, which was a mile event for three-year-olds and upward. J. W. Schorr's Injunction, which ran second, was beaten by half a length by the favorite. Only two favorites were beaten, Gloriosa in the first race and Volto in the sixth.

Koehler's Defense Insanity.

TOLEDO, May 3.—The trial of Joseph Koehler, who killed his wife Annie and then shot himself, has begun here. The defense is insanity. Detective Bingemann testified for the prosecution. Koehler told Bingemann that he quarreled with his wife and struck her with a fashion and then, seeing that she was in great agony, cut her throat to put her out of misery.

This newspaper's readers are among the wealthy, and well-to-do, intelligent people—those who can afford and do take extended vacations in the country during the Summer. It carries more resort advertising than any other morning newspaper, so the public naturally look to it for information as to where to go.

An advertisement in its columns is, therefore, exceedingly valuable and sure to produce results. This paper is

AN AERIAL VOYAGE

Dr. Greth's Airship Makes a Successful Trip.

FLIGHT UNDER PERFECT CONTROL

Inventor and His Engineer Circled About, Stopped and Started at Will—Slight Defect Led to Easy and Safe Descent.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 3.—Dr. Greth started from here to make a trip of fifty miles to San Jose in his airship, but after traveling about five miles some slight disarrangement of the machinery was discovered, and the aerial voyager landed safely. Dr. Greth was accompanied by Engineer Frederick Bell. Dr. Greth was satisfied with the results of this experimental flight because he accomplished a good deal more than on former occasions and concluded that he was working in the right direction.

He ascended with the car attached to a rope to prevent doing damage to houses.

When the rope was cast off Dr. Greth let his machine rise still higher and then made a circular figure about a quarter of a mile in circumference.

It was evident to those below that he had the machine under control at that time, for he circled about, stopped the engines and started them again and then started off to the south at a high speed.

Everything went well until the airship arrived over Blanken's Six Mile house in the San Bruno road. It was then going rapidly toward San Jose, but something went wrong with the machinery, causing the airship to stop. After the inventor and the engineer had tried to repair the break the fans were started and the ship descended.

To all appearance the fans were controlling the ship, though it was conceded that they were not powerful enough to meet the resistance of the strong wind.

Witnesses of the descent said that the airship came down gradually and touched the ground gently, allowing the men in the car to step out. Nothing was injured either in the car or about the gas bag. Dr. Greth said that what broke could not be repaired without certain tools, and he deemed it expedient to descend.

The engine is an automobile machine of fifty horsepower and is set up in a new frame much larger and stronger than the first gaspipe frame which carried Dr. Greth up with the former engine. It was demonstrated that while the fans which raise and lower the airship and have considerable to do with the steering were not large enough, yet they did very well under the circumstances.

The fans and the rudder are to be enlarged in order that the ship may be more dirigible. This was the first time that the engines were started after being stopped while in the air. The test was made for the reason that, should it become necessary to let the gas out of the balloon, the engines must be stopped lest the gasoline spark cause the reservoir to explode.

The trip was highly successful. Everything went well, and all parts of the machinery were in good working order. The machine could be directed at will and made several complete turns before descending. The sudden giving away of a small valve caused the descent at the Six Mile house.

Cloudburst Near Florence, Colo.

FLORENCE, Colo., May 3.—A cloudburst in the Greenhorn range, eight miles south of Florence, has caused the Arkansas river to rise between eight and nine feet here in less than an hour. The unexpected rush of water caused great damage. One bridge across the river has gone out, and the Santa Fe and Florence and Cripple Creek railroad bridges are in imminent danger. The Santa Fe tracks are under water, and traffic is held up. In the northern end of the town the streets have been transformed into rivers, and cellars are being flooded. Business is suspended. An immense amount of damage has been done by the hail to fruit trees and gardens in the valley.

Why Blame Paterson, N. J.

MADRID, May 3.—The government denies that it knows anything of a proposal to ask for the extradition of two residents of Paterson, N. J., named Lazero and Breva, letters signed by whom, according to a report circulated in the United States, were alleged to have been found among the effects of Artal, the young anarchist who recently attempted the assassination of Premier Maura at Barcelona.

Snowstorm Blocks Roads.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Colo., May 3.—A storm which began on Sunday has developed into a blizzard. By noon there were two feet of snow in the streets of Cripple Creek and four feet in the hills. A gale formed drifts five to seven feet in depth. Electric and steam railroads are blocked, and business is generally suspended.

Kaiser In Unter den Linden.

BERLIN, May 3.—Emperor William surprised the people of Berlin by appearing on horseback in Unter den Linden, having ridden from Potsdam. His majesty was enthusiastically greeted. It was his first visit to the capital since he returned from his cruise in the Mediterranean.

Break In Erie Canal Cost $100,000.

FONDA, N. Y., May 3.—The break in the Erie canal at Fort Hunter, which was caused by the recent flood in the valley and which has cost the state of New York more than $100,000, is repaired, and the water is being let in this level. The canal will be open to traffic on May 5.

MOLDENKE'S HOME; 12TH CENTURY CASTLE

On Crest of Watchung Mountain. Near This City, Stands a Stately Structure.

A BRIEF DESCRIPTION

IS A VIVID REMINDER OF DAYS OF CHIVALRY.

Short Sketch of Dr. Richard Moldenke, the Owner—Was His Own Architect in the Construction.

Rearing its turrets proudly over the crest of the Watchung Mountains, with Plainfield to the south and the Passaic Valley to the north, stands the only "baronial castle of the twelfth century" in New Jersey. It is of recent construction, having been built within the last three years, and is not quite completed. Its owner is Dr. Richard Moldenke, whose ambition is to have a home like those of his ancestors.

Dr. Moldenke, who is a graduate of the Columbia School of Mines, made a fortune in mining engineering and in kindred enterprises, not the least of them the steel industry in Pittsburg. At the age of forty he has retired from what he calls the activities of life, but is still secretary of the American Foundry Association and associated with the steel industry.

Proud of his ancestry, which he traces from the times of the Crusades, and the house of the Salzburgs, it has been the ambition of his life to build a "castle" which should revive in his generation the style of architecture familiar to his ancestors. In his mountain home he has done it, and only the plumed knight, mail clad, on horseback, is lacking to make the scene complete.

But the knights are there in picture, for among the old masters of the collection which belongs to the castle the warriors of the Crusades have not been omitted.

Through this castle a troop of horsemen could ride a charge and retreat, for its ground floor is one great room, broken only by broad arches through which four horsemen could ride abreast. From foundation stone to turret top is a continuous suggestion of the days of chivalry.

On the walls hang spoils of the chase and implements of war and hunting. The collection of firearms, spears and the like, from past ages, makes one large room look like an arsenal.

Rooms for summer comfort, where the sun never reaches, and rooms for winter, where it shines all day long, are ingeniously represented in the architecture.

A great upper hall is filled with paintings by old masters and with cabinets containing family plate hundreds of years old, tankards, helmets, foils and coins.

The castle is not without its traditional "dungeons," but these are not utilized for the same purposes as those of old. The secret entrance is there also, starting at an obscure place in the woods and leading to the cellar and thence to the wing of the castle. From there, by a secret door, entrance is made to the rest of the building.

To perpetuate an idea and to foster a hobby, details have been more punctiliously adhered to in building this castle than in any structure in this country. Dr. Moldenke was his own architect, and his plans were the result of travels in Europe, close study of ancient architecture and of his family traditions.—New York Evening Telegram.

After a quarter of an hour of hard work, the van was gotten off the tracks and the train allowed to proceed on its way to Somerville.

'PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

No clue has been found to the burglars who broke into the station sometime Sunday night and carried away the safe. It is believed that the robbery is the work of a gang of professionals who have been looting the stations on the D., L. and W. R. R. and other lines for the past two years. Officer Hockey, whose beat includes the station, says he was approached about 1 o'clock by a well-dressed man who asked him when the next train left for Jersey City. When told the man said he would not wait and started to walk towards Westfield. The officer accompanied him as far as the borough line. This was only a ruse probably to get the officer away so as to do the job without danger of interference.

The reception given by Mrs. Westcott's dancing class in the Casino, last night, was well attended by the young people of the village, who were members of Mrs. Westcott's class last year.

THE RUSSIAN ROUT

Kuroki, In Pursuit, Now at Chiutiencheng.

WILL ATTACK FENGHUANCHENG

Hayashi, Japanese Minister at London, Gives Official Statement of the Victory on the Yalu and Predicts What May Follow.

LONDON, May 3. — Advices from Tokyo say that after the Japanese carried the line of hills extending from Chiutiencheng to Yoshoka, on the right bank of the Iho river, the Russians made a stand on a hill northwest of Chiutiencheng, but they soon began retreating. The Twelfth Japanese division advanced toward Tahiangfang, which is due west of the village of Kakao; the division of the Imperial guards advanced toward Hamatan, which is west of Chiutiencheng, while the Second division moved down the river, with Antung as its objective.

The general reserve advanced over the main road to Liaoyang, which runs in a westerly direction from the Yalu river. At 6 o'clock the Japanese army held a line extending from Antung northwesterly to Laukuku and running from there in a northeasterly direction to Mishukau.

At Mamatan, where the Iho river makes its first bend to the west, the Japanese succeeded in enveloping the Russians on three sides. The Russian troops at Hamatan retreated toward Fenghuancheng.

A Russian officer who was taken prisoner said that the effect of the Japanese artillery fire on Saturday and Sunday was deadly.

General Kuroki and his headquarters staff have entered Chiutiencheng.

A report from St. Petersburg says that the war office has been informed that the Russian casualties numbered 2,000. Should this be true it can be accepted as a certainty that the Russian plan of operations never contemplated such a sacrifice.

In view of the cautious advance of the Japanese it is not expected that they will quickly follow up General Sassulitch, but will take a few days in getting the remainder of their troops and supplies across the river and in clearing the country of Russian detachments in order that their communications may not be exposed to attack.

Baron Hayashi, the Japanese minister here, has been the recipient of numerous telegrams of congratulation on the Japanese successes on the Yalu and especially on the result of the first serious land fighting. He said:

"The immediate result of General Kuroki's success will probably be a movement on Fenghuancheng, which the Chinese had fortified with their usual brick structures. Since the commencement of the war the Russians doubtless have added earthworks, but their loss of guns must seriously diminish their defensive strength.

"I understand, though I cannot vouch for the absolute accuracy of the statement, that Russia had only a hundred guns in Manchuria. If that is the case her artillery strength has been diminished almost one-third.

"They fight well, those Russians, and Fenghuancheng will not be taken without a hard struggle unless General Kuropatkin again changes his plan of campaign. The announcement that the Russians would not contest the crossing of the Yalu has proved, as we thought, to be misleading. Thirty thousand men is far too large a body for any general to leave in the face of the enemy if it were merely intended to hamper his movements. Kuropatkin evidently meant to make a determined resistance, but he either underestimated our strength or disposed his forces in the belief that we would not venture a frontal attack.

"I take it from the dispatches received that we have now practically secured control of both banks of the Yalu. In consequence our base will probably be moved to Antung.

"To be perfectly frank, I must say I expected the engagement would have been more decisive, especially in view of the large number of Russian troops opposed to us. Its significance must largely depend upon our ability to pursue the enemy."

Reviewing the whole future of the struggle that has just commenced in such deadly earnest on land, Baron Hayashi said:

"The duration of the war must lie rather with Russia than with Japan. For the moment the military advantage is with us, for Kuropatkin has extended his front, and we can strike where and when we will. Our aggressive movement may be carried on to Mukden, perhaps to Harbin and perhaps even further, but before long there must come a stage of the compaign where Russia will assume the role of the invading power and where we must act solely on the defensive. From the beginning it has been so, and our aggression is and has been but a means toward the eventual repulsion of an invading army.

"General Kuroki himself probably cannot say at this moment at exactly what point our aggression will be changed into the defensive. Kuropatkin, so I believe, says he will not undertake to drive us back until he has 300,000 men ready to take the field. I think what that means is that at least 5 per cent of that force will die from sickness, so that to keep his force at the maximum required Kuropatkin will always have to be transporting 15,000 men from St. Petersburg—no small task.

"Vice Admiral Togo will doubtless remain on watch outside Port Arthur. By September, when the hurricane season comes, he should be able to safely house his fleet in a Japanese port. No fleet, Russian or Japanese, could be particularly effective then. I scarcely think Russia will send her Baltic fleet to face our autumn hurricanes.

"General Kuroki may even by his own countrymen be thought to be rather slow, but it is better to be sure.

"The most unfortunate incident of the campaign up to date is Vice Admiral Kamimura's misfortune in missing the Vladivostok fleet. It seems from here that it was a pity the vice admiral did not stay outside that port instead of trying to find the Russians in the open sea."

WANTS TO HANG.

The Prisoner Said He Would Commit Other Crimes if Freed.

ALBANY, N. Y., May 3.—One of the most extraordinary cases in the criminal history of this state is that argued here in the court of appeals. Its unusual feature is twofold, one aspect being the attempt of the murderer in whose behalf the appeal is taken to assure his own execution, the other that the appeal to the court of appeals was taken not only without his consent, but against his wish and protest.

The case is that of Frank H. Burness, who in a dispute over wages shot Captain George B. Townsend of the coasting schooner Charles K. Buckley, of which Burness was steward, while the schooner lay in her berth in Brooklyn.

Burness confessed to a long series of crimes of violence, at least two of them homicides, and asked for an early execution of sentence. When his lawyers took an appeal he wrote to Governor Odell, asking him to prevent the court of appeals from setting aside his sentence. He said that his temperament was such as to make it practically certain that he would commit other crimes if released. Of course the governor cannot interfere in the matter, and the appeal was argued. The grounds of the appeal are technical.

CLEVELAND'S LECTURE.

Princeton Students Hear Ex-President on Chicago Strike of 1894.

PRINCETON, N. J., May 3.—Before one of the largest audiences ever assembled in Alexander hall former President Grover Cleveland delivered the Stafford Little lecture on "The Government In the Chicago Strike of 1894."

Mr. Cleveland was greeted with enthusiastic applause when President Woodrow Wilson introduced him, saying, "Mr. Cleveland stands today as the most prominent man in the United States and needs no introduction, especially to a Princeton audience."

The balcony was packed with undergraduates and townspeople. Every word of the lecture was followed with the closest attention and appreciation by those present, and at its conclusion the Princeton students rose and gave a hearty "locomotive" cheer for the lecturer.

Mr. Cleveland has held this lectureship on public affairs at Princeton for the past four years, but he has not been able to deliver an address since his speech on the Venezuela trouble in 1901.

Cotter Walked Into the Cage.

CHICAGO, May 3. — Arrested and identified through going to a police station to seek the release of a friend, James Cotter, former deputy assessor, was held to the grand jury here on two charges of burglary. Action of the justice was on the testimony of Louis Blum, a saloon keeper, whose presence at the police station at the time Cotter came there to seek the release of James Wood, or Martin, was responsible for the unique identification. Blum had just recognized Wood as one of the men who held him up when he chanced to look out of the window. "Why, there's the man who was with him!" cried Blum. "He held the gun to my head, and this one went through my pockets." The man indicated was Cotter, who for two weeks was deputy assessor on personal property in one of the wards in this city. Blum accuses the men of holding him up twice. An odd feature of the case is that the same watch was taken from Blum on the occasion of both holdups, it having been recovered from a pawnshop after the first robbery.

Record Accepted All Blame.

BOSTON, May 3.—George P. Record, who had been indicted with his wife, charged with using the mails to defraud, accepted the entire blame for Mrs. Record's alleged connection with the matter and was sentenced to serve eighteen months in Charles street jail. The case against Mrs. Record was placed on file in view of her husband's declaration. The defendants were the promoters of the Lawrence Produce company of Lawrence, by which many farmers of New England are said to have been swindled out of thousands of dollars.

Celebrating Manila Day.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—The resident members of the Society of Manila Bay, an organization of naval officers who participated in the battle of Manila bay on May 1, 1898, had their annual dinner at the Raleigh hotel. Sixteen of the 107 officers who were aboard the United States vessels on that memorable occasion joined in reminiscent talk. Admiral George Dewey presided. The others present included Admirals Coghlan, Lamberton, Walker, Dyer, Entwistle and Ford.

Henry Ehrman Dead at Panama.

PANAMA, May 3.—Henry Ehrman, founder of the well known banking firm bearing his name, is dead here of pneumonia. Mr. Ehrman ever since work was begun on the Panama canal under the old French company had been one of the most conspicuous foreigners on the isthmus. He leaves a large fortune.

THE JAPANESE ARMY

One of the Finest Bodies of Fighting Men in the World.

Trained by French and German Officers of High Rank and Commanded by Educated and Patriotic Officers.

In the early days of army organization in Japan many French officers were employed to impart instruction, but in recent times these have been superseded by German officers of the highest rank. The trained army of Japan today consists of about 500,000 men, each one of whom is about as perfect a fighting machine as the human being can become.

According to Japanese conscription law, all males between 17 and 40 years of age are liable to duty, either in the army or navy. Conscripts are divided among various branches of the service, according to age, physical ability, or intellectual capacity. Conscription lasts 12 years and four months, divided into actual service and reserves.

Service is required for the first three years after entering the Japanese army, during which time the conscript must live in barracks. Though the period of conscription is 12 years, length of actual service is seldom more than three years; though at any time during the whole period the soldier is liable to call to active duty. Though liable to a call at 17, few men in Japan are actually conscripted until their twentieth year. In recent years, very few men have been called out. In 1897 there were called only 20,000 out of a conscript list of 350,000 available men.

Japanese citizens greatly prefer the army to the navy, as the profession of the sailor is more or less looked down upon. This is due mainly to the Japanese love for home life, the calling of the sea taking men away from their families, whereas, the soldier, even when actively in the army, may often visit his home. Another reason—quite Japanese—is the fact that the soldier's uniform is far more pleasing to the Japanese sense of color than is that of the sailor. The soldier has more chance of displaying himself as a "fine bird" than has the sailor.

A striking peculiarity of the Japanese soldier is not so much his conduct

FIELD MARSHAL OYAMA.
(Chief of Staff and Most Noted Strategist of Japan.)

while on duty, as his behavior when not soldiering.

Alfred Stead says that you can go all over Japan and never see a drunken soldier—that is, a Japanese soldier. When off duty, soldiers go about in the quietest manner imaginable. Their principal diversion is drinking tea with their friends, or hanging about the old book shops. Unless a Jap is actually engaged in war, you will find him an extremely childlike creature.

On a war footing, however, the Japanese soldier is anything but childlike. The training of the Japanese soldiers is one of the most exact of sciences. Pupils are so apt, however, they acquire tactics, and master mechanical details so remarkably, that seldom more than four months is required to convert a peaceable citizen into a skillful soldier.

Quickness and individual aptitude are the distinguishing characteristics of the Japanese soldier. In this, he presents a remarkable contrast to the soldier material of other nations—with exception of the Americans, perhaps.

The peace footing of the Japanese army is 183,000 train men; the complete war basis being 526,000 officers and men, exclusive of transport.

The watchword of the Japanese army is "up-to-date." There is not a military maneuver known to European or American army practice that has not been carefully studied in Japan. All the arms and equipment of every sort are modern to a degree, the army keeping up with improvements as soon as they come out, and testing constantly to acquire the best arms.

Taking the Japanese soldier for all in all, he stands to-day at the very top-notch of modern efficiency in matters of war, and he will assuredly acquit himself well in any contingency.

Laziest Man in Indiana.

According to a petition for divorce entered on the superior court docket at Marion, Ind., Charles Hillman must be the laziest man in Indiana. His wife, Grace L. Hillman, alleges in her complaint for divorce that she was married to Hillman March 26, 1902, and lived with him until August 25, 1903, when she left him because he failed to provide for her. She alleges that he never worked a day during their married life, that she procured positions for him, but he refused to work and took money from her which she earned as a seamstress. Mrs. Hillman swears her husband was so lazy he would not earn money with which to purchase his own clothing, but wore the same suit during their married life of one year and five months.

The New Woman

Masculine and Feminine Topics of Talk

WOMEN in general have two topics of conversation—family happenings and clothes, or, to put the most important first, clothes and family happenings. Make your ear alert in a street car or in a restaurant and listen to what women and girls converse about. Weddings and funerals are events which particularly open girls' floodgates of talk. Two girls in a restaurant lately were talking of a certain Tom's funeral. "Tom, he looked jist grand, didn't he?" Yes, he did look jist grand, but your John, he looked grand, too, jist like he was asleep." "Yes, our John looked grand too. But Mary Ann, she felt so bad when Tom died, because she'd jist buried her husband six months before. And he looked jist lovely too." And they passed on, and I saw them no more.

Two men took their places. I observe men have three topics of conversation, with an occasional fourth. The regulars are things to eat, trade and "graft" politics. The occasional topic is conquests among women, particularly if the men be under middle age. "Best meal in Hubton, near the dee-pot," said one of the two newcomers. "Yes," says the other, "but you git the boss beefsteak in Ameriky at the Uncle Josh grill room." A pause broken only by sounds of mastication. Then one said something about a girl. "Well," answered the other, with his mouth full of pork chop, "I hain't got no use for that kind of a girl. All she wants is for a fellow to spend money on her." "Yes," remarked the other, and this one's mouth was full of pancakes and sausage, "she's bound she'll git there." "Well," I hain't got no use for her," said he of the pork chop. Now, as between woman's talk of clothes and family happenings, and man's talk of things to eat, trade, personal politics and exploitations in feminine fields, which is wiser and more instructive? Is there any choice between them?

Mrs. C. M. Clark Atkinson, the successful woman publisher, has her trademark inscribed with the motto, "Le succes est un devoir" ("Success is a duty"). To achieve success is undoubtedly a duty we owe to ourselves and to human progress. Whether in her field of homemaker or in business, it is as much woman's duty to give good account of herself in the industrial world as to achieve good manners and cleanliness of person and maintain a good character.

Mrs. Hoster is an English lady who has worked for years to keep the wages of typewriters and stenographers, as well as the educational qualifications of the girls themselves, up to a high standard. She earnestly enjoins typewriters and stenographers, besides perfecting themselves in English construction, to learn also one or more foreign languages. She impresses on girls that both a conversational and commercial knowledge of foreign tongues is necessary for one who today would reach the highest places in clerkships. In our country this suggestion is even more valuable than in England. A thorough knowledge of how to speak and write German, Spanish or French will double a stenographer's chance of profitable employment. Spanish and German are especially demanded commercially.

Note.—One of the leading Salvation Army authorities in America says, "In our teachings we impress it upon our women to keep their tempers under all circumstances." Just so. This advice is as good outside of the Salvation Army as in.

"Better be an old maid than an old fool," says George Eliot. One of my friends, who is a single woman and a lawyer, quotes this occasionally, and adds also out of her own head, "It is better to be gray than green."

Deceit and treachery are the refuge of the coward.

Do not underrate or despise beauty of person. Beauty is a gift of the gods and is to be cherished and made the most of, whether in oneself or in another. Beauty of soul and mind and care of the body will fortunately make anybody attractive in person, and the time is coming when all women, and men, too, will be beautiful.

The Women's Christian Temperance union is taking measures for the care and protection of girls who arrive in St. Louis alone during the exposition. Girls are sometimes lured into dens of cities under the false pretense of obtaining work at good wages. An agent of the Women's Christian Temperance union will be present at all the stations in St. Louis to meet girls coming in alone and to look after them. In cases of deception a home and legal aid will be ready for them. Girls who have nowhere to go will also be provided for.

A "FLAREBACK."

Fatal Explosion on Missouri Caused by Inexplicable Action of Gas.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—That no further proceedings be taken is the recommendation of the court of inquiry appointed to investigate the explosion in the after turret of the Missouri on April 13. The court finds the explosion was due to a "flareback" caused by an inexplicable combination of oxygen with certain usually latent gases in smokeless powder. The officers and crew of the Missouri not only are relieved from all responsibility for the accident, but are warmly commended for the bravery they showed after its occurrence in rescuing the victims.

These facts about the findings were obtained from Mr. Darling, the acting secretary of the navy, when he returned from a visit to the White House where he informed the president of the receipt of the findings and their nature.

It was brought out in the evidence submitted to the court that there was not an extraordinary amount of powder in the handling room, nor were there more officers and men in the turret or handling room than were necessary for record target practice. Among the witnesses who testified before the court were the two men who jumped into the magazine room and closed the door after them as soon as they saw the flame and one of the two survivors in the handling room. The other survivor was unable to leave the hospital, so the court took his testimony at his bedside.

Chess Tourney at Cambridge.

CAMBRIDGE SPRINGS, Pa., May 3.—At the conclusion of the fifth round of the international chess masters' tournament, now in progress here, Janowski still had the lead. While he has only four games to his credit, his adjourned game with Showalter is sure to yield him half a point, making his score virtually 4½ points, while Lasker, Marshall, Mieses and Teichmann are bunched together with 4 points. Pillsbury went down before Mieses, while Tschigorin and Showalter both scored their first wins in the tournament. Lawrence lost his game by exceeding the time limit.

Fitzpatrick Will Take a Long Rest.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—Representative Morgan C. Fitzpatrick of Tennessee, who was taken ill with an attack of peritonitis and nervous prostration the night before congress adjourned, has recovered sufficiently to be about again and has authorized the announcement that he will not be a candidate for re-election to congress. The reason for declining a renomination, he said, was that his physician has advised him it was necessary to take a long and complete rest.

Murder Under Shadow of the Court.

CHARLESTON, S. C., May 3.—At Manning, Clarendon county, under the courthouse portico and while court was in session, Magistrate S. M. Youmans shot and instantly killed Lawyer John R. Keel. Youmans fired five shots, all taking effect, and immediately gave himself up to the sheriff. The quarrel was over a business transaction.

Edgar Fawcett Dead.

LONDON, May 3.—Edgar Fawcett, the American author, is dead here after being unconscious for several days. Death was caused by an internal disorder, which has not yet been diagnosed. Mr. Fawcett was born in New York in May, 1847. He was a graduate of Columbia college, New York.

Payment Made After Forty Years.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—The treasury department has just sent to the governor of the state of Massachusetts a warrant for $1,611,740, being the amount due the state as a refund for expenses incurred in raising volunteers for the Union army during the civil war.

MAKES GOOD CITIZEN

Russian Grand Duke Would Rule Country School.

Banished Prince Seeks Place on Rural Committee in England—Exiled by Czar Because He Was True to His Love.

One can hardly imagine a more unusual proceeding than that of a Russian nobleman, and a grand duke, too, supervising the destinies of a country school district in one of the quietest corners of England, but, despite the incongruity, this is just what a cousin of Czar Nicholas II. is prepared to do. This is the Grand Duke Michael, who, until quite recently, lived under the strictest degree of banishment from Russia because his marriage displeased the father of the present czar. Since his banishment his serene highness has lived in England, and now he has come forward as candidate for a seat on the school committee of the local council of Staffordshire county, in which he has his home.

No one in London who knew society in 1890 and 1891 has forgotten the romance which surrounds this prince of the royal blood. When first he met the beautiful Sophie Merenburg, Countess Torby, Grand Duke Michael was an important officer in the Russian army, a close friend of his cousin, the czar, and an acknowledged leader in Russian society. As soon as he married, however, he was deprived of his rank and two-thirds of his estates, stripped of his military uniform, and banished from his country, apparently for life.

The bride for whom Duke Michael sacrificed so much is the elder of two daughters of the German prince, Nicholas of Nassau. She was born countess of Merenburg, but upon her marriage with the grand duke was granted her present title by the head of her father's house—the grand duke of Luxembourg.

Apart from the difference in rank between the two there could hardly have been a more admirable match. Both the grand duke and countess were favorites in European society. They were, indeed, among Queen Victoria's personal friends, just as they are among those of King Edward to-day.

GRAND DUKE MICHAEL.
(Banished Russian Prince Who Seeks Humble English Office.)

Nothing of this, however, served to appease Czar Alexander III. when this ruler heard of the engagement. He declared that if the duke married the countess Russia's court and Russian society would be closed to him. And when the grand duke persisted the czar carried out his theat.

After it became thoroughly evident that the intercession promptly made by Queen Victoria and other friends of the exiled duke could not persuade Alexander III. to rescind his decree, the banished nobleman settled down to spend the rest of his days in England. He took Keele hall, seat of the ancient Sneyd family since the reign of Edward III., and most of the summers of his happy married life have been spent here. The present house, although quite modern, is built on the lines of the Tudor pile, constructed by Ralph Sneyd in the sixteenth century, and contains many treasures.

Both the duke and his wife are enthusiastic golfers, and at Cannes, where they usually spend their winters, they are the chief spirits of the local club. The duke's chief recreations, aside from golf, are music, motoring and photography, the former being heartily shared by his wife. Beside being an excellent performer, he is something of a composer.

While the duke felt his ostracism keenly during his period of banishment from Russia, he mingled freely with English society and seldom failed to appear with his wife at the smartest London functions. It is understood that King Edward made a personal request that the grand duke be restored to his former position. At the coronation Duke Michael and his wife were among the personal guests of King Edward, and his majesty has spent several "week ends" in the shadow of the great holly hedge at Keele hall.

Auto Story from Florida.

In Florida recently, so the story goes, an alligator was chasing a "pickaninny" across a road, when suddenly a 20 horse-power automobile struck the reptile, breaking its neck. The only damage to the car was a puncture, caused by one of the alligator's teeth. The reptile is to be stuffed and presented by the driver of the car to the Automobile Club of America.

Radium Earth in Texas.

Valuable radium bearing earth has been discovered in the Llano gold and coal fields, 115 miles north of Austin, Tex. News of the discovery was brought by a party of scientists who had visited the mines.

METALWORKERS OUT

Great Strike of Railway Machinists In the West.

TWELVE THOUSAND MAY QUIT WORK

Strike Ordered by Allied Metal Mechanics—All Santa Fe Road Men to Co-operate—Unions Will Keep Within the Law.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—Over 800 machinists and a large number of allied workers on the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railroad are reported on strike. When the whole striking strength is brought out, embracing not only the machinists, but the allied Metal Mechanics' association, boilermakers, blacksmiths, copper workers, helpers, etc., as well, the total number involved, according to President O'Connell of the Machinists' union, may approximate between 10,000 and 12,000 men.

The strike was ordered on instructions from headquarters here after the men along the line had voted unanimously in favor of the step. A telegram from John Mulholland of Toledo, national president of the Allied Metal mechanics, announced that he has ordered his men to co-operate with the machinists, which means a sympathetic strike from that quarter, embracing probably about 1,000 men engaged in semiskilled labor in the Santa Fe shops. Mr. O'Connell says that the machinists are out all along the Santa Fe road from Chicago to San Francisco and on its feeder lines, 800 of these being now specifically reported out. The Allied Metal mechanics, the boilermakers, etc., in practically all of the shops west of Albuquerque also are reported out. Mr. O'Connell said that the men were prepared to continue the strike indefinitely and that they were asking only the same working agreement now in operation on other railroads and a discontinuance of the spotter and detective system, which, he said, is carried on by the company "to a shameless degree."

"The system," he said, "is honeycombed with detectives, and the men are watched the moment they leave the shops and marked, blacklisted and discriminated against if they protest their right to do as they please.

"We will not tolerate interference. Other railroads must keep their hands off in this strike. The challenge has been thrown down by the company, defying us to a test of strength. We have done everything possible to avoid trouble. The company has been hiring men all along the line and over the country and herding them in camps along the line, slipping them into the shops and letting our men go. It is a question of self preservation.

"The men have been given strict warning against violence. Any member who in intense anxiety enters into an encounter with a man put into his place does so without the advice or instruction of headquarters and makes himself liable to suspension and expulsion. We propose to carry on the strike within the law. Members have been warned that they must not be a party to violence of any kind, but that they have a right to make their grievances known to any one employed to take their places, but to that extent only."

Weather Probabilities.

Fair; southeast winds.

DIAMOND DUST.

All the baseball fans are hoping for clear and warm weather on Saturday, the opening day of the season in this city. Alis will have for their opponents the Aeolians, of Garwood. Crescent Oval has been undergoing repairs and improvements and additional seating capacity has been provided. Manager Johnston has collected a strong aggregation of players and after a long cessation from the National game there should be a record-breaking crowd present to see the new team. Mayor Jenkins has promised to attend and throw the first ball over the plate and every detail will be arranged for a grand sendoff.

VARIOUS SPORTS.

Because of the soft condition of the course the drag hunt which was to have been held on Saturday afternoon was postponed until next Saturday afternoon. The horses were taken out for a short canter to exercise them. Next Saturday, a photographer from the Burr MacIntosh magazine will be present to take photographs of the people who will take part in the hunt.

No Cause of Action.

After a three days' trial in the Circuit Court at Somerville, the jury rendered a verdict of no cause of action last night in the suit on contract brought by Louis Herman, proprietor of the Persian Wall Paper Company, against Hattie C. William Newcorn represented the plaintiff and Codington & Swackhamer the defendant.

FAIL TO BOTTLE HARBOR

(Special to The Daily Press.)

HE SOLD LIQUOR ILLEGALLY

ITALIAN IN NORTH PLAINFIELD ACCUSED BY SIXTEEN-YEAR-OLD BOY.

When Tony Luposi, an Italian boy sixteen years old, was arraigned before Recorder Doud in the borough court last night for drunkenness, he said he had purchased the beer in a place run by Carman Vananre, another Italian, on Grove street, near Greenbrook road. A warrant was immediately issued for Vananse's arrest and Chief Marshal Weiss served it.

Vananze will be brought before Recorder Doud tonight, charged with selling liquor illegally. Counsellor F. J. Blatz, Esq., will represent him. Mr. Blatz was indignant this morning over the refusal of the borough authorities to admit his client to bail pending the hearing. He said he offered $50 or $100 to guarantee his appearance tonight, but the borough police refused to receive it. The defendant will fight the case stubbornly.

Tony Luposi, who was released under suspended sentence, and several other Italians, will be brought forward by the police as witnesses against the alleged joint keeper.

Invited to Rehearsal.

It was announced in the local High and private schools this morning that visitors would be admitted at the dress rehearsal of "The Taming of the Shrew" at the Casino tomorrow evening for a small charge. This arrangement was made so that the pupils, who have been studying Shakespeare's works, might have an opportunity of witnessing the performance. Others besides the young people of the schools will be admitted.

Warning to Garbage Men.

Because the wagon he drove was not covered tightly enough to keep the paper and refuse in it from blowing about the streets, Isaac White, colored, an employe of Moses Carey, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Detective McCarthy. White was reprimanded and Carey was warned to obey the law in the city court this morning. Sentence was suspended.

Returns From Long Trip.

East Ward Named The Charles Hyde Ward—Contracts for the Nurses' Home are Signed.

The election of five additional new members, and one to succeed Francis Wood, who resigned, was the principal business considered at the May meeting of the Board of Governors of Muhlenberg Hospital, last night. In the choice of new members there was considerable interest and it is believed that men have been chosen who will maintain the high standard which has always been the pride of the Board of Governors.

In the selection of new members one, two and three year terms were decided upon. H. G. Runkle and James W. DeGraff were chosen for one year, E. H. Booth and F. J. Hubbard for two years and Julius E. Erickson for three years, while George P. Mellick was elected for two years to succeed Francis Wood, resigned. The Board is now composed of twenty-four members.

The east, or men's ward, has been named "The Charles Hyde Ward," members of that family having contributed a considerable sum toward its construction, as was the case with the J. Hervey Ackerman Ward.

President Charles J. Fisk announced that the contracts for the erection of the new Nurses' Home were signed by him a few days ago. These contracts were signed with Charles M. Wilson, who takes entire charge of the work.

MERCHANTS COMBINE IN A MUTUAL CONCERN

Fifty Local Merchants Agree to Use the Gold Trading Stamp in the Future.

INDEPENDENT COMPANY

REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ELIZABETH MERCHANTS AT MEETING.

Next Tuesday the Merchants Are to Select One to Become Member of Board of Directors—The Idea of the Movement.

The merchants of this city who planned to organize a stamp company here have decided to join the Elizabeth organization and thus save the expense of incorporation and that of maintaining a store. George D. Brown, of Scranton, Pa., who is interesting merchants in these concerns, has been in the city for several days and after a consultation with the members of the Elizabeth company decided to make the proposition to the local merchants that they unite with the concern at the county seat. By doing this they will have a branch store here and will be able to issue their own stamps and give their own premiums.

In Elizabeth, Mr. Brown claims that over ninety per cent. of the merchants have joined the company and that it is a decided success. It is said that the advantages of the independent concerns are that it is possible to give better presents at a trifle decrease in expense and that it costs less to issue the stamps. These things appealed strongly to the local merchants who favor the organization.

Recently, a petition was circulated among the merchants favoring a discontinuance of the use of stamps, but little encouragement was found. Many of the business men claimed that so long as their customers demand the stamps they would be compelled to continue to give them. Since then nothing has been done.

Fifty local merchants have identified themselves with the Merchants' Union Stamp Company, of Elizabeth, and within ten days will open a branch store in the Y. M. C. A. building. John W. Brady, who now conducts the store, will have charge of the branch. Those who have decided to use the gold stamp, represent a large majority of those who have been using various colored stamps, while some have never used them before.

Tuesday night, May 10, the merchants will meet in the rooms of the Grocers' Protective Association and select one of their number to represent them on the Board of Directors of the company.

ILLUSTRATED TALK ON CUBA

LECTURE AT THE Y. M. C. A. LAST NIGHT PROVED TO BE INSTRUCTIVE.

In the presence of one of the largest assemblages ever present at an Y. M. C. A. entertainment, J. Winslow Duganne, lectured with the aid of 100 illustrated lantern slides on the Island of Cuba.

Some pretty scenes were put on, notable among them being the harbor of Havana, in which the electric lighting effects were good.

Mr. Duganne spoke at length about the natives, as to their mode of dressing and living, which on several occasions, called forth the strongest sympathy, from his listeners, for the sufferers and the many cruelties they had undergone.

Mention of the recent war between Spain and United States, was made many times by the lecturer, and many views as to the progress made by the natives, since peace has been declared, were showed.

HOPE Y.M.A. PLANS SOCIABLE

ENTERTAINMENT TO BE HELD TUESDAY EVENING, MAY 17.

No action of final character was taken by the Hope Chapel Y. M. A. on the new bowling alley question at its meeting last night. It was expected that the organization would do something definite with regard to installing new alleys, but the matter was placed in the hands of a committee for further consideration. This committee, consisting of Benjamin Evans, George McComb, William Dilts, B. C. Firstbrook and Thomas Chamberlain, will get figures on the cost of an enlarged alley structure. To accommodate alleys of the desired kind, the extension that houses the present alley will have to be considerably enlarged.

It was voted to hold a sociable for members on Tuesday evening, May 17. A programme of entertainment will be a feature of the evening. The committee in charge of the affair is J. Fred Wharton, John Cose and B. C. Firstbrook.

The present by-laws are to be revised. George E. Firstbrook, James Peney and John Cose were named as a committee to prepare the revisions.

Two applications for membership were received.

MISS L. M. CONROY BURIED

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD FROM YOUNG WOMAN'S HOME YESTERDAY.

Sorrowing friends gathered in large numbers yesterday afternoon to attend the funeral of Miss Lillian May Conroy. The service was held at her late home on Linden avenue, at 2:30 o'clock.

Mourners filled the house, and the floral tributes were extraordinarily large in number. The casket was hidden in beautiful flowers, and bouquets and designs were everywhere in the room of mourning. There were particularly handsome pieces from the Grace M. E. church trustees, the King's Daughters, of Grace church, and the Sunday-school class of the First M. E. church, to which Miss Conroy belonged. It required a special wagon to carry the flowers.

Rev. Dr. Earp, of Grace M. E. church, to which the dead girl belonged, conducted the service, assisted by Rev. G. L. Gardner, a former pastor of Grace. Both paid touching tribute to Miss Conroy's character and purity of soul. There was singing by members of the Grace M. E. church choir.

The body was placed in the vault at Hillside. It will be buried as soon as a plot can be prepared. The bearers were John Steiner, N. D. Drake, Benjamin Schuck, C. F. Stout, Raymond Brokaw, Clifford Brokaw.

LARGE BOUQUETS ARE PRESENTED THE MINISTER'S WIFE.

An Autograph Album for the Retiring Evangelist—The Programme of the Evening's Entertainment.

The conclusion of Rev. Lester Girard Leggett's four months' evangelical service at the East Third Street chapel, was pleasantly observed last night with a farewell reception to Mr. and Mrs. Leggett, at the chapel. There were over two hundred persons there to enjoy a vocal and instrumental programme.

A feature of the occasion was the presentation of an autograph album to Mr. Leggett. This was appropriately engrossed and signed by Superintendent L. W. Randolph and other officers of the chapel. In receiving the gift, Mr. Leggett thanked one and all and said he would always hold it in pleasant remembrance. Mrs. Leggett was presented with two handsome bouquets.

The programme consisted of piano solos by Clifford Braider, cornet solos by Whitney Frazee, soprano solos by Miss Etta Raybert and Elmer Cutting, violin solos by Frank Malin and violin duets by the Misses Burnet, accompanied by Mrs. Robert Johnston, and selections by the chapel instrumental quartette, George Staats, John Vriebrock, Roy Adams and Fred Borrup, mandolin, violin and piano. ## CHARGED WITH MISCONDUCT

F. A. PHEBUS HELD IN $500 BAIL TO AWAIT GRAND JURY'S ACTION.

Francis A. Phebus, of East Front street, a well known character about town, was arrested by Detective McCarthy yesterday, under a warrant sworn out against him by his wife, Mrs. Anna Phebus, of Newark. The couple have not lived together for more than a decade. The wife charges her husband with misconduct with another woman.

According to Phebus he had heard nothing of his wife since early in the nineties until the warrant was served on him yesterday morning, and believed her dead. The woman came to Chief Kiely this morning, with a message from the county prosecutor. She made a formal complaint against her husband in Justice Huff's court and the man was taken into custody.

Mrs. Elsie Cullen, whom Phebus says is his housekeeper, is the woman named by the wife in her charge against the man.

Phebus said yesterday afternoon that the charge was part of a "miserable game to drag the last drop of blood in his body out on the floor." He said his wife deserted him in 1885, that he took her back, but she decamped a short time after with money that was to have been deposited in a Morristown bank. After that Phebus said he heard nothing of her, and a lawyer had sent him word that she was dead.

Phebus came here form Bernardsville in 1894 He practiced there as a veterinary, and claims to have started the Bernardsville Hunt Club. He became known widely in this vicinity as a dog specialist, and sold veterinary preparations. Astride a Western pony, he rode up and down the city every day for years, and became a familiar figure Two years ago he was injured by a shock from a fallen trolley wire, and secured big damages from the company.

In court yesterday afternoon, before Justice Huff, he described himself as forty-eight. He is white-haired, feeble and bent and looks more like a man of sixty. He moved around with the assistance of a cane. His wife is a handsome, young-looking woman.

Phebus was held in $500 for the grand jury. W. S. Angleman is his lawyer.

Mr. and Mrs. Turner have removed from the Kensington to the Hotel Rosell.

SPEAK-EASY CRUSADE STARTED IN BOROUGH

An Italian is Held in Bail to Appear Before the Grand Jury.

FINED BY RECORDER

WAIVES HEARING ON WARRANT OF COUNTY AUTHORITIES.

Vigorous Campaign to be Made Against Illegal Sale of Liquor—Responsible for Sunday Shop Opening.

Carman Vananze, the Italian arrested by the borough authorities for the alleged illegal sale of liquor, must answer to the charge before the Somerset County Grand Jury. He was taken into custody by County Detective Totten on a State warrant last night, immediately after the recorder had disposed of the borough charge against him.

Vananze was arraigned under the specific charge of furnishing liquor to a minor. The borough ordinance forbids both the giving and selling to minors. Counsellor F. J. Blatz, who appeared for Vananze, pleaded non vult to the charge that Vananze gave the boy, Tony Kupesi, some wine. He denied that the liquor was sold.

Recorder Doud fined the prisoner $30. Contrary to expectation he made no comment on the case. It was expected that he would have something to say with regard to the alleged practice of selling liquor on Sunday by foreign storekeepers, but the sentence was imposed with no reference whatever to the supposed condition surrounding the arrest.

Immediately after the fine had been paid Detective Totten stepped forward and served his warrant on Vananze. The latter was taken at once before Justice Mattison. He pleaded no guilty, but waived examination. He was held in $300 bail for appearance before the grand jury in Somerville. Bail was furnished.

This action marks the first step in an active campaign against the speakeasy evil in the borough. It will be followed by other arrests as fast as sufficient evidence is collected. It is held by the authorities that the sale of liquor furnishes the chief incentive for the evasion of the Sunday closing law by the foreign storekeepers and if that traffic is killed the Sunday opening evil will be killed.

Vananze will be brought up before the court in September. Every effort will be made to convict him, for the moral effect on the other men in the illicit trade.

CONSENTS FOR TROLLEY SPUR

C. J. FISK TO REPORT MATTER TO BOARD OF GOVERNORS.

Charles J. Fisk, president of the Board of Governors of Muhlenberg Hospital, visited Randolph road this morning in company with B. A. Mumford, of the baseball committee of the Alis Club, for the purpose of ascertaining exactly what kind of a spur from the Arlington avenue trolley tracks is desired. Personally, it is not believed that Mr. Fisk has any objections to the laying of the tracks, but he will have to consult with other members of the Board. Besides, the consent of the Common Council is necessary.

Mr. Mumford states that the Public Service Corporation has agreed to lay the tracks to Crescent Oval if the consents are secured and is ready to start the work at short notice. It is not believed that the tracks can be laid in time for the opening game on Saturday.

Cooper-Bromfield Marriage.

Miss Ella Bromfield, of 633 West Third street, and Louis Cooper, a coachman, residing on East Sixth street, were quietly married last night by Rev. F. D. Tildon, pastor of Bethel chapel, at his home, 825 Richmond street. The couple was unattended.

Mrs. Carl Bergheim, of West Fourth street, entertained a number of friends at a kaffe klatsch yesterday afternoon. Fifteen women were in attendance.

MILKMEN'S LICENSE ARE MADE IMPERATIVE

City Board of Health Demands That Dealers Comply With Ordinance Respecting Sales.

THE SMOKE NUISANCE

AUTHORITIES DETERMINED TO STOP USE OF SOFT COAL.

After the Plumbers—Bonds Must be Filed—Sanitary Condition is Said to be Good—The Reports.

Owing to the numerous complaints received by the Board of Health regarding the smoke from the chimneys of the Public Service Corporation electric light plant on West Second street, a committee was appointed at the May meeting yesterday, to investigate the matter and to take such action as is necessary to have the use of soft coal abandoned and the nuisance abated.

The Board adopted a resolution providing that every person selling milk in the city without a permit from the Board, be notified that steps will be taken to stop such sale until the requirement is fulfilled. It also decided that no plans or fees will be accepted from any plumber who has not filed a renewal of his bond with the Board, nor will his work be inspected. This action is due to the fact that all milk permits and plumbers' bonds have expired. At yesterday's meeting forty milk permits were issued. Mrs. Noah Terry's application to collect garbage was granted.

The various reports presented showed the sanitary condition of the city to be good, very few cases of contagious diseases being found here. During the month of April there were reported twelve marriages, nineteen births, two still-births, thirty-six deaths, a total of eighty. Of the marriages, eleven were white and one colored. Thirteen of the births were white, six colored; nine were female and ten male. Of the thirty-six deaths, twenty-seven were white and nine colored; fifteen male and twenty-one female.

Over fifty dairies were visited during the month by Health Officer Thurlow and Health Inspector Addis made 136 inspections.

A HOME DEPARTMENT SOCIAL

BRANCH OF TRINITY CHURCH SUNDAY-SCHOOL HAS ENJOYABLE TIME.

Full measure of enjoyment was derived by the members of the Home Department of Trinity church Sunday-school at the second of their afternoon sociables yesterday. The affair passed off delightfully. Sixty-five members were present.

The church lecture room, where the sociable was held, was prettily decorated in orange. Crepe paper and potted plants were used to secure a most attractive decorative effect.

There was a pleasant programme of music. It included piano solos by Mrs. Ernest Millard, songs by William Jeffery and Miss Bertha Willis, recitation by Miss VanCamp. An amusingly exciting potato race by four of the Department members climaxed the entertainment.

An hour of informal sociability followed the entertainment, during which light refreshments were served. The affair was in charge of the committee of visitors that serve in the Department, at the head of which is Mrs. G. W. Saums.

A statement regarding the work and progress of the Department during the twelve months just completed was distributed among those present. It presented a number of interesting figures.

In April, 1903, the Department numbered 134 in membership. Forty-five were added during the year, bringing the total membership up to 161 in April of this year. During the year only eighteen members withdrew; of this number four joined the main school, seven moved from the city, one died and six left for reasons not named. $149.90 was contributed by members. During the year the department studied a total of 4,796 lessons. Twenty members studied every lesson.

Sixteen visitors are serving in the department. They made 640 visits during the year, which is exclusive of the unnumbered calls made by the field-worker, Mrs. VanName, who is continually working to draw in new members. Mrs. G. W. Saums is at the head of the Department.

JOHN H. COSE AWARDED $85

BILL FOR ROOFING CAUSED A HOT FIGHT IN JUSTICE SMALLEY'S COURT.

For two hours and a half two lawyers contested a contract case bitterly in Justice Smalley's court yesterday afternoon. S. S. Swackhamer and Walter L. Hetfield, Jr., were the opposing counsel. The case was that of John H. Cose, trading under the name of J. W. Cose & Son, against A. J. Winans, over a bill for roofing. Mr. Winans claimed that a flat rate of $55 had been set for the job, and Mr. Cose claimed that the work was to be done by the foot. He said $73 08 was due.

Twelve jurymen heard the case. Both lawyers went at it hammer and tongs, Mr. Hetfield for Cose and Mr. Swackhamer for Winans. Witnesses were racked on cross-examination, and the lawyers engaged in several warm tilts. The proceedings were the hottest a contract case has called out in a local court in a number of years.

After an hour and a half of examination and argument, the case was submitted to the jurors. After an hour's deliberation they decided against the defendant, giving a verdict in full for Mr. Cose, with costs, bringing the total to about $85.

JUDGE KIRKPATRICK IS DEAD

MILLIONAIRE JURIST SUCCUMBS TO BRIGHT'S DISEASE AT NEWARK.

Andrew Kirkpatrick, judge of the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey, died suddenly at his home in Newark yesterday afternoon from Bright's disease. Although in poor health he was active to the last. His last official duties were performed on the bench at Trenton on Monday. Without doubt Judge Kirkpatrick was one of the best known members of the legal profession in New Jersey.

Judge Kirkpatrick was born October 8, 1844, in Washington, the family being of old Scotch stock. Preparing for college at Rutgers College Grammar School, where he was a classmate of the late Vice President Hobart, he entered Union College and was graduated in 1863. He was admitted to the bar as attorney in 1866 and as counsellor-at-law in 1869. The next year he received the degree of Master of Arts, Princeton University, and in 1903 he received that of Doctor of Laws from his alma mater.

Despite the fact that he was a busy man he found time to identify himself with a number of State organizations and corporations. His fortune is rated at several millions. A second wife and six children survives him.

LIBRARY DIRECTORS' MEETING

WALTER L. C. GLENNY PRESENTS A COPY OF AN OLD NEWSPAPER.

Matters chiefly of a routine nature were considered at the May meeting of the directors of the Public Library, held last night. The recommendation of the library committee, that book plates be provided, was adopted, and a suitable sum was set aside for necessary improvements and repairs to the building and grounds. The committee now preparing a serial list, reported that the work is well under way. Through the vice president, Walter L. C. Glenney presented the library with a copy of the New York Morning Chronicle of March 9, 1805, and the librarian was requested to acknowledge the same.

J. Herbert Case, as treasurer, presented his report, and bills were ordered paid from the general library fund, the Babcock income account and from the Babcock fund. The matter of vacations for the library staff was on motion made the same as last year. After the presentation of the librarian's report, the meeting adjourned.

Rosso Stole Coal.

Paul Rosso, an Italian, arrested some time ago for stealing coal by Patrolman Hamilton, was brought before Judge Runyon yesterday. The man insisted on his innocence when arrested and his hearing was delayed to enable the police to thoroughly investigate the matter. He was found guilty and was fined $3.

Mrs. Ginna's Gift.

The profusion of beautiful flowers that decorated the Casino last Thursday evening on the occasion of the sixteenth anniversary of the Monday Afternoon Club, were the generous gift of Mrs. Stephen A. Ginna, of Watchung avenue.

SHAKESPEARIAN COMEDY BY TALENTED AMATEURS

Local Society Folk to Produce The Taming of the Shrew at the Casino Tomorrow Night.

STORY OF THE PLAY

HANDSOME SCENERY TO BE A FEATURE OF PERFORMANCE.

Second Production Saturday Night—Those Who Are in the Cast—The Sale of Tickets Very Large.

Much interest is felt in the coming charity production of "The Taming of the Shrew" which is to be given at the Casino tomorrow and Saturday evenings. Every effort has been made to follow the true interpretation of the comedy while costumes and stage settings will be as elaborate as the conditions at the Casino will admit. The dress rehearsal will be held tonight and it will be public; a small admission fee to be collected at the door.

Some excellent opportunities are offered by this play. The plot deals with the two daughters of Baptista Minola (William R. Cock) a rich citizen of Padua. The elder, Katharina, (Mrs. W. L. Saunders) is a shrew in temper while her sister, Bianca, (Miss Nanon West) is just the opposite. There are suitors aplenty for the younger daughter, among them the aged Gremio, (William T. Pelletier) the gallant Hortensio, (George S. Ring) and the wealthy but adventurous Lucentio, (Harry M. Curtis) but none for the shrewish Kate. The suitors are in dispair over Baptista's command that Bianca shall not wed until a husband is found for Katharina, when Petruchio, a gentleman of Verona, appears and offers to end their troubles by accepting that role. Disguised as a tutor, Lucentio secretly makes love to Bianca while his serving man, Tranio, (Clifford W. McGee) impersonates the master.

To tame his bride, Petruchio suddenly developes such a choleric temperament that her's is mild beside it. Assisted by his serving man, Grismio, (Laurens H. VanBuren) Petruchio supplies cause for much mirth and laughter. In these scenes appear his housekeeper, (Mrs. F. W. Iredell) the tailor, (Allen B. Laing) and Petruchio's servants (James Dodd, Herbert S. Rogers, Harry L. McGee and William R. Rushmore.)

Meanwhile the bogus Lucentio is looked on with favor by Baptista and with the help of another servant, Biondello, (Charles E. Faber) produces a bogus father in the person of an elderly pedant, (Charles B. Morse) who readily agrees to the match. Bianca and the real Lucentio have slipped away and are wedded when the real father of the bridegroom, Vincentio, (Charles H. Lyman) appears. Complications are inevitable but ultimately all is untangled. Petruchio and Lucentio have the sisters for their wives while Hortensio consoles himself with a charming widow (Mrs. Clifford W. McGee.) Petruchio's tactics have been successful and in the closing scene Katharina proves herself the most dutiful wife of all.

While the sale of seats for both performances has been very large, the remaining tickets are now on sale at Armstrong's drug store.

THE FAIR AT ST. LOUIS.

A Glorious Triumph of American Progress.

Every true American is interested in the vast Exposition which has just been opened to the public gaze at St. Louis. It is grand in conception, superb in detail and no branch of science, art or industry has been overlooked in the allotment of space for the proper exhibition of the progress which they severally have made.

Likewise amusements are a prominent feature of the Fair, and all that is best and most wholesome have been included. The buildings are beautiful in design and mammoth in proportion, while the landscape surroundings are elaborate and fully in keeping with the architectural monuments, for the buildings can be called nothing else. No other Exposition can compare from the stand-point of scope or vastness, and a visit to the St. Louis Fair is nothing short of a great educational treat.

ODELL SIGNS BILLS

Rapid Transit and Automobile Measures Made Law.

ELSBERG BILL WAS THROWN OUT

Speed of Motor Cars Has Been Regulated to No Greater Rate Than Is Reasonable and Proper.

ALBANY, N. Y., May 4.—Governor Odell has signed the two rapid transit bills affecting New York city only introduced by Senator White. The third bill in the rapid transit series, the so called Elsberg bill, was killed by the rules committee of the assembly. One of the bills signed removes the $50,000,000 limitation upon subway bond issues and substitutes therefor such amount as may be prescribed by the board of estimate.

Governor Odell also signed the three bills of Senator Hill supplanting the automobile law of last year. The important provision affecting present holders of certificates is that they must return them, with $1, to the secretary of state for the issue of a new certificate with the old number. First registry will hereafter cost $2. Chauffeurs also must be registered with a like fee.

With reference to speed, the old detail regulations are replaced by a new provision fixing the limit at "no greater rate than is reasonable and proper" on a public highway nor so as to endanger the life or limb of any person or the safety of any property. Where the territory contiguous to the public highway is closely built up the maximum is a mile in six minutes, in a city or village a mile in four minutes, elsewhere outside of a city or village a mile in three minutes.

The law takes effect at once, and thirty days are allowed for compliance.

Altogether the most important and most drastic labor law passed by the last legislature has been signed by Governor Odell.

It amends the labor law, transferring from the factory inspector to the commissioner of labor jurisdiction over tenement house manufacture. It provides that no license for such manufacture may be issued while there exists in the tenement in question any contagious, infectious or communicable disease or any uncomplied with order or violation of the local health authorities indicating any insanitary condition. An affirmative certificate of the local health authorities must be required before the place may be licensed.

The commissioner may require any filthy or insanitary condition to be abated, and if the place habitually offends in this respect he may "cause to be affixed to the entrance door of such apartment a placard calling attention to such facts and prohibiting the manufacture, alteration, repair or finishing of said articles therein."

A Seven-year-old Hero.

BOSTON, May 4.—In spite of the heroism of her seven-year-old brother, Grace D., the infant daughter of Samuel C. Hunter, has been fatally burned here. Frank, the brother, also was seriously burned while trying to extinguish the flames, which had caught his sister's clothing while the children were playing near the kitchen stove. Unable himself to put out the fire, in spite of many burns he lifted the blazing form and carried it to another room, where his mother was, and then fell unconscious. Physicians who were called said that the girl could not recover. The boy will live.

Cannon Not a Candidate.

WASHINGTON, May 4.—"Even at the risk of being accused of declining that which I probably could not get if I desired it I answer most unequivocally that if the nomination were tendered to me I would not accept it under any circumstances whatever." Thus strongly did Speaker Cannon in an authorized interview emphasize his determination with reference to the vice presidency. As he concluded dictating what he had to say the speaker added, "If there is any language which can be more decisive write it in."

Judge Goodwin's Appointment.

WASHINGTON, May 4. — Judge Goodwin of Aurora, Ill., has been selected by Postmaster General Payne for the position of assistant attorney general for the postoffice department. The duties of this office for some time past have been filled by the Hon. Charles H. Robb, who has been appointed solicitor general for the department of justice and who took a prominent part in assisting in the investigation of the postal frauds.

Six Missing Since Storm.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., May 4.—The storm that swept the southern California coast last Sunday, doing much property damage and imperiling life in many instances, may have caused the death of six men who left Avalon bay, Catalina island, in a forty foot yawl during the height of the storm and who have not since been heard from. Aboard the craft was Joseph Fellows, a Terminal island boat builder, with a party of friends.

Darragh Renominated.

CLARE, Mich., May 4. — Congressman A. B. Darragh of St. Louis was renominated by acclamation here by the Republican convention of the Eleventh district. Theodore Schmidt of Reed City and Andrew B. Dougherty of Elk Rapids were selected as delegates to the national convention. The resolutions indorse President Roosevelt.

Weather Probabilities.

Partly cloudy; light winds.

AMUSEMENTS.

At the Knickerbocker Theatre Monday evening, the Frank L. Pearley Opera Company produced a three act comedy opera entitled "A Venetian Romance," the book by Cornelia Osgood Tyler, and the music by Frederick Celt Wright. It is sure of a successful run. Effective and beautiful stage pictures, artistic and becoming costumes, and if not over original, lively, and now and then pretty and catching airs and more than usually good choruses, with a refinement of atmosphere brought to last night's premiere a warm reception. Mrs. Tyler has written a remarkably good book for a first attempt and provided for elaborate stage pictures. The first act, the scene of which is laid in Venice, is the best. The opera has a motif—called the Kobber motif—a catching air, which the audience hummed on leaving and which is constantly repeated thorugh the piece. This, the choruses at the three final curtains and the opening chorus of the third act, a love duet in the first, a trio in the second and a solo and a solo and chorus. "The Cuckoo and the Willow," in the third act, are all good. There are three show girls rather inanely called the "Famous Triplets of Tripoli," who are the prettiest seen in a Broadway show in many a season, and whose gowns of crimson brocaded silk were audibly admired by the feminine portion of the audience—a sincere compliment.

Paul West and John W. Bratton launched a jaunty craft on the treacherous sea of musical comedy Monday night and after a merry voyage through a storm of applause came to a safe anchorage at the Majestic Theatre. Their splendid effort is called "The Man From China." It has the cleverest musical numbers and most neatly written lyrics that have been heard in New York in some time. Both the author and composer were aided greatly by Charles A. Bigelow, who now comes into the lime light as a full-fledged star and whose amusing eccentricities are brought to bear on the character of a "human band," a once familiar but now almost forgotten oddity in street life. He was continuously amusing, and in his antics lay much of the vim of the new piece. But he was not the only one. Aimee Angeles, a very sylph of the stage, looked charming and danced prettily, and Stella Mayhew, a newcomer in musical-comedy, romped away with the obesity honors the moment she had got fairly started in her first song, "Fifty-seven Ways to Catch a Man." Although there were twenty-one of these song numbers and among them the hits were numerous. The production is bound to be a revenue getter.

LOST LEG HURT HIM.

Queer Experience of a Lineman Who Claimed That Amputated Limb Caused Great Pain.

William Dusser, a telegraph lineman of Las Vegas, N. M., fell from a telegraph pole about a month ago, sustaining injuries which necessitated the amputation of his right leg.

The severed member was buried, but Dusser insisted that it was paining him constantly and that there was somehting between his toes.

Attendants at the hospital tried to turn his mind from what they supposed was pure imagination to other matters. But he asserted, with greater emphasis, that the amputated leg gave him great pain.

He grew so persistent that the undertaker who buried it was consulted, and asked to take it up and examine it. The other day the leg was taken up and examined, and Dusser's claim that there was something between the toes was verified.

The undertaker carefully washed the offending member, straightened it out, and dressed it.

Dusser now claims that the leg gives him no more pain, and that that which was unbearable is now removed.

The most astounding statement that the man makes is that when his leg was taken from its grave he was sitting talking with some friends, when, he not knowing that the undertaker was carrying out his wish at that time, suddenly exclaimed: "I feel the cold wind striking my leg."

He noted the exact time, and afterward asked the undertaker about it, and his claim was confirmed, because the leg was disinterred at the very time that he said he felt the cold wind strike it.

Dusser is a man of intelligence, and while many in the community are skeptical he is so sincere that his conviction is shared by many.

GIRL KILLS BIG LION.

Has a Narrow Escape from Death While Hunting Jack Rabbits Far from Her House.

Attacked by a huge mountain lion, Tessie Edwards, a 12-year-old girl, of Clarks Fork, Utah, not only escaped injury, but killed the fierce beast.

Miss Edwards was out with a rifle after jack-rabbits, and had wandered several miles from her home. She had entered a clump of trees, when she heard a movement behind her. Instinctively she jumped to one side just in time to escape the claws of a big mountain lion who pounced on the spot she had just left.

The girl hastily fired a shot at the animal and attempted to run. The beast, though wounded, prepared for another spring and Miss Edwards again fired. Hard hit this time, the beast fell.

TRIED TO REACH HIS PREY.

Snarling and crawling toward the girl, who was cornered among the brush unable to get out of the way, the lion still tried to reach his prey. A shell stuck in the rifle long enough to give him time to wriggle close to the girl, but she managed to adjust it and, taking deliberate aim, she fired her last shot. This settled the animal.

Collectors Gather Keys.

"Clefmania" is a comparatively modern form of the collecting craze. It consists of an irresistible ambition to gather together keys of all sorts, sizes and shapes. One victim to the habit, a woman, openly confessed recently to having traveled over 100,000 miles in pursuit of her hobby, during which time she had expended, entirely on keys, quite a respectable fortune. Her collection comprises the key of the Nuremberg iron virgin; one said to have belonged to Cleopatra's jewel case; a huge iron specimen from the tower of London, picked up in a Wardour street shop; the one that used to unlock Anne Hathaway's cottage at Stratford-on-Avon; and many others equally curious and interesting.

IOWA FOR HEARST

Democratic Convention at Des Moines Will So Instruct.

HIS MEN SEEM TO HAVE FIRM CONTROL

Unless the Unexpected Happens—Congressman Wade Said, "Conservatives Will Not Bolt, but Fight It Out to a Finish."

DES MOINES, Ia., May 4.—The indications are that the Iowa Democrats will send a delegation to the St. Louis convention instructed for William Randolph Hearst for president by their action today. The opponents of Mr. Hearst have played their last card and lost, and unless the unexpected happens the followers of Hearst have firm control of the state convention.

Chairman Jackson of the state central committee, who had been counted with the opposition, has come out for Hearst, voting with other members of the Hearst committee, and this defeated a plan of the antis to determine the regular delegations in the state central committee instead of in the credentials committee of the convention.

The anti-Hearst leaders believed they had a majority in the convention and hoped to seat their delegates from several contested counties in this manner. The fight over the contested delegations is being fought in the convention, and even many of Hearst's opponents admit that he is strong enough in numbers to win.

Chairman Jackson's action was important for the further reason that he voted to give Charles A. Walsh, secretary of the Democratic national committee, a seat and vote in the state committee. Mr. Walsh has been one of the Hearst managers from the start.

Although it is predicted by many that there will be a bolt of the anti-Hearst men if they find themselves unable to stop the Hearst sentiment, the party leaders say that this is improbable. Congressman M. J. Wade, who has been a leader of the opponents of Mr. Hearst, said: "The conservatives will not bolt. In my judgment they will fight to the finish, but will see the convention through regardless of its color."

QUARANTINE AT BORDER.

Mexican Government Refuses to Permit Trains to Cross.

LAREDO, Tex., May 4.—The quarantine situation causes much annoyance. The Mexican government refuses absolutely to permit trains to run through Monterey and other points infected by yellow fever last year without stopping. These trains must stop at all stations just as they did before the quarantine became effective, and this prevents travel across the border.

Trainmen arriving from Mexican points were refused permission to cross the border, and the entire crews, including the Pullman employees, were turned back. The state health authorities here are not permitted to accept immune certificates issued by themselves and the United States public health and marine hospital service physician.

Many of the railroad men who have had the fever and who hold certificates of immunity are prevented from crossing the border.

Alarm is being felt for the Jersey forests which are being rapidly destroyed by fires. Well, when they are all gone, we'll still have lots of political timber to burn.

It's seldom the ad itself that pays—always the businesses proposition. That's why the imitator who steals nothing but the advertising is holding the bag, as it were.—Ex.

It is said that John Kean is opposed to the selection of Governor Murphy to fill the Republican National chairmanship. Getting to have a good deal of respect for the senior Senator.

Even a neighborhood store can advertise in a newspaper with profit. A small space in which a single article is exploited at a time, and with some white margin in order to make the letters conspicuous, does not cost much. A small grocer in New York says he has found such advertising profitable.—Ex.

Grover Cleveland talked to a small crowd at Princeton last night and today his words are receiving the thoughtful attention of the thinking people of the Nation. William Jennings Bryan speaks frequently to large crowds and his words carry no weight at all. That's the difference between the principles they represent; one sane Democracy and the other impractible Populism.

SEEN AND HEARD IN PLAINFIELD'S INDUSTRIAL PLANTS.

Joe Ryan has returned to his home in Newark, after visiting George Linzer, of West Second street.

Edward Schroppe, of Jackson avenue, has resigned his position with the Pond Machine Tool Company.

A large number of floor hands started to work at the Aluminum Press Company's plant at Dewey Park yesterday.

Norman Barnes, of Manager Walter's baseball team, has taken a position at the Pond Machine Tool Company's works.

Hugh Gray, of West Fourth street, has resumed his position at the patternshop at the Pond plant, after a week's sickness.

John Mayberry, of Rahway, has taken a position at the Pond plant. Mayberry was formerly employed in the Public Service Corporation trolley line.

A baseball team has been organized at the Levering & Garrigues plant. Ellwood Sebring has been chosen manager. Joe Bolby will captain the team.

Jack Martin, who recently resigned his position at the Potter plant, has taken a position in the tool room of the Pond Machine Tool Company's works.

George Nichols, who was recently honorably discharged from Uncle Sam's service, has taken a position in the foundry of the Potter Press Company's plant.

Michael Peterson, of Astor place, who has been in New Orleans for the past two months on business for the Manganese Steel Safe Company, has returned home.

Forty thousand clothing workers throughout Greater New York will be involved in the open-shop policy of the National Association of Clothiers, and the Unions have decided to oppose it.

There is a prospect that when the plant of the Cook Locomotive Works, in Paterson, is opened, the management will find itself confronted with a labor trouble which may involve the entire plant, and suspend work there. Sleeping quarters, in which it is stated there are provided 100 cots, as well as a restaurant and other preparations for trouble, have been completed, and the point to the expectation of carrying for a force of strike breakers who may be brought and placed to work at the plant. Other departments throughout the shop will refuse to handle this non-union output from the blacksmithing and forge departments, which would have the effect of closing down the plant.

A general strike of the machinists on the Santa Fe system has been ordered by President O'Connell, of the International Association of Machinists. It will affect directly 6,000 members of the association and may result also in bringing out the boilermakers, blacksmiths and coreworkers. In forecasting the probable extent of the strike, President O'Connell said 15,000 men would be affected if the differences between the company and men are protracted. The allied metal workers, tin and copper smiths and the small army of helpers engaged in these trades are expected to quit work. There is at present no prospect of the transportation department being crippled, except indirectly. Third Vice President J. W. Kendrick, of the Santa Fe, who has charge of the repair and construction work, has expressed a determination to fight the strike to the finish. He has a reputation as a strike-breaker. On the other hand, President O'Connell, of machinists, says his men will remain on strike indefinitely without hardship. "The association's finances are the best of all the unions in the country," he said. "We can carry the men for any length of time."

Kuropatkin Reports Great Losses In Yalu Battle.

TOGO AGAIN ATTACKS PORT ARTHUR

Details of Rout of Russians Show Disastrous Losses to the Czar's Troops Owing to the Stubbornness of the Conflict.

LONDON, May 4.—Late dispatches from the theater of war in the far east show that Admiral Togo to complete the demoralization of the Russian forces made a fierce attack on Port Arthur. Several merchant ships were sent in to block the channel and were sunk by the Russian gun fire. It is said two Japanese torpedo boats were also sunk. Admiral Alexeieff himself conducted the defense.

Details of the defeat of the Russians by the Japanese under Kuroki at the battle of the Yalu approach the dimensions of a disaster. Their losses as far as known are 3,000 to 4,000 killed, 330 officers and men taken prisoners, twenty-seven field guns and six quick firing guns captured, while General Kashtalinsky, two regimental commanders and one artillery commander were killed, with many other superior officers killed or wounded.

GENERAL KUROKI.

The Japanese losses seem to be about 900, the first dispatches saying that 600 men had been killed or wounded and the subsequent reports of General Kuroki saying that "300 were added to our casualties in pursuit." No general officers were reported killed or wounded.

According to all accounts, the Russians fought a stubborn rear guard action, but were outmaneuvered at every point, and finally two entire companies of artillery surrendered by hoisting the white flag. The Japanese pay a glowing tribute to the bravery of the defeated Russians, saying, "They fought bravely to the last."

In St. Petersburg there is a disposition to blame General Kassalitch for having exceeded his orders in making so stubborn a resistance. There is talk of his court martial.

Indications of the straits to which the Russian advance guard has been reduced is the news that General Kuropatkin, the commander in chief, has himself hastened to the front with 20,000 picked troops to retrieve the day and the hastening to the far east of an artillery armament to replace that lost in the battle. The Russians have been seriously crippled by the loss of so many guns.

There is little doubt that the Japanese advance now seriously threatens the ability of Port Arthur to hold out, while a great body of Russian troops has been cut off and may be captured.

Viceroy Alexeieff has reported to St. Petersburg the attempt to block Port Arthur early yesterday morning as follows:

"I respectfully report to your highness that a fresh attack was made by the enemy with the object of obstructing the entrance to the port and that it has been successfully repelled.

"At 1 o'clock in the morning five torpedo boats were perceived near the coast from the eastern batteries. Under the fire of our warships and the batteries they retreated southward.

"At 1:45 o'clock the first fireship, escorted by several torpedo boats, was sighted, and we opened fire upon it from the batteries and the warships. Three-quarters of an hour afterward our searchlights revealed a number of fireships making for the entrance of the harbor from the east and southeast. The coast defense vessels Otvashni and Gremieshchi and the gunboat Giliak repulsed each by a well directed fire.

"Altogether eight ships were sunk by our vigorous cannonade, by Whitehead torpedoes launched from our torpedo boats and by the explosion of several submarine mines. Further, according to the reports of the officers commanding the batteries and the gunboat Giliak, two Japanese torpedo boats were destroyed.

After 4 o'clock a. m. the batteries and warships ceased fire, subsequently firing only at intervals on the enemy's torpedo boats which were visible on the horizon.

"All the fireships carried quick firing guns with which they maintained a constant fire.

"Up to the present thirty Japanese, including two mortally wounded officers who took refuge on a launch or were rescued from the fireships by us, have been picked up. The inspection of the roadstead and the work of saving the enemy's men were hindered by the heavy sea running. We suffered no casualties, with the exception of a seaman belonging to the torpedo boat destroyer Boevoi.

"On the appearance of the first fireship, accompanied by the enemy's torpedo boats, I boarded a launch and proceeded to the Otvashni to take immediate measures for repulsing the fireships.

"The crews of the Japanese fireships which were sunk tried to save themselves by boats, in which they put out to sea. A majority of them were killed by our machine guns and rifles. Some of the survivors were picked up.

"A number of Japanese were seen clinging to the masts and funnels of the sunken vessels, and these were rescued by our sailors. Thirteen of the wounded Japanese have since died. The survivors were supplied with food and clothing, and the wounded were taken to the hospital ship Mongolia.

"During the morning ten of the enemy's torpedo boats remained in the offing and were fired on at long range.

"At 9:30 o'clock it was signaled that there was a Japanese fleet in the vicinity and that two of the enemy's launches had been run ashore."

General Kuropatkin reports to the emperor as follows:

"According to the testimony of persons arriving here during the night from Fengwangcheng the Japanese on May 1 were operating from the front with an overwhelming force of artillery and attacked our left flank on the Yalu in superior force, enveloping it. A hot fight occurred, where the Twenty-second and Twelfth regiments of sharpshooters were engaged, defending themselves vigorously, on several occasions taking the offensive and inflicting considerable losses on the Japanese. Our small force could not hold this position and retired, leaving several guns in the hands of the enemy. Owing to our heavy losses in men and horses we could not succeed in carrying off our guns, but their breechlocks were removed. Our force fell back on Fengwangcheng.

"General Zassalitch's force consisted of five regiments and five batteries; but, according to the information at hand, one regiment and two batteries stationed at Shakhevze were not engaged, the Japanese not attacking that point.

"Our losses, owing to the stubbornness of the conflict, were at least from 3,000 to 4,000 men killed in the Yalu river fight.

"The position at Potietinsky was bombarded on the front and on both flanks.

"Thirty Japanese guns were pitted against our battery at Potietinsky, which after having silenced the enemy's mountain battery directed its fire on the Japanese infantry and sustained few losses so long as it was not obliged to take up another position owing to the withdrawal of our infantry from the bank.

"The Japanese under our fire made continual bayonet attacks on our troops. Japanese bodies lay in heaps at the river fords.

"Simultaneously with the attack at Potietinsky an attack was being made on our left flank at Turenchen, and the Russian trenches had to be abandoned under the Japanese enfilading fire. Our reserves several times mingled with the first line, thus enabling it for a long time to maintain its position.

"Finally all of the supports were brought up into the firing line, but owing to the great distance from our main reserves it was impossible for them to reach the advanced force in time, and our men retired from the principal position to another position in the rear of Tulenchen, followed by the concentrated fire of the Japanese, who could not make up their minds to descend from the crest they occupied and face the fire of our batteries at Poulemetts. They dug fresh trenches and opened a heavy artillery fire on our new position and began to turn our left flank toward Chingow.

"Two battalions of the Eleventh regiment and the Third battery of the Third brigade of artillery belonging to the main reserve were ordered to Laofunhou. They occupied a position with a double firing line, thus permitting our advanced line, which had suffered heavily, and our wounded to retire.

"A battalion of the Eleventh regiment, both flanks of which were repeatedly turned by the enemy, advanced, with fixed bayonets, preceded by buglers to clear a passage. The Japanese, however, declined a hand to hand conflict and recoiled.

"In front of the regiment a chaplain bearing a cross was struck by two bullets.

"It was only by advancing on the Japanese with the bayonet that some of the regiments were able to retire.

"On the arrival of the battalion of the Tenth regiment all the troops were able to beat a retreat.

"The losses of the Eleventh and Twelfth regiments were very great, but they are not yet exactly known. In the Eleventh the killed included Colonel Laming and Lieutenant Colonels Dometti and Raievsky. The Twelfth lost nine company commanders killed or wounded.

"The second and Third batteries of the Sixth brigade having lost the greater number of their men and horses, were compelled to abandon their guns after rendering them useless. For the same reason six guns of the Third battery of the Third brigade of artillery and eight poulemetts which could not be brought away were also disabled. The mountainous nature of the country made it impossible to save the guns by means of drag ropes.

"Up to the present 800 wounded, including fourteen officers, have been brought to the hospital at Fengwangcheng. Their eventual transportation elsewhere is fully assured.

"Japanese cavalry appeared to the southeast of Fengwangcheng; but, seeing two companies with two guns opposed to it, it did not venture to approach.

"The transportation of the wounded by hired Chinese bearers to Fengwangcheng was very difficult. Two wheeled carts and horses lent by the cavalry were also utilized for this purpose. Most of the wounded, however, arrived on foot, assisted by their comrades, and reached Fengwangchen within twenty-four hours.

"Lieutenant General Zassalitch declares that the troops retained their morale notwithstanding the heavy losses and are ready for fresh engagements.

"The Japanese losses were very heavy at the passage of the Ai river, at their position at Turenchen and on the hill occupied by the two battalions of the Eleventh regiment.

"According to the statements of participants in the battle, at least 3,000 to 4,000 were killed."

A Chefu dispatch says:

"The Japanese landed troops and attacked and captured Newchwang on Monday evening, the Russians falling back to protect the railway."

Anti-Jewish Riots at Bender.

VIENNA, May 4.—Reports are current here that there were serious anti-Jewish riots in the Bessarabian town of Bender on April 30. It is stated that the rioting began Saturday forenoon while the congregations were in the synagogues.

The mob smashed the windows of houses in the Jewish quarter, entered the houses and threw women and children out of the windows. A girl was murdered in a most revolting manner, the reports say. Cossacks have been sent to restore order.

The outbreak is said to have been due to the anger of the crowd over Russian reverses in the far east.

ESTELLE ALBIN'S DEATH.

Mrs. Powell on Trial For Murder at Dover, Del.

DOVER, Del., May 4.—With a crowded courtroom and with public interest more intense than ever the trial of Mrs. Mary A. Powell for the murder of Estelle Albin was resumed in the Kent county court.

Previous to the opening of the court State Detective Francis came in, bringing with him in a bag the relics of the crime. They consisted of a knife, a beer bottle and a club, all alleged to have been instruments in the murder, and also the blood stained garments of the victim and of the woman who is now being tried for the murder.

James Hollinger, a neighbor of the Powells, was the first witness for the state. He identified the prisoner at the bar as Mrs. Powell. He described the location of the Powell home and said that it was in North Murderkill Hundred. It is sometimes said to be in South Murderkill Hundred, so close to the dividing line does it stand, and this uncertainty may be made to play a conspicuous part in the prisoner's defense.

CLOUDBURST OVER TEXAS.

Bridges Washed Away—Great Damage to Crops.

AUSTIN, Tex., May 4.—This section and all central Texas was visited by a terrific cloudburst yesterday afternoon, the rain pouring down in incessant torrents for several hours. The streets were wrecked by the flood of water, and great damage was done to crops in the fields.

A number of bridges were washed away during the storm, and country roads will be impassable for several days. It was the most terrific rainstorm that has visited this section in years.

The trains arriving here from the north came through water six inches on the tracks, and the train crews had to clear the track of drift at many points. Three railroad bridges and much track are washed away.

Lake Shipments Will Be Tied Up.

OTTAWA, Ont., May 4.—An order has been sent out from the head offices of the Canada Atlantic Railway company notifying all agents in the New England states and elsewhere not to accept consignments of freight for lake shipments. From present indications the Canada Atlantic Transit company's fleet will be tied up and will remain tied up as a result of a labor struggle in which the Lake Carriers' association is involved. Navigation on all the great lakes, with the exception of Lake Superior, is scheduled to open on Thursday, but few vessels will get under way.

Death From "Electric Mules."

SCHENECTADY, N. Y., May 4.—Jesse Resseguir was killed at the General Electric works while working on one of the "electric mules" to be tested for use on the canals of the state shortly. He received 600 volts and died after being removed to the hospital. William Jones, assistant foreman, received a charge amounting to 2,300 volts. The coils in an armature grounded, and he received the full charge allotted to the machine. Jones was removed to the hospital, where he recovered.

Frauds In Whisky Stamps.

RALEIGH, N. C., May 4.—A special from Greensboro says: "In the federal court here the case against T. M. Angle, B. F. Sprinkle and William Young, charged with defrauding the government by the use of low proof stamps for high proof whisky, was given to the jury. The jurors asked for typewritten copies of the evidence in the case, which were sent them. No verdict as yet."

Four Children Killed by Bolt.

HOBART, Okla., May 4.—The farmhouse of Peter Schmitt at Bessie, twenty-five miles north of here, was struck by lightning and four children, aged eight, six, four and two, were killed. The children were asleep upstairs.

Judge Kirkpatrick Dead.

NEWARK, N. J., May 4.—Judge Andrew Kirkpatrick of the United States circuit court is dead at his home here.

An Ideal Location
Rosedale and Linden Park Cemeteries

LARGEST IN THE STATE
LINDEN, N. J.
Beautiful and Accessible
2 Miles from Elizabeth, 7 Miles from Newark.
14 MILES FROM NEW YORK
On Main Line Pennsylvania Railroad
Why Lots in these Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors
BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.
BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.
LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW
BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.
BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.
LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT
BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL, or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.
BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.

Dead Heat For Handicap.

NEW YORK, May 4.—Coming to the finish in a head and head drive Lady Amelia and Jacquin ran a dead heat in the Williamsburg handicap, six furlongs, the feature of the card at Jamaica. Tim Payne was third. Lady Amelia and Jacquin ran like a team in the last few strides, and the judges were unable to decide between them. Lady Amelia was favorite, while Jacquin was quoted at 4 to 1, at which figure Davy Johnson, owner of Jacquin, bet $2,000 on his horse. Both owners agreed to a runoff, which was decided twenty minutes later. In the runoff Jacquin was held at 1 to 3, and 5 to 2 was laid against Lady Amelia's chances of winning. Jacquin won easily by five lengths.

Racing at Louisville.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 4.—Miss Inez, Charles H. Ellison's Pirate of Penzance filly, won the Debutante stakes at four furlongs in a driving finish, with imp. Lady Savoy second. The others were beaten off. Five horses started in the steeplechase, and all fell but Volantine, which won. Nitrate, the favorite, fell at the last jump, and Leo Plante went over him and fell on Jockey Schimmel, who was astride of Nitrate. Schimmel's right leg was broken in two places, and he was seriously injured internally and may die. The attendance was good and the sport fine.

Surprises at Chess Tourney.

CAMBRIDGE SPRINGS, Pa., May 4.—In the sixth round of the international chess masters' tournament, played at the Hotel Rider in this city, the usual surprises were again in store for the many spectators. Notable among these were the defeat of Champion Lasker by Pillsbury, Marco's short work of Hodges, Fox's victory over Schlechter, Marshall's fine form against Lawrence and the scoring of half a point by Barry.

Philanthropist Beat Field.

CHICAGO, May 4.—By winning the third race at Worth Philanthropist stamped himself as one of the best two-year-olds in the west, defeating a high class field in the fast time of 48 seconds flat for the half mile. This is within two-fifths of a second of the track record. Philanthropist, which was the favorite, won as he pleased with a length and a half to spare. Seasick had a like advantage over Luzarion for the place.

Good Races at Oakland.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 4.—There were some good races at Oakland, favorites securing three of the events. Cassie W. was plunged on to win the first race. Although away well, she failed to display any speed and finished next to last. Rustic Girl, a 10 to 1 shot, won from Maud Muller.

Operator Won the Feature at Delmar.

ST. LOUIS, May 4.—Operator, the favorite, won the fourth, the feature of an ordinary card at Delmar park. Kindred led to the stretch, where Operator came away and won easily. Lynch and Neversuch were the other winning favorites.

Belle Kinney Got the Baby Stakes.

KANSAS CITY, May 4.—At Elmridge three favorites, Skilful, Airship and

DIAMOND DUST.

It is possible that Charles Dixon will be the official scorer for the Alis Club this season.

Richardson, who played first base for Alis last season, will fill the same position for the Summit team this year.

Two games in the Boys' Baseball League will take place this afternoon. Whittier School will meet Leal's and Y. M. C. A. will face P. H. S.

There is a high fence about the bleachers on the Alis field that will trouble the grafters. Seven hundred feet of boarding has been put up.

The finishing touches will be made at Crescent Oval this week prior to the opening of the baseball season on Saturday between Alis and the Aeolians.

The Reform A. C. will play the West Ends on St. Mary's field Saturday afternoon. Manager Walters, of the West Ends, will announce his lineup tomorrow.

Members of the Y. M. C. A. baseball team are getting their field on Myrtle avenue in shape for Saturday's game with Clinton Avenue. Yesterday the backstop was put up and the diamond was maked out.

"Pop" Johnson, a veteran umpire of the National League, will probably handle the indicator at the Alis games this season. Manager Johnston, of the baseball committee, hopes to secure his services in time for the opening game on Saturday.

The baseball committee of the Alis Club has provided seating accommodations at Crescent Oval for 1,200 persons and if necessary additional seats will be secured. It is estimated that fully 1,000 persons will witness the opening game on Saturday with the Aeolians, if the weather is favorable.

Manager Trotter, of the Plainfield A. A. has aroused the anger of Manager Walters, of the West End F. C., by asserting in the public prints that he, Walters, had confessed an overwhelming fear of meeting the Trotter colts, and cancelled dates with the Plainfields because of frigid extremities. "The truth of the matter," said Manager Walters last night, "is that Trotter went around saying he would play one game with my team and dump us on the second—we were scheduled to meet May 14 and July 9. He said he wanted to make enough out of us to get new balls and mitts. I heard of that scheme and put it before the players. They agreed with me that it would be much better to dump Trotter out of his new balls and mitts than to have him dump us out of a game. So we called the dates off. Trotter acknowledged to me that he made the crack about dumping us, and that puts him where he can't squeal about cancellations."

BANISH PIGS FROM BOROUGH

NORTH PLANFIELD BOARD OF HEALTH TAKES ACTION ON SEVERAL MATTERS.

No pigs must be kept in the heart of the borough. That is the edict issued by the North Plainfield Board of Health, promulgated for the first time last night at the regular monthly meeting.

Not much trouble has been experienced with pigs over the brook, but the board believes that steps should be taken to prevent any porcine unpleasantness. Pigs must be confined to the outskirts of the municipality, and discouraging restrictions hedge about the privilege of keeping them even there. Not more than two pigs may be kept in any one place, and a fee of fifty cents must be paid before these are endowed with legality. Owners of pigs who disobey the regulation will be punished.

The spitting ordinance was passed on its third reading. Hereafter everyone caught spitting on the sidewalks, in cars or in public places will be liable to arrest and possible imprisonment.

Practically all the milkmen in the borough have complied with the law regarding licenses. They will be watched sharply in future and no evasions will be permitted.

MISS GIDDIS DEAD.

Young Woman Succumbs to Pneumonia at Brother-in-Law's Home.

Miss Addie Giddis, daughter of Abram Giddis, of Harris Lane, twenty-four years old, died from pneumonia at the home of her brother-in-law, Alonzo Brokaw, yesterday afternoon. The funeral will be held from her father's residence on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Another service will be held in the Bound Brook M. E. church later.

PERSONAL.

Jed Smalley, of the borough, has returned from a stay with friends on Staten Island.

Thomas Noonan, of West Third street, has returned from a visit to out-of-town friends.

Miss Minnie Flynn, of Plainfield avenue, has returned from a stay with friends in Elizabeth.

Moses Terrill, formerly of this city, but now of Irvington, Essex County, is spending a few days in town.

LeRoy Griffin has gone to Charleston, S. C., to enter the employ of a stock, grain and provision company.

Busy at the Casino.

Strange things are seen these days at the Casino. Last night in one part of the building, W. L. Saunders and his friends were "Taming the Shrew," while in another part, Joseph Shellabarger was taming the crew for the society vaudeville show to be given in the near future. Tonight the rehearsal for the vaudeville show will be held at the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club so as not to conflict with the dress rehearsal of "The Taming of the Shrew."

Educators Spoke.

The educational meeting held at the Fillmore Baptist church, Monday night, was well attended and the addresses by Prof. John R. Wilson and Rev. M. W. Vaughn were interesting. At the close of the meeting $10 was contributed to the Virginia Theological Seminary.

Rasores Club Election.

The Rasores Club, at its annual meeting held yesterday, elected these officers for the coming year: President, Mrs. Horace Kimball; vice presidents, Mrs. I. C. Pierson and Mrs. W. D. W. Miller; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. H. L. Halloway.

Robert Guy Dead.

Robert Guy, aged seventy-nine years, died yesterday afternoon at the residence of his son-in-law, William J. Clark, in Arlington avenue. The funeral services will be held tomorrow night at 8 o'clock.

TALK ON LOUISIANA PURCHASE

JOHN M. WHITON'S ADDRESS BEFORE CONGREGATIONAL MEN'S CLUB.

Something about the Louisiana Purchase, in celebration of which the St. Louis Fair is being held, was learned by the members of the Congregational church Men's Club last night. John M. Whiton, a prominent member of the club, and a well known railroad man, delivered a highly interesting and illustrated lecture on the Purchase.

He told a good deal about the conditions leading to the acquirement of the vast stretch of territory held by France along the gulf and the Mississippi. San Domingo was giving trouble to Napoleon, and he was forced to send a corps there to hold the possession. That force was decimated by fever and other ills, and in order to strengthen the San Domingo corps the Emporer was compelled to order his Louisiana garrisons to the island. That left his continental possessions with a very much weakened force, and, being unwilling to send more troops from Europe, he was favorably inclined to Jefferson's offer to purchase the territory. Jefferson aroused a good deal of criticism and misgiving by his act, but he felt sure of the wisdom of the purchase, and always predicted the wonderful development of the territory that has come to pass.

After the lecture refreshments were served, and a social hour was enjoyed.

WESTFIELD SUSPECTS LANDED

HACKMEN BELIEVED TO HAVE ROBBED STATION TAKEN INTO CUSTODY.

Upon complaint of Agent Hoane, of Westfield, John McGilveny and Timothy McCarthy, of that place, were arrested yesterday by Chief of Police O'Neil, of Westfield, and Detective Gaffney, of the Central road, on supposition of robbing the ticket office Saturday night. The authorities have damaging evidence against McCarthy and McGilveny. They left town mysteriously Monday noon without purchasing tickets. They rode on the train to Elmore. Their return regarded as ruse to through off suspicion. Both were held in $1,500 bail for examination Monday. Neither can be furnished and are now locked up at Elizabeth.

Episcopal Convention.

The principal business of the second day of the convention of the diocese of New Jersey which is being held at Elizabeth, was taken up principally with the discussion of the five amendments reported by Rev. Dr. Glazebrook, chairman of the committee on canon law. Much opposition developed to the amendment which provides that a man must be a regularly enrolled member of the church he attends before being permitted to vote at the parish meeting. The standing committees were also named at this morning's session.

Thank Their Friends.

Heartfelt thanks are extended by Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Conroy, of Linden avenue, to the many friends who evinced sympathy with them in the affliction borne of the death of their beloved daughter, Lillian May. Deep appreciation is felt for the tokens of esteem and regret sent by the King's Daughters of Grace M. E. church, Miss Conroy's class at the First M. E. church, and the Grace M. E. church

Coal for the Schools.

O. H. Rugg has been awarded the contract to supply coal to the schools of the city next year. More than 500 tons will be required, of all sizes, ranging from nut to egg. Deliveries have not been decided upon, but they will probably begin next month.

John Force, of Garwood, has returned home after a two days visit to friends here.

Y. M. C. A. BOYS EXHIBITION

LARGE CROWD WITNESSES CLEVER FEATS PERFORMED BY THE LADS.

The boys' department of the Y. M. C. A., gave its annual exhibition yesterday afternoon, in the presence of several hundred persons, and thereby increased its reputation as a body capable of providing entertainment that promotes athletic enjoyment.

The audience was frequently moved to enthusiastic approval of the various drills and movements made upon the high and low parallel bars, and in the general class work.

The exhibition was finely varied and well balanced with mat drills, tug-of-war matches, chariot races and human pyramids, by the several boys of the different classes, despite the fact that many of the boys are of tender years and but seldom attend the regular drills.

During the exhibition, Physical Instructor Heywood presented Howard Freeman with a silver medal, as an award for his faithful attendance at the regular drills during the past year, he having the highest average of attendance, defeating his nearest rival, Norman Loughlin, by one point.

While all their work was particularly good they were especially efficient in the human race, which was nothing more than a mere test of endurance and strength.

BEHIND CLOSED PORTALS

HAPPENINGS OF THE LOCAL FRATERNAL ORDERS.

C. C. Davis, L. B. Skillman and Clarence Goss, representatives from Greenbrook and Plainfield Councils, Royal Arcanum, to the Grand Council sessions held at Lakewood this week, have returned home.

The members of the Ladies' Auxiliary to Trinity Commandery, No. 17, K. T., are planning to hold the second of the series of progressive euchres in the Commandery rooms Tuesday night, May 10.

IN THE CHRISTIAN FIELD

EPISCOPALIANS MEET HERE IN MAY NEXT

Invitation to Hold Annual Convention of Diocese of New Jersey Accepted.

SESSIONS AT GRACE

THE BISHOP OPPOSES CHANGE IN CHURCH TITLE.

Rev. E. Vicars Stevenson Extends Invitation, Representing the Clergy and Laity of the City and Borough.

Accepting the invitation extended by the Rev. E. Vicars Stevenson, of Grace P. E. church, the convention of the Protestant Episcopal church of the Diocese of New Jersey, which closed yesterday in Elizabeth, voted to hold next year's session in this city.

The assembling of the convention will make Plainfield the mecca for all the clergy, and most of the prominent laymen, in the Episcopal church in this State. It is expected that 117 priests and several deacons, besides lay delegates, will attend. Bishop Scarborough will, of course, be here to preside over the sessions.

Grace church will be the meeting place. As a wealthy congregation, the members of Grace will have no trouble in extending an elaborate welcome to the convention. Luncheon will be served to the visitors by the Women's Guild and other societies of the church. There will be a reception in honor of the Bishop and many similar functions.

Refusal to entertain the much-mooted suggestion to change the name of the diocese was registered by the committee appointed to consider the matter. Dean Perkins, chairman of the committee, reported to the convention yesterday morning that at a meeting held last October the committee had decided that it was not advisable to change so historic a name. To relieve the embarrassment of the Bishop, who now signs himself "Bishop of New Jersey," it was suggested that he sign as "Bishop of the Diocese of New Jersey."

In referring to the proposed change of name in his Episcopal address, Bishop Scarborough said:

"The response of the referendum selected to decide upon whether the name of the church should or should not be changed was not unanimous in its report, which shows that there is still some dissatisfaction with the name of the church in law. And yet there was not one name suggested which describes more fully the objects and purpose of the church. The name has little to do with the growth and mission of the church; it has been fixed through the ages and an alteration would do no good."

In regard to the divorce problem the Bishop said he hoped the church would put herself on record as opposed to an iniquitous and vile traffic and follow the example of the Diocese of New York in placing such strictures upon the marriage of divorced persons that it would be as impossible in New Jersey as in the Empire State.

A SOCIAL AT HOPE CHAPEL

MUSIC, RECITATIONS AND GAMES ENJOYED BY THE YOUNG PEOPLE.

Much credit is due the committee of the Young People's Society, of Hope chapel, for the enjoyable programme presented last night.

Seventy-five or more of the young folk gathered at the chapel shortly after 8 o'clock and employed themselves between the different musical and elocutionary numbers, in playing lively games such as toss the handkerchief.

After the programme, which included a recitation by Miss Lillie Brakey, a vocal solo by James Penney, and phonographic selections by Harry Lister, bountiful refreshments were served by the committee. While the good things were going round, Mr. Lister gave several additional pieces on the phonorgaph.

Mrs. Harry Lister headed the committee in charge, the other members being: Harry Lister, Mrs. A. B. Lewis, Miss Brakey, A. B. Marsh, Miss Belle Slorah and Joseph Sweeney.

Mr. and Mrs. Hallock are enjoying their honeymoon, having been married at Pittsburg on April 23, the wedding being a society event in the Smoky City. Mrs. Hallock was formerly Miss May Brown and is a sister of Mrs. Jenkins. Her husband formerly resided in this city. ## MONO A. C.'S ANNUAL FAIR

OUTDOOR EVENT PLANNED FOR SATURDAY, JUNE 4.

The Mono Athletic Club held a meeting last night at the Fairview Avenue Clubhouse, and it decided to hold the second annual fair on the afternoon and evening of Saturday, June 4. The grounds at the corner of Fairview and Watchung avenues will be used. The committee has planned to have the entire grounds decorated in the club colors. Maroon and white lanterns will figure extensively.

A fine programme has been arranged for both afternoon and evening, and is composed entirely of local talent. The Mono Quartette, which made a hit at last season's fair, will again be one of the main features on the programme. "That Rascal Pat," which was given at the North Plainfield High School, will be produced in the evening. In the eastern corner of the field a "hit the baby" stand will be erected. A "gypsy fortune teller" will have "her" tent in another portion of the field. A fish pond will be placed near the "fortune teller's" tent. To the right of the fish pond a cane rack will probably be erected. A boxing match and tug of war will also be held on the grounds during the afternoon. A number of smaller features will also be added to the fair, which is calculated to be a huge success. The committee in charge of the affair is composed of William Nischwitz, chairman; Herbert Conover, Arthur VanArsdale, Frank Webster and William Heath.

EFFECTS STATE GUARD COLORS

A NEW LAW THAT IS SAID TO BE UNCONSTITUTIONAL.

Adjutant General Bientnall has asked Attorney-General McCarter for his opinion as to the constitutionality of the Hulse flag act, which was passed by the recent Legislature.

Mr. Hulse introduced the measure at the request of the G. A. R. posts of the State, and its primary object was to prevent the United States flag from being used as an advertising medium. After it had been signed by the Governor and after the Legislature had adjourned, the G. A. R. department commander for the State asked the attorney-general for an opinion as to the effect of the law upon the Grand Army flags, since they were lettered with the name and date of the different engagements through which the men had passed. He replied that, in his opinion, they were not exempt from the act.

Adjutant General Brientnall asks for an opinion as to its constitutionality owing to the fact that the colors of the various regiments of the National Guard are lettered also.

It is contended by some that the State has no authority to legislate concerning the United States colors.

It is said that the United States Supreme Court has declared a similar law passed by the Illinois Legislature unconstitutional and that the Supreme Court of New York has rendered a similar decision in that State.

IN HOSPITAL FOR FOUR YEARS

YOUNG PATIENT IS DISCHARGED AFTER LONG TREATMENT.

Possibly no patient in the history of Muhlenberg Hospital has attracted so much attention as Angelo Delago, a young Italian girl, who until this week was an inmate there for four years. On account of severe hip trouble, she was practically helpless.

The members of the auxiliary board of women became interested in the girl. During the past year it was made possible for her to enter Franklin School. She was seven years old when taken to the hospital, and now at eleven, she has a good primary education.

Recently, her parents, who live in Cottage place, pleaded to have her home, and the hospital authorities finally consented to her removal, deciding that she was sufficiently strong.

MYSTERIOUS BLAZE IN HEART OF CITY

Spectacular Fire Draws Big Crowd, But Causes Little Damage.

INCENDIARY ORIGIN?

IN DANGEAOUS PROXIMITY TO VALUABLE PROPERTIES.

Damage Only $300—Fire Department Was on the Spot in a Jiffy—Is Property of Miss Stephenson.

Much excitement, but comparatively little damage, was caused by a fire in an old barn back of 329 West Front street, shortly before 8 o'clock last night. It made a spectacular blaze and attracted a big crowd from all quarters of the city. Mystery surrounds the origin of the fire, and some suspicion of incendiarism attaches to it.

When the alarm was sounded the fire had been burning for at least a half hour, and the roof was all ablaze before the firemen reached the scene. Box 12 was pulled by one of the clerks in Frank Rowley's drug store, on the opposite side of the street, after the people in the place had watched the sparks flying for twenty minutes or more. People as far away as Grant avenue say they saw the reflection in the sky some time before the alarm sounded.

By the time Chief Doane's men reached the place the barn was filled with flame, and big tongues of fire were shooting through the roof. The sky was alight with the glare, and crowds hurried to the scene in numbers that speedily congested the block

The building was situated in dangerous proximity to other structures, and only quick work on the part of the firement prevented a destructive spread of the flames. Within a handsbreadth of the back of the barn is a two-story negro tenement, filled with families, and the barns of Morris Abrams and Franke Linke are close by.

Sparks were dropping on these and other buildings nearby, and it looked as if the three of them were certain to catch. The negro families were hustled into the street, and Mr. Linke moved all his horses out. There was a breezy wind, and sparks flew as far as the corner of Somerset street.

Fortunately, the barn was a mere shell and contained nothing but an empty wagon, and fronted directly on an alley that gave the firemen easy access to the seat of the flames. Three streams of water and the chemical hose were turned on less than two minutes after the whistle sounded, and scarcely two minutes more had passed when the roaring flames were completely subdued. The fire was killed in astonishingly short time, the glare in the sky dying out as swiftly as if a giant extinguisher had been dropped over the barn.

Only $300 damage was done. The barn belongs to Miss Minnie Stephenson. It was formerly used as an ice house and ice cream manufactory by the one-time caterer, William Stephenson.

It is suspected that boys may have started the barn going, and investigation along this line will be prosecuted.

SEVENTH-DAY'S SOCIABLE

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVORERS HAVE A DELIGHTFUL TIME AT THE CHURCH.

The Christian Endeavor Society, of the Seventh-Day Baptist church, held a pleasant sociable in the church parlors last night. It was well attended and passed off with a full measure of success.

There was a fine musical programme. Its chief feature was furnished by the Y. M. C. A. orchestra. Under the leadership of M. A. Korff, the musicians rendered several selections in a manner that called forth warm applause and insistent demands for encores. Miss Mildred Berry entertained the guests with two very funny recitations. Her humor was irrestistible, and delighted laughter and applause rewarded her efforts. Miss Cornelia Miller sang soprano solos charmingly.

After the music refreshments were served, and an informal hour of sociability was enjoyed. The committee in charge included Miss Ida Randolph, chairman; Miss Luella Clawson, Miss Ernestine Smith and George Clark.

ALL READY FOR THE COMEDY

REHEARSAL OF TAMING OF THE SHREW AT THE CASINO.

A Shakespearean comedy produced by local talent, is the attraction slated for the Casino this evening. A fair idea of what the performance will be like was gained from the dress rehearsal of "The Taming of the Shrew" last evening. While the first appearance in costume naturally resulted in a feeling of strangeness on the part of the participants, the play was carried through with a snap and vigor that promises well for tonight.

It would not be fair to judge the work of the cast from the dress rehearsal even though it was open to the public. It was essentially a rehearsal and Alfred Young, under whose direction the play is given, was on hand to give the last finishing touches necessary. It gives promise, however, of a good show for tonight. It is customary and eminently proper to view amateur theatrical efforts with much more charity than is shown to a professional production. From this amateur standard the whole play can be confidentially pronounced an unqualified success, while the work of several of the cast is fully equal to that of many who make the stage their professional home.

Shakespeare wrote no cleverer comedy than "The Taming of the Shrew." It offers some excellent opportunities and it is safe to say that the audience at this evening's performance will find much to amuse. It is possible to make a farce of anything but in this case it is the humor of the playwright, as presented by the actors, which will bring the laughter.

It can truthfully be said that the Casino stage is not an ideal place for a Shakespearean production. Careful training and attention to stage settings have overcome many of the obstacles that would naturally come with such a small stage. The result is surprisingly good. Where crowding might be expected, careful grouping has prevented the appearance of it.

As to the individual work of the different members of the cast, it will not be fair to speak until the play is given tonight. Suffice it to say that several of Plainfield's best amateurs have added to their present reputation for clever work.

What few seats remain unsold will be found at Armstrong's drug store until 7 o'clock this evening when the diagram for the first night's performance will be transferred to the Casino.

Fighting Trading Stamps.

The fight between the Camden Merchants' Association and the local dealers in that city, who give trading stamps has assumed legal form, S. Conrad Ott, attorney for the former, having issued a summons out of the District Court against a grocer to recover $28 under an act of the Legislature which provides that merchants who give out trading stamps must redeem them at their stipulated value. The writ is returnable May 11.

K. D. Annual Meeting.

MINSTREL PROGRAMME A HUGE BILL OF FUN

Two-Night Performance for Open Air Band Concert Fund to be the Liveliest Yet.

LOTS OF LOCAL HITS

LATEST SONGS BY A BUNCH OF GOOD SINGERS.

Affair at the Casino to be a Record-Breaker in Many Ways—LaVere, Greenwood and Martin the Leaders.

If the efforts of Benjamin LaVere, H. P. Greenwood and J. C. Martin are to be judged fairly, the minstrel entertainment to be given at the Casino, Tuesday and Wednesday nights, May 10 and 11, will be a great success and a series of band concerts will be assured for the summer months. Those in charge of the affair promise a programme of unrivaled numbers in the amateur and professional line and lovers of this sort of entertainment will have a feast of good things.

The first part of the programme will be devoted entirely to amateur talent, introducing that favorite sketch, "The Rehearsal on the Levee," by the orchestra. This includes the levee by moonlight, the Black Diamond Quartette, working on the levee, arrival of the steamboat, followed by Howley, Haviland and Dresser's new medley overture.

Then follows this programme of vocal numbers:

"Gentlemen, be seated," company; "Hannah," J. P. Hall; "Down on the Farm," Gus. Feiring; "Save Your Money," Harry Blimm; "If I Could Say I Love You," Horace Martin; "Buzzin' Around," H. P. Greenwood; "Rocked in the Cradle of the Deep," Joseph C. Martin; "Wise Old Owl," William Doud; "The Salt of the Sea," Oscar Moore; "Meet Me at St. Louis Louis," Thomas Muir; duett, (selected) Martin and Southard; "He Was a Sailor," Thomas DeMeza; finale, "Star Spangled Banner."

Part second will open with a medley selection by the orchestra, after which professional talent will entertain. The Galvin Brothers will present their own original sketch, "Have a Drink," which is said to be a side splitting farce. William Murray, who was such a favorite at the band concerts last summer, will sing "On a Good Old Trolley Ride." He will also sing other popular selections.

A feature will be cornet solos by those favorites, Louis Anderson and Al. C. Sweet, followed by America's greatest club manipulators — Dumphena. The programme will conclude with a sketch entitled "A Subject for Dissection," in which these persons take part: Dr. Graball, Joseph C. Martin; Willie Doolittle, James Galvin; Mike O'Hoolihan, John Galvin. As can be seen there is not a dull number on the programme and many local hits are promised in the song of the "Wise Old Owl."

These are the members of the company: Interlocutor, Joseph C. Martin; end-men, H. P. Greenwood, J. P. Hall, William Doud, Thomas Muir, Harry Blimm, Thomas DeMeza; soloists and chorus, Gus. Feiring, Horace Martin, Oscar Moore, John Todd, Elias Southard, Arthur Smith, Edward P. T. Smith, Charles Cumberson, Hary Hook and Irving Martin.

This is the executive staff: Conductor, Benjamin LaVere; scenic artist, F. M. Slater, Jr.; accompanist, Bert Simpson; treasurer, Morris C. VanArsdale; chief usher, Alexander Muir; ushers, Matthew D. Sweeney, Benjamin Evans, George B. Cose, B. C. Firstbrook and Leonce Texier.

Trouble With His Leg.

Fred Hafner, who injured his leg several months ago, has had a narrow escape from the loss of the limb. Blood poisoning set in, and a delicate operation and skin-grafting were necessary to save the leg from amputation. Hafner has been in the hospital since March, and is only beginning to recover the use of his leg. Dr. Murray performed the operation that saved it, and successfully grafted nine pieces of skin to prevent a distorting cicatrix.

$10 000 in Bonds.

Those in search of a good investment will find it to their advantage to communicate with the company. The bonds are secured by the Public Service Corporation.

AMUSEMENTS.

"The Wizard of Oz," which ran for forty-three weeks at the Majestic Theatre in New York, began an engagement of three weeks at the New York Theatre last Monday evening. The house was crowded and the brilliant musical spectacle was received with the enthusiasm accorded a successful new production. The same company of players appeared in the leading roles and Montgomery and Stone made their usual hit as the scare-crow and tin woodman. The surpassingly beautiful scenic effects and costumes added a gorgeousness of color to a performance that teems with comic interest from start to finish. The long run of "The Wizard of Oz" in New York stamps it as a most extraordinary success.

Mayor Bill Settles Bill.

"Bill" Smith, sometimes known as the Mayor of New Market, has made a satisfactory settlement of the suit brought against him for the purchase of eight baseball suits. The amount involved was about $26 and William Newcorn, Esq., yesterday received the sum and the incident is closed. The complainant in the case was Harry Dreier, the sporting goods dealer.

PORT ARTHUR SHUT

Togo Has Closed Harbor Gate of Great Fortress.

JAPANESE ARMY NOW IN ADVANCE

Russians Concentrating at Strong Natural Position Back of Fengwangcheng—Japanese Hold a Thousand Prisoners.

LONDON, May 5.—A dispatch from Tokyo says that the Japanese authorities assert that Admiral Togo succeeded in his attempt on Monday night to block the channel of Port Arthur harbor.

The Tokyo correspondents of both the Daily Telegraph and the Daily Chronicle also assert that Port Arthur is effectually "corked."

During the bombardment the big guns of the Russian ships and batteries fired 2,500 shots, while the machine guns of the gunboat Giliak fired 3,000 shots. The gunboats lying at the mouth of the harbor joined in the cannonade of the batteries, the firing gradually increasing in volume until there was a continuous crash of great guns. Some of the enemy's torpedo boats were discovered, but they were finally swallowed up in the darkness.

It is reported that twelve fireships were sent in by the Japanese and that several of them reached the channel and were there sunk by the Russian fire.

In favor of the supposition of Japanese success in blocking Port Arthur it is pointed out that the previous attempts left the channel so narrow that a couple of vessels sunk in the fairway would probably suffice to seal up the entrance, while there is a noticeable evasion and half heartedness in the Russian denials of the enemy's repulse. There is no confirmation here of the rumor that an engagement between Russian and Japanese squadrons had taken place off Vladivostok, and St. Petersburg knows nothing of the rumored capture of Newchwang. It is reported that the Japanese have advanced to within eighteen miles of Fengwangcheng and that another engagement is expected almost immediately.

Major General Kashtalinski's insistence on the fact that he was ordered to accept battle by Lieutenant General Zassalitch is interpreted as showing his intention to throw the responsibility upon that officer.

English correspondents with the Japanese forces on the Yalu are permitted to send the most ample descriptions of the people and the country traversed, but not a word about the fighting.

The report also says that in addition to twenty-eight rapid fire guns the Japanese captured in Sunday's battle twenty fieldpieces. They made prisoners of thirty officers and 500 men.

After the battle the Japanese buried the dead and attended to the wounded thoroughly. They occupied the whole area of the battle and sent scouts into the surrounding hills.

Harbin reports say General Zassalitch's force is resting at Fengwangcheng. No renewal of the attack has yet been made.

The Russians have taken up a strong position back of Fengwangcheng, on a parallel with Mukden and Liaoyang, where troops are concentrating, and it is considered likely that a really decisive engagement may be fought there. To force the pass beyond Fengwangcheng directly is considered to be impossible.

General Zassalitch had only forty guns altogether, and sixteen of these left Antung early Sunday morning and reached Fengwangcheng safely. The Second and Third batteries of the Sixth brigade lost all but two guns—namely, twenty-two. Eight machine guns which were used to cover the retreat were also lost.

The manager of the hospitals at Harbin has received already 500 wounded and has received notice that considerably more may be expected.

The Russian general staff has received a list of the officers killed. It shows that the day was more disastrous than at first reported. General Zassalitch, who was in general command in the battle, was seriously wounded. The number of prisoners taken by the Japanese is given as about 1,000.

The impression prevails in St. Petersburg that only the beginning of the truth has been made known.

The Japanese legation has no confirmation of the report that Newchwang has been occupied by the Japanese forces.

A St. Petersburg dispatch says the Russian losses at the battle of Kiulencheng were 2,000 men and forty officers.

This is the official estimate of Major General Kashtalinsky, who directly commanded the division that suffered the brunt of the attack and whose report has been received by the emperor. Many are inclined to place the Russian losses even higher. General Kashtalinsky mentions also that more than 700 wounded had arrived at Fengwangcheng.

Japan Has Amazons In the Field.

VICTORIA, B. C., May 5.—Richard Chester of Tanegashima Island, Japan, a contractor to the Japanese government, is in this city en route to the orient. He states that at least 10 per cent of the Japanese soldiers in the field are women disguised as men. He says that the average Japanese woman of the cooly class is as strong if not stronger than the men. Mr. Chester asserts that prior to last December Japan had landed 120,000 men in the vicinity of Pingyang, Korea, from which point they were quietly distributed through the country, all fully armed and prepared to keep the field for an indefinite period.

GREAT SHIPYARD STRIKE.

All Greater New York District Works Tied Up.

NEW YORK, May 5.—All the large shipyards in the metropolitan district except that of the Boston Drydock company in Brooklyn and the yard of Titjen & Lang in Hoboken are now tied up as a resuk of a strike of the Brotherhood of Boilermakers and Iron Shipbuilders of the United States and Canada. Five thousand boilermakers are involved, and workmen of other trades may soon be affected.

John McNeill of Kansas City, international president of the boilermakers, authorized the strike. The organization is said to have $250,000 in its relief fund, and the twelve local lodges are well equipped.

Married men will be paid $7 a week and single men $5 while the strike continues. Preparations have been made for a long struggle.

The yards and shops affected are those whose owners are members of the New York Metal Trades association, which body has refused to grant the boilermakers' demand for the closed shop and the admission of walking delegates to all shops and jobs.

In the yards of the Morris Heights Shipbuilding company at Morris Heights 300 men quit work who had been employed in building two torpedo boats for the government.

Bridge Builders Strike.

PITTSBURG, May 5.—A strike which is expected to extend to an international movement against the American Bridge company has been ordered by the local union of structural iron workers and bridgemen, and over 600 men in this district are out. The strike is called because, the union claims, thirty-five nonunion men were put to work last Tuesday erecting a bridge for the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburg railroad at Coral, Pa. This action, it is claimed, is a violation of the agreement to employ none but union men. President Frank Buchanan notified the local union officials here that the bridge company refused to rectify the matter.

POWDER MILL BLOWN UP.

Four Men Killed at Newport, Ind., Two Injured.

NEWPORT, Ind., May 5.—A powder mill owned by the Northwestern Powder company, three miles from Newport, has been blown up. Four men were killed outright and two were injured.

Ten thousand pounds of powder exploded, and the bodies of two of the men were blown into such small pieces that they could not be picked up. The other bodies were not badly mangled. The injured men will recover. The loss on the plant is $7,000.

Sam Parks Dead In Sing Sing.

ALBANY, N. Y., May 5.—A delegation from the Central Federated Labor union of New York city, consisting of President John B. McCabe, former President James Holland and James Hand, called on Governor Odell with a belated appeal for a pardon for Sam Parks, the former walking delegate of the Housesmiths' union, who died in Sing Sing prison yesterday morning. The delegation arrived in Albany without learning of the death of Parks. Their appeal was to be that Parks be pardoned so that he might not die in prison. There is nothing the governor can do in the matter now.

Edward Sails For England.

DUBLIN, May 5.—King Edward and Queen Alexandra, on the royal yacht Osborne, sailed from Kingstown for Holyhead, England, this morning. They were given an enthusiastic farewell by great crowds at the pier. The harbor was illuminated last night. The Earl of Dudley, lord lieutenant of Ireland; the Duke of Connaught, inspector general, and other distinguished persons bade them farewell.

Missouri Benefit Fund $4,914.

WASHINGTON, May 5.—The profits of the matinee performance of the society play "Queen Elizabeth's Dream," amounting to $1,200, and the $3,714 received by voluntary subscriptions for the benefit of the families of the victims of the Missouri disaster have been turned over to the Navy Relief society for distribution.

Colonel Dick Bought Railroad.

BOULDER, Colo., May 5.—The Colorado and Northwestern railroad was sold by United States Commissioner Hinsdale of Denver in Boulder under foreclosure for $100,000 to Colonel S. B. Dick of Pennsylvania, one of the largest stockholders and bondholders in the company.

Guilty of Whisky Frauds.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., May 5.—A verdict of guilty has been rendered in the cases against T. M. Angle, B. F. Sprinkle and William Young in the federal court for defrauding the government by means of false entries in connection with the payment of tax on whisky.

A Plainfield citizen tells how to cure them all.

C. H. Lippencott, of 39 Chatham street, says: "I was a victim of kidney complaint and dreadful backache as bad in damp weather or when I caught a cold, that I could not get about. I was in the hardware business at this time and the heavy lifting and being on my feet so much greatly aggravated the trouble. I was at my worst when I concluded to try Doan's Kidney Pills and I got them at L. W. Randolph's drug store. It only required a few doses to convince me that I had the right remedy. My backache disappeared before I had finished the first box."

No Favorites First at Jamaica.

NEW YORK, May 5.—Florham Queen, the 3 to 2 favorite in the Corona stakes, while leading her field fifty feet from the wire at Jamaica, was crowded on the rail by Burns on Akela and fell, De Reszke winning the race. Akela finished second, but was disqualified, the place being given to Silver Days. Burns was fined $200 for rough riding. O'Neill, who had the mount on Florham Queen, was somewhat injured and probably will not be able to ride Beldame in the Metropolitan handicap at Morris park. Great interest centered in the reappearance of E. E. Smathers' McChesney in the third race. He was immediately installed favorite at 9 to 5. The start was bad, and McChesney was left at the post. Not one favorite won.

Flying Torpedo Ran Third.

ST. LOUIS, May 5.—The feature of Kinloch's card at Delmar park proved a great surprise to the talent. Flying Torpedo went to the post a 1 to 4 favorite in a three horse field. He ran third, all out, the race going to Barkley, which took the lead at flagfall and won with something left from Strader, the outsider, who got up in time to beat the favorite for the place.

Fred Leppert Beat His Field.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 5.—Fred Cook, the St. Louis bookmaker, uncovered a couple of good ones. Kurtzman was easily the best of the two-year-olds, while Fred Leppert easily beat his field in the third race at six furlongs, the feature event of the day. Both were heavily played.

Kid McFadden Knocked Out.

SAVANNAH, Ga., May 5.—Tommy Feltz last night knocked out Kid McFadden of San Francisco in the fourth round of what was scheduled to be a twenty round bout at 118 pounds. The mill was very fast and clever. McFadden was up two seconds after being counted out.

Judge Won Easily.

KANSAS CITY, May 5.—Four favorites landed the money at Elmridge. In the Derby Consolation, the feature, Judge won easily. The hurdle race was run as a straight event because of the sloppy condition of the track.

"Death Money" to Save Two Lives.

WILLIMANTIC, Conn., May 5.—Mrs. Lucy Zarkes, a Syrian, has received a letter from relatives in Syria informing her that her husband and eldest son are under sentence of death for participating in an affray in Tripoli which cost the life of a Turkish soldier. The letter says that the lives of both men can be saved if she will send $1,000 as "death money," the relatives in Syria having raised among themselves a like sum.

Mirage Alarmed the Perugia.

NEW YORK, May 5.—Captain Johnston of the steamer Perugia, from Marseilles, Leghorn and Naples, reports that on the night of May 3 a mirage of the flash of the Nantucket lightship appeared and lasted several hours. When the mirage first appeared the Perugia was sixty miles from the lightship. On seeing it soundings were taken and the vessel's head put off more to sea.

Von Lenbach Dying.

MUNICH, Bavaria, May 5.—Franz von Lenbach, the famous historical and portrait painter and president of the Munich Artists' association, is dying. He is conceded by many critics to be one of the foremost painters of the age and unquestionably one of the greatest of modern German artists. Many of his works are owned in the United States.

Bryan Controlled Home Convention.

LINCOLN, Neb., May 5.—W. J. Bryan controlled the Democratic convention in his home county, and a platform reaffirming the Kansas City platform was adopted. No names for the presidential nomination were mentioned, the convention voting to adopt the unit rule and practically agreeing to act as Mr. Bryan thinks best in the national convention.

MURDER FOR MONEY

John Van Gorder and Anna Farnham Killed at Angelica.

GIRL STABBED WITH FILE STILETTO

Bodies Found In Farmhouse Sitting Room—They Had Been Slain In the Night—Farmers Are Up In Arms.

BUFFALO, May 5.—A special from Angelica, N. Y., says:

"The bodies of John Van Gorder and his half sister, Miss Anna Farnham, brother and half sister of former Senator Van Gorder of Buffalo, have been found in the sitting room of their home on a farm in West Almond. They had been murdered in the night."

Mr. Van Gorder had been shot through the back, and his sister was stabbed to death with a stiletto made from a file. The bodies were discovered by a neighbor, John Rice, who had gone to the place to borrow a farming implement.

District Attorney Church of Olean was immediately notified and is now in West Almond. Robbery is supposed to have been the motive of the double crime, as the house had been ransacked from end to end. Both the man and the woman were fully clothed when killed, indicating that they had not retired when the burglars entered the house.

A pile of charred papers was found in the center of the kitchen floor, evidence that the murderers tried to burn the building before they left it.

A red handkerchief was found outside the door, and the officials are looking for the murderer among the laborers employed on the Shawmut railroad extension.

Sheriff Hancock has arrived at the scene of the murder and has looked the ground over for clews in addition to the red handkerchief and the file stiletto.

So far as he could discover there was no money or jewelry missing. Later he visited the camp of the Italian railway laborers in an endeavor to obtain a clew.

Farmers from all over the region are scouring the country for the murderer. Every man is armed. A feeling of general insecurity prevails through the entire region of West Almond owing to the robbery and murder.

Miss Farnham was forty-five years old and was well known and generally loved for her charming manners and her Christian character.

John Van Gorder was a bachelor about fifty years old. Miss Farnham kept house for him. They were well to do and were in the habit of keeping money and jewelry in the house.

A Misunderstanding at Wilkesboro.

RALEIGH, N. C., May 5.—A special from Wilkesboro, N. C., says: "As the result, it is understood, of an old feud, Hillary Key is dead here, killed by Freeland Johnson in a furious combat with knives, and Johnson himself lies at the point of death, suffering from ghastly wounds. It is reported that Johnson went over to Key's field to hunt for some stray sheep. While there he engaged in an altercation with George Key and fired at him twice, but failed to hit him. Hillary Key, George's brother, then took up the quarrel, and Johnson attacked him with a knife. Hillary's blade instantly flashed out, but Johnson was too quick for him."

Jack Tar Shanghaied.

WASHINGTON, May 5.—After having been shanghaied in Norfolk, Va., shipped in an English tramp steamer as a fireman, put ashore in England, forced to beat his way back home, arrested when the steamer was four days out as a stowaway and on his arrival in this country convicted by court martial, Fred McDougal, a landsman in the navy, by order of the secretary of the navy has had his record made straight and will be reimbursed for his losses.

Hearst and Parker Claim Control.

OLYMPIA, Wash., May 5.—Both the Hearst and the Parker factions claim control of the Democratic state convention, which is in session here to elect delegates to the national convention. The Hearst men have not yet decided whether they shall attempt to get the convention to instruct for the New York editor. Some of the Hearst leaders will be satisfied with an expression that would show a friendly interest in his candidacy.

Northern Securities Case Postponed.

TRENTON, N. J., May 5.—Judge Dallas has adjourned the district court until Monday next owing to the death of Judge Kirkpatrick. This means that the Harriman-Northern Securities case, which was to have been heard in Newark tomorrow, will not come up at that time. It is probable that it will be heard here on Monday next.

Hearst Wins In Iowa.

DES MOINES, Ia., May 5.—William Randolph Hearst scored a victory in the district caucuses preliminary to the Democratic state convention by securing six districts as against five for the anti-Hearst faction. The Hearst members of the resolutions committee are radical, and it is not unlikely the resolutions will carry a decided Hearst feature.

Waldeck Rousseau Very Ill.

PARIS, May 5.—Ex-Premier Waldeck Rousseau, who in March went to the Riviera after a three months' dangerous illness and who was reported to be on the road to recovery, is in a serious condition. He will undergo an operation today.

Weather Probabilities.

Fair; light winds.

Much comment has been made by the newspapers in this State on Judge Gaynor's decision which practically permits baseball games to be played in New York on Sundays. The New York jurist declares that "such exhibitions are not contrary to law when they do not disturb the religious peace of the community," and he excuses his decision by saying "that it is better to have a boy attend a baseball game than to have him go to dance halls, drinking places and pool rooms." The argument sounds like the lame plea of a lawyer who is attempting to bolster up a poor case. Granted that it is much more desirable to allow a boy to be at a baseball game rather than at a saloon or dance on Sunday, what excuse is there for either? If New York were properly governed, drinking places and public halls would be closed tight on Sundays as they are in all well regulated municipalities. In fact a boy should not be allowed to frequent a public dance or a bar-room on weekdays, much less on Sundays. But the main point is that both boys and men should have a proper regard for the day. There are many ways of enjoying the Lord's day without engaging in boisterous sport. It is a dangerous precedent for a jurist to set such a precedent as has characterized Judge Gaynor's utterance. The law of God should be the law of the land and any departure from it is a species of anarchy. The time would not be far distant when every difference between Sunday and a week day would be removed and those who have thought for the welfare of our country should bitterly oppose Sunday sports.

Now's the time to show your civic interest. Buy tickets for the open air band concert fund minstrel show to be given at the Casino Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. The programme is an edition de luxe of fun. The proceeds of the performance will be added to the fund for a series of public band concerts during the summer months. Don't be a "sponge." Help the cause and you'll better appreciate the free musical feasts when warm weather comes.

"There may be mysteries about advertising," says a successful merchant, "but there is a very simple rule for writing advertising copy which insures the best results. That is to have a distinct purpose in every announcement, and to express it in the clearest terms."—Ex.

Would you believe it; the New York Times has sued the New York Journal for libel? If the judge who hears the case gives the plaintiff more than six cents damages it will be downright robbery. Even six cents would be excessive when the jury considers the source of the libellous article.

The Lakewood Country Club holds its annual horse show this week. Plainfield is afforded an opportunity to pattern after a progressive municipality and should strive to make the exhibition here in June as fine as possible.

According to statistics, Jersey City has on the average of one saloon for every forty-five voters, and it is said that the percentage of fraudulent votes is not small either.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Stine and daughter, of Grandview avenue, are spending some time with relatives at Somerville.

IN THE CHRISTIAN FIELD

WORK IN THE CHURCHES OF THE CITY AND BOROUGH.

A large committee from the First Baptist church has been selected to see the members and solicit subscriptions toward liquidating the indebtedness.

"Innocents Abroad," illustrated, will be given in the parish house of the Church of the Heavenly Rest, Clinton avenue, Thursday night, May 12, under the auspices of the Ladies' Guild of the church.

It is only as love and virtue and goodness are conceived of as eternal existences that we come unto the consciousness of that personal unity between every living soul and the living God, which enables us to give to love and virtue and goodness their full wages and their best outworking in going on and not to die.—Rev. Dr. Samuel Parkes Cadman, Central Congregational church, Brooklyn.

It is believed a blank form will have to be prepared for general circulation among those who have the right to perform marriages in this State. The form will contain the usual questions, and it is proposed to add that required by a recent law which is now in effect, and which few clergymen or others know. This law makes it a misdemeanor to take any part in the performance of any marriage where one of the contracting parties has been an inmate of an asylum for the insane, epileptic or feeble minded, unless two physicians grant a certificate setting forth that there is no danger of a recurrence of the trouble or danger of its being transferred to the issue. The plan is to have the contracting parties fill in the blank and then swear to the answers.

The well known organist, Mrs. E. B. Barnes, of the Congregational church, together with the quartette, have planned an extra musical service for the Sunday morning service, May 8. The programme is made up of the following pieces: "These are They," William Reed; "Peace of God," Joachim Raff; "A Land of Pure Delight," Bauer; "Sun of My Soul," duett for alto and tenor, William Walden.

The music committee, of the Congregational church, have completed their arrangement for the coming season. Mrs. E. B. Barnes continues as organist. The quartette consists of Miss C. Miller, soprano; Mrs. J. T. Miner, contralto; F. S. Cutter, bass; J. H. Sanford, tenor.

HENRY VOEHL GETS DAMAGES

DECISION GIVEN PLAINFIELDER IN SUIT AGAINST RAILROAD.

After three months of deliberation, the Circuit Court of Hoboken has decided in favor of Henry Voehl, of North Plainfield, in his suit for damages against the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad. Mr. Voehl asked for $200 in compensation for damages done to one of his wagons by a train at Lyons Crossing early last year.

F. J. Blatz, Esq., brought suit for him shortly after the accident. In January last the case was brought to an end, and the court took it under advisement. Yesterday the Judge notified Mr. Blatz that his client had been awarded the full sum asked for.

SUBURBAN NEWS.

DUNELLEN.

Miss Edna Vail has returned home after a visit with relatives in New York.

There were many of the Presbyterian church folk at the reception given in the chapel Tuesday evening in honor of the new pastor, Rev. William Casselberry. The pastor and his wife received a most cordial welcome, and during the evening had the pleasure of meeting personally nearly every member of the church. # SWACKHAMER GIVEN OVATION

GUEST OF HONOR AT FORT LEE CELEBRATION LAST NIGHT.

Assemblyman Samuel S. Swackhamer, of North Plainfield, whose efforts in the Legislature were largely responsible for the defeat of the tri-borough bill, which included Fort Lee, Edgewater borough and Fairview borough, was the guest of honor at a banquet given at Fort Lee last night in celebration of the killing of the measure. The North Plainfielder was given a great ovation, being hailed as "the next Governor," etc

During the course of his remarks, Mr. Swackhamer said:

"The defeat in the last Legislature of the Tri-Borough Bill was the triumph of right over might; the defeat of a scheme which was aimed at the sacred right of private property. The overthrow of a measure, which would have violated the spirit if not the letter of the constitution. That bill embraced a method by which to appropriate the property rights of the people of Edgewater. Ninety-five out of every hundred had petitioned the Legislature against the passage of this bill, and had asked for a referendum clause that they might be permitted to vote upon the question of consolidation in case the bill should become a law. The demand for a referendum clause was summarily refused, and the bill was hurried on to third reading and final passage. In answer to the demand for a referendum, the advocates of the bill declared that a referendum would defeat their purpose, and insisted that the Legislature should create the new municipality in spite of the protest of ninety-five per cent. of the resident tax payers.

"I would not impune the motives of any member who sat with me in the Legislature I prefer to assign the cause of this extraordinary action to mental stigmatism, and I rejoice with you that the moral stamina and intellectual grasp of the people's representatives were sufficient for this emergency."

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Prayer Meeting Topic For the Week Beginning May 8.

Topic.—Crowns trodden under foot.—Isa. xxviii, 1-7; Rev. iii, 11.

The crown is a symbol of royalty and is worn by kings and queens. It is an ancient and universal ornament and "probably originated from the fillets used to prevent the hair from being disheveled by the wind. Such fillets are still common. They gradually developed into turbans, which, by the addition of ornamental or precious materials, assumed the dignity of miters or crowns." In the Bible the thorns that were placed upon the Saviour's brow are called a 'crown of thorns," and Paul calls the wreath of laurel given to the victor in the Grecian games a crown. The expression crown is used in Scripture also to set forth the supreme blessings that God will bestow upon His people in such expressions as "a crown of righteousness," "a crown of glory" and "a crown of life."

In the topical references three crowns are spoken of—(1) a crown of pride; (2) a crown of glory; (3) a crown of service.

1. The crown of pride. That He may warn the people of Judah against the sins of pride and drunkenness the Lord, through the prophet, calls their attention to the fate of Ephraim or the ten tribes for the same offenses. The Lord is to destroy the glorious beauty of Samaria because of its sins, and He warns Judah against a similar condition and consequently a similar fate. This is His denunciation: "Woe to the crown of pride of the drunkards of Ephraim and to the fading flowers of his glorious beauty, which is on the head of the fat valley of them that are overcome with wine." Though drunken and rebellious against God, pride, like a crown, sat upon the heads of the people of Samaria, but God humbled that pride, He trod under foot that crown, and this will be the experience of all who break the laws of God and are yet filled with a spirit of self complacent pride.

2. The crown of glory. The unfaithful were to be uncrowned, while God himself was to become the crown of the few who remained faithful. "In that day will the Lord of Hosts become a crown of glory and a diadem of beauty unto the residue of His people." We have a strong contrast that should make a deep impression upon us. If living in sin we still crown ourselves with pride and boastfulness, God will humble and uncrown us; but if we are faithful to His laws and commandments He will become "a crown of glory" to us. It should not take us long to decide which of these two conditions we prefer.

3. The crown of service. "Hold fast that thou hast, that no man take thy crown." This must be the crown or reward for service. It cannot refer to the crown of life, for no man can take that from us if we have it. But if God has a work for us to do, and we neglect it, and some one else performs it, he will receive the crown of reward which we will therefore lose. "Let us therefore not be weary in well doing, for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not." We are saved to serve. Let us serve, therefore, that we may have in time to come both the crown of life and the crown of service.

BIBLE READINGS.

Prov. xi, 12; xx, 1; xxiii, 19-21, 29-32; I Cor. xv, 58; Gal. v, 16-26; vi, 9; II Tim. iv, 7, 8; Jas. i, 12; I Pet. v, 1-4; Rev. ii, 10.

From Turkey and India.

In Sofia, Turkey, there is a society that is practically Christian Endeavor, having committees, meetings and topics identical with Christian Endeavor and members of both sexes, though organized as a Y. M. C. A.

A model Christian Endeavor meeting was a feature of the annual Missionary Association of the United Presbyterian Church at Sialkot, Punjab, India. The subject was "Fellowship," and greetings were sent to the all India convention, then in session at Lahore, and an offering of $16 made for the Punjab district union, that day organized at Lahore.

Hawaiian Christian Endeavor Song.

On Dr. Clark's recent visit to Hawaii the Hawaiian Endeavorers sang their Christian Endeavor song, which is as follows:

Hawaii's land is fair;
Rich are the gifts we share
This is our earnest prayer,
O Lord of light:
That as a noble band
We may join heart and hand
Till all Hawaii's land
Stands for the right.

Convention History.

Christian Endeavor has made wonderful convention history. At Boston in 1895 more than 56,000 registered delegates came together in the largest religious assemblage of all time. To the San Francisco convention 15,000 persons crossed the Rockies, and the London convention amazed the world's metropolis by its great size and vigor. —Christian Endeavor World.

Secretary Vogt's Work.

General Secretary Von Ogden Vogt covered eighteen convention appointments in Illinois in March. He spent January in New York state and February in Pennsylvania.

Christian Endeavor.

Not dreaming, but endeavor,
Must meet the world's great need;
Not impulse, fair and futile,
But swift, outreaching deed.

Not languorous aspiring,
But climbing, day by day;
Not sympathetic musing,
But kindness by the way.

Not prayer alone of longing,
But prayer in action wrought;
Not dreaming, but endeavor,
With blessed fruit is fraught.

—Edith H. Kinney in Christian Endeavor World.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

May 8: "Crowns Trodden Underfoot." Isa. xxviii, 1-7; Rev. iii, 11.

Military success, rapid and great increase in wealth from the spoil of conquered nations, alliances with corrupt and idolatrous people, had brought in a period of luxury and moral laxity in the kingdom of Israel which proved to be finally ruinous, morally and politically.

Isaiah was a religious teacher of the guild of Jehovah prophets in the southern kingdom of Judah. He was gifted with a broader and more statesmanlike mind than any of his predecessors or contemporaries. A man of wondrously comprehensive insight and foresight into the springs and dominant principles of national life, he for the first time discovered and announced the universal scope and power of righteousness in government and the fact that one Jehovah, God, overruled all nations and made them eventually work His will.

At the time of this outburst of inspired invective he had lived through three reigns in his own land and was in the second year of the fourth reign, that of Hezekiah. He had witnessed great vicissitudes in political affairs. He had seen Judah conquered by Israel, immense multitudes of her choicest manhood left dead on battlefields, other multitudes carried captive and all her treasure from palace and temple carried as spoil of war to Samaria or paid as tribute to Damascus and Assyria.

He now sees an outbreak of extravagantly luxurious living deluging the northern capital of Israel. Drunkenness and debauchery run riot. Unrestrained licentiousness of every sort has made the people insane. Virtue is almost nonexistent.

This man is not a gloomy, pessimistic ascetic, but a clear eyed, practical man of affairs. He sees what must be the inevitable outcome of the present course of events, the unvarying result of such things whenever and wherever practiced. Principle and application are both plain to his view.

The kingdom of Israel is intoxicated with success. In his message of warning he used the poetical name of that people. Just as we speak of the United States as Columbia so he speaks of Ephraim. The curse of drunkenness was overwhelming. In all their feasts wreaths of flowers crowned the heads and festooned the necks of the revelers. Their religious rites were debased by drunken and licentious feasts until worship was one long festival of vicious indulgence of lust. Samaria, the capital, on a beautiful hill overlooking a most fertile valley, was itself a wreath on the head of a drunken nation.

Isaiah's words soon came true. In two years' time Samaria and all her revelers were captured and transported by the king of Assyria. Foreigners of many different races replaced them. Jerusalem became the center for all Jehovah worshipers and Jehovah Himself "the crown of beauty and diadem of glory to the residue of His people." Jerusalem alone of all great cities of the world was never captured by the Assyrians. Isaiah was most influential of all in proclaiming and procuring this immunity from capture.

Our safety is in Jehovah. If we make Him our crown He will preserve us. Prosperous iniquity is the most unprofitable condition possible.

What He Does For Us.

The same promptings come to those who have a sense of the goodness of God. To say nothing of the daily blessings which minister to our physical necessities, the thought of the divine grace so abundantly given us should awaken in us the sweetest joy and the liveliest gratitude. What has He not done for us to save us from ruin? Blinded by sin, our tendency is to rush on to destruction. One offense leads to another, and our perverted nature knows not the way of escape. Here the ministrations of the Holy Spirit come in, and we are shown how to get back into the path of holiness. We have lost our way, and God restores us. We have abandoned Him, but He refuses to abandon us. We put Him out of our lives, but He persuades us to let Him come back. He bestows upon us love and sympathy and graciously pardons our iniquities. He gives us what by nature we could not have, pure hearts and a regenerated spirit. All this He does out of His grace. It comes to us as the divine favor, given to those who could not command it, given freely and without upbraiding to those who merited it not.—Independent.

True Beauty.

Beauty should be yours, that subtle beauty which eludes description, the spirit shining through the flesh. Winning manners that come from lack of self consciousness, coupled with a genuine kindness of heart, leading you to treat every human being with never failing courtesy, beside which the repose of manner supposed to mark the cast of Vere de Vere is as soulless as it is artificial.—Catholic Universe.

Hope.

I praised the earth, in beauty seen,
With garlands gay of various green;
I praised the seas, whose ample field
Shone glorious as a silver shield;
And earth and ocean seemed to say,
"Our beauties are but for a day."

I praised the sun, whose chariot rolled
On wheels of amber and of gold;
I praised the moon, whose softer eye
Gleamed sweetly through the summer sky;
And moon and sun in answer said,
"Our days of light are numbered."

O God! O Good beyond compare!
If thus Thy meaner works are fair,
If thus Thy bounties gild the span
Of ruined earth and sinful man,
How glorious must the mansion be
Where Thy redeemed shall dwell with Thee!

—Reginald Heber.

IN WOMAN'S FIELD.

New Work For the Fingers of the Fair Sex.

Some time since the London chamber of commerce gave a dinner to ladies. Many distinguished women were present, among them Mrs. Bertha Ayrton, a member of the British Society of Electrical Engineers. In her after dinner speech Mrs. Ayrton said that women might well take up the work of electrical instrument making as an occupation. The delicate manipulation necessary to this work is well suited to woman's quick, accurate eye and nimble fingers. The way to prepare for entering this field of labor Mrs. Ayrton said, would be for a woman to take a course of instruction in mechanical and electrical engineering and then enter an electrical instrument shop as an apprentice. In this country getting a place in an electric instrument factory could be best achieved by a girl with some men relatives or friends in the business.

The question of varied employment for women is a distressing one in England, and it is rapidly becoming so in this country. Fields already open, except that of housework, are overcrowded. An Englishwoman, Lady Dallas, some time ago introduced into Wapping, one of east London's poverty stricken districts, toymaking as a means of livelihood. In Wapping exist the under dogs in the fight—the sickly, the frail and the deformed.

MAKING TOY ELEPHANTS.

With the encouragement and opportunity offered them through Lady Dallas, numbers of the stranded ones in Wapping developed a talent and skill that would never have been suspected. One girl, so feeble that she could not work in a factory and was unable to sit still all day at a sewing machine, became a real and literal dolls' dressmaker, such as Dickens describes. This dolls' dressmaker is lame and unable to go out. But she makes a world of beauty of her own in the artistic creations of her brain just as surely as the picture painter does. She dresses expensive dolls that are bought by the wealthy or sold at charity and other fairs and has now more orders than she can fill.

One woman of Wapping makes toy elephants of a cloth the color of the real animal. This one woman has made such a specialty of her cloth elephants, sewed and stuffed, that they have a reputation and find ready sale. With these and other toys made in the same way the ingenious woman earns a good living.

Another poor person in Wapping, this one a man, has developed a remarkable talent for carving out toy violins which really will make music. They are only for children, but the children are so eager to get these fiddles which can be played upon that the maker earns a considerable income. This man is an invalid from an incurable disease.

Throughout the Wapping district many people have become artistic carvers of wooden toys. This is a branch of toymaking which is the most interesting and profitable of all. Our most artistic wooden toys come from Germany and the Tyrol. In the Tyrol are some 2,500 woodcarvers, and quite half of them are women and girls. In the winter, when work outdoors is impossible, the Tyrolese sit by their firesides and cut into shape figures pretty and grostesque. Besides toys they carve also small articles of furniture and other things. One woman for twenty years has made nothing but crucifixes and acquired such fame at her trade that all her work is ordered in advance. One family perhaps makes only wooden dolls and another horses. At the age of six the young Tyrolese is put to work with knife, saw and chisel, learning the fine art of woodcarving. Much of the work is painted, and the artisan must be skilled in colors.

Perhaps it is because the Tyrolese wooden toys and bric-a-brac are made at home in families and not in factories that they are so artistic and individual. There is certainly a suggestion here for American women and girls. Few of our finest toys are made in America. They are imported by the million. The field of making them is here, and as yet comparatively untrodden. Many of our women understand woodcarving, painting and modelling. Others who are artists with a pencil could also evolve something original in the shape of toys. The French seize on popular events, elections, social and historic happenings, and people in the public eye and reproduce them in the toy world. MARY EDITH DAY.

THIS CAT HAD TEN LIVES.

New York Flat Dweller Spoiled Lots of Furniture in Vain Effort to Kill Tom.

The well-meaning tramp cat that paid a visit to the family of James McDonough at 444 West One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street, New York, the other evening has more than its allotted number of lives. "Tom" entered as the family were at dinner. Now, Mrs. McDonough has an aversion to cats. That started the trouble. McDonough took his place as the head of the family and said "Shoo." The cat didn't "shoo," and McDonough seized a poker.

"It's mad, I'm sure," screamed Mrs. McDonough. Her husband seized a chair. The cat wasn't there when the chair struck the spot it ought to have been in, and the chair splintered. His trusty wife was by his side with another chair. Again the cat wasn't there. Again the chair splintered.

"Two of mahogany. That's $20," wailed the husband.

"Never mind the chairs, James. Kill the cat before it kills me."

The cat crawled under the ice chest. The ice chest weighs 200 pounds and the ice weighed 50. McDonough moved the ice chest, while his wife, with a stove poker on a chair that she propelled dexterously, followed the ice chest, waiting for the cat to appear. It didn't appear until the ice chest reached the hall. Then it darted through the chair legs in a manner that nearly undid Mrs. McDonough. It ran to the bedroom.

McDonough, somewhat excited, took the poker and went at it again. It got under the bedclothes. The poker ripped the bedclothes to shreds, but not the cat. McDonough took the bed apart. His wife, from a chair, used one slat, he another. Then, one by one, the nine lives of poor Tom went out.

"Thank heavens, James, I am saved," cried Mrs. McDonough.

But not yet. That marvelous cat opened one eyes, then another. Then it slid between the feet of the unprepared Mrs. McDonough. With a shiek she ran from the flat. The cat looked wild-eyed at James. Then James beat an inglorious retreat. He ran as fast as he could to the station.

"Come quick, with the reserves," he cried.

Policeman Heidelberg followed McDonough. The cat had disappeared.

HAD A WHEELBARROW RIDE.

Indiana Teacher and His Bride Are Given a Novel Celebration by Their Pupils.

John W. Teters, school superintendent of Carmel, Ind., was married to Miss Nellie Hawley, and he and his bride were taken to school in wheelbarrows. The girls of the school conveyed the bride and the boys handled the superintendent. He had told them experiences of his college days, and they had been waiting for the opportunity to work off their energy in emulating his undergraduate deeds.

Mr. and Mrs. Teters were taken into the schoolroom and called upon for speeches. The superintendent introduced his bride, and a parade of the streets followed. Mrs. Teters was wheeled about and carried on a ladder by the girls of the school, and the teacher was lifted high in the air by some of the sturdy boys. He took the joke good naturedly, only occasionally pulling the hair of a handy student to keep his fingers warm.

When Mr. Teters thought the celebration was all over some of the boys procured a rail and tied him on it. He had on house slippers, which dangled in the chilly air.

THE MACHINISTS' STRIKE.

President Ripley Objects to Control of the Unions.

LOS ANGELES, May 5.—E. P. Ripley, president of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad company, in a statement says:

"The company will have no difficulty in filling the places of the men who quit work. We have no quarrel with unionism among our men. We deal with unionism in the case of conductors, engineers, firemen and trainmen but these unions have never made the outrageous demands to which we were asked to submit by the machinists and which would have transferred to the machinists' union the management of our shops. Of the men who left our employment probably at least one-half did not want to strike and were not in sympathy with the demands made on us by the union, but felt obliged to go out with the others, so for this class I am very sorry and realize the difficult position in which they were placed. It may as well be understood, however, that no semipublic corporation, owing duties to the public, such as the railroads and street cars, the telegraph, telephone, etc., can for one instant accept the principle of the 'closed shop' or surrender its power to maintain order by discipline. There never was order among large bodies of men without discipline, and there never will be."

RICH IN CAOUTCHOUC.

War May Be Declared Between Brazil and Peru.

LIMA, Peru, May 5.—In an interview regarding the existing troubles between Brazil and Peru Foreign Minister Pardo has stated that his government is preparing to resist the "unjust aggression" of Brazil.

It was, Senor Pardo asserted, a political whim of Baron Rio Branco, Brazil's foreign minister, to annex the territories of Alto-Jurua and Alto-Purus, inventing as a basis for such action stories of Peruvian invasions, and Brazil, Minister Pardo said, had now sent troops to occupy the coveted regions.

The truth, said Senor Pardo, is that Peru has never moved from points she has occupied for many years, and in proof of this he asserted that when Brazil opposed the formation of the Acre syndicate her foreign office urged as the principal argument against the concession the rights of Peru to the very same territory.

"Yet a few months later," concluded Minister Pardo, "Baron Rio Branco forgot Brazil's words and decided to occupy this territory, which had previously been declared to be Peruvian, but it is very rich in caoutchouc."

Will Cause a Rebellion In Ireland.

LONDON, May 5.—The house of commons last night rejected a resolution in favor of the repeal of the Irish crimes act. George Wyndham, chief secretary for Ireland, in opposing the motion, confessed that nothing could justify the anticipation of a recrudescence of social disorders in Ireland. John Redmond, leader of the Irish party, expressed his extreme dissatisfaction with Secretary Wyndham's statement, which, he declared, would lead the Irish people if they had the means into open rebellion.

EXPERT AT THE FAIR

Ferdinand W. Peck Gives St. Louis Show High Praise.

FAR SURPASSES ALL EXPECTATIONS

Vice President of Chicago Fair and Commissioner at Paris Exposition Says, "This Is More Colossal, More Stupendous."

ST. LOUIS, May 5.—"I am here simply as a visitor and not in any official capacity, but I desire to say that the Louisiana Purchase exposition far surpasses my greatest expectations," said Ferdinand W. Peck as he stood in the administration building and gazed out over the grounds. Mr. Peck was the first vice president of the Columbian exposition in Chicago in 1893 and in 1900 was commissioner general for the United States to the Paris exposition.

"At the opening of this exposition it was far in advance of the Paris exposition on its opening day," Mr. Peck continued, "and this is saying a great deal when it is considered that the preparations for the Paris exposition covered a period of ten years, while the Louisiana Purchase exposition had been in course of preparation only three years. We judge everything by comparisons these days and especially so when talking of expositions.

"It is not speaking derogatorily for me to say that the Chicago exposition was perhaps a trifle farther advanced at its opening, but then it must also be considered that it did not cover so vast an area. This exposition is more colossal and more stupendous.

"Now, at the Chicago exposition Lake Michigan formed a beautiful background, while here there is no body of water. But the undulating ground, the verdure and the surroundings as a whole, which have a most softening and pleasing effect to the eye, constitute equally as beautiful a background and give the visitor an impression that was impossible in Chicago.

"The state buildings are far beyond my expectations. They are more colossal in structure and more substantial in appearance than I had expected, and all are marvels of beauty. The same thing may be said of all the national buildings."

DIAMOND DUST.

The Mono Athletic Club team will play the Cedarcroft School at Cedarcroft field on May 10.

The members of the Y. M. C. A. baseball team will practice on the Myrtle avenue grounds this evening between 6 and 7 o'clock.

F. K. Armstrong and Arthur Humble have erected a substantial backstop on the Y. M. C. A. grounds.

"Bob" Voorhees, pitcher on the Seventh Regiment team, is coaching the members of the Leal School nine.

"Teddy" Overton, captain of the Y. M. C. A. baseball team, will play behind the bat this season. This position is new to him but he will probably make good.

Worthley, who played with the Alis Club last season, is playing third base for the Pennsylvania Railroad Y. M. C. A.

Edgar George, pitcher of last year's North Plainfield High School team, is substitute pitcher on the Stevens Preparatory School baseball nine.

Briscoll, of the Hobokens, who played several games with St. Mary's last season, will play in the opening game with the Elizabeth Y. M. C. A. against the Garwood Athletic Club next Saturday.

The Leal School baseball team will play the Pingry School nine on Hope Common this afternoon, because Crescent Oval is being refixed for next Saturday's game between Alis and the Aeolians.

The Plainfield High School baseball team will play the Cedarcroft team at the Cedarcroft field on Saturday morning.

The Leal School baseball team will play the Princeton Charter Club at Crescent Oval on Saturday morning.

The standing in the Plainfield Boys' Baseball League is as follows:

| | W. | L. | Per C. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Whittier | 3 | 0 | 1.000 |
| P. H. S. Scrubs | 2 | 1 | .667 |
| Y. M. C. A. Boys | 1 | 2 | .334 |
| Leal's Seconds | 0 | 3 | .000 |

"Ted" Overton, captain of the Y. M. C. A. baseball team, is much pleased with the improvement in the team work. He predicts a victory in Saturday's contest with Clinton Avenue.

Griffin, fielder and change pitcher for Alis, played with the Pearsalls against Aeolian on Saturday. He made one of the three runs made by his team and got two hits off of Hegeman. He also had three put outs and three assists with no errors. Only one error was made in the game.

Although it will be impossible for the Public Service Corporation to run a track to Crescent Oval for the opening ball game on Saturday, arrangements have been made for extra cars to carry the big crowd that will witness the game.

A number of baseball fans will journey to New Market Saturday to witness the locals play a game with East Millstone. George Dupee will pitch for the visiting team.

The fine weather makes it possible for the Alis Club to put Crescent Oval in perfect condition for the opening game on Saturday. The contest will be started at 3:45 o'clock sharp. There will be no games on the Oval until Saturday. Fourteen men have been at work on the grounds this week.

The new coats and hats, together with other equipment for the Alis ball team arrived yesterday. The suits of last year will be used this season.

Cox, who played with Alis Club in the early part of last season, will play with the New Brunswick aggregation this year.

It is possible that the Alis team will meet the Murray Hills, of New York, on Crescent Oval, Saturday, May 14. This is one of the strongest aggregations in the Metropolitan district.

As the Murray Hills, of New York, will play Westfield on Saturday and Alis on May 14, there will be considerable interest in Saturday's contest. It will give Alis an opportunity to judge the relative strength of Westfield and the New Yorkers.

Burch, who has been playing second base for Westfield since that team opened the season, has gone to New York State, where he will be seen with one of the league teams.

Manager E. L. Hand, of the Scotch Plains baseball team, is now perfecting arrangements for a game with Westfield at the latter place on Saturday, May 14. On Saturday Scotch Plains will meet Park A. C., of Newark, at Scotch Plains.

GOLF.

SCHOOL BOYS WON GAME IN EIGHTH INNING—SCORE 8 TO 3.

A game of baseball played between the Cedarcroft School team and the Mono A. C. at Cedarcroft field yesterday afternoon, resulted, in a victory for the school boys by a score of 8 to 3. Hommann, of the Cedarcroft team, made a balloon ascension and quickly filled the bases. Jackson's single to left, sent in two runs for the Mono team. After Hommann had passed another man to first, Malcolm VanArsdale proceeded to fan out. Horton made a sensational catch after a difficult run in the first inning. Conover pitched a fine game and was caught in good style by Jackson.

INDEPENDENT GUN CLUB SITE

THREE LOCATIONS IN THE BOROUGH ARE NOW BEING CONSIDERED.

Three good sites for their proposed new clubhouse and range are being considered by the Independent Gun Club. All of them are within convenient distance of the heart of the borough, and the trolley.

Some of the members of the club have been agitating a continuance in the present location, but a majority of them are convinced that it is to the interests of the organization to move. The committee has been active in getting options, and it will only be a short time before the matter of location is fixed.

Just at present the club is busy preparing for a great shoot on Decoration Day. It is probable that an attraction in the way of some crack trap shot will be furnished for the event.

KING'S DAUGHTERS DESIRE CONTRIBUTIONS

In Addition to Pledges of the Various Circles, $1,000 is Needed for Baby Camp.

PLANS FOR SEASON

MRS. HOWARD J. RUNYON IS CHAIRMAN OF CAMP COMMITTEE.

Annual Meeting to be Held in the First Baptist Church May 13—An Assistant for the Matron.

Plans are all formed and everything is in readiness for the opening of the City Union, King's Daughters' baby camp on the mountains, just as soon as the weather conditions will permit. The camp has been put in good condition and it is expected that fully as many children will be cared for this year as last. Mrs. Charles A. Reed, president of the Union, has been busily engaged since her return from a sea trip, in supervising the arrangement of details for the opening.

The expense of operating the camp this year and making needed improvements will be $2,000. Outside of the pledges made by the various Circles and money received from other sources, the Union must depend on the generosity of the people of Plainfield and the borough to contribute the remaining $1,000. By securing this sum it will also be possible to build a laundry house, and establish better sanitary equipment, both being needed very much.

Arrangements have been made to have Mrs. DeLany act as matron at the camp and she will have an assistant, a young woman from Brooklyn, who has performed similar work for St. John's Guild, New York, also on Long Island. She comes to the camp solely for the purpose of being in the country. With the assistant it will give Miss Olive DeLany, the city nurse, more time to care for her patients in town. Last year her services were required so much of the time at the camp that another nurse was employed for the city work.

It must be remembered that the money contributed to this work by the various Circles covers the salary for the city nurse and meets current expenses. In addition the Circles contributed meats and other commodities, but groceries, canned goods, milk, as well as oil for running the stove for cooking purposes, are purchased by the Union and the expense of transportation, not a light one, is also met in this way. Of course, many of these things are secured at reduced prices which is a decided help.

One serious problem confronting the Union is the practice some very mean persons have of defacing the camp buildings with obscene pictures and literature and writings. Last year it cost $25 to repaint the buildings and efface these unsightly things. It is scarcely believed that there is any person in this vicinity so depraved that they would cause this trouble. Once during the past winter the camp was broken into and considerable damage done. The apprehension of these persons will result in severe punishment.

At a meeting of the executive committee yesterday, Mrs. Howard J. Runyon was chosen chairman of the camp committee to be composed of one member from each Circle. The other selections will be made soon. The Union thoroughly appreciates any assistance given in its work and contributions of money or anything needed to carry on the work will still be gratefully received. ## PINGRY DEFEATED LEAL'S

PLAINFIELD SCHOOL BOYS LOST GAME BY SCORE OF 11 TO 10.

Leal's School team was defeated by the Pingry School team, of Elizabeth, on Hope Common yesterday afternoon, by a score of 11 to 10. "Sam" Mertens, the crack pitcher of last season's Rahway Athletic Club team, was in the box for the Pingry boys. For an amateur nine the Leal School boys touched Mertens up pretty lively and towards the end of the game it seemed as though they were going to win out.

Both pitchers were hit pretty easily and this combined with the ragged fielding of both schools accounts for the large score. In the eighth inning Wills cracked out a pretty double which started the Pingry boys on a balloon ascension and when they came down the Leal's team was one run to the good. In their half of the inning the Pingry managed to get two runs over the plate after two were out by timely hits and a bad throw. In their half of the ninth Abbott made a single and was sacrificed to second. Wills hit a hot liner straight for Mertens, who put out his gloved hand to protect himself and as luck would have it the ball went into his mit and the rest of the players struck out in order:

Leal's School — Howard, 3b; J. Haughey, c; Glenney, ss; Lovell, rf; Deane, 1; Chapman, Daniels, rf; Abbott, cf; L. Haughey, p; Wills, 2.

Pingry School—Glazebrook, ss; Miller, 1b; Mertens, p; Turner, 3b; Wilson, 2; Kaufman, lf; Barroll, cf; Gorman, c; Rollinson, rf.

Umpire—Voorhees.

WOODEN PAVEMENT, SUBJECT OF DISCUSSION

The Members of the Board of Trade Express Doubt As to Its Practicability.

TROLLEY EXTENSIONS

SPECIAL FIRE PROTECTION FOR FRONT STREET.

New York Concern Wants to Locate Factory Here—Francis Wood Hands in His Resignation—The Postoffice.

Ten members of the Board of Trade met in Exempt Firemen's Hall last night and discussed important questions including the scheme for the laying of wooden pavement on Watchung avenue, trolley extensions and fire hydrants. President Woolston occupied the chair. Frank H. Smith, as secretary, was in his place, and among those present was Former Mayor Alexander Gilbert.

Mr. Gilbert introduced the subject of wooden pavement for Watchung avenue. He said that while he was not in a position to know the advantage of that kind of pavement, personally he felt that it would be a mistake to allow it to be put down. He expressed confidence in Street Commissioner Gavett.

A general discussion of the subject followed. Secretary Smith explained what he had learned about the wooden pavement, although he was not in a position to advocate its use. It was recalled that many years ago a wooden pavement was used in Park avenue, but was not a success. It was also explained that it was not a success in Elizabeth. Dr. A. F. VanHorn said that he believed that it would be poor pavement from a sanitary standpoint. It was decided, however, not to make any recommendations to the Common Council.

The question of trolley extensions was briefly discussed and when Charles W. Runyon was asked what information he had on the subject, replied that he was more interested in new cars for Plainfield. He was under the impression that the Public Service Corporation is doing but little toward getting new cars at present, although he expressed the opinion that the equipment would be all right in the course of time.

It was the opinion of all that better fire protection is needed in the business part of the town, especially on East and West Front streets, and J. C. Pope was appointed a committee of one to ascertain what improvement can be made in this line.

Correspondence regardnig a trial of the Wilmarth car fender, the manufacturers having asked the Board to recommend its use on the trolleys, was read. The Public Service Corporation signified a willingness to comply with the request. The Board, having been asked to lend its influence toward the enactment of the Harbor and River Bill now in Congress, received letters from Congressmen Fowler and Lanning and Senator Kean, in which they said that the matter was being carefully considered by them. The bill provides for an investigation of the deep sea merchant marine service, the purpose being to secure greater foreign trade. It was introduced by Congressman A. P. Gardner, of Massachusetts, who acknowledged a letter written him by the Board on the subject. The Board notified the Congressman of its action and sent him a copy of the resolution favoring the bill.

A communication was received from the National Business Men's Association, of Chicago, asking the Board to join the association. As an incentive the association offered to make the membership fee $50, while later on it would be between $200 and $300. The latter was filed.

Alphone Weil & Co., of Gold street, New York, whose factory was destroyed by fire, replied to the Board's letter giving them information as to a site in this city for their factory, by saying the matter is under consideration.

The name of Joseph A. Blatz was presented for membership and was referred to the membership committee, after Mr. Gilbert expressed the opinion that he thought it bad precedent to suspend the rules and elect a person to membership the same time his name is presented, unless there are urgent reasons for it.

Francis Wood, who recently gave up his residence here to move to New York, sent one dollar in payment for dues and tendered his resignation. At the end of the period for which his dues are paid, the resignation will be acted upon.

The proposed new postoffice building, for which Senator John Kean introduced a bill at Washington, was briefly discussed and the members decided that it would be unwise to appoint a committee to select a site, until the money was secured. It was stated by Secretary Smith that a Government architect was here recently looking over the ground.

OBJECT TO MILK LICENSE

FARMERS REMONSTRATE AGAINST BEING COMPELLED TO PUT UP FEE.

"One of the queer objections that we have been getting from milk sellers who object to paying our license fee comes from farmers in the business," said Secretary Honeyman, of the North Plainfield Board of Health the other day, in discussing the crusade against unlicensed dealers.

"'You can't tax us,'" they say. "'It aint legal—you can't tax the product of the farm!'"

"I put a poser to one of them, though. 'Is milk any more a product of the farm than wool?' I asked. He couldn't find an answer to that.

"Pretty nearly everyone in the business has come into line, though. They put up all sorts of objections, but they find it easier to pay the fee than to get into trouble with the Board."

FREEHOLDERS MET.

Nothing But Routine Work Done at the Session of the Union County Board.

Nothing but routine business was done by the Board of Freeholders at its meeting in Elizabeth yesterday, but arrangements for two important sessions were made.

Final reports for the year will be handed in at the former meeting and the reorganization will take place at the other session. Director Hubbard will be re-elected to the chair. He has served thirty-five years on the board and twenty-five in the chair.

PROFESSIONAL MEN TO AID MUHLENBERG

Ministers and Doctors to Engage in Baseball Contest for Hospital's Benefit.

PLANS FOR THE GAME

THE MATCH TO TAKE PLACE ON THE CRESCENT OVAL.

The Date Not as Yet Set—Well-Known Men on the Two Teams—The Probable Batteries.

Of all the baseball games of the season none will attract a bigger crowd or excite more interest than one now being arranged between the doctors and ministers of the town. The game will be played on Crescent Oval in the near future for the benefit of Muhlenberg Hospital and there is every prospect of a barrel of fun for all who attend. It is said that both the ministers and physicians are practicing frequently for the game.

The battery for the ministers will probably be Rev. Gilbert Lovell and Rev. J. O. McKelvey, while Drs. E. W. and B. VanD. Hedges will likely occupy the points for the physicians. Among the ministers who will play are Rev. John Sheridan Zelie, Rev. L. R. Howard, Rev. C. L. Goodrich, Rev. E. Vicars Stevenson, Rev. A. E. Finn, Rev. George Mooney, Rev. C. E. Herring and Rev. Dr. E. L. Earp.

The doctor's team will be made up of Drs. Hedges, Ard, Endicott, T. H. Tomlinson, Dundon, Hughes, Lufburrow, Pittis, J. B. Probasco, Oregar. In case of accidents the physicians will be on hand to properly treat all injuries and it has been arranged that there will be a sufficient number of ministers and physicians present to take the place of the injured.

The date for the game will be fixed within a short time and other details arranged.

DEATH CLAIMS MRS. LARKIN

AN AGED RESIDENT OF DUNELLEN PASSES AWAY.

Mrs. Anna Larkin, aged seventy-one, one of the oldest residents of Dunellen, died at her home in that place yesterday from a complication of diseases. She had lived in the vicinity of Dunellen most of her life. She was the daughter of Isaac D., and Hannah Anne Titsworth, who were residents of Plainfield at the time of her birth in 1832. In 1853 she married Mr. Larkin, who at that time lived in Rhode Island. They leased the old Pyatt property and commenced housekeeping there. With the exception of thirteen years' residence in Wisconsin, they have always resided in Dunellen.

On July 14, of last year, they celebrated their golden wedding anniversary. Mrs. Larkin is survived by a husband, one son, Dr. O. A. Larkin, of Chicago, and two daughters, Hannah Anne, who is a missionary in China, and Mrs. Walter Dunn, of New Market.

The funeral services will be held from the late home on the old New Market road, Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. L. E. Livermore, of the Seventh-Day Baptist church, will officiate. Interment will be in Hillside Cemetery.

Detective Kelly Dead.

Edward B. Kelly, the Summit detective, who attempted suicide Tuesday evening, died early yesterday. Kelly fired three shots into his abdomen, the result of which was death. He left no explanation for his action, but it is generally thought that financial difficulties drove him to end his life. Several Elizabeth friends had endorsed paper for him, and it is known he was tight for money. Kelly was Summit's first policeman and sometime chief. He was well known here. He was a State detective and had been a justice of the peace for many years. He was married four times.

GAME TO OPEN WITH MAYOR IN THE BOX

Dr. Olin L. Jenkins to Pitch First Ball in Opening Contest on Crescent Oval.

ALIS VERSUS AEOLIAN

THE LINEUP OF THE TWO TEAMS IS ANNOUNCED.

Grandstands Have Seating Capacity of 1,200—Merritty to Handle the Indicator—Special Cars to the Grounds.

Everything is in readiness for the opening of the baseball season at Crescent Oval, tomorrow afternoon, and a record-breaking crowd is expected. The grounds are in perfect condition and a total seating capacity for 1,200 has been provided. Six extra open cars will be operated on the Arlington avenue line so that the crowd will have no trouble in getting to or from the game. Provisions have been made for horses and carriages, and persons wishing to drive to the game will be well cared for.

This year only those entitled to position in the diamond and at the players' benches will be allowed. A wire fence has been erected to keep out others who have no business there.

Manager Johnston has been kept busy in getting his team together, and while he does not look for miracles at the first game with the Aeolians, he confidently expects his team to win. He is sure that he has a very fast bunch of players and that before June 1 the lovers of baseball in this city will see the finest article of the National game.

Mayor O. L. Jenkins will start the game tomorrow by throwing the first ball over the plate. From that time until the finish there will be plenty of excitement. Merritty, who has umpired successfully for the Hobokens this season, will handle the indicator.

As for the Alis team, it will be the same as announced early in the week with the exception of Barry, who was scheduled to play in left field. He is under contract with the Murray Hills and cannot come here. Manager Johnston was afraid that he would be unable to get Barry, but in Hollywood, who played in the Southern League two seasons ago, he believes he has a man just as good.

This will be the lineup of the teams and the batting order for tomorrow:

Alis—Roberts, ss; Mehler, 1b; Lauder, 3b; Oregar, 2b; McGoey, cf; Farmer, c; Hollywood, lf; Griffin, rf or p; Davis, p or rf.

Aeolians—Leingan, cf; Poole, 1b; Hoffman, ss; Supplee, 2b; Alberts, lf; Gray, 3b; Helf, rf; W. Poole, c; Maurer or Hegeman, p.

MEMBERS OF THE MONDAY AFTERNOON CLUB ATTEND THE MEETING.

Women from all parts of the State gathered in Caldwell yesterday, to attend the semi-annual meeting of the State Federation of Women's Clubs. Plainfield was represented by Mrs. Robert Lowry, Mrs H. M. Maxson and Mrs. Howard Fleming, delegates from the Monday Afternoon Club. Miss Hubbell, Mrs. Charles L. Sikes and Mrs. Florence Howe Hall were also present from here. Mrs. Hall will report the meeting for The Club Woman.

There was a long discussion on the question of a memorial on the Palisades, where the women's clubs of the State have done much work. It was first suggested to lay out a park and then to insert a tablet in the face of the rock, but both suggestions were reconsidered. It was finally decided to leave the matter in the hands of a committee.

SUCCESS ATTENDS PRODUCTION OF COMEDY

Audience Enthusiastic Over Performance Given by Amateurs at Casino.

FINELY INTERPRETED

THE MEMBERS OF THE CAST ALL DO EXCEPTIONALLY WELL.

Casino Crowded and the Spectators Make Repeated Demonstrations of Approval—To be Repeated Tomorrow Night.

It needed no feeling of friendship or neighborliness to make for the full appreciation of the amateur production of the "Taming of the Shrew" at the Casino last night. Utter strangers, quite in the dark as to who the players were, and full of carping criticism to boot, could scarcely have witheld warm applause at every climax of the comedy situations. The play went smoothly from start to finish. It was well staged, the costumes, settings and properties leaving no room for criticism.

Practically every seat in the house was taken. Society on both sides of the brook was represented largely in the audience, as it was in the cast. The latter was as follows:

|---|---|
| Baptista, a rich gentleman of Padua, | William R. Cock |
| Vincentio, an old gentleman of Pisa, | Charles H. Lyman |
| Lucentio, son to Vincentio, in love with Bianca, | Harry M. Curtis |
| Petruchio, a gentleman of Verona, a suitor to Katherina | William L. Saunders |
| Cremio, Hortensio } Suitors to Bianca, | William T. Pelletier, George S. Ring |
| Tranio, Biondello } Servants to Lucentio, | Clifford W. McGee, Charles E. Faber |
| Grumio, servant to Petruchio, | Laurens H. VanBuren |
| A Pedant | Charles B. Morse |
| Tailor | Allen B. Laing |
| Nathaniel, Gregory, Philip, Joseph } Servants to Petruchio | James Dodd, Herbert S. Rogers, Harry L. McGee, William R. Rushmore |
| Katherina, Bianca } Daughters to Baptista | Mrs. William L. Saunders, Miss Nanon West |
| The Widow | Mrs. Clifford W. McGee |
| Curtis | Mrs. F. W. Iredell |
| Servants | John Valiant, Jr., Frank L. Curtis |
| Wedding Guests | Miss Margaret Curtis, Miss Helen W. Timpson, Miss Louise Saunders, Miss Aurelie Aston, Miss Mal A. Faber, Miss Helen W. Stevens, Miss Frances C. Iredell, Miss Jean M. Saunders, John Valiant, Jr., Charles C. Perkins, Frank L. Curtis, Ralph R. Hallock, VanWyck Brooks, Robert Abbott. |

In the central roles W. L. Saunders and his wife scored a high degree of success. In his roughest scenes, Mr. Saunders was always the spirit of jollity disguised and never suggested mere brutality. The audience could understand why Katharina should be hoodwinked and frightened, but they felt the love of the husband and his distaste of the part he had to play all through his fiery taming.

And poor Katharina's reformation was so powerfully portrayed by Mrs. Saunders, that the audience could almost see her heart soften and her mind awake, until the sweet submission of the last scene seemed quite as natural as the coming of dawn after darkness. In all their scenes Mr. and Mrs. Saunders were roundly applauded, and at their exit in the first scene of the fifth act the handclapping lasted several minutes.

They were supported by the rest of the cast in a manner that calls for the highest praise. Mr. McGee's Tranio and Mr. Faber's Biondello were very funny, while Mr. VanBuren's Grumio was a comedy treat of rare quality.

Mr. Cock and Mr. Lyman made two fine old gentlemen, and Mr. Pelletier's Gremio, crooked, ancient, and squeaky of voice, was a mine of laughter. Miss West acted Bianca like a trained comedienne, and the false father of the false Lucentio could have had no better amateur portrayer than Mr. Morse. The minor roles were filled with quite as high a degree of skill.

There were curtain calls after every scene, and a barrowful of flowers went to the stage at the close of the piece. During the course of the play Miss West and Miss Grace Carroll charmed the audience with two Shakespearean songs.

The production is given for the benefit of local charities, and a very substantial sum is assured. Another performance will be given Saturday night.

John H. Clogher Dead.

John H. Clogher, who managed the Y. M. C. L. A. ball team in the old Crescent days, when the Central New Jersey League was a power in the land, died yesterday in Elizabeth. He was one of the crack men on the Y. M. C. L. A. five in the Union County tournament. Many Plainfielders knew him

POLITICAL NOTES.

The question of the chairmanship of the Republican National committee is a live topic today and will be settled at an early date. There was an important gathering of the Republican leaders at the White House recently, those present being Senators Aldrich, Allison, Hale, Lodge, Platt, of Conn., and Spooner, Speaker Cannon and Representative Hemingway, Secretary Cortelyou, whose political advice is considered of great value by the President, was also present. While the national chairmanship was not the only thing discussed it was among the important things touched upon. Senator Aldrich himself has been talked of for the chairmanship, but he has quickly given his friends to understand that his business affairs exclusive of his own campaign for re-election to the Senate are sufficient to keep him well employed for the next five or six months. In addition to Governor Franklin Murphy, the men who have been most prominently talked about for the chairmanship are ex-Governor Murray Crane, of Massachusetts; Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts; ex-Secretary Cornelius N. Bliss, of New York; Senator Penrose, of Pennsylvania; Senator Scott, of West Virginia; Senator Gallinger, of New Hampshire, and Representative Babcock, of Wisconsin. Of this number there may be eliminated from consideration all but Senators Lodge and Penrose and possibly Representative Babcock, whose long experience as a manager of congressional campaigns would make him a valuable man in charge of a Presidential fight.

JOURNALISTIC OPINIONS.

QUESTIONS OF THE DAY DISCUSSED BY THE PRESS.

Seashore Trolley Predicted.

It is hardly likely that a trolley line can be built across the State to this city to be operated this year, but indications seem to point in this as one of the events of the near future.—Atlantic City Daily Union.

The Dollars Will Count.

Speaking of Robert D. Foote and his qualifications for Governor of the State, the Hoboken Observer says, that he is six feet high, has gray hair and nine millions of dollars. The dollars ought to count.—Trenton State Gazette.

No Need of a Lieutenant Governor.

In the Trenton Times's proposition to have a constitutional provision for a Lieutenant-Governor, we can see nothing gained but increase of the number of State officers. Such an officer would do just what the president of the Senate does now—that and no more.—Paterson Guardian.

Truant Governors.

Governor Griggs was the first executive since adoption of the Constitution of 1844, who felt at liberty to abandon the office of Governor of New Jersey, as unworthy of his ambition, or his fidelity, to take a subordinate position in the Federal government. Foster M. Voorhees, who became Governor on the desertion of Griggs, himself turned the office over to the Speaker of the House so as to pave his way to a candidacy for the full term. And after he was elected in 1900, he slipped off the collar in May to go on a picnic to Scotland, and the President of the Senate took his place for a month, when he returned and renewed his drafts on the State treasury. And now Governor Murphy, with a view of bracing up for the chairmanship of the Republican National Committee, by copious draughts at the German spas, slips out of the governorship to turn it over to a man whose public experience has proved only his incompetency to be one of twenty-one Senators!—Trenton True American.

Imprisonment for Debt.

The new tax act that became operative on December 20 last, is a radical measure and does not appear to have been drawn by one who had actual experience in Assessors' field work, and its effect on this year's assessments is looked for with some apprehension. The provision requiring full valuation may be understood by some Assessors to mean ascertained cost, and such a valuation would be unfair, unless all property were similarly listed. The provision in the law which authorizes the seizure of household chattels to be sold for personal taxes, and where the sale fails to realize the amount of the tax bill and costs, authorizes the arreest and imprisonment of the victim without trial by jury or other court procedure, seems unnecessarily harsh and cruel. A man who cannot pay and has not enough of personality when sold to cover his taxes, will not be able to find the money in jail, and he is to remain there until his debt is paid. The Constitution of New Jersey provides that "the right of a trial by jury shall remain inviolate." It also provides that no person shall be imprisoned for debt in any action or on any judgment founded upon contract unless in case of fraud." More than 50 per cent. of the population of Jersey City lives in tenement houses, and it has been the custom to omit these persons from the list of ratables, because their ratables were usually a small quantity of second hand household material that would not produce enough by sale to cover taxes and costs, and because the occupants of tenements are migratory and can seldom be found at a given address a couple of years after a tax has been levied. Unless judgment is used in assessing personal property under the existing law, a good deal of trouble may be looked for.—Jersey City Evening Journal.

New Plans for the Summer.

Many people are now arranging for their summer outing, and one of the important matters to be considered is the disposal of silverware and other valuable articles. The City National Bank will receive for storage, trunks, boxes, or packages of any description. The vaults in this bank are large and well protected.

Before the Footlights.

Frank Vail, Jr., and William Vail, former residents of North avenue, but late of New York, were in town yesterday calling on friends. The former is a member of Lew Dockstader's minstrels, while his brother is a member of "The Virginian" Company.

—William Sweeney has entered the Trenton office of the Trenton Abbatoir Company.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Cone, of Leyden, N. Y., are visiting J. B. Hurlburt, at 30 Lincoln place.

SIDE LIGHTS ON TIMELY TOPICS NOTED IN PASSING.

Arrangements were made for Acting Governor Edward W. Wakelee to receive the picture of General Kilpatrick for the State on Tuesday. The presentation speech will probably be made by United States Senator Kean for Mrs. Harry H. Morgan, wife of the United States consul at Luzerne, Switzerland, who is the daughter of the late General Kilpatrick. All of the State officials and many New York society people have been invited.

President Uzal H. McCarter, of the Fidelity Trust Company, Newark, says that in his opinion the Brackett bills, signed last week by Governor Odell, of New York, would not affect the New York business of such institutions as the Fidelity. The bills were aimed, Mr. McCarter, said, at the Corporation Trust Company of New Jersey, which furnished the dummy directors for the United States Shipbuilding Company, and not at corporations in this State which do business on a business basis.

The annual gathering at Peter Z. Smith's Peapack farm will be dwarfed by one proposed at Louisville, Ky. John Cabell Smith, a wealthy Kentuckian, "has issued a general invitation through the press to the Smith's of the country to assemble in Louisville for a three days' reunion, and he will defray all the expenses of entertainment. He says he is willing to spend $35,000 on his project." So says a despatch. But—all the Smiths in the United States? Three days' board and lodging? And only $35,000.—Ex.

James B. Duke has a large force of men at work on his estate at Raritan getting the place in shape for the summer. The beautiful drives are being repaired and the flower beds arranged. His large conservatories are filled with fragrance. The beautifying of the large and magnificent place is being conducted on a larger scale than ever, and when the thousands of people flock there from all parts of the State in a few weeks to enjoy the pleasures which Mr. Duke shares with the public they will find almost a fairyland at their disposal. Some idea of the magnitude of the place can be gained when it is said that about 400 men and as many teams are now employed on the place getting it in shape.

AMUSEMENTS.

William Collier, who is now under Charles Frohman's management, appears at the Criterion in a new farce by Richard Harding Davis, entitled "The Dictator." The author has fitted Mr. Collier ideally and give him a play that is all laughter, resultant from a skillfully handled farce with numerous amusing situations. The scenes are laid among the feverish fire-esters of the Southern republics, and this not only gives plenty of chance for fun, but gives romantic coloring to it also.

The superb arenic displays exhibited by the Welsh Brothers newest great shows this year, and who will appear at Plainfield one day only, Thursday, May 12, present a most striking contrast to the popular priced tented exhibits of other concerns of the day. Never before have so many new novelties of the highest merit been brought together in one ring. The entire space within the enormous canvas being fairly alive with a mystifying myriad of new displays, novel performances and thrilling exploits of such positive originality and daring as to give this department of their show a new character. A big free street parade is one of the scheduled attractive sights to be given at 10:30 a. m., on the day of the performances.

Duss and his Metropolitan Opera House Orchestra will open the second summer season in Madison Square Garden on May 22. The magnificent production of "Beautiful Venice" of last summer will be produced on a larger and more sumptuous scale. The grand canal will be wider and deeper and many gondolas will be added to the fleet. A new canopy to give the blue sky effect will be put in place and new Venetian scenes, including St. Mark's Cathedral, Desdemona's house, the Campanile, the Doge's Palace and the Adriatic will occupy positions at the foot of the grand canal. During the summer season the programme offered will include both popular and classical music. Soloists of international repute will appear each week. The opening night being Wagner's birthday will be celebrated as a Wagner festival. Selections from all the principal Wagner operas will be introduced including The Niebelungen Ring and Parsifal.

—It was Taylor Cooper and not Louis Cooper, who was married Tuesday night to Miss Bromfield, by Rev. F. D. Tildon, of Bethel chapel.

—Prison Evangelist Thomas Elgar, who will address the Y. M. C. A. meeting on Sunday afternoon is a unique man and he has a unique subject.

Plainfield, N. J., May 6, 1904.

One of the strangest churches in the world is at Tarameki, Australia. Each of its four walls bears a large advertisement in flaming letters. The church was built by the firms whose goods are advertised, and they claim that their investment will be a paying one.—Newpaperdom.

This terrible indictment of the leading class of the city High School appears in this month's "Oracle," the school paper: "There are only eight seniors who have neither been late nor absent this year."

Disgraceful. If the eight are not attended to directly, no telling what the class will come to.

Cleveland and Field! Don't ridicule it yet for it's among the possibilities. Just observe how the Sage of Princeton is denying that he is in the race and at the same time is busily engaged in explaining the acts of his administration. First he took pains to deny that he had invited a colored man to the White House. It was a bid for "the solid south." He followed that shot quickly with a defense of his action at the time of the Chicago riots when he called out Federal troops without the consent of Governor Altgeld. Now he comes out with an explanation of the great bond deal. He is making the office seek the man and despite his apparent desire to remain in private life, should the other States give way to New Jersey when the roll is called for nominations at the National convention, Grover Cleveland will become an important factor in the balloting. In 1896 they said that Mr. Cleveland was as dead as a door nail. It was a false alarm. Grover Cleveland will be very much alive when the convention meets.

Tender Jersey asparagus—300 of them, choice and select—summer squashes, green peas, new turnips, green beans, wax beans, spinach, radishes, rhubarb, celery, egg plant, cucumbers, new beets, Florida and new Bermuda potatoes.

Funny Effect of a Jag.

August Blaich, of Jersey City, and another man, who escaped from the police, tried to celebrate an able-bodied jag last night by pulling up a big iron tie-post in front of William Jerolamans' store on Somerset street. Marshal Sherman descended on them just as the job had been completed. Blaich couldn't run fast enough to get away, and will face Recorder Doud tonight in consequence.

A Dime Sociable.

Martha Washington Council, No. 23, Daughters of America, held a dime sociable at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Angleman, of East Fourth street, last evening. A large number of the members and their friends were present and enjoyed a pleasant evening in the playing of games, interspersed with vocal and instrumental music. Refreshments were served.

IN THE CHRISTIAN FIELD

WORK IN THE CHURCHES OF THE CITY AND BOROUGH.

The Children of Mary will meet in St. Mary's church Sunday afternoon in regular monthly session.

The May devotions are being held in St. Mary's church. The services are held every Tuesday, Thursday and Sunday nights.

Golden Rule Circle, King's Daughters, will hold its next meeting at the home of Miss Emma Stevens, of Grandview avenue.

At the annual meeting of the Women's Foreign Missionary and Educational Society of New Jersey in Paterson, yesterday, Mrs. B. J. Shreve, of this city, was made treasurer.

"Building Battlements," will be the subject for the prayer-meeting at Warren chapel tonight. The subject is taken from Deut. 22:8, and the pastor, Rev. J. O. McKelvey, will be in charge.

The quartette choir of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church will give a musicale in Grace M. E. church, Friday night, May 13, at 8 o'clock, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the church.

Mrs. John McNaughton, of the First M. E. church, was among the visitors to the conference of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Newark district, held yesterday at Newark. It was reported that there were 939 auxiliary members of the society.

It is related of Bishop Potter that at the close of a lecture engagement in rural New York he was approached by a farmer, who, addressing him familiarly, said:

"Pard, h'ain't I seen yore pictur' some'ers in th' paypers?"

With becoming modesty the Bishop replied, "It is possible."

"Well, pard," continued the farmer, "won't you please tell me what you was cured of?"—May Lippincott's Magazine.

Bishop O'Connor, who went to Rome to present to the new Pope the Peter's pence from his diocese in Newark, speaking of the new Pontiff, he said on his return Wednesday: "He is a kindly old man, democratic in his ways, and with the knack of putting visitors perfectly at ease the moment they enter his presence. It has always been the custom for children of the Church to kneel at the feet of the Pope. Pope Pius invariably says: 'Sit down, my child, and chat.' Then he will evince a real interest in the minutest details of the work of his visitor. The second audience I had with him I presented to him a copy, especially bound for him, of Dean Flynn's history of the Catholic Church in New Jersey. He showed a familiarity with the historical events of this part of the world that was surprising."

BEHIND CLOSED PORTALS

A smoker was enjoyed by the members of Wetumpkah Tribe, No. 229, Improved Order Red Men, last night. During the business session several applications for membership were received.

The handsome new Lu Lu Temple, Ancient Arabic Order of Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, at Philadelphia, was dedicated Wednesday evening in the presence of a number of the officers of the Imperial Shrine, of sister Temples, and more than 1,000 of the members of Lu Lu, whose total membership aggregates 3,500. The officers of the imperial council and other visitors were escorted by the Lu Lu Patrol and Lu Lu band. Just prior to the dedication ceremonies a class of 100 candidates for membership, representing many cities and towns of Eastern Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware, was initiated into the mysteries of the order.

Manual Labor

Gymnastics For the Early Summer Season

WORK, royal work, in the springtime and early summer. Tolstoi has said recently that every human being should do his part of work with his hands, since manual labor is the sincere recognition of man's kinship to the earth.

Woman is waking up to the fact that physical exercise is absolutely necessary if she would reach her best in respect to both health and beauty. And how can exercise be better taken than in doing something useful? Woman is escaping from the enforced laziness and uselessness which a false fine ladyism imposed upon her and becoming somebody in the industrial world, indoors and out. Did you know that the model public school grounds of the United States belong to a school with a woman principal, Mrs. M. Alice Taft of Mattituck, N. Y.? Her school grounds are so well kept and so beautiful that they have won for the woman principal a prize of $100, and photographs of them are to be exhibited at the St. Louis world's fair. This lady is not afraid of manual labor.

Working in the ground is perhaps the most healthful of all occupations when it is done in the right way.

The peasant women of northern Italy are among the strongest, healthiest, of their sex. They are comely in youth and would be in middle age if they had any intellectual life. These peasant women have worked in the gardens and little fields of Italy for centuries and have had no thought that they were not in woman's proper sphere. But now comes a batch of philanthropic tinkerers, mostly rich ladies, and provides for teaching these peasant women lacemaking, needlework and various kinds of ornamental darning and stitching in order that they may stay indoors and engage in more so called "feminine" employment. There seems to be sex in work in the minds of some people. The rich ladies would shut these fine, robust women within walls and make them wear out their eyes and grow round shouldered and dyspeptic and hysterical over their "feminine" employment! Clear out with such nonsense!

Yet so much does the false fine ladyism hold woman still that she has no sort of suitable dress for outdoor work or exercise. Lillie Devereux Blake tells a story of a young country fellow who once laughed in loud derision at the awkward attempts of some girls who had to climb a fence. One of them turned on him and told him he couldn't do it any better than they did if he had to wear skirts, and they dared him to try it. He grumpily refused till the other young men of the party entered into the fun of the thing and made him accept the challenge. He did it sulkily. A carriage lap robe was fastened around his waist and lower limbs like a woman's skirt and then the ungallant lout was forced to make an exhibition as of one climbing a fence in petticoats. He made a worse botch of it than the girls had done.

There is no doubt that the gymnasium dress is the best so far devised for woman to exercise actively in, whether at work or play. And even it is not yet perfected. It is heavy and clumsy in some respects. The record for woman runners is held by Miss Laura Clement, an Illinois girl attending Wellesley college. She made the remarkable time of thirteen and one-fifth seconds for 100 yards. She and others declared after the race that she could have made even better time if she had not been "handicapped by bloomers."

All the same, the gymnasium costume with its bloomers is a vast improvement on skirts and corsets for woman's active physical exertion indoors or out. It has been frequently adopted for household work. Particularly in house cleaning tasks it is commended. In it a woman may mount a stepladder without fear of tripping. Patterns for cutting it can easily be got. Grand women all over the land now work with their hands and are not ashamed; rather they are proud of it.

Rosedale and Linden Park Cemeteries

LARGEST IN THE STATE

LINDEN, N. J.

Beautiful and Accessible

2 Miles from Elizabeth, 7 Miles from Newark,
14 MILES FROM NEW YORK
On Main Line Pennsylvania Railroad

Why Lots in these Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors

BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.

BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.

LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW

BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.

BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.

LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT

BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.

BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.

FOR INFORMATION concerning lots in these beautiful Park Cemeteries, and FREE transportation to prospective lot buyers, apply at once to any LEADING UNDERTAKER or offices of the Associations:

Port Arthur Hemmed In by Land and Sea Forces.

FLEET AND TRANSPORTS ARE NEAR

Report of Great Victory For Russia at Kiulencheng—Kuropatkin Has Gone to the Front.

LONDON, May 6.—A Port Arthur dispatch says the Japanese squadron under Admiral Togo is behind the Liaoshan promontory, south of Port Arthur.

Transports with Japanese troops on board have arrived at Pitsewo, northeast of Port Arthur, with the object of making a landing.

Five Japanese warships, with a large number of transports, have been seen near Kinchou bay, on the west coast of the Liaotung peninsula, north of Port Arthur.

A report from Chefu says that Chinese junks which have arrived there report that a fleet of forty Japanese warships and transports was seen off Weihaiwei, steaming northwest.

Viceroy Alexeieff's departure from Port Arthur is interpreted to mean that the place is in imminent danger of isolation, and the Japanese preparations for landing are considered as confirming the belief that Port Arthur has been sealed up, probably by two of the sunken ships which Russia "failed to locate." It is supposed that the Japanese will make a supreme effort to cut off Port Arthur before the arrival of Vice Admiral Skrydloff.

A dispatch from St. Petersburg says a rumor is current there that a second battle has been fought at Kiulencheng, in which the Russian loss was 7,000, the Japanese loss 10,000 men and resulted in the Japanese being driven back in disorder, but a report from St. Petersburg says General Kuropatkin has gone to the front from Liaoyang to inspect the situation personally. Troops are being hurried forward from the Liaoyang and Mukden line to a position near Fengwangcheng.

Viceroy Alexeieff has left Port Arthur to confer with General Kuropatkin at Liaoyang, to which place the general will return immediately after an inspection of the troops at Fengwangcheng. Rear Admiral Wittsoeft, chief of staff to Viceroy Alexeieff, has been left in charge of the naval forces at Port Arthur.

There are persistent rumors here of a naval engagement between the Vladivostok and Vice Admiral Kamimura's squadrons, but no confirmation of the reports had been received.

The effect of the disaster to Russian arms on the Yalu upon the Chinese is being watched with keen interest and considerable apprehension.

The danger of an antiforeign movement throughout the Chinese empire exists not only for Russia, but for all the powers, and Russia has at least three times since the outbreak of the war addressed the powers on the subject, the last time being less than ten days ago. The answers received uniformly show a full appreciation of the need of exercising a restraining influence on Peking, and all the powers are co-operating to this end.

Russian Loan.

PARIS, May 6.—Parties connected with the negotiations for a Russian loan give the following statement: "The loan is not yet signed, but it is certain that it will not be long deferred. M. Hottinguer, representing French financiers, is now at St. Petersburg arranging the details. It is understood that it will be $200,000,000 at 5 per cent for five years and that it will sell between 98 and 98¼.

An Ominous Request.

HARBIN, May 6.—General Kuropatkin has requested the Russian Red Cross society to supply 2,000 more beds for the hospitals at the front.

New York Short Line Railroad.

PHILADELPHIA, May 6.—The Philadelphia and Reading Railway company has awarded a contract to Millard & McGraw to construct the first section of the New York Short line between Neshaminy Falls and Cheltenham. At the offices of the railway company it was said that the successful contractors will start to work at once.

A Gun That Has Never Missed.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—In a letter to the navy department received here Captain Swinbourne, commanding the Texas, said that there is on that ship a six inch gun which has been fired nineteen times and has made nineteen hits. This is the only gun in the navy that has never made a miss.

Thousands of Workers Idle.

CHICAGO, May 6.—Mason work has been shut down on many partly completed buildings throughout the city by the lockout of the limestone and cement teamsters. It is estimated by employers and union officials that 15,000 to 20,000 workers are out of employment.

Antiboycotter at Boston.

BOSTON, May 6.—Daniel Davenport, executive agent of the American Antiboycott association, has arrived here to consult with the master bakers. He is said to be prepared to take action at any time should any law be violated by the striking bakers.

Wife Murderer Must Die.

CHICAGO, May 6.—Frank Lewandowski has been found guilty of the murder of his wife and sentenced to be hanged. At the time of the murder he also cut his own throat and narrowly escaped death.

Weather Probabilities.

Fair; west winds.

MORE TROUBLE OVER BRIDGE

DOVER IRON COMPANY DILATORY IN AGREEMENT WITH FREEHOLDERS.

It is beginning to look as if there would be a final break between the Board of Freeholders and the Dover Iron Company, the contractors on the new Giraud avenue bridge.

The last extension of time given the company expires when the stone copings are on the ground. If the iron is not there when the copings arrive, the contract is null and void. The stone work is nearly ready for delivery, and nothing has been heard from the iron company.

If the company falls down again, it is believed that the board will claim the forfeit posted and continue the work itself.

OVERHEARD IN PASSING

For something like thirty years Richard V. Lindabury has been practicing at the Union County bar, and the men who have business in the court at Elizabeth and don't know the silver-tongued lawyer are very few.

As usual on Tuesday, when the May term opened, Mr. Lindabury was in court. So was Allen E. Beals, star reporter on the Elizabeth Times, late of the Daily Press staff. Mr. Beals was very new in the court but he didn't appear to know it, and thereby hangs this historical novel.

When the Judge had finished reading the list of cases to be tried on the morrow, Mr. Lindabury leaned over the edge of the judicial desk to talk to the court. Mr. Beals stepped jauntily to his side.

"Give me that list of cases, please," he said.

"What makes you think I have the list of cases?" asked Mr. Lindabury.

"Aren't you supposed to have them?" asked Mr. Beals severely.

"Who do you think I am?"

"Why, County Clerk Howard."

"I'm not," explained Mr. Lindabury meekly, "I'm the next Governor."

"Golly!" said Mr. Beals politely, and went away to recuperate.

And now the friends of the eminent lawyer are wondering just what is in his self-characterization and how far the Democratic State Convention will go toward carrying it to a realization.

COUNCILMAN VANWINKLE STIRS UP TROUBLE

Hot Debate is Caused by Resolution of Ratification of Committee Work.

ARNOLD IS AROUSED

MR. KREWSON GETS MIXED UP IN THE SCRAP.

The Fight is Over the Expenditure of $450—Mr. VanWinkle Objects to Committee Methods—Mr. Humble With Administration.

Objection to the way in which the committee business of the borough Council is being done was registered by Councilman VanWinkle, of the Citizen party, at the May meeting of the body last night. He stirred up a storm that involved the Mayor and all the rest of the councilmen with the exception of Mr. Humble.

Councilman Lee's resolution calling for ratification by the Council of the purchase of the new fire team by the fire committee called forth Mr. VanWinkle's protest. The price for the team is $450.

Mr. VanWinkle said he was surprised at the way the matter was brought up. He thought the expenditure of such a considerable amount of money should have been laid before the Council in advance of any decided action.

He knew as a matter of fact that Mr. Krewson, his fellow Citizen, a member of the committee, had not been notified of the contemplated purchase of the horses, and if the committee didn't know of it, who did? He could not conscientiously vote for the ratification of the expenditure under the circumstances surrounding it.

Mr. Arnold, with some heat, pointed out that the purchase of the horses had been suggested and ratified by the last Council.

Mr. VanWinkle, acknowledging that he had not known of the old Council's action, still insisted that some steps should have been taken to lay the matter before the Council. The matter had been laid before other members of the Council, Mr. Arnold retorted; he had spoken of it to Mr. Lee and Mr. VanArsdale, the other members of the committee, at that time.

The latter corroborated Mr. Arnold's statement in this connection. Mr. Arnold said he had made the purchase while acting-mayor, and was prepared to stand the brunt of it. He thought he knew as much about choosing horses as Mr. VanWinkle.

Mr. VanWinkle didn't doubt that, but thought it very strange that Mr. Arnold could readily find Mr. Lee and Mr. VanArsdale, but found it hard to locate Mr. Krewson. Mr. Arnold replied with some warmth that he did not feel it incumbent on him to chase all over the city after councilmen. He believed he was chairman of a committee to do its work, and intended to do it just as fast as it came up. If the Council didn't have sufficient confidence in him, he was ready to get out.

Mr. Lee and Mr. VanArsdale explained that they had been told of the matter and had expressed their confidence in Mr. Arnold's judgment, and perfect willingness to have him proceed with the purchase. Mr. Lee stated that the chance to get a good team had come up suddenly, and quick action was required to prevent the possibility of losing it. He believed Mr. Arnold had very properly seized the chance to make an opportune purchase.

All that was very well, Mr. VanWinkle said, but what about his own case on the street committee? Only once since he had been on that committee had he been notified of its meetings.

Mr. Arnold retorted that he had asked Mr. VanWinkle in his own office to attend meetings, and that Mr. VanWinkle had spoken in a way to lead him to feel the uselessness of further notifications.

Mayor Smalley broke in to quell the rising tempest. He explained that under the old, harmonious regime, the chairmen of committees had been accustomed to ordering and buying things in connection with committee matters, and that the friction over such things grew out of the unusual division among the members. He believed that the old plan was proper for the quicker advancement of public improvements in the borough, although he acknowledged that a little opposition was healthful.

RIVERSIDE PARK OPENING

PLEASURE GROUND TO BE READY BY MEMORIAL DAY.

In another column of The Daily Press today will be found a notice advertising for proposals for the refreshment privileges of Riverside Park, the trolley resort on the Raritan which has been so popular with Plainfield people for the past two seasons. The notice is interesting because it shows that Edward H. Radel is to continue as the manager of the resort and that the place is to be continued on temperance lines. Manager Radel has built up an excellent reputation for the place, which has the distinction of being one of the best governed trolley parks in the East. The Public Service Corporation, through Traffic Superintendent John Ackerman, formerly of this city, has made special arrangements with Mr. Radel to continue in charge of the place. The opening will take place on Memorial Day when the Marion and Pearl Minstrel Company will present a high class performance. This company is one of the best musical combination of the season and will surely make a big hit. It will continue the whole week. The theatre and grounds are being thoroughly renovated.

WOMAN MISSIONARY TELLS OF THE WORK

Mrs. D. E. Morris Talks to Trinity Reformed Young Women's Mission Band.

THE VARIOUS REPORTS

WHAT IS BEING DONE AT PRESENT TO HELP THE CAUSE.

Cake Sale for Saturday, May 21—Mite Boxes Were Distributed Among the Members—The Features of Meeting.

Helpful reports from the domestic mission fields were given in an address by Mrs. D. E. Morris, of Brooklyn, at the monthly meeting of the Young Women's Mission Band, of Trinity Reformed church, last night. Mrs. Morris is associated in this work under the direction of the Woman's Executive Board of Domestic Missions of the Reformed Church in America. Being so closely in touch with this work her talk was doubly interesting.

Mrs. Morris told of the needs, especially new churches, parsonages and ministers, and she made an earnest plea in behalf of the work being done for the Holland-Dutch and Indians. In many cases she said that where mission churches were started they afterward became missionary churches exerting a wide and helpful influence. In some instances these people are able to erect churches, but cannot support a minister and it is to help these people in supporting ministers that aid is asked.

Mrs. Morris stated that last year ninety parsonages were erected and sixty-three were repaired. She also spoke of the evangelistic missionary work being done in Oklohoma, where the late Mrs. Horton labored so earnestly. She said that the Reformed church is known and appreciated there. It is the intention to erect a church there in memory of Mrs. Horton, making six edifices in all. The speaker said that the work among the Indians is most encouraging, especially in the vicinity of Fort Still, where there are 250,000 members of the various tribes within a radius of from twenty-five to forty-five miles of that mission station. She also referred to the kindergarten work in which the Indian children progress rapidly.

In addition to the address of the evening there were reports by the officers and chairmen of various committees of the Band. The president, Mrs. F. E. Woodruff, presided. Miss Mabel Wilson gave her report as treasurer, showing receipts for the past month together with the balance, to be $14-29. There was expended $2 12, leaving a balance of $12.17.

The report of the chairman of the domestic committee showed that boxes of clothing and useful articles have been packed and shipped to the mission stations and that dresses would be made during the summer months. A brief report was made by Mrs. H. S. Potter for Miss Abbie VanCleef, as chairman of the committee on foreign work. Miss Searing, chairman of the committee on literature, told of the work done during the month. It was stated that the next and last meeting for the season would be in charge of the domestic committee.

It was also announced that preparations are being made for a cake sale on Saturday, May 21, and Mrs. Leonard Smith reported that mite boxes had been distributed. It was stated that there would be a meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Board in New York on Tuesday and it was the desire that the Band be represented. It is likely that at least two or three will attend the meeting. During the evening there was a pleasing vocal solo by Mrs. Charles Clark, accompanied by Miss Lillian A. Force.

The occasion gladdened the heart of Mrs. Rappleye, who not only appreciated the kind wishes, but the numerous gifts accompanying them. During the afternoon refreshments were served and a good social time enjoyed.

H. N. SPENCER'S HEIRS SUE NORTH PLAINFIELD

Mayor Smalley Served With Papers, the Claim Being to Recover $2,000.

TO GET BACK A LOAN

SAID THAT HE PAID MONEY TO MEET ALLEGED SHORTAGE.

To Make His Books Balance as Collector it is Alleged He Paid $3,500—The Case to Be Fought.

Suit to recover $2,000 alleged to be due his estate has been begun by the heirs of Henry N. Spencer, against the borough of North Plainfield. The writ was served on Mayor Newton B. Smalley yesterday and was immediately turned over to Corporation Counsel Charles A. Reed, who will look after the municipality's interests.

Mr. Spencer was at one time collector of North Plainfield and it is alleged that he was short in his accounts. It is said that he advanced a considerable sum to meet this alleged shortage.

Mayor Smalley said today: "Mr. Spencer was $10,000 short and he paid up $3,500. The borough doesn't owe the estate anything and nothing will be paid."

A. G. Spencer, a son of H. N. Spencer, said this morning that the suit had been brought to recover money paid by the late surrogate in excess of the proper amount when the final settlement of his account with the borough was made. He said it was not known just how much the borough owed the estate, but it was something in the neighborhood of the amount sued for.

MORRIS CHAIR FOR TEACHER

G. S. SIMMONS' BIBLE CLASS TENDERS HIM A RECEPTION.

The members of G. S. Simmons' Bible class in Hope chapel Sunday-school, tendered their teacher a reception and surprise last evening at Hope chapel. The object and feature of the affair was the presentation of a handsome Morris chair.

The exercises were opened with a hymn followed by a prayer by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Howard. After a piano solo by Mrs. Howard, Mrs. Simmons gave a humorous reading which was received with hearty applause. W. N. Runyon sang several solos.

Other features on the programme were an address by Mr. Howard and a few remarks by Rev. J. S. Zelie, Stephen Cahoone and F. H. Andrews. At the close of the programme the chair was presented to Mr. Simmons in a few well-chosen words to which heresponded feelingly. The company of over one hundred adjourned to the spread tables where an abundance of good things awaited their attention. The committee in charge consisted of Mrs. D. McInness, chairman; Mrs. George Radford, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Robert Hangliter, Mrs. Clark and Mrs. Bushby.

Mr. Simmons had been asked to meet with the class for a social hour but was totally ignorant of their intentions regarding himself. He has taught the class, probably the largest in the city, for the past four years.

OLD CORNERSTONE.

Removal of Tin Box in Old Muhlenberg Hospital Cornerstone This Morning.

The very last bit of the old hospital building was taken from its place by the new owner this morning, when the cornerstone was pulled up. In compliance with the wishes of the hospital governors, the stone was delivered on the new grounds. The tin box containing the papers and coins sealed beneath the block was delivered by the new owner, Morris Abrams, to H. P. Reynolds, of the Board.

The old stone was laid in 1890. What the Board intends to do with it could not be learned this morning.

PLAINFIELDER FOR CHAIRMAN

UNION COUNTY REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE ARRANGES FOR DELEGATION.

It was decided at the meeting of the executive committee of the Union County Republican Committee, held at Elizabeth, last night, that the chairman of the county delegation attending the convention to be held at Trenton on Tuesday shall be a Plainfield man. That person has not been selected, but it is probable that former Mayor Charles J. Fisk will be chosen.

The delegates will leave town Tuesday morning on the 8:44 train. It has been reported that the county will be entitled to two delegates-at-large and if this is true, one of those delegates will be from here. No selections will be made until the question is settled.

TRULY DELIGHTFUL MUSICALE

MISS MARSH'S PUPILS PLAY FOR ENTHUSIASTIC AUDIENCE.

The annual musicale given by Miss Ada G. Marsh at her home in Franklin place, yesterday afternoon, was attended by a large audience. Miss Jane Bennett began the programme by playing a minuet from Mozart, followed by Miss Edith Mellick, who played with a precision and purity rarely heard from one so young. Miss Annie Fisk next executed two solos with an abandon and variety of expression which comes only with the possession of real talent.

Miss Hope Ivins, who has a touch of unusual beauty, played with feeling and brilliancy two selections from Moskowski and Godard. The honor of closing the programme was merited by Miss Anna Richards, whose work showed the result of years of excellent work. The pupils' parents expressed their appreciation of the thorough advancement made by the pupils.

This programme was presented:

Hungarian Battle Song, Reinhold, Miss Helen Joy; minuet, Mozart, Miss Jane Bennett; Chacone, Durand, Miss Edith Mellick; valse, Durand, Miss Marion G. Marsh; minuet, Paderewski; poem, MacDowell, Miss Annie Fisk; serenade, Moskowski; mazurka, Godard, Miss Hope Ivins; Spinning Song, Litolff, Rondo Capricioso, Mendelssohn, Miss Anna Richards.

MISS ADDIE L. GIDDIS BURIED

FUNERAL SERVICES OVER REMAINS OF POPULAR YOUNG WOMAN.

Miss Addie L. Giddis, the young woman who died at the home of her brother-in-law, Alonzo Brokaw, of Grandview avenue, Tuesday afternoon, was buried in Bound Brook yesterday. Her funeral was one of the largest ever held in the town.

Miss Giddies was well known and very popular around her home in Harris Lane, and the crowd that attended her funeral more than filled the Bound Brook M. E. church, where the services were held. There was a large display of flowers, including big set pieces from the Bound Brook church, the King's Daughters, and the music class she taught.

Before the church service there was a short prayer at the house, by Rev. E. E. Roberson, the pastor of the church. Rev. Mr. Roberson preached the funeral oration. Rev. J. B. Cleaver, who had been associated with Miss Giddis in Sunday-school work, assisted at the service, and also spoke in eulogy of the dead girl. The church choir sang, Herbert Harold, of this city, being at the organ.

The pall bearers were Clifford Brokaw, Raymond Brokaw, Harry Giles, Samuel Bethan, George Trust and Charles Perry.

BOROUGH TO SELL WEST END'S HOUSE

Cits Vote Solidly Against Disposal of the Volunteer Hose Company's Headquarters.

MAYOR'S DECIDING VOTE

WARREN ENGINE HOUSE TO BE CONVERTED INTO A JAIL.

B. A. Hegeman Asks That Prospect Place Be Macadamized—Reports for the Month—Move for Tax Exemption.

Besides attacking the committee methods of the administration, the Citizens struck at the administation over the proposed sale of the West End Hose Co. fire house, at the borough Council meeting last night. They voted solidly against the proposal.

No hint of the reason back of the opposition was given. Just as soon as the motion to sell was put the question was asked for, and the three Citizens went against the plan. Mayor Smalley cast the vote that put the motion through.

Under the motion the municipality must dispose of the Harrison avenue property, by public auction or private sale, as soon as possible. When asked what they based their opposition to the sale upon, none of the Citizens would say. It is presumed that they are against the sale of the West End Company's home because it is hoped to put the volunteers back in their places next year.

As predicted by The Daily Press, the Council voted to have the old Warren Company engine house converted into a jail. No plans in connection with this matter were announced or discussed, the motion to remodel going through in quick time, without comment. The Cits made no objection to the change.

B. A. Hegeman submitted a petition to have Prospect place macadamized from the intersection of Grove street to Mercer avenue. Mr. Hegeman explained that he wanted to get this petition in at last night's meeting, and had not had time to get any other pledges of subscription but his own. But he had talked with the other property owners and was certain they would subscribe to the work. The petition was laid over to give Mr. Hegeman time to get the names of other owners on the subscription list.

Tax Collector Brown reported that total receipts for the month amounted to $5,016 and disbursements $3,109; cash balance on hand, $1,907. Mayor Smalley called the attention of the Council to the strong instructions received by the Collector regarding the gathering of personal, poll and delinquent taxes from the State Board of Taxation, and told the members to expect much heavier collections.

The police committee reported a record breaking amount of fines during the month. $129 was collected from wayward ones that appeared in the Recorder's court, a sum that as far as the police committee knows, is the biggest ever taken in during one month. There were 29 arrests; only one unfortunate escaped with a suspended sentence; one was committed to jail.

The Saengerbund building committee, with their architect, submitted the plans for the new hall to the Council, for consideration before the granting of a permit. The plans were discussed during a ten-minute recess. When the Council reconvened it was voted to lay the permit master over until the street committee has had time to go over it thoroughly. It is understood that the councilmen are doubtful of the advisability of allowing the wall nearest Henry Voehl's place to go up according to the plans. The applications of Samuel Taub, of Somerset street, and C. W. Krausse, of Vine street, for permission to put up frame additions, were laid over with the Saengerbund matter.

An application from Winfield Scott Post, G. A. R., for the usual subscription to the Memorial Day observance fund was met with an appropriation for $25. P. J. Regan was appointed poundkeeper. For several years the borough has had no poundkeeper, but the need of someone to take care of stray cows has come to be felt somewhat acutely. Jerry Foss and William Maury were appointed special marshals.

Councilman Humble moved that all the applications for exemption received from Warren and West End companies be granted. It was pointed

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

Funeral services of the late Mrs. Catherine Hoagland, who died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. William Maguire, on Tuesday night, were held from the home yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock. Rev. G. M. Shott had charge of the obsequies, taking for his text: "Having a desire to depart and be with Christ, which is far better." During his remarks he referred to the Christian life of over three score and ten, which had gone to its reward, and bade the family and friends not to mourn. During the service, Miss Hollingsworth and the Misses Shoot sang very tenderly two of the deceased's favorite hymns: "Only Remembered by What We Have Done" and "Jesus Lover of My Soul." The floral expressions of sympathy and love were many, bearing silent testimony of the love and esteem in which the deceased was held. Interment will be made today at Millstown, N. J.

Today marks the opening of the local baseball season. Manager Edward L. Hand and the baseball committee have worked hard for several weeks past to get together a team of local players strong enough to meet the demands of the patrons of the National game. How well they have succeeded will be known today. Game will be called promptly at 3:30. The visiting team will be the strong Park A. C., of Newark.

Much complaint is made about the crushed stone which is dropped along the roadway by the stone carters who overload their wagons. Judge Clark's attention has been called to the matter by owners of automobiles and bicycles, who claim that a number of tires have been punctured owing to the carelessness of the carters.

The Scotch Plains' Unknowns meet the Berkely Heights team at Berkely Heights tomorrow afternoon. The locals lost in the game played a week ago, but promise to redeem themselves tomorrow.

Manager Hand, of the local ball team, has changed the Garwood Field Club date from May 14 to the 21, this enable him to close Saturday of next week with the Westfield team.

Inspector John Miller, of the electric light company, is again having trouble with broken and stolen electric light bulbs, especially on the circuit through the borough.

Services tomorrow at the Baptist church will be as usual: Sunday-school, 9:30 a. m.; morning preaching, 10:45; B. Y. P. U. meeting, 7 p. m.; evening sermon, 7:45.

The weekly dances at Earle's pavilion will be resumed, beginning Saturday night of next week. Prof. O'Reilly's orchestra will discourse music weekly.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hull, of Front street, are entertaining their daughters, Mrs. Frazer, of Newark, and Mrs. Price, of Plainfield, for a few days.

All the regular inn and hotel licenses in town have been granted again. No opposition developed when the applications came up on Tuesday.

The monthly meeting of the Farther Light Society will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 in the parlors of the Baptist church.

John Dunn has sold his ice business to the Plainfield Ice Company. Mr. Dunn will spend the summer in Texas.

Mrs. Eben Goodman, of Chatham, N. Y., has taken possession of the Dr. Westcott cottage in the borough.

Mrs. George Anderson, of Bayonne, spent yesterday with her brother, Conrad Peltz, of Forest avenue.

Miss Gallagher, of Metuchen, is spending a few days with Mrs. William Lee, of Front street.

Miss Cora Miller, who has been visiting Newark friends, has returned home.

—J. G. Brokaw, for many years agent for the New Jersey Central at Somerville, has resigned to engage in bumsiness connected with an insurance order. He is succeeded by Harry C. Pasterius, of Raritan.

SIDE LIGHTS ON TIMELY TOPICS NOTED IN PASSING.

Spite fences all over New Jersey are doomed. Hereafter property owners who desire to make the lives of their neighbors miserable will have to devise some other means of annoyance for the new tenement house law ends the practice of erecting high barriers in front of neighboring windows.

Many ordinances have been adopted in New Jersey municipalities against spite fences, but they have always been found illegal because there was no statute to support them. Section 198 of the tenement house act says:

"Any person who shall erect or suffer to remain erected, any fence of other structure designed or intended to exclude the light and air from any tenement house in this State shall be subject to a penalty of ten dollars for every day such fence or structure remains after notice from the said board to remove the same; which penalty shall be recovered in any action to be brough by the said board before any District court justice of the peace, police justice or recorder, and the proceedings shall be the same as provided in paragraph 193 of this act."

The principal object of the law is to insure as much light in all parts of tenement houses as it is possible to get and the external preventative of light has often been the spite fence. Chief among the objections to that institution has been that it leads to unsanitary conditions in the houses. Sunlight is recognised by the law as an absolute necessity to perfect sanitation, and it is on this theory that action has been so uncompromisingly taken.

As it is a matter of health, therefore, health boards will have the same jurisdiction as heretofore and may act. But where health boards fail to give relief the injured person may appeal to the commission, and when that body serves notice on the owner of the objectionable fence, it must come down forthwith or the person responsible will be fined $10 for every day it remains after notice is served.

The action to recover damages is similar to that provided in the majority of ordinances. When the court before which the offender is tried confirms the fine it will have to be paid or suit will be entered by the authorities against the guilty persons and judgments and the costs of court will then be the expenses to which the property owners will be put.

AMUSEMENTS.

The management of the Welsh Brothers newest great railroad shows, who are billed to appear at Plainfield, one day only, on Thursday, May 12, claim that there is no show exhibiting anywhere, the management of which is more zealous in providing comfortable seats and accommodations for its patrons. Two complete performances are given daily at 2 and 8 p. m.

"The Secret of Polichinelle" continues in the even tenor of its way at the Princess Theatre, delighting all who see it and making many new warm friends for William H. Thompson and the other talented players. James K. Hackett gathered for the proper interpretation of Pierre Wolff's bright play. W. J. Ferguson, Grace Kimball, Harriet Otis Dellenbaugh, Master Charles Barriscalo are the leading ones in support of Mr. Thompson, and they are winning laurels with every performance.

On Wednesday evening the 200th New York performance of George Ade's comedy, "The County Chairman," will occur at Wallack's Theatre. This is the longest unbroken run of the present season, and there is every reason to suppose the end of it is still far away. In fact, no time has been set for the conclusion of the engagement, which will certainly go on until the weather conditions prevent the enjoyment of indoor amusements. Next fall there will be two "County Chairman" companies, one of which is to confine itself to the principal cities of the east, while the other proceeds through the West as far as the Pacific coast.

Miss Amelia Bingham, the only "actress manager" in America, will be the star of attraction at the Grand for one week with matinees on Wednesday and Saturday, beginning Monday, May 9, when she will be seen in the powerful historical romance, "Olympe," which was written expressly for her by Pierre Decourcelle, the French dramatist, who also wrote "Two Little Vagrants." Miss Bingham originally produced the play some weeks ago at the Knickerbocker Theatre, and she will present it here with identically the same scenic and costume equipment and the same remarkable dramatic organization which she then enlisted in her support.

Joe Welch, whose success in New York has been most marked this season, will play a return engagement at Proctor's Fifty-eighth Street Theatre next week, where he will be seen for the second time within a few months in Hal Reid's clever story of New York life, entitled "The Peddler." The scenes abound in plenty of excitement and comedy. Every character in the play has been drawn from a study in life, and throughout the play Mr. Welch has been given plenty of scope to display his ability in the line of the Hebrew character. The play will be given with the same excellent cast as was employed in the original production, and judging from Mr. Welch's previous success at this house there should be a succession of large audiences. The regular Sunday concert will commence at 2 and run continuously until 11 p. m.

"Kept Everlastingly at It."

This enormous business enterprise was started with the settled conviction that Philadelphia was the city in which it could be made a success, and that Philadelphia business methods would make it a success. In the little room on Sansom street, father and son adopted the now well-known Philadelphia motto, "Keeping everlasting at it brings success." On the walls of the two entire floors of the Mariner & Merchant Building, at Third and Chestnut streets, and the two floors of press and work rooms in the rear, that motto is today engraved for the 229 employes of the big firm to read.

The 400th Part of a Second.

You know how short one second is. Can you realize how short the 400th part of it is? At any rate, it is long enough for a good camera to catch some remarkable photographs of baseballs flying through the air. These photographs are reproduced in Sunday's New York World. There are also the best night photographs ever taken of the St. Louis World's Fair. There's a page about the Paris styles for 1905 that every woman will read with interest. There are a dozen other equally striking features in Sunday's New York World.

It is taken as an accepted fact that Captain J. Frank Hubbard will be unanimously re-elected director of the Union County Board of Freeholders when that body reorganizes on Wednesday. He has been a member of the board for more than thirty-five years and for over a quarter of a century has been its chairman. During that unusually lengthy service he has been instrumental in bringing about the many improvements which make Union county second to none in the State.

Mr. VanWinkle would not recede from his position. He suggested that in the future more business-like methods be adopted in committee work. He wanted it understood that in voting against the expenditure it was not because he disapproved of horses for the department, but for the principle involved.

Mr. Arnold, returning to the subject of Mr. VraWinkle's disregard of committee work, declared that on one occasion when he called at his office the latter had told him "he knew the ground he was elected on." After that Mr. Arnold said he did not propose to do any more running around. If he was chairman of the committee he intended to be chairman. If Mr. VanWinkle wanted to be chairman he would get out.

Mr. VanWinkle replied briefly that he had no recollection of saying just what Mr. Arnold quoted, but he would like to know of committee meetings.

The motion was carried four to two, Councilman Krewson voting "no" with Mr. VanWinkle, and Councilman Humble, the Republican Citizen, voted with the administration.

When the payment of bills arose later Councilman Krewson, who is chairman of the finance committee, made more trouble by attempting to hold up the horse account. When he offered the usual motion to pay Mr. Arnold arose with a warlike glitter in his eyes.

"Are all the bills audited?" he asked.

Mr. Krewson hesitated.

"Is the bill for the horses signed?" asked Mr. Arnold sharply.

Mr. Krewson said it wasn't.

"You have no right to hold that bill up!" exclaimed Mr. Arnold. "It has been approved by the Council and must be paid. If you don't want to sign it, let some other member of the committee do it."

"I'll sign it—give it to me," broke in Mr. Lee, who was plainly angry. He walked across the Council chamber, took the bill from Mr. Krewson's desk without ceremony.

"If you want scrapping up here," said Mr. Arnold to Mr. Krewson from his seat, "you'll get it from Scrapville. If you want to be peaceable we'll let you be peaceable." He appeared to be considerably wrought up.

"Mr. Arnold," said Mr. Krewson quickly, "you can look for the same here." Before further exchange of words could take place Mayor Smalley called the angry councilmen to order.

Mr. Krewson would not speak of the incident after the session. It is the opinion of the other councilmen that he misunderstood his status as chairman of the finance committee, and feared he would be acting inconsistently if he signed the bill.

out that the question as to whether all of the men legislated out of the department were entitled to exemption papers had not yet been passed upon officially by the Corporation Counsel, and an amendment to Mr. Humble's motion laid the matter on the table until the borough counsel's opinion had been received. The latter has already stated unofficially that all the applications are entitled to exemption.

Chairman Arnold, of the street committee, reported that $211 had been spent during the month on the scraping and repairing of the thoroughfares.

PORT ARTHUR SIEGE

Japanese Land Army to Assault the Fortress.

RAILROAD AND TELEGRAPH HELD UP

Gibraltar of Far-East Is Now Isolated, and the Garrison of 10,000 Must Defend Itself—Viceroy Alexeieff Left Hastily.

LONDON, May 7.—A special dispatch from St. Petersburg says that Port Arthur is cut off from all communication by land, the Japanese having disembarked in its rear, occupied the railroad and cut the telegraph.

Vice Admiral Skrydloff, who is en route to Port Arthur to take over command of the naval forces in the far east, will be unable to reach his headquarters.

The ministry of war has received the following telegram from Major General Pflug, chief of the military staff:

"According to the information I have received, forty-seven of the enemy's transports appeared opposite Pitsewo on Wednesday morning.

"On Thursday morning the Japanese began to land at Pitsewo and on the coast near Cape Terminal, about fifteen miles southwest of Pitsewo, under cover of artillery fire.

"At this time about sixty transports were observed bearing down upon the whole front, and our outposts retired from the shore.

"All papers in the postoffice at Pitsewo were removed, and the Russian inhabitants abandoned the town.

"According to Chinese reports, by the evening of Thursday about 10,000 of the enemy's troops had landed and taken up quarters in the Chinese villages near the points of debarkation.

"The enemy sent two columns of about a thousand men each, one in a westerly direction and the other to the southward.

"Yesterday a passenger train from Port Arthur was fired upon a mile and a quarter outside Polandien, about forty miles north of Port Arthur, by a hundred Japanese infantrymen occupying heights east of the railway. The train carried many passengers, 200 sick occupying an ambulance carriage flying the Red Cross flag. Two of the sick were wounded. The train succeeded in reaching Polandien.

"Tranquillity prevails in the maritime province and in Yinkow."

This morning's dispatches received from St. Petersburg say Japanese troops swarming across the narrow neck of the Liaotung peninsula, the railroad and telegraph communications cut and the Russian Gibraltar isolated and left to its own resources, all this the Russians seem to accept with great stoicism.

These events have been anticipated since the outbreak of the war, and the authorities, in a sense, appear to be relieved now that the blow has fallen. They assert that the fortress is impregnable and amply provisioned to stand a siege for a year and that it can hold out until the time comes to relieve it.

According to official information the landing of troops from sixty transports began simultaneously at Pitsewo and Cape Terminal. It is also reported that troops are being landed at Kinchow, but this is not credited, as the Russians are known to have fortifications there, and it is not believed that the Japanese had the daring to land immediately under an intrenched position from which the Russians could inflict severe loss on any army while disembarking.

The departure of Viceroy Alexeieff and Grand Duke Boris from Port Arthur was hurried owing to the possibility of the interruption of railroad communication.

The Japanese landed in sufficient force to discourage the few hundred Russians watching at Pitsewo from offering any resistance.

The details of the landing have just been received by the general staff. From information brought to Port Arthur by the Chinese sixty transports are disembarking two divisions, numbering altogether 30,000 men.

Only a few hundred Cossacks were on the beach when the Japanese appeared. They fired a few rounds and retired to the railroad.

The landing is proceeding unopposed by the Russians.

While it is not officially admitted, it is believed here that the entrance to Port Arthur is sealed, at least for large warships.

Complete details of the landing are lacking owing to the interruption of communication. No resistance was made, the few Cossacks observing the movement, retiring when the warships shelled the shore preparatory to disembarkation. Ten thousand men were put ashore. It is believed that there are over 20,000 men now on land preparing for a forward movement.

The Japanese regiments were hurried westward to cut the railroad and telegraph communication. One of these fired on a train conveying the wounded from Port Arthur.

While the landing was proceeding Thursday the enemy's ships, consisting of the battleships Kikasa, Hatsuse, Shikishima, Yashima and Fuji and the cruisers Iwate, Idsumo, Adsuma and Asama, made a demonstration off Port Arthur to prevent the possible egress of Russian torpedo boats. A number of Japanese torpedo boats were also observed off Miado island, in Pigeon bay.

It was because he was convinced that Port Arthur was about to be cut off that Viceroy Alexeieff, accompanied by his staff and Grand Duke Boris, left hastily. On Thursday several train loads of sick and wounded and other ineffectives were dispatched northward.

It is reported here that the Japanese bombarded Port Arthur early Friday morning and succeeded at last in closing the entrance, but no official confirmation of the latter statement can be obtained.

The exact hour at which communication with the Russian stronghold ceased has not been established. The strength of the garrison at Port Arthur is not revealed by the authorities, who will only say that it is adequate for defensive purposes. It is not believed that the force there exceeds 10,000 soldiers.

The fleet must now take a secondary position, and the sailors will be used to man the shore guns if necessary.

Vice Admiral Skrydloff and Vice Admiral Bezobrazoff cannot now reach Port Arthur and will probably go to Vladivostok to join the cruiser squadron there. Rear Admiral Wittsoeft, who was left in charge of the fleet by Viceroy Alexeieff, will direct operations at Port Arthur. Wittsoeft is a good officer, and it is believed he will render excellent service.

The main defense will be of Port Arthur, where, since the harbor has been occupied by the Russians, steady work has progressed to complete the system of defense which is just as effective on the land as on the sea side.

Lieutenant General Stoessel will have supreme command at Port Arthur. He is described as a high class commander. His recent proclamations show that he is imbued with a determination to hold Port Arthur until the last man is killed.

SUMMER HOMES BLAZE.

Thousand Islands Park Partly Fire-swept.

WATERTOWN, N. Y., May 7.—A special from Thousand Island Park, St. Lawrence river, says that a large fire has been raging at the point since 9 o'clock, resulting in the destruction of nine cottages and threatening large hotel properties located there. The loss is estimated at $30,000, which is partly covered by insurance.

The fire caught in a cottage owned by O. T. Green of Thousand Island Park, where some rubbish was being burned. Mr. Green's cottage with eight others were destroyed. In addition to these six other cottages are damaged.

Cottages belonging to the following were damaged: Mr. William Hall of Utica, N. Y.; Mrs. James Sears of Fulton, O.; O. P. Plant of Auburn, N. Y.; Dr. Carpenter of Oneida, N. Y., and the Rider cottage, owned by Syracuse families.

The Clayton fire department was summoned, and the fire steamer the France, in charge of 100 men of the Clayton fire department, responded. The Alexandria Bay fire department has also arrived to aid in extinguishing the flames.

The fire was fierce and spread so as to threaten every cottage and hotel on the park.

Later it was reported that the fire was under control with a loss substantially as stated, one-third of it covered by insurance.

FIVE MINERS BURIED.

Fierce Fire Blazing In Mine at Shamokin, Pa.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., May 7.—Five miners are entombed and believed to be dead as a result of a fierce fire which is burning in the Locust Gap colliery of the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron company. The fire started in the slope, and the men were cut off from escape before they were warned. Rescuing parties were at once set to work, and up to the present their efforts to bring out the men have been unsuccessful. John Debo, a miner, notwithstanding the protests of others, went far into the workings and has not been heard from since, and it is believed that he has succumbed to smoke and gas.

A party of rescuers tried to enter an old drift and a hole they drove through a private yard, but smoke and gas caused them to retreat. The fire is still burning fiercely. Some of the officials think the men will be found smothered to death, while some of the miners are of the opinion that they are safe in old abandoned workings.

Murderer to Be Granted Bail.

BOSTON, May 7.—Robert McGraw, the negro watchman at the factory of the American Steel and Valve company who shot and killed F. B. Farwell, has been arraigned in the Roxbury court charged with murder and held for the grand jury. An unusual feature of the case developed when Judge Bolster announced that bail would be fixed at $5,000, it not being customary in this state to grant bail to a person who is held on a murder charge. McGraw has not found sureties.

Fatal Shooting Over Politics.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., May 7.—During a political meeting here Jean Chandler was fatally shot by William Leachman at the Patrick schoolhouse, where a meeting was held preliminary to the Republican primaries. More trouble is expected to follow this outbreak. There have been a dozen men shot in this state during the present contest for the Republican nomination for governor.

To Overcome Mexican Quarantine.

MEXICO CITY, May 7.—It is said that the solution of the quarantine trouble between Mexico and Texas will be found in the arrival from the United States of marine hospital surgeons, in the character of confidential agents of the United States, who will be stationed in every United States consulate and issue certificates of health to travelers desiring to cross the Texas border.

WARM WEATHER FABRICS.

Many Things For the Well Dressed Woman to Choose From.

Such lovely soft silks there are now, prettier and more glistening and flexible than any ever before shown, and it is too bad that everybody cannot have them. There are blue ones with a shimmering surface, and the feel of the fabric is simply delicious. Tender greens mingle with white, grays and browns, all with white figures, and there are others where several tints and soft colors are in the design, and are enticingly arranged with bands of lace or embroidery, or some other thing calculated to make us guilty of envy, and such lovely buttons, all made expressly to set off the beauties of the silk! These buttons are enameled, and each holds some of the colors embodied in the silk design.

The general plan for the making of these soft and dainty silks is the long skirt widening out sharply at the bottom, and most of them have more or less of a train. No house gown looks really well unless it has a slight train. No gown for the street should have one, but what is the use of saying so?

DAINTY SILK GOWN.

The designs on these silks are neat and pleasing rather than striking. There are dots of every size, coin spots and pretty floral patterns, but more arabesques and such things. Yokes are made very deep over the shoulders and are frequently covered with lace applied in so many different designs that no one could do them even partial justice. Where there is no yoke the shoulder seams are made to droop far down. The upper portion of the sleeves is laid in folds or shirred so that the shoulder is apparently widened. The yokes are generally very ornamental. In the illustration is shown a yoke which is really the foundation of them all, but they are intended to close in the back, a most uncomfortable thing unless one has a maid.

This model dress is intended for warm weather and is extremely pretty. The material is a delicate gray and cream silk, the ground being gray and the dots cream. It is trimmed with much of the new silk fancy braid in black and white. It is almost as fine as lace and far more durable. The skirt has a shaped flounce and is gathered to fit at the waist line. The braid is applied in waved lines on the shoulders and also on the skirt. Frills of lace at the wrists make the sleeves rather fancy, but still neat. A ribbon sash belt is worn and matches the gray, only there are pink and white flowers woven in brocaded design. The hat is one of those wavy trimmed straws which lend themselves to so many different forms and kinds of trimming. This had two fine plumes shaded to match the silk.

It is possible to obtain everything one may require to complete a suit, from hat to gloves, including slippers and hosiery, and also all the little accessories, like collars, ribbons, parasol and trimmings for hats, not to mention buttons and jewelry, all in the one dominant color. Every color and tint is reproduced in everything from cottons to velvets, so one can have symphonies in brown or any other color, and the effect of so many things all in one shade is very elegant.

But not all gowns are made so fluffy and so covered with dainty laces and things of that kind, for there are very many snugly adjusted tailor mades of rich material and make. Vest suits are also quite a style now, and are dressy and always neat. Tight waists with white satin vest fronts daintily ornamented by small but fine buttons and very narrow braid, sometimes even in metal, are among the newest of the outdoor wear. Some of these have besides this a short half fitting coat, with sleeves made wide and open, or with fancy cuffs and closed just below the elbows.

Shirt waists or blouses are so very ornamental and so very beautiful that we really should try to find a better name for them, but it is probable that the new idea of having the front of handsome gowns of one kind of material and the train of another, with panniers at the sides and stomachers, will soon cause us to forget the comfortable and useful separate waist. Really some of these handsome new styles for swell gowns look as if they had stepped out from some old time picture. The front breadth or "petticoat," as it is styled, is of velvet, richly embroidered or brocaded, and the train of velvet is of another color.

CHINA AT ST. LOUIS

Prince Pu Lun Represents Emperor at Exposition.

WORDS OF FRIENDSHIP FOR AMERICA

Imperial Commissioner Responded to Toast by President Francis at the Opening of the Chinese Pavilion.

ST. LOUIS, May 7.—One of the most notable functions that has taken place at the world's fair was the dedication and opening of the Chinese pavilion. Not only was it elaborately attractive, but it was marked with significant expressions from the high Chinese officials present, tending to indicate that the relations between China and the United States have been drawn into a closer alliance through the Louisiana Purchase exposition. Officials of the world's fair responded with the assurance that the United States deeply appreciated the hearty participation in the exposition by the Chinese government, and toasts were drunk to the health of the president of the United States and the emperor of China and the empress dowager. The feeling of international friendliness was first touched upon by President D. R. Francis of the exposition when he proposed the following toast:

"I am sure I express the sentiment of the commissioners and the guests assembled when I ask that we be permitted to drink to the long life and prosperity of the emperor of China and the empress dowager."

The toast was responded to by Prince Pu Lun, imperial Chinese commissioner, his sentiments being interpreted by Vice Commissioner General Wang Kai Kah. Prince Pu Lun said that he most deeply appreciated the sentiment which had prompted the toast and asked that all present drink to the health of the president of the United States. The glasses were immediately refilled, and once again Prince Pu Lun proposed a toast, this time to the health of Mr. Francis and Mrs. Francis, together with that of the exposition commissioners. These toasts were followed by brief speeches by Prince Pu Lun and Sir Chentung Liang Cheng, Chinese minister at Washington, in which they expressed the sentiments that the exposition would bring the United States and China into closer relations as nations.

President Francis followed with a brief address. Many Chinese dignitaries were present at the dedication, but interest centered especially on Prince Pu Lun and Sir Chentung Liang Cheng.

Prince Pu Lun tendered a reception at the Washington hotel, to which more than 1,400 guests were invited, including exposition and city officials, state and foreign commissioners and prominent social personages. Prince Pu Lun was assisted by Sir Chentung Liang Cheng in receiving the guests.

Prince Pu Lun and his party will remain in St. Louis until May 14, when they will leave for Chicago and Indianapolis, after which the prince and Sir Chentung Liang Cheng will make a tour of the country.

Wealthy Woman Fasts Twenty Days

CHICAGO, May 7.—Miss E. Ruesse was found unconscious in her residence, 4103 Grand boulevard, and taken to a hospital, where it was found her weak and emaciated condition was the result of a fast lasting for more than twenty days. Miss Ruesse lives alone in a handsome house and is regarded as wealthy. The police assert that recently she joined a new cult and that she almost starved to death in trying to follow its teachings, chief of which is said to be that only a few grains of wheat, pure water and fresh air are necessary to sustain life. She may recover.

Smokeless Powder Cloth Tests.

WASHINGTON, May 7.—Exhaustive experiments are to be made at the Indian Head proving ground with smokeless powder cloth, a highly inflammable cellulose material, with a view to its use in the navy for ammunition bags. Although bags of such material must be handled with greater care than those made of muslin, it is believed the smokeless powder cloth is more desirable because it will burn rapidly and thoroughly, thus averting the danger of any smoldering particles being left in the chamber of the gun.

American Chess Player May Win.

CAMBRIDGE SPRINGS, Pa., May 7.—As the result of the play of the eighth round of the International Chess Masters' tournament the American player, Marshall, is tied for first and second places with the Parisian, Janowski, each man having seven points to his credit, the lost point being made up with two drawn games. As these men will have to play each other in some subsequent round, they are now on even terms. Lasker occupies third and fourth places with Teichmann, while Mieses and Showalter are tied for the next two places.

Bryn Mawr Won Larchmont.

NEW YORK, May 7.—Bryn Mawr, favorite, with McCue in the saddle, won the Larchmont stakes for three-year-olds at Morris park by a head from Gettysburg. Buckley A., an added starter, was third, two lengths back. The others were straggling far behind. Runneis, the 4 to 5 favorite, who made his first appearance of the year, won the seven furlong dash in the fast time of 1 minute 26¾ seconds.

Penzance Was a Surprise.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 7. — Well supported horses were successful in most of the events at Oakland. The sport opened with a surprise, three long shots getting the money in the first event. Wilna and Lizzie Rice were the most fancied, but both stopped badly. Penzance, a 25 to 1 chance, won by a head from Parting Jennie, quoted at 15 to 1. Edra, a 30 to 1 shot, was third.

"Texas Smith's" Horse Won.

ST. LOUIS, May 7.—J. J. Ogles, better known as "Texas Smith," surprised the bookmakers when he won with Semper Vivax at the good price of 10 to 1. Ogles and his friends took a good deal of money out of the ring.

Useful Lady at Elmridge.

KANSAS CITY, May 7.—Useful Lady was the only favorite that landed the money at Elmridge, while Mainspring, a 15 to 1 shot, and Ocean, at 8 to 1, won.

A Hundred Mill Girls Strike.

SHELTON, Conn., May 7.—A hundred girls employed in Radcliffe Bros.' underwear mills here have struck because their demand for the reinstatement of three machinists who were discharged was not granted. The windows in the factory have been secured by buttons, so that the lower sash could be raised only a few inches. Recently these buttons have been removed by the girls, and William Byron, a machinist, was ordered to put the buttons on again. His refusal to comply with the order led to his discharge, and two other machinists were also sent out for the same cause.

An Oil Gusher In Tennessee.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., May 7.—A special from Jamestown, Tenn., says a flowing oil vein has been struck about four miles from Jamestown. At a depth of 700 feet oil began flowing at the rate of 500 barrels an hour, and it continues to flow. Excitement is high. Jamestown is in the Kentucky-Tennessee oil belt.

Tibetans Repulsed With Loss.

LINDEN, N. J.

Beautiful and Accessible

14 MILES FROM NEW YORK

On Main Line Pennsylvania Railroad

Why Lots in these Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors

BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.

BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.

LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW

BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.

BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.

LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT

BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.

BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.

TRADE CONDITIONS.

Spring Trade Retarded by Unusual Weather Conditions.

NEW YORK, May 7.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says:

Somewhat better retail distribution has followed improvement in temperature, but it came too late to recover any large part of the tardy season's injury to spring trade. Quiet conditions are noted in practically all lines of wearing apparel, with the exception of specialties, such as tan shoes, that cannot be delivered with sufficient rapidity. Operations for future requirements are carried on with caution. Some improvements in collections, particularly at the south and west, will also strengthen weak concerns. The percentage of idle factories has increased, especially in textiles and footwear, and a change in style has rendered unavailable much silk machinery. Structural work is increasing, but dealers had accumulated large supplies of building materials, and prices lack seasonable firmness.

Railway earnings in April were 5.9 per cent less than last year. Money continues easy despite large gold exports, and sales of securities again fall behind those of 1903. Bank exchanges at this city were 16.5 per cent smaller than in the same week last year, while at other leading cities there was a loss of 1.9 per cent.

Recovery in the iron and steel industry is again retarded by the unexpected dissolution of the Ore association.

Weather reports will dominate the cereal and cotton markets for some time to come. The past week was productive of little real news, and net price changes were not extensive. Wheat receipts were 1,102,503 bushels compared with 2,134,087 a year ago. Receipts of 2,073,981 bushels of corn fell short of the 2,553,525 for the same week last year.

Liabilities of April insolvencies were smaller than in any preceding month this year. Manufacturing failures were 264 in number and $5,222,923 in amount against 212 suspensions involving $6,396,295 in the same month last year; trading defaults numbered 690, with liabilities $5,815,702 compared with 492 failures for $4,586,595 a year ago; other commercial insolvencies, including brokerage, real estate and insurance, were 59 in number and $2,098,063 in amount against 46 in April, 1903, for $829,077, making an aggregate in mercantile channels of 1,013 failures, with liabilities of $13,136,688, against 750 last year owing $11,811,967. In addition, sixteen banks and other fiduciary concerns suspended for $4,357,000 against four failures for $71,000 a year ago.

Seven Years of Fraud.

PHILADELPHIA, May 7.—Charles S. Reber, formerly a bookkeeper for the McNeely company, manufacturers of kid, was committed to prison in default of $5,000 bail charged with forgeries aggregating $25,000. Reber for many years was a confidential employee of McNeely's and had charge of the insurance account of the firm. Reber for a period of seven years, it is charged, made out vouchers payable to various insurance companies and agents and afterward by means of forged indorsements obtained and applied the funds to his own use.

IN THE CHRISTIAN FIELD

WORK IN THE CHURCHES OF THE CITY AND BOROUGH.

There will be a meeting of the Children of Mary at St. Mary's church tomorrow.

John W. Musson, a student at Crozier Theological Seminary, will be in charge of the services at the East Third street chapel tomorrow.

An exercise entitled "Missionary Ships," will occupy a portion of the Sunday-school session at the Congregational church tomorrow afternoon at 2:45.

The subject of the address at the Y. M. C. A. meeting tomorrow afternoon will be prison work. The speaker will describe the penal institution at Columbus, O., the largest in the world.

Just as Jesus touched the water and turned it into wine, so he touches the domestic life of the world, and home becomes the best word in the English language.—Rev. F. E. Hopkins, Baptist, Chicago, Ill.

Trinity church choir rehearsed at the home of Miss Edith Mooney, of Westfield, last night. After the rehearsal the gingers, together with about twenty of their friends, enjoyed an informal social time.

"One Blessed Feature of the Home Beyond," will be the subject of the sermon at the First Baptist church, tomorrow morning, and in the evening it will be "By the 300 Men that Lapped." Rev. Dr. J. A. Chambliss will preach.

This item of news appears in The Clinton Democrat of this week: "A friend writing from Plainfield to Flemington used these words in praise of Rev. A. E. Finn, who recently left Cherryville for a church in that city: 'He has preached in our church several times when our minister has been unable to attend. Have you noticed he reads the Scripture lesson without ever referring to the book, word for word? He is a nice preacher, and his congregation is very fond of him.'"

At the annual reunion of the veterans of the First Regiment, New Jersey Volunteers of the Civil War, Monsignor George H. Doane, of the Newark Roman Catholic diocese, was among the speakers. And well was he entitled to be there, for he served in this same command. As he remarked in the course of his address, he saw at Bull Run "the first shot fired, the first dead and the first wounded," in the great struggle. In this section of the State there are other prominent divines who wore the blue in those days: Archdeacon Jenvey, of St. Paul's Episcopal church in Hoboken, for instance, was a soldier who saw hard service. Of the one thousand young men who went out with the First Regiment, forty-three years ago, only one hundred and twenty-five are known to be living.—Hoboken Observer.

In Justice Von Minden's Court.

The contract case of Isaac N. Field, executor, etc., against David Griscome, in Justice Von Minden's court, New Market, has been adjourned until Friday. John H. VanWinkle & Son are lawyers for the plaintiff. The attachment cases of H. L. Pierce against John Hunt and P. C. Staats against H. K. Bird are set for hearing on May 10 and 23 respectively.

Junior Baseball Result.

Two games were played in the Y. M. C. A. Boys' League yesterday afternoon. The Whittier School defeated the Plainfield High School Scrubs by the score of 5 to 3 on St. Mary's grounds. The Y. M. C. A. defeated the Leal School Seconds in a ten-inning game on Hope Common by the score of 10 to 9.

Singular Case of Willmaking.

Recently a very singular case of willmaking came to light in an English court. A lady, possessed of considerable property, was paralyzed, so she sent for her solicitor to dispose of her estate. Bereft of speech, she was unable to give directions. The solicitor wrote down the various items on so many cards; then on other cards he wrote the names of the lady's family. That done, he "dealt" the cards. As he did so his client coupled property with names, and he was able to draw up the will. It was declared good by the court.

Impossible Condition.

Ingenuity runs to madness at times in the conditions imposed in wills. A trial in court some years ago was to test the legality of a will which stipulated that to inherit the prospective legatee must drink all the water in a certain sea. Fortunately for common sense, the court awarded the legacy without stipulation.

No Alimony in Japan.

If a Japanese husband divorces his wife he makes no provision for her and she has no dowry from her family; but divorced women in Japan nearly always marry again. She brings her husband nothing but a gentle and obedient slave, and takes nothing away with her but the same commodity.

Net Proceeds, $1,350.

ALIS OPENS THE SEASON BY SHUTTING OUT AEOLIAN

Crowd of Twelve Hundred Fans at the First Game On Crescent Oval Finds Real Joy Over a Superb Exhibition of Ball Put Up By the Local Aggregation, the Score Being 8 to 0.

DAVIS DOES SOME GREAT WORK IN THE BOX.

Y. M. C. A. DEFEATS CLINTON AVENUE, SCORING EIGHT RUNS, TO OPPONENTS THREE—ORANGE FIELD CLUB FALLS A VICTIM TO THE GARWOOD NINE, VISITORS MAKING SEVEN TO FIVE—WEST END FIELD CLUB TROUNCES THE REFORM ATHLETIC CLUB, NINETEEN TO ELEVEN BEING THE RESULT—OTHER MINOR GAMES—THE SCORES.

Manager George Johnston presented the real article to local fandom Saturday afternoon, the Alis Club nine in a superb game defeating the Aeolian team by a score of 8 to 0 on Crescent Oval. A crowd of 1,200 rooters witnessed the opening contest and the followers of the local aggregation showed their enthusiasm at every turn. Lauder and Oregan were much in the game. Every seat in the big inclosure was occupied, and the ideal weather assisted largely in making the opening a gala one.

The home team displayed plenty of ginger under the coaching of Captain Lauder, who put his men through a lively half-hour practice. Promptly at 3:45 the big gong was sounded and Alis took the field. Umpire Merity, of Hoboken, announced to the crowd the names of the batteries. Mayor O. L. Jenkins started the game by throwing the first ball over the plate. "Ball" shouted the umpire. The first three men to the bat for Aeolian were quickly retired, two on strikes and the third on a throw from Lauder to Mehler. This put the rooters in high glee and cheers were heard for "Lefty" Davis, who showed his old-time form. Alis, although failing to tally in their first time up, were not retired so easily. Robert reached first by being hit with the ball; stole second; was advanced to third on Lauder's sacrifice, but was put out at the home plate on a throw in by Supple. Oregar reached first on a fielder's choice but was left there as McGeoy flied out to Poole in centre.

In rapid succession the visitors went down in the second inning. Supple struck out and Alberts singled. Gray followed with a liner to Roberts, who retired Alberts at second and made a pretty double by throwing Gray out at first. The next half of the inning brought no runs for Alis, Hollywood and Mehler being thrown out at first by Gray. Helf started the third inning by flying out to Lauder, W. Poole was thrown out at first by Lauder, and Maurer and Leinihan reached first on errors of Mehler, who dropped two foul flies. They failed to score, however, as D. Poole flied out to Lauder.

Griffin opened for his team in the last half of the third inning, in which they scored. He got a pass, reached second on a passed ball by W. Poole, but was thrown out at third by the catcher. Davis also got a pass, went to second on a wild throw of the catcher. Roberts followed with a single was advanced by Lauder's sacrifice, who was thrown out at first by Maurer, and Davis came home tallying the first run. Oregar flied out to Alberts, retiring the side. The organ grinders again failed to score in the fourth inning. Hoffman flied out to Roberts. Supple got a single, stole second, but was left there, as Alberts struck out and Gray was thrown out at first by Davis. Another run was made by Alis in their half. McGeoy opened with a clean three-base hit. Hollywood was thrown out at first by Hoffman, Mehler singled, bringing McGeoy home. Farmer reached first by being hit, Griffin flied out to Helf, Davis was thrown out at first by Gray, leaving Mehler and Farmer on bases.

Davis was pitching in great form and he closed the first half of the fifth in short order for the visitors. Helf was thrown out at first by Oregan, W. Poole flied out to McGeoy and Maurer flied out to Mehler. Alis increased their score by two in this inning. Roberts singled, stole second, and came home on Lauder's fine two-base hit. Lauder then stole third. Oregan was thrown out at first by Maurer. McGeoy went out on a fly to centre, while Lauder came home. Hollywood closed the inning being thrown out at first by Hoffman.

In the sixth inning, Farmer retired Leinihan on a foul fly, D. Poole singled, was thrown out by Farmer, trying to steal second and Hoffman flied out to Roberts. Alis received a goose-egg in their half. Mehler singled, Farmer struck out, Griffin got a free pass, Davis flied out to first and Roberts flied out to Alberts, leaving Mehler and Griffin on bases. In the seventh, Lauder threw Supple out at first, Alberts struck out and Davis threw Gray out at first. The locals made two more runs in this inning. Lauder reached first on a neat bunt, but was caught stealing second by the catcher. Oregan got a pass, and was followed by McGeoy, who reached first on a dropped fly by Leinihan. Hollywood struck out, but a three-base hit by Mehler brought Oregan and McGeoy home. Farmer made the third out, being retired at first by Gray.

The visitors again drew a blank in the eighth. Roberts threw Helf out at first, Davis retired W. Poole at first, Maurer reaching the initial bag on fielder's choice, and Leinihan struck out. In this inning Alis made the final two runs, after Griffin was thrown out at first by Gray and Davis struck out. Roberts reached first on an error, Lauder got a pass and Oregan followed with a two-base hit, bringing the two runs in. McGeoy was thrown out at first by Maurer. The ninth resulted in another blank for the visitors. Davis gave D. Poole first base on balls, Hoffman singled and Supple struck out. Farmer tried to catch Poole at third, but Lauder dropped the ball. In the meantime Hoffman stole second and while pretending to throw the ball to second, Lauder caught Poole way off the bag. Alberts then popped a fly to Mehler, retiring the side and ending the game.

The score:

Y. M. C. A.'S EASY VICTORY

Good all-'round playing enabled the Y. M. C. A. team to open their season with a victory Saturday afternoon. They defeated the Clinton Avenues, 8 to 3, on the Myrtle avenue grounds. The winners played good ball from start to finish.

Clinton Avenue sampled the Myrtle avenue dust mainly because her men couldn't connect with the ball. Both Ortleb and Armstrong, who took turns at pitching for the Y. M. C. A., fooled them considerably and disastrously. Only four hits were secured by the losers. They had what appeared to be a good chance to do something in the seventh, with three men perched on bags, and only one out, but Ortleb held to his pace and the side went out.

Dolner, Y. M. C. A., shone up as a star base runner.

GARWOOD TROUNCES O. F. C.

Weakened by the absence of regular players, the Orange Field Club team fell down before the onslaught of the Garwoods, 7 to 5. Five of Garwood's runs were made in the first two innings. They opened with every battery trained to dead center, and hung up four runs before the initial inning went into history. Harry Blimm was in the box for the O. F. C.

O. F. C. was in the running all the way through. The Plainfielders did some hard hitting, Randolph and Ray Guinn landing for two two-base hits apiece. Smith made a sensational catch of a high fly, and cut off what threatened to be a home run. Ulrick's fielding was also of the star order.

REFORM A. C. MEETS DEFEAT

In a game distinguished chiefly by hits and errors, the West End Field Club walloped the Reform A. C., 19 to 11, on St. Mary's field. The winners scored in every inning but the first. They got fifteen clean hits. Batting order and score by innings:

REVIEW OF CHARITY MUSICALE

CHARMING AFFAIR GIVEN AT THE HOME OF MRS. HOWARD C. TRACY.

A programme of unusal merit and delightful variety was presented at the very successful "Charity Musicale" given at the residence of Mrs. Howard C. Tracy on Wednesday evening and on Thursday evening, May 4 and 5, the selections being the same on both occasions.

The piano numbers were rendered by Miss Helen Wildman, an English pianist of great ability, who has studied in Germany, and whose delicacy of touch and brilliancy of execution were shown to great advantage in selections of Chopin, Grieg and Wagner.

It would be difficult to say which of the songs, contributed by Miss Evelyn Fogg, a pupil of Nordica and Bispham, gave most satisfaction, but probably the beautiful aria, "Mon Coeur S'ouvre, a ta voix," from Saint-Saeno' Samson et Delila, showed the richness and purity of her contralto voice better than any other.

An unusually delightful feature of the programme were the trios for two violins and piano, by Miss Elizabeth Lamson and Miss Sibyl Anderson, pupils of Richard Arnold, accompanied by Mrs. Charles L. Lewis. These included, as the opening number, two movements from the Bach concert, a work requiring great precision and finish, and, as the closing number, trios by Nevin, Bohm and Ole Bull. The "Solitude sur la Montague" by the latter deserves especial mention.

In all of these selections the ensemble playing was perfect, and in the single numbers each violinist was heard to great advantage, the classic beauty of the Andante from Mendelssohn's famous concerto being most sympathetically interpreted by Miss Anderson, while Miss Lamson's vigor and breadth of treatment were admirably displayed in Wieniawski's "Legende."

The occasion was the first opportunity of a Plainfield audience to judge of the merits of these talented artists, although both are well known here as teachers of the violin, Miss Samson being instructor at the Hartridge School, and also having classes in neighboring towns.

Taken as a whole, the programme was the best which has been heard in Plainfield for a long time, of which fact the audience seemed highly appreciative, and the desire was generally expressed that this might prove the forerunner of a series of similar musicales.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. John M. Whiton, Mr. and Mrs. George P. Mellick, Mr. and Mrs. Henry D. Hibbard, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. H. Streuli, Mrs. A. D. Shepard, Mrs. O. T. Waring, Mrs. J. Evarts Tracy, Mrs. A. H. Atterbury, Mrs. D. N. Groendyke, Mrs. D. C. Ivins, Mrs. Dorsey W. Hyde, Mrs. Evarts Tracy, Mrs. George H. Goddard, Mrs. F. S. Martin, Mrs. Walter McGee, Miss Maude VanBoskerck and many others.

THE ESTATE DIVIDED.

Judge Lawlor Decides Mrs. Fair Died Before Her Husband and Her Will Became Effective.

Judge Lawlor, at SanFrancisco, Cal., made an order Saturday, distributing the estate of Mrs. Charles L. Fair to the heirs. After hearing the evidence of Charles S. Neal and Joseph Harvey, administrators, and A. R. Cotton, who represented the Nelson family, Judge Lawlor decided that Mrs. Fair died before her husband, Charles L. Fair, and that the will she made making certain bequests, the residue to go to her husband, took effect.

These bequests have been paid by Mrs. Oelrichs and Mrs. Vanderbilt, heirs of their brother's estate, and have been assigned, so that there was nothing left to do but to make an order distributing the estate to them.

The Spencer Case.

In speaking of the case brought against the borough by the heirs of H. N. Spencer, as reported in The Daily Press on Saturday, Mayor Smalley said today that the former collector paid $3,500 to balance his books in addition to about $17,000 which was turned in as receipts from delinquent taxes during the course of the investigation, and that he never knew the total amount of the shortage.

Memorial Day Plans.

Further arrangements for Memorial Day were made at the meeting of the G. A. R. committee, Saturday night. One thing remains, that is to hear from the various public schools as to the time of holding exercises Friday, May 27, it being the annual custom for the veterns to attend.

CHURCH SOCIETY OBSERVES ANNIVERSARY

MISSIONARY ADDRESS

REV. JAMES CANTINE TELLS OF EFFORTS IN ARABIA.

Reports of Secretary and Treasurer Reveal a Prosperous Condition of the Society—Robert M. Clark Sings a Solo.

The satisfaction which comes to those whose efforts are rewarded by success was experienced by the members of the Ladies' Christian Work Society, of Trinity Reformed church, last evening. Anniversary exercises in celebration of the society's twenty-third year of usefulness were the feature of the service.

The society gathered in the lecture room and entered the church in a body. Nearly every member was present. After opening the services with prayer and a Scripture reading, Rev. Dr. Schenck announced the reading of the annual reports of the secretary and the treasurer. Elder Robert Clark, Jr., read these reports. The secretary reported affairs in a most gratifying condition. The total membership is at present fifty-five, which shows an increase for the year. Average attendance at meetings of the society was nineteen. Contributions in the form of clothing to the extent of several boxes and barrels were also noted. In closing her report Mrs. Newell, the secretary, noted with commendation the work of the flower, visiting and social committees.

Mrs. Clark's report as treasurer, indicated a sound financial condition in all three of the society's funds. Summarized the figures were given as below: Missionary fund—Receipts, $69.41; disbursements, $69.10. General fund—Receipts, $463.21, of which $277.66 were gross receipts from turkey supper; expenses, $317.55, leaving a balance of $145.66 on hand. Sewing fund—Receipts, $7.73; expenses, $6.27; balance, $1.46. Year's receipts from all sources, $540.85.

Following the reading of the reports the offering was taken during which a tenor solo was sung by Robert M. Clark. The pastor introduced the Rev. James Cantine, recently returned from Muscat, Arabia, for rest and recuperation.

Opening his remarks with a few words of compliment on the satisfactory tone of the reports just read, Mr. Cantine soon had his audience deeply interested in his account of the difficulties of mission work in Arabia. In contrasting the present conditions with those which obtained when he went to the field fifteen years ago, as the first missionary ever sent there, the speaker mentioned the vast difference since women missionaries had been introduced in the work. He spoke of the hardships and persecutions which befall missionary workers at times, and their converts invariably, and which generally drive the latter into exile.

In spite of all the existing difficulties, Mr. Cantine said that he was convinced that the nucleus was being formed for a Christian church among these descendants of Ishmael, who know of God already through the Koran, but find Him more truly revealed in the Bible. At the close of his remarks, Mr. Cantine was thanked heartily by the pastor in behalf of the entire congregation.

In talking with one of the ladies after the service, Mr. Cantine was asked if he never felt homesick when working in that rather inhospitable climate. "Well," he replied, "we never acknowledge it."

Mr. Cantine is a graduate of Rutgers College Theological Seminary. On his return to Arabia he will marry a woman missionary, Miss Depree

Mice and Matches Cause Fire.

Fire in some way broke out in a cotton-stuffed pillow in the dining room of James Tracy's apartments in one of the "flats" on Watchung avenue, opposite the Y. M. C. A., early last evening. The house was filled with smoke, and the tenants were thrown into panic. Box 14 was pulled, and the firemen allayed the excitement. Mice and matches are supposed to have caused the blaze.

The Charge Dismissed.

Editor, The Daily Press:

Many months ago, Rev. Essex J. Crudup was charged with a serious crime. From the first he denied the charge, and the case has been bitterly contested to the end. When the case came to trial, the jury disagreed, eleven being for acquittal, and one for conviction. The matter has there rested, until Wednesday of this week when a nolle pros was entered by the Prosecutor. At the trial a large amount of testimony was given, and from the nature of the testimony on the part of the defense, it indicated clearly that the charge was without foundation in fact. By reason of the accusation, Mr. Crudup in his church work has been greatly hampered, and his congregation and friends will now rejoice with him that his character has been vindicated, and that he is now in a position whereby he can carry on his work as minister of the Gospel among his people.

Much interest has been taken in the case of Mr. Crudup, not only by his congregation, but by people of prominence throughout the State, and they are congratulating him upon the result. His congregation, as well as his attorneys, Messrs. Codington & Swackhamer, have stood by him from start to finish, and have left no stone unturned for his vindication.

PENINSULA IN KUROKI'S GRASP.

Kuropatkin Admits Falling Back Again Toward His Headquarters. American and British Flags Carried at Tokyo.

LONDON, May 9.—Advices from Tokyo say that after sharp cavalry skirmishes at Erhtaitsu, Santaisu and other places a detachment of infantry belonging to General Kuroki's army has captured Fengwangcheng.

The Russians before retiring exploded the magazine, but left large quantities of hospital stores, which are being used by the Japanese hospitals.

Refugees from the woods and small villages are constantly surrendering.

The Russians buried many of their dead.

Natives in the vicinity of Fengwangcheng say that the Russians carried about 800 wounded through that place and that their casualties probably were above 3,000 in the Yalu fight.

A detachment of the Japanese army operating on the Liaotung peninsula has dispersed small bands of Russian troops and captured Pulantien, a railroad station. The Japanese destroyed the railway and telegraph, thus severing the Russian communication with Port Arthur.

A Newchwang report says there is every indication that the Russians have decided to evacuate Newchwang. The troops are leaving, and the forts have been dismantled. Many natives are fleeing the city, and the Russian civilians also are leaving hurriedly.

All the local transportation has been commandeered by the Russian authorities. There is current here a native rumor that Japanese troops are in Foochau bay, on the west side of the Liaotung peninsula, about sixty miles north of Port Arthur.

The fear is held here that if the Russians leave and the Japanese do not at once take possession of Newchwang the brigands, who are now across the river near Yinkow, will pillage the place. The foreign residents are prepared to resist the brigands should they come over. The British consul has requested that a gunboat be sent to Newchwang.

The Russians probably will destroy the gunboat Sivoutch, now at Newchwang, before leaving.

Japanese troops fired on what probably was the last train out of Port Arthur as it passed near Port Adams.

The Russian general staff has moved from Liaoyang to Mukden.

Russians here will not talk of the situation for fear that they may impart some information. They do not consider that their forces here are sufficient to hold this section of the country. It is probable that the Russian troops will withdraw to Harbin.

The Russian civilians at Newchwang are leaving hurriedly, and many natives are fleeing the city in fear that they will be subjected to maltreatment at the hands of the brigands.

It is reported here that Viceroy Alexeieff was slightly wounded before he left Port Arthur.

The viceroy barely got away from there before the Japanese closed the lines of communication.

Dispatches from Mukden say the wounded from the Yalu are passing through on every train on the way to Harbin.

When the last passenger train from Port Arthur before the line was cut arrived the woodwork of the coaches was pitted with bullets which struck as the train dashed at full speed past a critical point held by the Japanese.

A Tokyo dispatch says that every supplemental report received from General Kuroki, commanding the First Japanese army, increases the Russian casualties in last Sunday's battle at Chiutiencheng, on the Yalu river. The Japanese have buried about 1,400 Russians and have 503 of the enemy's wounded in the field hospitals. It is estimated that the total Russian casualties exceeds 2,500. Over 300 Russian prisoners are en route to Matsuyama, where they are expected to arrive on Wednesday.

Late reports from St. Petersburg say that Grand Duke Cyril, a cousin of the czar, who was on the Petropavlovsk with Admiral Makaroff, has returned to St. Petersburg from the far east.

The grand duke looks much thinner than he did before he left for the scene of hostilities.

The first announcement made by Grand Duke Cyril on his arrival was that he intended to return to the far east with the Russian Baltic squadron under command of Rear Admiral Rojestvensky. He will go abroad soon on a flying visit to his inamorata, the divorced wife of the Grand Duke of Hesse, who is a daughter of the late Duke of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha.

In an interview regarding his experience at the time of the disaster to the Petropavlovsk Grand Duke Cyril said: "I was standing on the bridge beside Vice Admiral Makaroff when I felt a shock of the explosion. My first impression was that a twelve inch shell had entered the powder magazine, and instinctively I leaped to the other side of the bridge. Vice Admiral Makaroff did not move. In the twinkling of an eye I climbed the rail and dived into the water. On coming up I saw Makaroff still at the same place, gripping the rail, his face streaming with blood. I was weighted with a heavy overcoat and could not keep afloat. I went down, but on rising caught the floating wreck of a boat. Two seamen recognized me and helped to support me until a boat arrived."

A Tokyo dispatch says a great popular demonstration was held there last night in honor of the victories achieved by the Japanese army and navy.

Tens of thousands of people carrying lanterns, flags and banners marched past the imperial palace. They were reviewed by some of the imperial princes and princesses and high officials of the government and the imperial household.

Dozens of American and British flags were carried by men, women and children who participated in the celebration. It was the greatest demonstration ever witnessed in Japan.

A St. Petersburg dispatch says two official statements calculated to increase the depression existing among all circles in Russia were given out last night. From the point of view of the progress of the campaign the most important is that regarding the capture by the Japanese without opposition of Fengwangcheng. The second gives details concerning the killed, wounded and missing among the troops under the command of Lieutenant General Zassalitch as the result of the fighting on the Yalu, the number of which totals 2,397 officers and men.

General Kuropatkin forwarded a message from Lieutenant General Zassalitch, who had been left in command of the column retiring from Fengwangcheng, which described the movements of the enemy in connection with the occupation of the town.

The information caused no surprise to the officials, who had already been advised of the decision that no attempt would be made to hold Fengwangcheng, the superiority of the Japanese in all fighting arms insuring a disaster similar to that at Kiulienchang. Therefore General Zassalitch was given strict orders that there should be no fighting at the rear guard.

The Japanese approached from two directions along the main road and up the valley, placing batteries so as to command the town. This procedure on the part of General Kuroki shows that the entire Japanese plan of operation had been thoughtfully prepared and that every division commander knew exactly what he should do.

Now that General Kuroki is established at Fengwangcheng the Russians are puzzled as to what move he will next make. The fact that he sent two companies to Daliandiaputse, ten miles northeast of Fengwangcheng, might indicate his purpose to advance along this road to Tingchangien.

General Stoessel, who will have supreme command of the defense of Port Arthur, is considered to be able and resourceful and to have an indomitable will. His orders of the day have breathed a spirit of unyielding defiance. One of them declared that the last man must die in the defense of Port Arthur. The latest dispatches from the beleaguered fortress contained an account of a stirring appeal made by General Stoessel to his troops on the occasion of the review in honor of the empress' name day, in which he announced that he would never surrender.

In addition to the 10,000 sailors on board the ships at Port Arthur and the regular fortress artillery, probably numbering 2,000 men, the defending force consists of a division of riflemen and three batteries of field artillery, a total of about 22,000 men.

Quiet confidence continues to prevail here that the Japanese in their own good time will carry out all their carefully arranged plan of campaign on the Liaotung peninsula, which is now generally regarded as being practically in Japan's hands.

In diplomatic quarters no events are expected, either in the shape of a Chinese breach of neutrality or of the mediation of some power, which would interfere with the normal course of the war. Foreign Secretary Lansdowne has received explicit information which leads him to the belief that there is no danger of the Chinese failing to maintain strict neutrality. The Chinese minister called at the foreign office here this week and so assured Lord Lansdowne. Any attempt at mediation, according to the general opinion in official and diplomatic circles, must for the present, at any rate, be postponed.

At the Japanese legation it is thought that Russia does not intend to make a very determined resistance at Port Arthur. In support of this idea it is pointed out that Russia already has largely depleted her garrison at Port Arthur and that Viceroy Alexeieff's departure from there hardly seems a step that would be adopted by a commander who desired to risk everything to keep up the morale of his troops and enable them to withstand a prolonged siege.

General Kuroki has intimated that the Russian forces will be fortunate if all of them escape to the Hum mountains either on the road to Haicheng or Liaoyang.

It is believed that two other divisions of Japanese troops will land shortly near Newchwang and attempt to effect a junction with the army from the Yalu.

Kuropatkin Did Not Wait.

PARIS, May 9.—General Kuropatkin has sent the following telegram to St. Petersburg: "General Zassalitch reports that the enemy's cavalry and units of their advanced guard have occupied Fengwangcheng. Two companies and two squadrons of their force proceeded toward Daliandiaputsu. Our cavalry and units withdrew toward Schlindjane. Scouts from Fengwangcheng report that two Japanese divisions have advanced toward Fengwangcheng by the main road from Pianmin. A third division, advancing by the valley of the Ai river, occupied a position near Khuandiaputsu and posted batteries to fire upon Fengwangcheng, counting upon finding our troops there. The Japanese advanced slowly and very cautiously upon Fengwangcheng."

PERU WILL FIGHT.

Lima Government Never Has Admitted Brazil's Claims.

ALTO PURUS AND YURA IN DISPUTE

Country Is Sore Over Massacre of Peruvians In Territory Claimed by Both Peru and Brazil.

LIMA, Peru, May 9.—The general staff has ordered two line battalions and one battery of machine guns to proceed to Alto Purus by way of the river Amueya to repulse any Brazilian troops there may be in that territory.

One battalion, with two machine guns, has been ordered to Chandless, on the river Purus, to sustain Peruvian sovereignty there.

The general staff has also ordered that Iquitos be placed in a state of defense, that the harbor be mined and that a division be formed there of 3,000 men, which shall in certain circumstances occupy Tabatinga and Manaos, Brazilian towns on the Amazon.

The Peruvian legation has made a statement to the following effect:

"Peru has never admitted that Brazil had any right whatsoever to the Alto Purus and Alto Yura territory actually in dispute.

"The treaty of 1851 contains no recognition of Brazil's rights, as alleged by the Brazilian legation. The treaty is one of amity and commerce and made no reference as to the territory now in dispute.

"The Peruvian legation does not know of any instance that can be cited in which Peru admitted any of Brazil's pretended rights. On the other hand, recent statements of Brazil's foreign office admit that the government at Lima always has asserted its claims and maintained its title over the region in dispute.

"According to late reports, it would seem that the government of Brazil instead of framing its policy in accordance with the provision of its constitution, which provides for the settlement of international disputes by arbitration, has assumed a hostile attitude and taken steps by no means conducive to the pacific solution it has pledged itself to seek.

"The Brazilian legation's statement that Peru took advantage of Brazil's trouble with Bolivia to send military forces to the headwaters of the rivers Yurau and Purus is unwarranted, as Peruvian population always has existed there as well as small garrisons to preserve order. According to press reports, one of these garrisons not long ago was assaulted by 200 Brazilian troops, with the result that some of the Peruvians were massacred and some made prisoners and taken to Manaos, where the Brazilian officials set them free, stating that neither the central nor local governments were responsible for such assault. Such would not have been the attitude of Brazilian officials toward the Peruvian soldiers had they thought for a moment they had invaded Brazilian territory. Peru today is desirous of resorting to arbitration without demanding previous conditions, unnecessary to governments really wishing to reach a prompt, just and pacific settlement of their differences. This she can offer as the best proof of her good faith and fraternal sentiment toward her sister republics."

Miners Still Entombed at Shamokin.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., May 9.—Rescuing parties are still at work in the Locust Gap colliery, where five men are entombed as a result of the fire in one of the slopes. The miners have been in the mine since Thursday night, and all hope of finding them alive has been abandoned. The fire is burning as fiercely as ever, making it impossible to penetrate the workings. James E. Roderick, chief of the state bureau of mines, has expressed himself as being satisfied that everything possible is being done to extinguish the fire and determine the fate of the missing men.

Warrant For $40,000,000.

WASHINGTON, May 9.—The treasury warrant for $40,000,000 to be delivered to J. P. Morgan & Co. of New York on account of the Panama canal purchase was taken to that city last night by Secretary of the Treasury Shaw. It will be delivered by the secretary to Morgan & Co. The secretary also took with him certain bonds which have been deposited with the government as security for public moneys which are to be returned to the banks surrendering their deposits.

Counterfeiters Raided.

PROGRESO, Yucatan, May 9. — A house in this city has been raided by the police, who arrested two Americans of the name of Ford and Williams, who were caught manufacturing counterfeit money. A large quantity of material, such as crucibles, files for metals, molds, etc., were found in one room, where operations had been in full activity.

West Shore Fireman Fataly Hurt.

FONDA, N. Y., May 9. — William King of Syracuse, a fireman on a West Shore freight train, was fatally injured while his train was passing another freight train at Fultonville at an early hour. He was leaning out of the cab window, and something projecting from the other train struck him, knocking one eye out and exposing the brain.

Boston Downed Chicago.

CHICAGO, May 9.—Chicago was defeated by Boston on a field made very soggy by a hard rain at the start, Pitcher Willis having much the better of a slippery ball argument. Geier's batting and a great play by Raymer were the features. Score, 4 to 2.

The Jersey City Club was restained from playing baseball yesterday. There's no Judge Gaynors in these parts.

State Senator Joseph Cross is mentioned as the likely man to succeed Judge Kirkpatrick. The position is worth $5,000 and there is no doubt that Mr. Cross would earn every cent of the salary. No better selection could possibly be made.

Among those who followed the dogs were: The Misses Leila Cruikshank, Helen Cruikshank, Mabel Hooley, Marion Smith, Wadsworth, Noe, and the Misses Holly; J. W. Clark, Daniel Runkle, Charles Ismay, L. S. Treadwell, C. E. S. Bellows, W. W. Coriell, H. G. Bourne, Clifford Colley, Shebbeare, of New York; Archibald Mair DeWitt, Dr. Middleton O'Malley Knott, and Messrs. Davis and Miller.

FREE LODGINGS COSTLY.

Sleeping Quarters Not Furnished by Railroad Company.

Steps have been taken by the local police and the Central Railroad detective force to stop the use of the basement of the old North Avenue station as a sleeping place by drunks and vagrants. For a long time the night prowlers have been using the place that way.

Chief Kiely caught two of them, George Frazee and Theodore VanNest, going into the basement last night. He asked Station Agent Haines for authority to arrest the men, and the agent told him to go ahead.

Chief Dougherty, of the railroad force, asked that the men be held over until Saturday morning for trial.

SATURDAY NIGHT AT CASINO

MENTION OF THOSE WHO HELPED TO MAKE THE PRODUCTION A SUCCESS.

Another large audience witnessed the second production of "The Taming of the Shrew," Saturday night, and thoroughly enjoyed both the Shakespearean wit and the clever acting. The experience of Thursday evening and the following night of rest resulted in a more spirited and finished performance. Everybody was good and the audience signified its appreciation by frequent and hearty applause. The triumph of the first night was repeated and even excelled. As the most ambitious attempt of local amteurs, its success meant greater credit, and the two appreciative audiences that have witnessed it were not slow to express themselves on that subject. Only patient and painstaking labors on the part of the members of the cast made this production possible. The result of thorough rehearsals were evident, but all these efforts would have been in vain but for the coaching of Alfred Young, of New York. Thoroughly imbued with the true Shakespearean spirit, he directed the rehearsals with remarkable skill and patience. The show itself demonstrated the completeness of his success.

Many remarked upon the effectiveness of the stage settings. These were in charge of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Curtis and Miss Frances E. Kenyon, whose previous experience proved invaluable. As prompter, Miss Ruby G. Kieb was very satisfactory. The incidental music was very effective. It was furnished by an orchestra led by Fred. Brumm, of New York.

Pleasant comments were made on the artistic posters of the show. They were the work of Ferd. C. Iglehart, of New York. The cover design on the program was made by Miss Agnes Richmond, of the New York Art League, while Arthur B. Woodward, president of the Arthur B. Woodward Company, of New York, furnished the plate and assisted in the arrangement of the program. Miss Richmond, Mr. Woodward and Mr. Iglehart, who had friends in the cast, were present at Saturday evening's performance.

Harry L. McGee had charge of the ushering and was assisted by George Schoonmaker, A. Willis West, Harold Hall, Chas. Dupee and H. Reeve Stockton. As at the first performance, the ushers were kept busy at the final tableau in bringing forward numerous floral gifts from friends of the cast.

To permit the performance to go forward without any hitch it required an able head to take direct charge of the sale and collection of tickets, and the attendant financial details. Success in this direction was due to the efforts of F. W. Iredell.

Every possible assistance was rendered by Manager Maze Edwards, of the Casino, in making the play a success. Favorable comment was heard regarding the short intervals required for changing the scenes.

In conclusion it is proper to express the obligation of the people of Plainfield to the projectors of the undertaking. While distinctly an amateur effort it proved itself professional in the ease, precision and smoothness with which it went through. Aside from the commendable charitable purpose no charity would excuse an unprepared attempt of this nature. But as it was—A Shakespearean play properly mounted and presented—the scope and extent of the achievement should be recognized, and due credit given to Mr. Saunders and those associated with him.

ITALIAN FINED FOR DISTURBANCE.

Hot Blood, Bad Beer and Worse Whiskey An Evil Combination.

With his fiery Southern blood excited by bad beer and worse whiskey, Nicolina Vastano raised a fuss on Front street Saturday afternoon, and later tried to wreck one of the new steel cel's at the station house. Officer Vanderweg got Nicholina while he was in the midst of an attempt to run everybody in the Grand Union tea store into the street.

In his cell at the station house the Italian howled and swore, and did his best to tear the cage down. His frolic cost him $8 this morning, in the city court.

Good Trolley Service.

It is conservatively estimated that the Public Service Corporation carried about 1,000 persons to the Alis-Aeolian ball game on Saturday. Two opens cars were run every fifteen minutes and at the close of the game there were six cars in readiness to bring the crowd home. The service was very satisfactory under the direction of Phil. McGuire. It is hoped that by Saturday the trolley spur will be laid to Crescent Oval.

To Take Part in Musicale.

Mrs. George Glover, of the borough, will play Chopin's fantasie impromptu op 66 and Beuroese op 57, at Mrs. Ernest Dunlap's morning musicale given at her residence in Bensonhurst, this week. Mrs. Glover is a graduate of Leipsic.

Great Lake Carriers and Their Men at Loggerheads.

TROUBLE IS OVER THE WAGE SCALE

Lake Carriers' Association Will Not Fix a Regular Rate of Pay For Captains—Fight Threatens to Be Long and Bitter.

CLEVELAND, May 9.—The conference between the Lake Carriers' and the Masters and Pilots' associations, has been abruptly terminated and the announcement made last night that no agreement had been reached and that a settlement was as far away as at any time since the opening of negotiations. The conference adjourned without any arrangement for another meeting.

This means that commerce on the lakes will be practically tied up for an indefinite period. It is said that fully 70 per cent of all the vessel tonnage on the great lakes is represented in the Lake Carriers' association. Under existing conditions no master who is a member of the Masters and Pilots' association can go aboard his vessel until a settlement is reached with the Lake Carriers' association.

Secretary Henry C. Barter of the International Longshoremen, Marine and Transport Workers' association, is authority for the statement that 106,500 men are affected by the deadlock between the Lake Carriers and their employees This does no tinclude any men rendered idle in the mines, the lumber mills or on the Erie canal. Of the total number given above 26,500 men are employed on shipboard and 80,000 on the docks.

William Livingston, president of the Lake Carriers' association, gives out a statement relative to the breaking up of the conference between the association and the representatives of the Masters and Pilots in which he says:

"We were in session and had a satisfactory meeting until the wage scale was brought forward by the Masters and Pilots The classification of the scale of wages which they presented was very much higher than last year, and the executive committee of the Lake Carriers' association felt that it could not accede to the scale.

"We said that after very carefully considering the classification of the boats and the wage scale which they had submitted we felt that in a number of cases the classification was unfair to both masters and owners.

"As the master was the executive aboard the boat and personally responsible to the owner as agent it was not deemed advisable to fix the remuneration that each individual should get for successfully handling his property. The conditions of the times do not warrant any class of labor asking for an advance in wages over last year.

"On the great lakes it is becoming more apparent every day that we shall have a very dull season. No season charters have been made. Not a single ore charter has been made this year with the exception of a very small one some time ago. The decreased demand for vessels means a large reduction in earnings, even for those owners who are fortunate enough to find employment for their ships. And the vessel owner is confronted by the apparently absolute necessity of reducing his operating expenses."

Woman Drowned From Canoe.

WINSTED, Conn., May 9.—A house party of Torrington and Winsted young people came to a sudden end by the drowning of Miss Lena Blackman of Torrington at Highland lake, in this place. Miss Blackman was with Guy Beecher of Torrington in a paddling canoe when a sudden squall came up, capsizing the frail craft. Beecher managed to get Miss Blackman on the bottom of the canoe twice, but after she slipped off the second time she sank in twenty feet of water. Beecher clung to the boat and drifted ashore.

Two Sealers Given Up For Lost.

VICTORIA, B. C., May 9.—The sealing schooners Triumph and Umbrina of this port have been given up as lost at sea with all hands. Captain Hann of the sealing schooner Jessie, which has just arrived from a cruise along the coast from California to Queen Charlotte islands, picked up south of the Columbia river broken sealing boats and canoes, part of a schooner's rail, davit and other tackle belonging to the schooner Umbrina.

The Quarantine on Mexican Border.

LAREDO, Tex., May 9.—One week has passed since the quarantine regulations promulgated by the Texas state health officer, George R. Tabor, went into effect, and the situation in so far as the blocking of traffic goes is unchanged. The matter, however, has been refegred by the Mexican authorities to the state department at Washington, and it is expected a solution of the situation will soon be reached.

Fall of Roof Coal Doubly Fatal.

MAHANOY CITY, Pa., May 9.—While repairing pulleys on the slope of Packer No. 5 colliery of the Lehigh Valley Coal company John Canfield was struck on the head by a piece of roof coal and hurled to the bottom, being instantly killed. In the descent his body struck James Haffner, who also fell to the bottom and was fatally injured.

Brooklyn In Hard Luck.

CINCINNATI, May 9.—Despite the fact that Brooklyn had more men on bases than Cincinnati victory went to the locals, who secured the greater number of long hits and benefited by them. Sensational plays by Woodruff, Corcoran and Huggins were loudly applauded.

FOR WARMER DAYS.

Coats of Taffeta in Light Shades, Tailor Mades of Linen.

Paquin is making some pretty coats of taffeta in every dainty shade. They are ruched and befringed with a thousand minute details.

Tailor mades of linen or pongee are being made for well known society women. They are relieved with embroideries and touches of vivid green or scarlet.

The long shoulder is often unbecoming, and it is only the tall and willowy

figure which is benefited by this style, but the long shouldered effect can be obtained in a very pretty way by building the yoke out with the trimming on the sleeve or in trimming the top of the sleeves with an elongated drapery.

Most of the blouses made of thin material have a double sleeve, and the undersleeve is generally tight fitting and nearly covered by frills of lace. One of the favorite waists of the moment is entirely made of shirrings, with the yoke and undersleeves of embroidery.

Gowns inlet with both black and white lace are very popular this season. One of those seen recently was of peach colored crepe de chine trimmed with chiffon of the same shade and medallions of black and white chantilly lace.

Dark muslins for promenade wear will be particularly fashionable this season, and the newest models have no trimming on the skirts with the exception of one or two flounces. Very effective was a dark blue gown with a scattered rose design, the flounces on the skirt being headed with ruchings of pink taffeta, and a fichu draped round the shoulders was similarly adorned.

The picture shows a black straw hat trimmed with pale yellow roses and a black feather. JUDIC CHOLLET.

MODES AND MATERIALS.

Leading Facts of the Dressmaking World—Grenadine In Favor.

Without a doubt the 1830 modes lead. This is clearly seen in the long shoulder, the drooping full sleeve, the gathered skirts trimmed with their deep tucks, the tiny roses used in trimming both gowns and hats and the deep waistbands.

Veilings of chiffon and cloudy tinted lace make the evening dress of the moment a thing of rare beauty.

The woman with a limited dress allowance cannot do better than to have a black, gray or old fashioned glace silk made up with the full plaited skirt of the moment joined to the full waist blousing over a wide waist and with its sleeves a mass of tiny frills.

The chief features of the evening gown are the fichu, the waistband and the sleeves. Sometimes, in the case of an evening dress of expensive silk or chiffon cloth, two bodices are made, one low, the other high, for less dressy functions. Our grandmothers made a point of having at least one silk gown in their wardrobe, and this season we are following their example.

Very novel is the combination of Bulgarian embroidery and leather in the season's belts. A very pretty effect was obtained by having the sides of the belt of black kid, the inner side scalloped and the center of loose linen worked in bright colors, the belt fastened in front with two narrow kid straps and gun metal buttons. Kid of all colors is also used for the edges of satin belts.

The picture shows an afternoon gown of voile trimmed with kiltings of taffeta and galloon and finished with white lace. JUDIC CHOLLET.

CHURCHES ARE ONE.

National Campaign of Education on Divorce Evil.

PHILADELPHIA, May 9.—The interchurch conference on marriage and divorce, a body representing fourteen leading denominations, has issued, through its secretary, Rev. William H. Roberts, D. D., an appeal to the public calling attention to several aspects of the divorce question.

The report is the beginning of a national campaign of education upon the subject to be followed by efforts to secure the enactment of laws in the state legislatures and ultimately, it is thought, of an amendment to the constitution of the United States.

Already action has been taken by the conference looking toward the prevention of the remarriage by ministers of other communions of divorcees whom clergymen of their own faith have refused to marry.

This movement is the first occasion of any sort upon which the representatives of the great denominations have officially come together. The members of the conference include many of the most eminent ecclesiastics and laymen in the churches. The denominations which subscribe to the appeal are the Protestant Episcopal church in the United States, Presbyterian church in the United States, Methodist Episcopal church, Methodist Episcopal church, south; Reformed Church of America, Reformed church in the United States, United Presbyterian church, Evangelical Lutheran church, the Baptist churches, the Congregational churches, the Universalist churches, the Unitarian churches, the Reformed Presbyterian church, the Cumberland Presbyterian church, the alliance of the Reformed churches holding the Presbyterian service.

BOSTON BAKERS' STRIKE.

Massachusetts Convention Did Not Order a General Strike.

BOSTON, May 9.—Contrary to what had been deemed probable a general strike of all the union bakers in New England was not ordered at the convention of the Massachusetts state branch of the bakery and confectionery workers held here.

The sentiment of the convention seemed to be opposed to drastic action at this time. The matter of ordering a general strike in order to prevent firms outside of Boston from supplying goods to those bakeries in this city against which a strike has been declared was left to the executive committee of the Massachusetts state branch.

Resolutions expressing sympathy with the striking bakers in Boston and vicinity and guaranteeing them support were adopted.

PRISON FOR LIFE.

Mrs. Powell Convicted of Estella Albin's Death.

DOVER, Del., May 9.—Mrs. Mary A. Powell has been convicted of the murder of Estella Albin, the jury fixing the punishment at imprisonment for life. The trial was in progress one week, and the jury deliberated two hours. The verdict was murder in the second degree.

Estella Albin lived with Mr. and Mrs. Powell at Bowers Beach, near here. On Feb. 9 she was found murdered in the attic of the house. Mrs. Powell was arrested and confessed, but declared the act was committed in self defense. The evidence showed that illicit relations existed between Mr. Powell and Miss Albin, and the prosecution endeavored to prove that Mrs. Powell killed the girl in a jealous frenzy.

Italian Murder Suspects Held.

BELMONT, N. Y., May 9.—The four Italians arrested in connection with the murder of John Van Gorder and his half sister, Miss Farnham, near Angelica, have been arraigned and upon advice of their interpreter waived examination and were held to await the action of the grand jury. The interpreter identified them as the men who left Camp Burke on the morning after the murder. The watch found in the pocket of one of the Italians has been positively identified as the one stolen from the Van Gorder home on the night of the murder.

Thief Was Up to Date.

CHICAGO, May 9.—A glass tube one-half inch long containing radium has disappeared from the office of Dr. William Allen Pusey. The radium was received by Dr. Pusey a few days ago from Paris. He was treating a patient for an affection of the face when the precious substance disappeared. The missing radium was of the usual grade for scientific use, worth about $200,000 per ounce troy.

Millionaire Publisher Dead.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., May 9.—Andrew McNally, head of the publishing house of Rand, McNally & Co., is dead at Pasadena, Cal. He had not been in good health for some time, but his death, which was due to heart disease, was sudden and unexpected. Mr. McNally was one of Chicago's wealthy men and was rated well up among the city's millionaires.

Hover Building in Denver Burned.

DENVER, May 9.—The five story brick Hover building, on Lawrence street, occupied by the wholesale department of the Bartbut Grocery company, has been burned here. The loss is $60,000.

Utica Village Almost Destroyed.

UTICA, Mich., May 9.—Fire has burned thirty-five houses, a hotel and bank here, almost destroying the village. Help was sent by the Detroit fire department.

Weather Probabilities.

Showers; south winds.

SPORTS AND ATHLETICS

Alonzo A. Stagg, athletic director of the University of Chicago, has been made a member of the football rules committee which heretofore has been made up of representatives of eastern colleges only. The appointment comes as a recognition on the part of the eastern authorities of the importance of western football and college men all over the west, and especially those interested in athletics are pleased as a result. Eastern colleges have practically ignored the western institutions in the past in football matters, but for this there has been a good explanation in the fact that games between the two sections so far apart are impracticable without interfering with more important college duties. Eastern college men at the same time have never seriously entertained the idea that western football had been advanced to the stage it had reached in the east, where it got its start, and, after the turning out of such star teams as that of Michigan and Minnesota last year, many western college men have longed for some chance to measure the latest western football development with the latest of the east. Being denied this they were disposed to resent an apparent clannishness on the part of the eastern representatives. Now that the latter, however, have assigned this section recognition in the making of football rules there will be less sectional criticism. At the first meeting of the committee five changes were made. The drop kick was reduced from five to four points. It was also decided that with four men back, besides the quarter stand behind the line, one must stand outside the end. All penalties are for either 5 or 15 yards. Another new ruling is that the team which is losing can have the choice of kick off or the wind, but it cannot have both together; the last is that the quarter-back can run from any place on the field. The committee is made up as follows: Paul J. Dashiel, United States Naval academy, Chairman; Walter Camp, Yale, secretary; John C. Bell, University of Pennsylvania; L. M. Dennis, Cornell; R. D. Wrenn, Harvard; J. B. Fine, Princeton; A. A. Stagg, University of Chicago.

A. A. Stagg.

The race for the championship of the National league is once more on and for the next six months the baseball "fans" will be in their glory. The New York team is off with a flying start and the pennant winners will more than likely have to beat McGraw's giants for the honor. Devlin and McCormick, the two youngsters that McGraw has signed, are two valuable men for his hitting department and are starting the season in a manner to prove that they have been judged rightly as to their work in minor leagues. The Pirates are practically the same team as last year, but weaker in the pitching department even than last year, but it is thought they will finish well up in the first division. The Chicago clubs have been figured on as well up at the finish. They have been picked to finish third by nearly all the "dope" figurers. St. Louis and the Cincinnati clubs will fight it out for a place in the first division from the present showing of the clubs. The Cardinals are a much stronger team than they were last summer and will be no easy picking for any of the teams this year. The Reds, while much the same as they were last year in pitching and fielding, will not be able to climb much higher in the race, as they will have many of the same faults to contend with that they had last year, it is thought. President Harry Pulliam has been talking a swing around the circuit to observe the working of the new balk rule. At first it was thought this rule would work a hardship on the pitcher, but the majority have accustomed themselves to it.

Harry Pulliam.

One world's record and three Pacific coast records were broken at San Francisco in the coast championship field day recently. Norman Dole, of Stanford, set a new world's mark for the pole vault, clearing the bar at 12 feet 1.32 inches. Dole is a senior at the university and is a member of a family of famous athletes. A. D. Plaw, of the University of Chicago, eclipsed his former record in the hammer throw, tossing the ball 170 feet 1 3-10 inches. Steckle, of Nevada, threw the discus 126 feet 8 inches.

Lucien Lyne has been offered a season contract to ride for Ed Corrigan. It is stated that Corrigan made inducements by an $8,000 offer to Lyne for first call on his service. J. W. Schorr has engaged Lyne to ride Moharib in the Kansas City derby.

The Boston American league baseball club has been sold to John I. Taylor, of Boston, by Henry J. Killilea, of Milwaukee. Mr. Taylor is a son of Gen. Charles H. Taylor, proprietor of the Boston Globe.

James C. Kennedy, the well known sporting man and promoter of prize fights and six-day bicycle races, in both the east and west, is dead.

Champion James J. Jeffries has been married to Miss Frieda Myers, of New York.

LINDEN, N. J.

Beautiful and Accessible

2 Miles from Elizabeth, 7 Miles from Newark,

14 MILES FROM NEW YORK

On Main Line Pennsylvania Railroad

Why Lots in these Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors

BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.

BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.

LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW

BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.

BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.

LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT

BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.

BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.

CONRIED'S SCHEME.

To Provide a Settled Income For the Actors' Fund.

NEW YORK, May 9.—At the celebration of the second anniversary of the opening of the Actors' Fund home at West New Brighton, Staten Island, many members of the theatrical profession were present and took part in the exercises. A. M. Palmer, president of the fund and one of the founders of the home, presided.

Heinrich Conried, manager of the Metropolitan Opera House, in an address submitted a plan to provide a settled income for the actors' fund sufficient to allow it to meet all calls that may be made on it.

It has been learned, Mr. Conried said, that the theater and concert hall managers in this country give out an average of ten free seat tickets each night during a season averaging a hundred nights.

"To provide us the revenue required," he said, "it would only be necessary for the managers of the 3,000 American theaters and concert halls to impose a charge or tax of 10 cents on each free seat ticket which they give out and to pay over the resulting dollar every night to the actors' fund."

CHLOROFORMED AUDIENCE.

Unknown Ruffians Committed Outrage In Wabash Church.

WABASH, Ind., May 9.—Unknown persons entered the Union "Holiness" tabernacle in the northern part of this city, where a "holiness" service was in progress, and dashed a large quantity of chloroform over the worshipers, of whom there were many.

When the fumes of the drug spread through the house many women were almost overcome and had to be carried to the street, where they recovered. Scores of those who remained were affected by the anaesthetic, but under the leadership of May and Clark, two evangelists, and the pastor, the Rev. Melville Pratt, the services were conducted until a late hour, and Mr. Pratt reported nine conversions.

To aggravate the outrage, just before the congregation dispersed a body of unknown ruffians hurled a shower of stones at the church

CANDAMO IS DEAD.

President of Peru Dead at Lima. Deeply Regretted.

LIMA, Peru, May 9.—President Candamo, who had been ill for some time past at Arequipa, has died of rheumatism of the stomach.

His death is deeply regretted, as all political elements regarded him as an honorable man, devoted to the true interests of the country.

Manuel Candamo was the man accepted for the provisional presidency of Peru in 1895 by the revolutionists under the leadership of Nicolas de Pierola and President Caceres, when both belligerents agreed to stop fighting. Senor Candamo chose his cabinet from all factions, and he was able to unite the country.

Four years later he was elected president by a great majority and continued what was generally regarded as a prudent and just administration.

Honored McKinley's Memory.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., May 9.—The Methodist general conference has paid eloquent tribute to the memory of the late President William McKinley. A resolution presented by Rev. J. W. E. Bowen, colored, candidate for bishop of Chattanooga, Tenn., struck a responsive chord, and the conference adopted it by a standing vote and referred it to the committee on episcopacy, with instructions to prepare a memorial giving appropriate expression of honor and respect. The resolution dwells upon the loyalty of President McKinley to the Methodist church, his cherished memory as a citizen and his great service to his country as a patriot and statesman.

Kaiser's Son In Tientsin.

TIENTSIN, May 9.—Prince Adalbert, third son of Emperor William of Germany, who is traveling on board the German cruiser Hertha, left here yesterday afternoon for Peking. An audience between the prince and the emperor of China has been arranged for May 17. The prince will come back to Tientsin on the 18th, and on the 19th he will return on board the Hertha. Prince Adalbert was in Korea last week. He landed at Chemulpo and has proceeded to Seoul, where he visited the German minister to Korea.

Fight at Karo Pass, Tibet.

KARO PASS, Tibet, May 9.—After a stiff fight lasting six hours the Tibetans were driven from their positions two miles below the Karo pass. The Tibetans, numbering 1,500, held the positions with great tenacity and lost nearly 200 before they were expelled. The British losses were Captain Bethune and three men killed and twenty-one men wounded. A snowstorm prevailed throughout the fight.

Got Whitewash In Chicago.

CHICAGO, May 9.—St. Louis could do nothing with Owen and suffered a shutout. Both teams put up a fast fielding game, and each pulled off some phenomenal plays. Chicago scored one

A Trust Company is always present.
It does not change its residence.
It is never sick.
It is never out of town.
It is never away on business.
It never takes a vacation.
It cannot die.
It is always ready to act in discharge of its obligations.

These are but a few of the many reasons that make a trust company more desirable than an individual trustee.

SATURDAY'S BALL GAMES

season Saturday afternoon by defeating the Park A. C. team, of Newark, in a one-sided game., the only point of interest being the fans were enabled to get a line on what Manager Hand has gathered together to represent Scotch Plains this year on the diamond. The visitors, who were heralded as one of Newark's crack teams, proved to be a disappointment as far as the National game was concerned. In the second innnig the locals, by a succession of two and three-base hits, aided by numerous singles, piled up 10 runs. After this the game was only practice. "Smiling Jimmy," who was in the box, just tossed the ball over the plate so as to give the infield something to do towards earning their salaries.

Following is the lineup:

DUNELLEN, 11; WESTON A. C., 7

Much to the satisfaction of the Dunellen baseball fans, Captain Smith and his colts opened the season on Saturday afternoon by defeating the crack Weston A. C., of Newark, by a score of 11 to 7. Ike Ettlinger was as effective in the box as ever, there were only six safe hits made off his delivery and these were well scattered. "Billy" Giles played a first class game, he covered his position on short in good style and made two two-baggers. The feature of the game was a two-base hit by H. Brown in the third inning with the bases filled and two men out. The lineup:

Dunellen—Giles, ss; D. Smith, 3b; Ettlinger, p; Dalley, 1b; Roseberry, lf; H. Brown, c; Hewitt, 2b; W. Brown, rf; C. Smith, cf.

WESTFIELD UP AGAINST IT

Some of the swell was taken from Mr. C. Denman's chest Saturday afternoon. The bustling bunch of ball tossers, yclept the Murray Hills, spoiled the Westfield's nice stainless record, plastering a lop-sided losing score thereon with complete disregard of anybody's feelings but their own. 7 to 1 it was, and the victory was as clean-cut and decisive as the score deposeth.

If it hadn't been for two things Westfield would have won. One of the things was Westfield's inability to hit Mr. Ames, of the New York Americans, the man behind the Murray Hill gun. The other was the ease with which the Murray Hills jumped on Mr. Waller's delivery. Little things, to be sure, but very annoying. The Murray Hills singled and bingled thirteen distinct and separate times, in untiring and workmanlike manner. And they bunched their taps wickedly. Every run was earned. The fielding back of Mr. Waller was all that could be howled for by the most rabid fan. There were two errors, but neither one did any damage. As for Ames, he proved the wisdom of the New Yorks' manager. Griffith left him behind to put some wriggles in a glass arm. He is doing it. Burk, of Westfield, was the only man that made good against the fragile limb. He made three of the five hits wrested from the leaguer. Westfield had three pretty double plays to her credit. Waller had four strike-outs. Westfield played the same men as last week, with the exception of Burch, who went to the Hudson River League. Connolly, of Ridgewood, took his place, playing in right field. Hickman went from right garden to second base. Score by innings:

HAPPENINGS OF THE LOCAL FRATERNAL ORDERS.

The officers of Court Plainfield, No. 1144, I. O. F., today received a check for $1,000, being the amount of insurance carried by the late Moses Quass, patrolman in the police department. The proof of claim was filed at the head office May 3 and the check received here five days later.

Supreme Court Term.

CROSS FOR U. S. JUDGESHIP

UNION'S STATE SENATOR OR CONGRESSMAN LANNING FOR THE VACANCY.

State Senator Joseph Cross and Congressman Lanning are considered to be in the lead for the vacancy on the bench caused by the death of United States Judge Kirkpatrick.

Senator Joseph Cross, of Union County, is a loyal friend of Senator Kean, and cast the deciding vote for Senator Dryden in the exciting caucus of 1902, and it is argued by his friend that the senators should now reward him for his loyalty and friendship.

On the other hand, Mr. Cross has a year to serve in the Senate yet, and Mr. Kean wants to return to the United States Senate next year, and it is probable that he may not care to risk taking a sure vote out of the Senate and take chances with a new man.

DIAMOND DUST.

Charles Smith, of this city, who will play with the Dunellens this year, made a fine record in the city league series.

Hollywood, who played left field for Alis Saturday, comes from the Southern League with a strong reputation. Both Chatham and Summit have been trying to get his services.

Manager George Johnston, of the Alis baseball team, has scheduled the Xavier A. A., for Saturday. Two weeks ago the Rahway Field Club defeated this team 5 to 3. The New Yorkers played ball from start to finish, but could not overcoome the pitching of Maurer, of the home team.

"Billy" Lauder, who has signed to play third base and captain the Alis team, tells Manager Johnston that unless Manager McGraw, of the New York Nationals, sells his release, he will remain here through the season, with the exception of possibly two weeks, during which he will have to go West.

FREEHOLDERS' BOARD TO CHOOSE DIRECTOR

Captain J. Frank Hubbard to be Re-Elected Head of the Board Without Opposition.

COMPLEXION OF BODY

THERE ARE ELEVEN REPUBLICANS AND NINE DEMOCRATS.

Codington Likely to be Renamed As Counsel—The New Members and Where They Come From.

At a meeting to be held tomorrow afternoon, the Board of Freeholders will reorganize for the year. It is certain that J. Frank Hubbard, of this city, will be re-elected as director.

It will make his twenty-sixth election to the chair. Capt. Hubbard went into the Board over thirty-five years ago, and has come to be looked on as an indispensible fixture of the body. He has been regarded very highly by each successive board, and stands almost in the light of official father to the other members of the body. Probably no other man in the county knows more about the workings of the Board and county legislative matters.

There has been some talk of the possibility of County Attorney Codington, of this city, getting out in favor of another member of the organization in the northern part of the county. Mr. Codington has said, however, that he is a candidate for re-election and there is scarcely any probability that he will be displaced.

The new board will consist of eleven Republicans and nine Democrats, the political complexion remaining as last year. The late N. W. Bonnell, of Springfield, a Democrat, is succeeded by Peter Meisel, Republican. W. W. Connolly's place from Mountainside will be taken by F. P. Darby, but Mr. Connolly will return to the Board from Westfield, as the successor of G. H. Embree. All three are Republicans. Mulford Scudder, Westfield, a Democrat, will succeed Charles A. Smith, Republican.

The new board will be made up as follows:

Clark—Benjamin R. King, R.
Cranford—E. K. Adams, R.
Elizabeth—Jacob Brucklacher, D.; Joseph McCandless, D.; Thomas J. Pierson, D.; Emil Klee, D.
Fanwood—John Robison, R.
Linden—Henry Krouse, R.
New Providence—John F. Wahl, R.
Plainfield—J. Frank Hubbard, R.; William A. Westphal, R.
Rahway—John Marsh, D.; George Cladek, D.
Springfield—Peter Meisel, R.
Summit—W. H. Swain, D.; John N. Cady, R.
Union—Noah Woodruff, D.
Mountainside—F. P. Darby, R.
Westfield—W. W. Connolly, R.; Mulford M. Scudder, D.

MRS. LANPHEAR BURIED.

Funeral Services Held at Home of Her Niece in Madison Avenue.

The funeral services of Mrs. Olive S. Lanphear, widow of Ethan Lanphear, were held yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock from the residence of her niece, Mrs. F. A. Dunham, on Madison avenue. Rev. George B. Shaw, pastor of the Seventh-Day Baptist church, had charge of the services, assisted by Rev. Dr. A. H. Lewis, a former pastor, and Rev. Dr. L. E. Livermore, pastor of the New Market Seventh-Day Baptist church.

There were many floral tributes from relatives and friends. The remains have been taken to Nile, N. Y., for interment. It is there that Mrs. Lanphear's husband was buried.

Knights' Observance.

Trinity Commandery, K. T., has been invited to attend divine service by the New Brunswick Templars, on Thursday night. The knights will attend in a body, accompanied by their wives. They will go in full dress. The delegation will travel in a special trolley car, leaving here at 5:30. The service will mark Ascension Day. A social time will follow.

Off for Y. M. C. A. Convention.

Stephen Cahoone, president of the Y. M. C. A.; W. D. Murray, F. C. Harder and Boys' Secretary Kenneth Robbie will leave for Buffalo this evening to attend the International Convention of the Y. M. C. A. They are the regularly accredited representatives from the local association. The convention will be in session from the 11th to the 15th, inclusive.

MINSTREL SHOW TONIGHT

THREE HOURS OF FUN AT THE CASINO PERFORMANCE.

All indications given by last night's dress rehearsal of the band concert minstrels point to a highly successful presentation this evening. The first part of the programme was given special attention; with the result of doing entirely away with the slight signs of constraint at first exhibited by one or two of the black face artists.

The mechanical and electrical effects too came in for a liberal share of attention and every precaution has been taken to prevent the slightest hitch in the production of tonight. How funny the jokes by the different end-men were, how well the various musical numbers were rendered and how Joseph Martin acquitted himself of his duties as interlocutor can only be accurately judged by those who attend the show tonight.

If special mention were to be made the quartette would probably carry off the honors. The quartette shone not only with the lustre of its individual members, but with the four-fold brightness due to its numerical superiority. The end-men songs were all decidedly good, those having a topical tone being particularly well accepted.

At the request of a number of those desiring to witness the performance, the box seats at the Seventh street end of the hall have been placed on sale at Schreiner's drug store at one dollar each. These seats will be sold out very quickly and should be secured immediately by those who do not wish to be disappointed.

FIXING UP THE NEW JAIL

THREE STEEL CELLS TO BE PLACED IN OLD ENGINE HOUSE.

It has been decided to install in Warren Engine house in Somerset street three steel cells of the same pattern as those in use in this city. The old jail will be utilized as a storeroom for tools belonging to the street department.

After being cleaned thoroughly the second story of the building will be used for police court purposes. Altogether the improvements authorized will cost in the neighborhood of $1,000. Work will be commenced in the near future.

DRILLING SCHOOL BOYS.

Capt. Geo. F. Edwards, Former Commandant, Gives Instruction.

Capt. George F. Edwards, of Cranford, reviewed the High School battalion yesterday afternoon. Capt. Edwards was the organizer of the first school cadet corps, in 1895.

He put the boys through all the battalion and company movements in the book. After the review he expressed pleasure over the way the cadets drilled. He noted improvement, he said, although there was room for more.

There was some talk of getting the corps to go to Cranford, to give an exhibition drill before the corps of the school there, but the plan has been abandoned. There are not suits enough in the command to make an impressive enough showing.

None to Claim Body.

Word of the death of Mary Daim, a former resident here, at the asylum in Morris Plains, was received this morning by Overseer of the Poor Ayer. The intelligence came from Dr. B. D. Evans, head of the medical staff. The dead woman was sent to the institution from this city a number of years ago, and older residents will remember her. Overseer Ayers has been unable to locate any of her friends or relatives, and the city will probably bury her here.

Beating the Railroad Co.

Thomas Sheckley and John Chapman, youthful travelling representatives of the Sons of Rest, were taken from the front platform of the forward car of the Philadelphia express that reached here at 4:18 o'clock yesterday afternoon, by Detective McCarthy and Patrolman John O'Keefe, one of the new cops. Word of their coming was telegraphed here by a railroad detective. They will be arraigned for vagrancy this afternoon.

Miss Waring Bridesmaid.

Miss Dora Waring, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Waring, of Perth Amboy, formerly of Willow avenue, was one of the six attendants at the marriage on Saturday in Christ church, Poughkeepsie, of Miss Mildred Taylor, daughter of Capt. Frank Taylor, U. S. A., and Mrs. Taylor, to Dr. James Raynor Whiting, of New York.

THROUGH TROLLEYS TO START ON FRIDAY

Schedule is Announced and All Arrangements Made for the Service.

FEATURES OF TOUR

CONNECTION WITH PHILADELPHIA TO BE MADE BY BOAT AT TRENTON.

Cars to Pass Through This City—Terminus at Jersey City—Nine Hours and a Half for the Trip—Four Cars Each Way.

Through service between Jersey City and Philadelphia, part way by water, has been arranged for by the Public Service Corporation. It has been announced by the company that the service will begin next Friday morning.

Cars will be run from Jersey City to Trenton without change. From Trenton the passengers will be carried to Philadelphia by the Delaware Navigation Company's steamers. The schedule was finally agreed upon by the officers of the interested companies last Friday.

The cars run in this service will run over the Elizabeth line route through this city, on through Dunellen, Bound Brook and New Brunswick to the State capital. The trip will in reality be between New York and Philadelphia, the cars being scheduled to leave Jersey City immediately after boats of the Cortlandt and Desbrosses streets ferries arrive. The trip will consume about five and a half hours between New York and Trenton. Close connections will be made with the Navigation Company boats at Trenton. The sail down the Delaware will take about four hours, making a total of about nine and a half hours between the metropolis and the Quaker City. The sail on the river is twenty-nine miles.

For the present four cars will make the trip each day. The first one will leave Jersey City at 8:35 a. m., upon the arrival of the 8:20 ferryboat. The other cars will leave after the arrival of the 11:20, 2:20 and 5:20 ferryboats. They will arrive in Plainfield a little less than three hours later. Returning cars will leave Trenton at 8, 11 a. m., 2, 5 p. m.

It is expected that traffic over the new run will be heavy all summer.

Golden Eagles in Convention.

Among the 25,000 Knights of the Golden Eagle at the twenty-eighth annual session of the Grand Castle in Lu Lu Temple, Philadelphia, today, are a delegation from Freedom Castle, of Plainfield. This afternoon five thousand of the Knights will parade in full uniform; and in the evening an exhibition drill will be held in Horticultural Hall.

"Baltimore Jack" Captured.

Michael Ward, alias "Baltimore Jack," was arrested by Borough Officer Mohan at Dunellen yesterday. The immediate cause of difficulty was a jag of abnormal proportions. Recorder Campbell this morning gave him a hearing which resulted in his release upon promising to exercise his talents in places remote from Dunellen.

To Select Course of Study.

Principal L. W. Travell distributed cards to the High School pupils this morning to receive written choice of the course of studies to be pursued next year. The cards are given out each year in May to enable the Board to know how the pupils will be divided in ample time for adequate preparation.

Reduction at Pond's.

Notice of a ten per cent. reduction in wages was posted at the Pond Machine Tool Company shops last night. The cut has created a lot of surprise and comment among the men. Recently the company cut the week down to five days.

Freeholder Dead.

Nathan Winans Bonnell, one of the leading citizens of Springfield and a former freeholder in the Union County board, died at his residence on Springfield avenue Saturday afternoon after a lingering illness.

Tea Abandoned.

The tea arranged to be given at Mrs. A. S. Hart's on May 17 for the Nurses' Home of Muhlenberg Hospital, has been abandoned on account of illness in the family.

—Really good butter is a scarce commodity. But Neuman Bros. have it in their Rockdale Prints, Rockdale Creamery and Elgin Creamery. No better possible.

HOPE COMMON IS CLOSED

NO BASEBALL GAMES TO BE ALLOWED THERE.

All baseball playing has been stopped on Hope Common. O. B. Leonard, the owner, has given orders that even the juvenile teams must not use the diamond.

There is a nervous woman living in one of the houses near the field, and she has made such firm objection to the game that Mr. Leonard will not allow even the suggestion of a contest on the field. Until last Saturday the Boys' League has been using the field, but they were warned off along with the other players. The league will have to use the Myrtle avenue grounds for the rest of the season.

The impossibility of getting the field was the chief reason for the abandonment of the Hope Chapel ball team this year.

SALE FOR TAXES.

Collector Brown to Start Proceedings Against Delinquent Property Owners.

As noted elsewhere in this issue the sale of lands for unpaid taxes for 1902 will be held Monday next at the office of the collector. The names of the delinquents together with the amount of the claim against each property appear in the advertised list. About July first Collector Brown will begin proceeding against the delinquents in the matter of taxes for 1903. Those who have not yet paid their personal taxes will be visited later in the week by Marshal Slack. Failure to comply with the notice to pay will be followed by a levy on the goods assessed, which will be sold.

Good Newspapers Thrive.

The first of May seems to be birthday among newspapers of this State. The Evening Journal, of Jersey City, blushingly confesses the age of 38, and the Elizabeth Times is proud to say that it has lived 3 years. Our congratulations to both upon successful arrival and survival. May the tribe of Jersey newspaper which are self-reliant, patriotic, independent and not overshadowed, depressed and dulled by competition with metropolitan journals, increase and thrive. The press of New Jersey has greatly improved in the last decade, and the improvement has been along lines which are safe, sane and enduring rather than mercenary, sensational and yellow.—Paterson Guardian.

Badgley Not Signed.

Manager George Johnston, of the Alis Club, states that there is nothing in the report about his signing Badgeley, the Lehigh University's pitcher. He wanted to pitch for Alis, but before doing so wanted Manager Johnston to agree to pay him $25 a week whether he played or not. While Davis is in such good condition, no change will be made.

Cleaning North Plainfield.

The housecleaning that was begun by the people of North Plainfield at the borough election this spring is being continued. The Board of Health has voted to keep even non-political hogs out of the residential sections of the municipality.—Newark Evening News.

Princeton Day.

The committee on ceremonies of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition has designated May 21 as Princeton day. This is the date for the fifth annual meeting in St. Louis of the Western Association of Princeton Clubs.

Boys' League Games.

Two games will be played in the Boys' League this afternoon. The Y. M. C. A. will meet the Whittier School, on the Myrtle avenue grounds, and Leal's will play P. H. S., on Crescent Oval.

Alis' Next Game.

The Xavier A. C., of New York city, who will probably be the Alis opponents on Saturday, was defeated by the Madison A. A. by the score of 12 to 0 at Madison last Saturday.

Scotch Plains vs. Westfield.

The new Scotch Plains ball team will journey to Westfield on Saturday and try conclusions with Manager Denman's colts. Jimmie Montross will pitch for the 'Plains team.

Lauder with Murray Hills.

"Billy" Lauder, captain of the Alis Club, played with the Murray Hills against the Trenton Y. M. C. A., at Trenton, yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Harry Elliott, of Grandview avenue, is quite ill at her home.

Miss Clara Long, of Park avenue, has been visiting her cousin, of Somerville.

Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong Mulford, of East Fifth street, will soon move into their new home on Westervelt avenue, in the borough.

THEO. KURZHALS, JR., IS STRICKEN BLIND

Sad Affliction of a Local Barber, Believed to be Due to Recent Illness.

MAY BE PERMANENT

HAS NOT BEEN ABLE TO WORK AT HIS TRADE.

Overtaken by the Trouble Yesterday—Is Under the Care of a Physician—Well-Known About Town.

As the result of a recent illness with erysipelas and rheumatism, Theodore Kurzhals, Jr., of West Second street, suddenly lost his eyesight, yesterday. The affliction was wholly unexpected as on Sunday he experienced no trouble with his eyes.

At present Mr. Kurzhals can discern a very little light through the corner of the right eye, but it is believed that even this will disappear, leaving him totally blind.

Mr. Kurzhals has been ill for some time. He not being able to work steadily at his trade. By occupation he is a barber. He has been under the care of a physician. It is not certain whether the loss of the sight will be permanent or not.

Davis a Great Pitcher.

In Lefty Davis, Manager Johnson has one of the hardiest pitchers outside the big leagues. Davis pitches as much with his brain pan as with his arm, and that is the difference between him and a good many minor twirlers. The men back of Davis can be dead certain that he will do the best possible thing in a tight place. Speaking of brain workers in the box one of the best men for that sort of work hereabouts was Dick Harvey, who used to pitch for Scotch Plains. Harvey never let the twenty-seven-strike-outs bee get in his bonnet. He pitched cooly and steadily at every juncture and never stretched his nerve until it was really necessary. He allowed the outfield to do things, but—he was there with the twists when the going got too warm. He isn't in the game this year, and probably will not go back to it. He will be remembered here by the fans chiefly for the quiet but very effective way in which he pitched for 'Plains two years ago against the All-Plainfield combination.

Attending Missionary Meeting.

Mrs. A. M. Gillem, Mrs. Robert Clark, Jr., Mrs. Seaman Williams, Mrs. A. L. Force, of the Ladies' Christian Work Society, of Trinity Reformed church, are today attending the spring meeting of the Woman's Board of Foreign Mission of the Reformed Church of America, being held at the Collegiate church, Fifth avenue, New York. Two sessions are being held, morning and afternoon.

Making Clothes for Charity.

Women identified with the work of the Mary Morgan Fresh Air Home were recently engaged in cutting out suits for the boys and dresses for the girls in the lecture room of Trinity Reformed church. The goods were secured in large pieces and then cut in accordance with patterns furnished by Miss Curry.

Concert Friday Night.

Under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society, of Grace M. E. church, the choir of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church, will give a concert at the church Friday night.

Helping Missions.

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church, will be held in the church parlors this afternoon.

The Epworth League, of the Monroe Avenue church, will observe its fifteenth anniversary at the church on Sunday night with special exercises.

Church Musicale.

A unique musical and literary entertainment will be held in the Park Avenue Baptist church on Thursday night, May 19.

—Officer Saffron reported at police headquarters this morning that the hydrant at Lee place and Second street was leaking badly last night and flooding the street.

TROLLEYMEN TO PLAY BALL

PLAINFIELD COLTS TO CROSS BATS WITH JUNCTION GIANTS.

Every employe of the trolley company who can do so will be on hand at the Westfield baseball grounds tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock in order to witness the great game set for that time between the Plainfield colts and the Junction Giants as the two teams made up of conductors and motormen from this city and Cranford Junction are known.

The game will prove interesting to others beside the employes and their immediate friends, because of the fact that a good proportion of the players on both sides have covered various positions on well-known teams in this vicinity within the last two seasons or so. Daily practice has been had at the Junction for some time past, but the locals in spite of being slightly handicapped in this respect may be relied on to put up a first-class argument tomorrow. The names of the players on both teams, together with the probable lineup follows: Plainfield Colts—Kuhn, 3b; Drake, lf; Magee, 2b; Milligan, ss; Higgins, 1b; Peterson, rf; Palmer, p; Kennedy, c; Davenport, p; Block, cf; Skillman, p. T. A. Garthwaite will act as umpire for the Plainfield boys.

The Junction Giants are listed as follows: Bossert, c; Wyckoff, p; Oehler, p; Tice, 1b; G. Snyder, 2b; J. Snyder, 3b; Feeley, ss; Eggars, rf; Hoffman, cf; Wells, lf; Todd, unplaced substitute.

BIBLE CLASS ENTERTAINMENT

STEPHEN CAHOONE THE HOST OF HOPE CHAPEL MEN.

The men's Bible class of Hope chapel was entertained last evening at the home of the teacher, Stephen Cahoone, on Watchung avenue. About forty were present, including the wives of some of the men. Piano selections were rendered by Miss Carrie Dewey and Miss Florence Cahoone. Harry B. Case gave several recitations.

Leonard Gavett exhibited his power as a sleight-of-hand performer. Mr. Hendry, one of the class, sang a comic song. Refreshments were served, and the occasion closed with singing by the company.

Smashed the Bicycle.

A bicycle belonging to George Van-Horn, of Summit avenue, was wrecked by one of the horses attached to Col. J. F. Wilson's carriage in front of the postoffice this forenoon. The horse was frightened by a trolley car and jumped on the wheel, which stood at the curb. Col. Wilson had the bicycle taken to a shop for repairs.

Mr. Brahmst's Party.

Theodore Brahmst will give a birthday party at his home, 23 Lincoln place, tomorrow night. A large number of friends being invited to listen to a lecture by him on the Philippines, where he several three years as a member of the Sixteenth U. S. Infantry during the Spanish-American War.

Shriners to Celebrate.

REPUBLICANS MEET IN STATE CONVENTION

Theodore Roosevelt Euologized by the Majority Party by Resolutions and Platform.

DELEGATES CHOSEN

U. S. SENATOR KEAN ACTS AS THE CHAIRMAN.

Union County's Fifty-One Delegates Present—Lots of Harmony and Bunches of Enthusiasm—The Proceedings.

The Republican State convention was convened in Taylor's Opera House, Trenton, at noon, United States Senator John Kean being temporary chairman. After organization was effected a recess was taken in order to give the committees an opportunity to do their work. William M. Johnson, formerly first assistant postmaster general, was appointed chairman of the committee on resolutions.

A large delegation of party workers left this city at 8:40 this morning in order to be on hand at the congressional convention which convened at 10 o'clock. The Fifth district congressional convention was held at the Republican Club headquarters. Walter Ingham, of Warren, and James H. McGraw, of Morris, were chosen as delegates.

Attending the convention from North Plainfield are W. W. Howland, Dr. J. H. Cooley and C. M. Dolliver. The convention for the selection of the general delegates is attended by the following North Plainfielders: Charles Place, J. J. Stahl, H. H. Webb, John Goodwin, E. D. Hutchinson and L. C. VanNest.

Former Governor Foster M. Voorhees accompanied the Union County delegation of fifty-one members.

The platform, when adopted heartily endorsed the administration of President Roosevelt, both in its foreign and domestic policies. The tariff is dealt with in no uncertain way. It says that there is no need for the Republican party to make a declaration of principles as its records makes its principles plain. It recognizes the disinterested patriotism of the gold Democrats.

The platform was carefully gone over last night at a conference between United States Senators Kean and Dryden, Congressman Gardner, Vice Chairman Stokes, ex-Senator William M. Johnson, E. M. Wakelee, acting governor; E. C. Breckenridge and other members of the State committee.

It was finally decided that the four delegates-at-large should be United States Senators Kean and Dryden, Governor Murphy and David Baird.

The probable alternate delegates-at-large will be: Colonel S. D. Dickinson, of Hudson; John Breckenridge, of Bergen; Senator Wood McKee, of Passaic, and Alexander Lewis, of Burlington.

AMONG MEN IN THE SHOPS

Five new hands started at the Pedrick-Ayer plant yesterday.

Morris Pangborn has resigned his position at the Scott Press Company's works.

H. B. Green, of the stock room of the Potter Press Company's shop, is on the sick list.

Peter Russ has resigned his position at the foundry of the Potter Press Company's works.

James Jones, of the erecting department of the Potter plant, has returned after two weeks' illness.

Tom Porter, of West Third street, who mashed his finger at the Potter plant last week, is still on the sick list.

The power started at the Aluminum Press Company's shop at Dewey Park yesterday morning. The entire shop is run by motor.

Joe Miles, a former employe at the Pond plant, has taken a position on the night gang at the Campbell Press Company's works.

John Waldron, of the Potter Press Company's works, has been transferred from the erecting department to the shafting gang.

Walter Morley, of the Potter Press Company's works, has been transferred from the lathe gang to the cutting-off machine in the stock room.

Tony Martell, of West Fourth street, has resigned his position at the Waldron machine shop, of New Brunswick, to take a position at the Pedrick-Ayer shop.

Joe Higgins, formerly of the Potter Press Company's works, went to the New Jersey Cycle Company's plant in Newark, Saturday, to purchase a new motor for F. D. Weber's automobile.

Charles Meyer, Sr., of South Second street, has taken a position on the night gang at the Campbell Press Company's works. Mr. Meyer was employed at the Potter plant eighteen years.

A new general foreman has taken charge of the Pedrick Ayer plant, George Pratt by name and he hails from Trenton. John Weir, the former general foreman, has taken charge of the milling machine gang.

C. F. Perrin, of the Perrin glove house, will leave some time this month for Europe, where he will remain to take charge of a large glove house. Mr. Perrin is the junior member of the Perrin Preres Glove Company.

Frank Marsh, of New Market, a former employe at the Pond shop, is riding a new motor cycle. The machine was given to him by "Mayor" Bill Smith. The "Mayor" is going on a trip West in his auto, and Marsh will go with him as general machinist. Marsh will ride the motor cycle.

The employes in the drawing room at the Pond Machine Tool Company's plant, have received notice to stop work on Saturday. Hereafter the draughtsmen will work five and one-half days a week, while the machine shop was run but five days. The cause for this five-day week, it is said, is slack of work.

The Pennsylvania Railroad has spent many millions for improvements and on this account the big corporation finds it necessary, according to reports, to economize. The result of this decision will be evident in a few days, when not only will a large number of men be laid off in their shops, but there will be a reduction of wages all along the line. Over 1,000 men will be affected.

Fritts Freehobb, an employe at the Standard Surgical Instrument Company's shop on East Fourth street, was badly burned about the face and hands while at work at the plant yesterday. Mr. Freehobb is foreman of the thermometer department, and while experimenting on one of these instruments the acid he was using splattered on his face and hands, causing him much pain.

Three machinists were laid off at the Pedrick-Ayer plant last week, and still they are advertising for men. A goodly number of machinists in other shops are wondering why that is, and as the different men from different shops meet, the first thing you will hear them say is, "What's the matter with the Pedrick-Ayer people?" Upon investigation it is found that the company is looking for cheap help, and the reason so many men are "getting out" is that they don't get enough money.

Fred Williams, of Elmwood place, met with an accident last week, while giving an automobile a trial, that has taken all notions of purchasing a machine out of his mind. Williams liked the auto belonging to William Harsell and made him an offer for it. Harsell let him have the machine for a trial. Williams went as far as Scotch Plains, and on returning lost control of the steering wheel and crashed into a tree on East Front street. When the machine was towed home, Williams changed his mind, and said that "a trolley car is good enough for mine."

O. E. Westervelt, of this city, has been visiting Bound Brook friends.

JEROME'S BILL LAW

Governor Odell Signs Anti-gambling Measure.

NEW YORKERS NOW MUST TESTIFY

Troy Municipal Measure, Three Armory Bills and Newcomb Anti-trading Stamp Bill Also Signed by the State Executive.

ALBANY, N. Y., May 10.—Governor Odell has signed five important bills—the so called Jerome-Dowling witness bill, admittedly aimed at Richard A. Canfield and other alleged gamblers in New York city; the Troy improvement commission bill, which adds the mayor and corporation counsel of Troy to the local improvement commission and thus gives Mayor Hogan control of the commission, and three armory bills.

Governor Odell has also signed the Newcomb antitrading stamp bill.

The Dowling witness bill amends the code of criminal procedure so as to compel a witness in a proceeding under the antigambling law to testify and provides that his testimony cannot be subsequently used against him, thus excluding witnesses in gambling cases from refusing to testify on the plea of self incrimination. The bill was the subject of one of the battles of the session. It was frankly admitted by District Attorney Jerome that he desired this legislation in order to be able to compel certain prominent New York men to testify as to their alleged knowledge of gambling carried on in well known gambling resorts of New York city. The decision last winter of the court of appeals in the case of Jesse Lewisohn had shown the existing law to be inadequate to compel witnesses to testify. The Dowling law takes effect immediately.

The Troy municipal commission bill of Senator Barnes was also the subject of much partisan controversy, growing out of the peculiar political conditions in that city.

The three armory bills now law are respectively those of Senator Lewis, appropriating $350,000 for an armory at Rochester; Mr. Rogers, appropriating $121,000 for one at Binghamton, and Mr. De Groot, appropriating $70,000 for one at Flushing.

The action on the armory bills followed an all day conference between the governor and legislative leaders, including Senators Raines and Malby, Speaker Nixon and Assemblyman Rogers, over the appropriation and supply bills. The conference resulted in agreements as a result of which about $2,000,000 will be cut from the bills as passed by the legislature.

Miners Dead, Mine Flooded.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., May 10.—All hope that the five men who were imprisoned on Thursday last in the burning Locust Gap mine has been abandoned, and the mine will now be flooded to extinguish the flames. A fierce fire is still raging in the mine. James E. Roderick, chief of the state bureau of mines; John Fahey and Miles Dougherty, officers of the United Mine Workers; officials of the Philadelphia and Reading company and relatives of the five men in the burning mine agreed that the missing miners were dead, whereupon Chief Roderick gave permission to the company to flood the mine.

Bridgeworkers' Strike Off.

PITTSBURG, May 10.—The grievance between the International Bridge and Structural Iron Workers and the American Bridge company has been adjusted. At a conference the company agreed to remove the thirty-five nonunion men employed at Corrall, Pa., where the company is erecting a bridge for the Pennsylvania railroad. The men on all contracts for the company will resume work this morning, which means the completion of the Wabash railroad.

Russia and Argentina Late.

ST. LOUIS, May 10.—There is now no allotted space in any of the world's fair buildings that is not occupied, except reservations for Russia and Argentina, according to Director of Exhibits Skiff. Workmen in the Varied Industries building began to prepare the space allotted to Russia. It is said that Russia and Argentina will have their exhibits installed by June 1.

Fell Into Hay Chute.

CATSKILL, N. Y., May 10.—John Swartz, driver of a sand wagon, has been found dead at Coxsackie, having been suffocated in a peculiar manner. He entered a barn owned by Michael Dolan late Saturday night, evidently wishing to take a nap. In crossing the loft he fell into a hay chute and was suffocated, his body not being found until many hours afterward.

Fire Near Maine Line.

ST. JOHN, N. B., May 10.—A fire during the night has destroyed four stores, twelve houses and eight barns in Richmond Corners, a remote village near the Maine line. The owners lost practically all of their household effects. The loss is about $25,000.

WASHINGTON, May 10. — Count Cassini, the Russian ambassador, has been ill for several days, suffering from a severe attack of hay fever. The ambassador will leave Washington today or tomorrow for Atlantic City for several days' rest.

Hurst Park Won the Crotona.

NEW YORK, May 10.—Closing with a great burst of speed in the last sixteenth, Hurst Park, favorite, won the Crotona handicap at Morris park, leading home a good field of sprinters. J. A. Drake in this race added Savable and High Chancellor, but both failed to display any of their old time speed, finishing away back. Dolly Spanker made the pace to well in the stretch, when Odom sent Hurst Park to the front and won by two lengths. Jocund in the first race had a walkover, and the second race was divided, making seven races.

Dead Heat at Louisville.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 10. — Dr. Stucky and Annie Max ran a dead heat in the sixth race, and the money was divided. Thousands of dollars were wagered on Annie Max here and in poolrooms all over the country. Good Cheer, at 30 to 1 and well played, won the Blue Grass stakes at six and a half furlongs from Merry Pioneer. Rathskeller fell in the jam in the back stretch in the fifth race, and Jockey Minder was hurt. He has concussion of the brain and may die, as several horses ran over him.

Barney Oldfield's Protest.

NEW YORK, May 10.—Barney Oldfield has arrived in New York, and his protest, added to many others from those who desire to see an American auto in the international cup race, may lead the racing committee of the Automobile Club of America to recommend another test of the cars tried at Cleveland.

Jordan at Delmar Park.

ST. LOUIS, May 10.—Jordan, an odds on favorite, won Kinloch's feature at Delmar park. There was nothing behind him, and he won as he pleased. W. H. Fizer's colors were seen for the first time in two years. He won the first race with Gasconne.

The body had probably been there since last fall. The man is believed to have been murdered, as the pockets of his clothes were turned inside out. There was nothing about his person by which he could be identified.

Had Hard Fight For Life.

SOUTH HAVEN, Mich., May 10.—The schooner Anne F. Morse has been wrecked three miles north of here. Sleep Walker Killed by Train.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., May 10.—Alfred Bochart, aged fifty, was struck and killed by a train while walking on the railroad track near the Blatchley avenue bridge. It is believed that Bochart was walking in his sleep. He was a molder by trade and leaves a widow and two children.

HOW TO OBTAIN

Summer Boarders!

There is in New York City one daily newspaper which has made tremendous gains in popular favor during the past five years. Its net cash paid circulation is over 100,000 copies daily throughout every section of New York City (including Brooklyn), larger than that of any other recognized resort medium. This newspaper's readers are among the wealthy, and well-to-do, intelligent people—those who can afford and do take extended vacations in the country during the Summer. It carries more resort advertising than any other morning newspaper, so the public naturally look to it for information as to where to go.

An advertisement in its columns is, therefore, exceedingly valuable and sure to produce results. This paper is

CHURCH AND DIVORCE.

Methodists at Los Angeles Discuss Important Matters.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., May 10.—The attitude of the Roman Catholic church toward the public school system of the United States furnished the subject of an exciting debate at the session of the Methodist Episcopal general conference. While there was a strong disposition on the part of certain delegates to have the conference adopt resolutions committing it to decided utterances on the subject, an overwhelming sentiment developed against such action, and the question was finally referred to a committee from which it is unlikely ever to be reported.

Judge Sibley of Ohio offered a resolution on the subject of divorce. He wanted paragraph 39 of the discipline changed to read as follows:

"No divorce, except for adultery, final desertion or cruelty or neglect, such as to compel an innocent partner to separate from an offender, shall be regarded by the church as morally lawful, and none of our ministers or laymen shall solemnize marriage where there is a divorced wife or husband living unless the divorce was granted on grounds hereinbefore specified. But this regulation does not apply in cases where divorced parties are seeking remarriage."

This resolution was referred to the committee on the state of the church.

WAS GIVING HIM BREAD.

Mrs. Richardson of Rochester Seriously Injured by Tramp's Attack.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., May 10.—Mrs. Arthur W. Richardson, wife of one of the best known residents of this city, was viciously assaulted while alone at her home here by a tramp whose apparent motive was robbery. After felling the woman by a blow on the back of the neck the intruder bound her arms behind her and, forcing a handkerchief into her mouth, left her unconscious, in which condition she was discovered by her husband upon his return home. Mrs. Richardson was revived sufficiently to give a few details of the assault, but later lapsed into unconsciousness, and her condition is serious.

Nothing was missing from the house, and the police incline to the belief that the assailant was frightened away.

Mrs. Richardson said that a tramp came to the door and asked for bread. She raised her arms in the act of taking the requested food from a shelf when the man crept up behind and struck her. She fell to the floor unconscious.

Our Warships For Korea.

WASHINGTON, May 10.—The attention of the state department has been drawn to the possibility of rioting and looting at Newchwang in the interval between the expected Russian withdrawal and the Japanese occupation. Secretary Hay had a consultation with the president respecting the advisability of again sending a warship to Newchwang to safeguard American interests and prevent outrages upon other foreigners by brigands. The navy department has cabled Admiral Cooper, commander in chief of the Asiatic station, to send a cruiser and a gunboat to Chefu. This is the nearest neutral port to Port Arthur, but is outside the zone of military operations. The selection of the vessels is left to Admiral Cooper.

Chicago Theater Panic.

CHICAGO, May 10.—Boys fighting in the gallery and the cry of "Fire!" by a man started a rush for the doors at Hopkins' theater which nearly emptied the house and interrupted the performance. Several women fainted in the crush, but none was seriously injured, although several were bruised and lacerated. The young man in the ticket office ran to the fire alarm box at the first shout, but in his excitement was unable to turn in an alarm. After the crowd was quieted a number reentered the theater. The man who shouted "Fire!" escaped during the rush.

Twelve Tons of Gold a Record.

PHILADELPHIA, May 10.—Twelve tons of virgin gold were reduced to a molten state at the United States mint during the day. At the same time the coinage department began the work of converting the mass into golden eagles. Twelve more tons will be melted each day, and within the next few days about $12,000,000 will be coined. Most of the gold came from New York in bullion. The melting of twelve tons of gold in one day is said to break all records for mint melting.

Killed by Bandits.

OAXACA, Mexico, May 10.—Othon Quinjano, the paymaster of the National railroad of Tehuantepec, was assaulted by five bandits between Palo Mares and Paso de Buques. One bullet went through his body and a machete almost cut his head in two. He died from the effects of his wounds. Two of his peons were wounded, one of them very seriously. The bandits got away with between $2,000 and $3,000. The rurales have pursued them.

Five Hundred Spinners Idle.

PAWTUCKET, R. I., May 10.—Five hundred employees of the Jenck Spinning company's yarn mills in this city have been thrown out of work by a strike of 100 carders and back boys. The strike followed the announcement of a 10 per cent reduction in wages ordered, it is claimed, on account of a depression in business.

New German Cruiser.

BERLIN, May 10.—The new cruiser Bremen, which has just brilliantly stood the official tests, has been ordered to the American cruiser division to replace the Gazelle, which will be remodeled.

HOW DID WENTZ DIE?

Young Philadelphian's Body Has Many Shot Holes.

THOUGHT AT THE GAP TO BE MURDER

Has Been Fully Identified—Revolver With Three Empty Chambers Found Twelve Feet Away—Lies Undisturbed Under Guard.

BRISTOL, Va., May 10.—The body of E. L. Wentz, discovered in the mountains near Kelly View, Wise county, Va., Sunday afternoon, by Dave Raleigh, a miner employed at an operation at Blackwood, Va., while hunting a lost cow, lies identically as it was first seen, and around it stands a guard of twenty-five men under the command of Superintendent Arthur Foster of the Osaka plant of the Virginia Coal and Iron company. The body has not been disturbed in any way and will not be until D. B. Wentz and J. L. Wentz, brothers of the dead man, arrive on the scene.

They are en route in a special train from Philadelphia. No inquest has been held and will not be until the brothers are on the scene. On making the ghastly discovery Raleigh ran to Blackwood, a mining settlement a mile or more distant, and there first told of the fact to Bent Kilgore, a police officer of that section.

Kilgore communicated with Mr. J. F. Bullitt at Big Stone Gap shortly before dark Sunday evening, and forthwith a party headed by Mr. Bullitt and carrying lanterns to aid them in their journey through the dark passes of the mountains started for the scene some twelve miles distant. They arrived shortly after 11 o'clock and at once stretching ropes around the body, inclosing it in a thirty foot square, placed a guard, which was not relieved until after daylight. As to the amount of the reward, it is generally believed that the man discovering the body will receive $5,000.

All seem to agree that Wentz was shot, but whether it was suicide or murder is the question. Two of his front teeth are gone, presumably shot out, while holes thought to be bullet holes are found through the coat and vest just below the ribs on the left side. The place in which the body lies has been recently burned off by forest fires, and the dead man's hair and clothing are scorched. The body is lying about thirty feet from the mountain path and is now easily seen for a hundred feet.

The body, although partially decomposed, has been fully identified. His clothing was intact. His revolver, with three shots missing, and his eyeglasses were found about twenty feet away. The body lies near the Blackwood road, about a mile north of Kelly cave. Wentz was found lying on his back, his head resting on a log.

Young Wentz was the son of a Philadelphia millionaire and was in charge of his father's mines in Wise county. Since his disappearance more than $50,000 has been offered for any news of him.

Until the inquest is held and the body examined the cause of death will not be known, though the general opinion is that he was murdered.

Did Haywood Desecrate the Flag?

DENVER, May 10.—After numerous postponements the trial of William D. Haywood, secretary and treasurer of the Western Federation of Miners, on a charge of desecration of the flag has opened here. Haywood's defense was that the statute does not apply to pictures or representations of the flag, but only to the flag itself. The charge is based on the issuance of a circular bearing a picture of a flag and headed "Is Colorado In America?" Justice Hynes will give his decision on Thursday.

Assemblyman's Home Destroyed.

OGDENSBURG, N. Y., May 10.—The home of Assemblyman Charles S. Plank at Waddington has been destroyed by fire. Mrs. Plank ran into the burning building to save some jewelry, and her escape was cut off by the flames. Her face and hands were badly burned before she reached a window. She jumped out and landed on a roof some distance below, where she remained until rescued. Mrs. Plank was seriously injured by the fall, but will recover.

Sir Henry M. Stanley Dying.

LONDON, May 10.—Sir Henry M. Stanley, the African explorer, is reported to be dying. Sir Henry, who was attacked by pleurisy a fortnight ago, is at his London residence. His illness is complicated by chronic heart trouble. He has been in a semiconscious condition since Sunday afternoon, and at midnight it is reported that, though death is not anticipated immediately, there is no possible chance for his recovery.

Mrs. Powell Asks For New Trial.

DOVER, Del., May 10.—In the Kent county court of oyer and terminer counsel for Mrs. Mary A. Powell, convicted of murder in the second degree in killing Estella Albin, filed a motion for a new trial and an arrest of judgment. The court announced that counsel would be allowed four days in which to file reasons in support of the motion for a new trial, pending which sentence was deferred.

Honolulu Queen at St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, May 10.—Queen Liliuokalani, the deposed ruler of Hawaii, accompanied by her adopted son, former Prince Cupid, now known as Joseph Kalanianole, and his wife, have arrived from Washington and have taken apartments at the Inside Inn on the exposition grounds.

Plainfield, N. J., May 10, 1904.

SEVENTEEN YEARS AGO TODAY.

This is the seventeenth birthday of The Daily Press and we've just as proud of the fact as the average boy is when he dons his first pair of long trousers.

But we are not going to waste type in boasting of the improvements made since the day when this paper made its appearance in a pink dress. That was on May 10, 1887.

The circulation man has a list of subscribers, which by the way is the largest in this city, and among the names are some who have been there from the start. They know our history; others don't care.

It is what the paper is today and what it will be in the future which is of interest to the subscriber and advertiser.

The Daily Press is a "home" newspaper. It makes no attempt to present to the reader the current happenings of the world at large.

It reports what takes place from day to day in Plainfield, and when we speak of Plainfield we include North Plainfield. Scotch Plains, Watchung, Dunellen, New Market, South Plainfield are covered as well in the day's news stories, but beyond this no effort is made.

Years of experience in the business has convinced us that what the public wants is the local news. Consequently the policy is to relate accurately, impartially and completely all the local happenings. Even the "personal" is not neglected.

Like all other newspapers it is our constant effort to avoid mistakes and we are only too glad to correct any fault which a reader or advertiser may see. Unfortunately many people know how to run a newspaper better than those engaged in the business. That's the way of the world. But advice is given consideration every time for we do not think we "know it all."

We've got no axes to grind. To be frank with you we've not in the business for the love of it. To make it profitable we must follow the same rules that have ever prevailed. "Honesty is the best policy" for it pays every time. We're tacked on to no political machine or party. The Daily Press is dependent on no one except its readers and it intends to cater to them alone.

The Daily Press claims to have a larger circulation than any other newspaper published in this city but we are always looking for more subscribers. The only promise made the reader is that he will find in its columns all the news, stripped of personality and without partiality. The advertiser has been very good to us. It's for him to say why, but we want to thank him as well as the subscriber in making The Daily Press what it is. We hope to merit the favor of both in the future as in the past.

A barrel of fun will be opened at the band concert fund minstrel show at the Casino tonight. The production promises to be the best of the kind ever given in this city. You'll have several hours of joy and the prospect of some high class concerts this summer if you attend the show tonight.

If you don't advertise your business, the sheriff will.

—Andrew Nolan and family have moved from East Front street to Arlington avenue.

JAPANESE IN DALNY

Capture Russia's Modern Port on Yellow Sea.

CITY BUILT BY ORDER OF THE CZAR

Newchwang Is Almost Empty of Russians—Residents Fear Pillage by Chinese Bandits—Port Arthur Weak In Food Supplies.

LONDON, May 10.—Dispatches from Shanghai say that the Japanese have captured and occupied Dalny.

The capture of Dalny by the Japanese is one of the biggest events of the war. Dalny was Russia's most important seaport on the Yellow sea. It lies on the east coast of the Liaotung peninsula, in Victoria bay, one of the inlets of Tallenwan bay, where the Japanese have landed in force.

Dalny was built almost in a year to be the eastern terminus of the great Transsiberian railway, to be a port where would assemble the commercial navies of the world. Erected in obedience to an edict of the czar dated July 30, 1899, Dalny was completed before an inhabitant lived there; was perfected, had tremendous piers, fine dwellings, public buildings, theaters, banks, parks, electric lights, trolley cars—literally every modern improvement.

Port Arthur is now entirely surrounded by the Japanese, who hold the railroad as well as the approach by sea.

The evacuation of Newchwang is almost complete. The Russian authorities have promised to leave a sufficient rear guard to prevent pillaging by the Chinese bandits who are in the vicinity and awaiting an opportunity to get into the city.

The Russians are commandeering cattle on the west side of the Liao river, and the Chinese are indignant at this procedure. Eight hundred head of cattle have been seen at Yinkow.

A Japanese spy has been discovered at Newchwang. He was approached by Russians, who pulled at his cue, which came off. He was taken prisoner, but subsequently escaped with the help of some Chinese, who distracted the attention of the Russians.

Information has been received that Port Arthur has only coal sufficient to last the warships for six weeks and that the food supply there will feed 8,000 men for three months only.

A dispatch from Gensan, on the east coast of Korea, states that a large Russian force, accompanied by many Manchurian mounted bandits, crossed the Yalu far above Wiju, the Japanese base, four days ago and moved southeast, occupying Changjin.

This place is a hundred miles west of Songjin. Nothing further has been heard of the movements of this Russian body, which was probably sent into Korea to harass the Japanese outposts and perhaps cover other movements.

It is believed that General Kuropatkin may have in mind a design for flanking the Japanese along the Yalu.

A St. Petersburg dispatch this morning says the war commission adjourned at a late hour, but did not make public any dispatches from the far east. This is accepted as an indication that no fresh fighting has occurred. The Cossacks in touch with the Japanese are simply small detachments which are observing the movements of the enemy in order to keep General Kuropatkin properly informed.

A Tokyo report says that 15,000 Russians are retiring from Newchwang to Liaoyang.

It also says that Chinese bandits have destroyed the road to Tashichia and to Haicheng. Tashichia is the junction for the Newchwang branch of the Port Arthur-Mukden line, and Haicheng is farther north on the main line. The Russians are making a new road.

Bandits have attacked and cut other parts of the railroad. The capture of Dalny will enable the Japanese to cut off Port Arthur's electrical supply.

The Japanese have requested the United States government to inquire into the fate of forty men who were missing after the blocking of Port Arthur. It is believed that several of them were captured.

A Seoul report says:

"It is believed here that a portion of the Russian Vladivostok fleet has been successfully shut out and is now in the sea of Japan trying to evade the Japanese."

The Japanese may find a weak spot in the defenses of Port Arthur, as before, and it is believed in some quarters that they will repeat the tactics employed in the war with China and attempt an assault through the western defenses, which are known to be weak.

Dispatches from Shanghai say that the Tartar general at Mukden has declined to obey Viceroy Alexeieff's order that the Chinese evacuate Mukden.

Ship Officers on Strike.

PARIS, May 10.—In accordance with the decision of a committee appointed by the officers of the merchant marine, now on strike, the officers of the French line steamers St. Simon, Labrador, Canada, L'Aquitaine and Ferdinand de Lesseps have left those vessels. The officers of the La Savoie will leave that vessel today, but the French line is confident that it will be able to make arrangements by which the ship will sail as usual next Saturday.

Western Editor's Eastern Tour.

LONDON, May 10.—John P. Young, managing editor of the San Francisco Chronicle, and Mrs. Young, after a tour of Egypt, the Holy Land and the continent, have arrived in England. They will return to the United States next week.

HOME ENDORSEMENT.

Hundreds of Plainfield Citizens Can Tell You All About It.

Home endorsement, the public expression of Plainfield people, should be evidence beyond dispute for every Plainfield reader. Surely the experience of friends and neighbors, cheerfully given by them, will carry more weight than the utterances of strangers residing in far-away places. Read the following:

George S. McGinnis, of No. 212 Somerset street, foreman of R. H. McCullough's Sash and Door Manufacturing Company, says: "I never was sick a day in my life until a pain struck me across my back and a lameness over the kidneys. I did not pay much attention to it at first thinking it would soon pass away, but instead of this it grew worse. I saw Doan's Kidney Pills so highly recommended by those who had used them for such troubles that I went to L. W. Randolph's drug store and got a box. I used them according to instructions and felt somewhat relieved. Continuing the treatment by the time I had finished the third box the pain in my back and lameness disappeared."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

SHADES AND FABRICS.

Printed Muslins For Summer—Colors For Blonds and Brunettes.

Printed muslins in the most delightful designs make pretty summer gowns over taffeta silk matching the flower design. They are trimmed with narrow laces or chiffon.

The blond girl should avoid blue unless her eyes are very deep and her eyebrows well marked. It makes her wishy washy. Pale yellow is very becoming to her; so also are brown, black and a certain shade of green. White is her best color. Turquoise blue looks particularly well on a dark haired woman, and so do the shades of old rose and deeper pink. The pale pinks belong to blonds. Deep mauves and purples are becoming to both blonds and brunettes, and this is true also of certain shades of scarlet.

The fashionable decolletage line is somewhat higher this season, for, although the corsage is cut lower, it is finished with a dainty tucker of mousseline de soie, chiffon or net.

BLUE LIBERTY SATIN GOWN.

Challie is to be revived, so leaders of fashion say, and this is pretty for young girls when made up softly with a bit of good lace.

A good effect was produced by deep lace and ribbon ruches, arranged in a scroll design, on the skirt of a rich purple crepe de chine gown. The corsage had the long shoulder line, the full sleeves being shirred to the elbow and terminating in deep cuffs of lace.

ODDS AND ENDS.

Lace Is Lavishly Used on Gowns. The Wide Belt a Necessity.

So far all the waists and dress bodices are made with high collar bands, and, although some are unlined, yet the bare effect of the collarless bodice is missing.

Where lace is lavishly employed on a gown the sleeves are partially composed of the lace, and this gives a very smart and light effect, even on dark foulard or black gowns. In fact, the black toilet is often the smartest of all, so often is it trimmed with tinted lace.

Belts are quite a feature of the new fashions, and they are invariably wide. Tucked belts of leather are used with many of the tailor made costumes. Some of them are studded with silver or steel nails and are finished with buckles to correspond. Very deep belts of corded silk or taffeta are also worn, and the straight belts of colored shiny leather are designed to wear with soft, full blouses under cloth and linen boleros.

Lace squares and figures are used more than ever to outline yokes, sleeves and flounces.

Perfectly charming is the new silk kinu, which possesses the substance of pongee and the softness of crepe de chine. At present this exquisite material is only to be seen in the india silk color, but later in the season it will be obtainable in all the fashionable shades.

Velvet or taffeta silk boleros are now much in evidence—another old fashion revived—and are made sleeveless or with elbow sleeves, the bolero matching the trimming of the dress and not the material in which it is carried out.

The picture shows a morning costume of white canvas piped with scarlet and white foulard with knotted scarf of same. JUDIC CHOLLET.

QUEEN OF THE REDS

LOUISE MICHEL, HEROINE OF FRENCH COMMUNE, DYING.

A Woman of Strong Passions and Many Virtues Who Has Helped to Keep France in a Turmoil.

Louise Michel is dying. Louise Michel, called by many names: Queen of Anarchy, the Red Virgin; Joan of Arc of the Commune, Charlotte Corday; Sister of Mercy; Defender of the Oppressed. An advocate of blackness, and angel of mercy.

As one sympathetic writer says, and with justice, Louise Michel is a woman in whom the passion of pity has transformed her blood to gall. She has stood the oppression and miseries of the poor that it became a living passion to reform existing conditions, at any cost, by any means—fire, sword, plunder and carnage. But through all her evil-built, warring life there stood out boldly virtues as strong as her revolutionary crimes. Devotion to her mother was with her a religion; an ascetic life her habit, no thought for self; the acts of violence were ever in the interests of others; hers was unfaltering courage; surviving imprisonment and her long exile.

She was born in an old castle in France in 1839, of parents that were not legally married. She received a good education, knew her Greek and Latin; and prior to the Commune was a devout Roman Catholic. At an early age she began work as a school teacher, and in her teaching early showed herself an ardent republican, twice being brought before the authorities for revolutionary utterances. In 1855 she came to Paris, and there her hatred for the empire increased and she became alienated from the church. She hated the empire, she hated Napoleon, was one that drew lots as to who should kill the emperor. When the Germans laid siege to Paris, Louise donned the uniform a national guard, shouldered a rifle, and on the fortifications fought side by side with the men soldiers. In the siege she became notorious as one of the most fiery advocates of the use of petroleum.

As a member of the radical group lifting its hand against the empire she showed unquenchable zeal, and during the Commune was very conspicuous; displayed a frantic energy, is said to have been more or less responsible for all the deeds of violence that marked that movement. When the horror of the Commune came to an end, the hopeless struggle was over, Louise was placed under arrest and marched to Versailles. Three of her comrades were given the death penalty; and, though she entreated that a like punishment fall upon her, she was banished to New Caledonia. As an exile convict her heart and hand were kept busy in the work of nursing the sick and in teaching the natives, of whom she became very fond; but when she was released, in 1880, she again appeared a "Sybil of Wrath."

On her return to Paris she took up anarchy as once she had espoused republicanism; and spent her time, when out of prison, in stirring up the inflammable French people. She was sent to prison upon different charges, now as a dangerous maniac, now as a criminal. She was leader in the affair of the bakeries in 1883, when bread was taken for the starving, and this time was sentenced to six years imprisonment. After serving four years she was released by President Grevy. She then went to London and became associated with Prince Kraptokin in aranchistic propoganda, and engaged in literary and historical work. Her poems often give evidence of exalted feeling, but her novel, "The Microbes of Society," is, to put it very mildly, decidedly "strong." Only recently has she been permitted to return to France.

She has not married, and is not known ever to have had a lover, though undoubtedly she held a very strong affection for Fefre, one of the leaders of the French Commune, executed near Paris in 1871. She seems to have been altogether absorbed in altruism. When a French statesman asked her what she would do if the president of France were offered her, she replied thus: "I would accept if for 24 hours. Then I would open the banks and the prisons, and the world would be rejuvenated immediately."

Mr. W. T. Stead speaks of Louise Michel as one of the most pathetic and tragic figures of our time, and it must seem to those that know the story of her life that Mr. Stead also speaks well when he refers to this tireless laborer for the lowly as the "supreme type of the passion for compassion."

CONQUEST OF LASSA.

It Is Now Being Attempted by Strong British Force.

China, Which Exercises Suzerainty Over Thibet, Has Offered No Protest—Country Ruled by Corrupt Priests.

England's so-called "peaceful" advance into Thibet with a force from 2,000 to 3,000 strong, led by Col. Younghusband and Col. MacDonald, is the subject of much discussion by European statesmen. Russia is suspicious of the movement. From the English government's standpoint the expedition is to support and protect the commission sent to more rigidly enforce the treaty between Great Britain and Thibet; also to gain new concessions and, more than all, to enlarge the channels of commerce and see that Russia gets no more favors than England.

Before the expedition started the Chinese government published in the Peking Gazette an official memorial from the amban reporting a conference with the Thibetan state councillors, at which he urged them to abandon the policy of obstruction and to be reasonable and discuss in a friendly manner trade questions with the British commissioners who would cross the frontier. The memorial was an indication that China herself would place no serious obstacle in the way of negotiations. Since the expedition started the Chinese government has made no protest or remonstrance of any kind; on the contrary, it has given evidence that it regards the expedition with approval.

Several Europeans have entered Lassa since the expulsion of the French priests Hue and Gabet in 1846. Instead of being sent away they were cared for and given much good food—poisoned. Once two foreigners and a foreign woman came within a day's journey of Lassa. They were permitted to send for food and were not poisoned, but they were not allowed to enter the sacred city.

A class of priests, ecclesiastical roughs, constituting one-third of the clerical population, are noted for their fighting tendencies. Their occupation consists in training themselves in athletics—stone throwing, high jumping, tests of bodily strength, wrestling and singing wild songs. Their daily religious duties are reading the Scriptures, but they have no scholarly attainments.

The 6,000,000 of Thibetans are expected to support 433,242 priests of the new school of Buddhists. Among these are 1,000 reincarnated lamas, who receive a special education and are treated with great reverence. The government employs 165 official priests by royal appointment and the same number of lay officials. The departments of the royal household, religious affairs, war and treasury, all have their own ministers.

The population of Lassa (11,500 feet altitude) is between 70,000 and 100,000. The Brebun temple contains 7,700 priests and students, the great temple of Sera, 5,500, and the great Goden temple, 3,300. Thibetans are unusually filthy in their habits, and for this reason they consider the Chinese extremely clean. Many of the men have only one wife apiece, while as many as a dozen or more men have but one wife for the lot. There is no trouble about the children, for each recognizes the numerous fathers as first, second and third father, and so on through the list.

The New York Herald says the people are extravagantly fond of dazzling jewelry of all kinds. Human bodies are fed to bald-headed eagles and dogs. Some are thrown into the river or burned, but as a rule cremation is rare. Smallpox, which flourishes in all countries, regardless of race, language or custom, has played havoc in Thibet. More than 6,000 fatal cases are on record, but the population continues to increase just the same.

City people are great meat eaters, chiefly of the yak; for the second choice mutton, goat and beef. Country people who raise meat to sell eat very little of their flesh products.

Deplorable Lack of Humor.

Only few brides kick in the bridal traces when the promise to "obey" is required of them at the marriage service, and they are chiefly of the untractable class. On this subject the Baltimore American pleasantly says: "If woman had more sense of humor, brides could get a good deal more fun out of life by promising to obey, and then watching the efforts of their husbands to collect the goods."

American Apples in Berlin.

American apples are seen on every fruit stand and are peddled through every street in Berlin, the price being five cents a pound. Germany consumed about 7,000 tons of our apples during last year.

An Ideal Location

LARGEST IN THE STATE

LINDEN, N. J.

Beautiful and Accessible

2 Miles from Elizabeth, 7 Miles from Newark,
14 MILES FROM NEW YORK

On Main Line Pennsylvania Railroad

Why Lots in these Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors

BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.

BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.

LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW

BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.

BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.

LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT

BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.

BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.

FOR INFORMATION concerning lots in these beautiful Park Cemeteries, and FREE transportation to prospective lot buyers, apply at once to any LEADING UNDERTAKER or offices of the Associations:

WRECK ON ELEVATED.

New York Third Avenue Trains Meet In Fatal Collision.

NEW YORK, May 10.—By a rear end collision on the New York Elevated railway a motorman was instantly killed, one passenger is believed to have lost his life and many more were injured on Third avenue near Fifty-seventh street.

The motor car completely telescoped the rear car. The collision was followed by a burst of flame and a wild rush of the passengers for the doors. The fact that the power was immediately turned off is all that saved the lives of scores of passengers, who tumbled over each other on the third rail after scrambling out of the cars through windows and over gates.

The trains were on the southbound track. The first car of the rear train smashed its way three-quarters of a length through the rear car of the second train, and the exposed wiring set fire to the wreckage. The fire added to the panic. Passengers leaped through the shattered windows, braving the dangers of the third rail, and until firemen and policemen arrived intense excitement prevailed.

With such force did the rear train ram the one in front that the cars were lifted from the tracks and then settled down with a crash. Tottering on the edge of the elevated structure, two cars hung out over the side at an angle of about forty-five degrees, but the coupling held, and they were soon propped up by firemen. So great was the force of the collision that the cars could not be drawn apart, and it was necessary to chop them to pieces.

When the firemen arrived the passengers, many of whom were women, were running about wildly on the elevated structure or were struggling to get out of the cars. Several were injured by leaping from the windows.

Coroner Scholer has ordered the arrest of the conductors of both trains and the motorman of the first train. The coroner declared that a man should have been sent back to flag the second train.

The first train had been held up by repairs at Fifty-sixth street and was at a standstill when the accident occurred.

General Superintendent Frank Hedley of the Interborough Railway company, who took charge of the work of clearing up the wreck, said that the blame must have rested with Cornell. The rear train, he said, was running "empty." The motorman running it, he said, must have seen the train ahead.

Heroic Act May Gain Pardon.

WASHINGTON, May 10.—Lieutenant Commander Braunersreuther, commanding the naval prison ship Southery, has appealed to the navy department to remit the unexpired portion of the sentence of H. Sherrock, seaman, a general court martial prisoner. The commander reports to the department that one of Sherrock's fellow prisoners jumped overboard with a view to committing suicide. Sherrock jumped into the water, seized the man and swam with him until both were picked up by a lifeboat.

Pastor Stricken While Praying.

MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., May 10.—Suddenly and without a moment's warning to a large congregation, whose heads were bowed, Rev. O. R. Newell, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church here, fell stricken with paralysis in his pulpit. Unseen by his flock, for whose welfare he was praying, the pastor pitched headlong to the floor. He cannot recover.

DIAMOND DUST.

The Reform Club team is a Great Scott combination. Three Scotts play on it.

The Olympia Field Club beat the Butternut Juniors by a score of 17 to 7, on Saturday.

Stallings, who played with Alis Club last season, is playing first base for the Morrisville nine.

The Watchung Field Club will play the Mono A. C. team on Watchung avenue, Friday afternoon.

Burch, the Westfield second baseman, has started with the Hudson River League, New York.

Gregan, at second base for Alis, covers a lot of ground and is a safe man in the field and at the bat.

"Kid" Roberts, short stop for Alis, is sure to be popular with the "fans." He is a fast clean fielder and is hitting the ball hard.

Henriques, who played with Alis last year, is playing with the Murray Hills this year. He was in the game against Westfield Saturday.

The Parkway A. C., of Newark, is scheduled to play the Dunellen team at Dunellen on Saturday. It is said that both teams are evenly matched.

Harry Montross is developing into as good a ball player as his brother, Smiling Jimmy. But it's at the other end of the battery—with the West End F. C.

Competent observers say that Warry McLaughlin, who is playing again with the New London team, in the Connecticut League, is improving in his pitching.

Jack Dunn, of the New Yorks, played with the Stars, of Elizabeth, against the Cuban Giants, in Elizabeth Sunday. He played in proper form, and got the crowd.

The Watsessing F. C. has May 21, 28 and 30 (a. m. and p. m.) open. Games with Elizabeth, Plainfield and Rahway teams preferred. J. R. Hook, 264 New street, Newark, N. J.

McGeoy, who occupies centre garden for Alis, has already become a favorite in this city. The way he hit the ball and fielded his position on Saturday, won him great applause.

Richardson, who played with Summit in their opening game, made one of the four hits made by his team and had eleven putouts without an error. He figured in the two double plays made by Summit.

The increased seating capacity at Crescent Oval is a big improvement, as is also the erection of the wire fence. This fence keeps horses and wagons in line and does not interfere with the spectators.

Lauder's great head work in Saturday's game, proved that he is just the one to captain Alis. As one of the team expressed it: "'Billy' can do everything but eat the ball, and he works every man with good results."

It was George Dupee's first game of the season on Saturday when he pitcehd for East Millstone against New Market. His friends are confident that he will bring victory to his team as soon as he gets in condition.

Hopper and Freedburg, who played with Alis last season, were the Summit battery against Chatham, Saturday. The Chatham nine won by the score of 4 to 3. Seven hits were made off Hopper while four were made off Speer.

McArdle, of Fleishman's team, who signed to play second base for Alis early in the season, but who had no intention of playing here, sent a substitute man to Crescent Oval on Saturday. Manager Johnston had no use for him. He remained on the bench during the game.

James M. Beisel, an unexploded phenomenal pitcher, reported to Manager Johnston, of the Alis team, on Saturday, requesting a trial. His only claim to recognition was that he pitched for the Brandywine and Washington, Pa., teams. He was told to put on a uniform and "try" out. It was soon discovered that he had no control of the ball and was allowed to sit on the bench.

It is Roache, who early in the season was engaged to play first base for Alis and who was afterward dropped, that is making a kick about the action of Manager Johnston in releasing him. He contends that he does not have to play ball for a living, that he has plenty of money, but that he is no fool and wants fair treatment. Manager Johnston does not apprehend any trouble from Roache, believing that the matter will be amicably settled.

PROFITS FROM CEMETERY.

Sum of $300,000 Received by the Massachusetts Horticultural Society Since 1831.

So much curiosity was awakened by the statement made at the annual meeting of the Massachusetts Horticultural society that the society had received more than $300,000 from the Mount Auburn cemetery corporation that it was decided to give out an explanation of why the money was paid.

It appears that in 1829 there was not an ornamental cemetery in the world, and several Boston men, including Daniel Webster and Edward Everett, felt the need of a beautifully laid out burial place. By 1831 the idea had taken shape, after having been presented to the Horticultural society, to which all the men belonged.

Seventy-two acres of land, which now forms about the central part of Mount Auburn, was bought, and was consecrated on September 24 of the same year. Friction arose, however, between the cemetery committee and the Horticultural society proper, so that in 1834 the two had to separate.

The terms of the separation provided that the proceeds of the sale of any lots in the 72 acres should be divided between the society and the cemetery committee, one-quarter to the society and three-quarters to the Mount Auburn corporation.

It was thus that the $300,000 has been turned over to the Horticultural society by the Mount Auburn committee.

ROYAL MARRIAGES.

Courtships of England's Scions Are Governed by the King—Veto Power Seldom Used.

King Edward VII. has given his consent to the marriage of his niece, Princess Alice of Albany, to Prince Alexander of Teck.

It seems odd to Americans that an uncle, not a guardian, should have the power to forbid the marriage of his niece. But the king of England has such a power by act of parliament.

This act provides that all descendants of George II., except the issue of princesses married into foreign houses, are incapable of contracting a marriage without the consent of the reigning sovereign.

So King Edward may forbid the marriage of his sisters and his cousins and his aunts and all degrees. Uncles and nephews, no matter how remote, may marry whom they like, if the king coincides, but not otherwise.

What an unspeakable bore it must be to be a king. And what slavery for the kinfolk who cannot bestow their love upon the objects loved. But it is admitted that the law creates no practical inconvenience, since the sovereign is good-natured and doesn't exercise the veto power except in the case of children, or, perhaps, to prevent a politically inexpedient marriage of an heir presumptive.

ENGLAND'S WORST COLONY.

British Honduras, in Central America, Is Away Behind the Times—Ancient History Is News There.

England's worst colony is undoubtedly British Honduras, situated at America's very doors, says the Boston Advertiser. It is a slice of Central America, with a fine seaboard, fringing a large and wealthy country. It is not utilized by Great Britain, and has no regular communication with the mother country. Its only connection with the outside world is by an occasional banana steamer from New Orleans, or a leaky logwood schooner infested with cockroaches. The colonists are a community of hermits, so far as the great world is concerned. They have no cable communication with any part of the globe, and they generally hear of a great event about six months after it has happened.

They celebrated King Edward's coronation on the day originally appointed for it, and did not hear of his illness until weeks later. When at last the king was crowned, his royal subjects in British Honduras were holding intercession services to pray for his recovery. Probably they are now rejoicing over the close of the Boer war, and in a month or two they will be exciting themselves over the Venezuelan blockade.

WHY THE PIANO WAS THERE.

Presence of the Instrument in a Desert Scene Puzzled a London Audience.

A stage heroine who happened at the same time to be an able executant on the piano had to play night after night the same part at a popular theater. She anxiously longed to give the audience a specimen of her musical abilities, but her part in the performance afforded no opportunity for such a display of her powers. But her inventive genius came nobly to the rescue, says London Tit-Bits, and she discovered a place in the action where pianist and heroine might go hand in hand.

When the curtain rose revealing the desert of the Black mountains the spectators beheld, to their amazement, a splendid piano placed at the foot of the rocks. The heroine, with the haste of one pursued, climbed down the rocky path, stopped enraptured at the sight of the piano and exclaimed: "The savages have burned down our cottage, murdered my father and mother and driven away our cattle; but, heaven be praised—they have left me my piano. Music shall comfort me in my distress and, if the ladies and gentlemen permit, I will play them a short selection."

Electric Power.

Less than seven per cent. of the power used in manufacturing plants in the United States is electric.

The committee of fifteen which was appointed by the National Triennial Convention of the Episcopal church at San Francisco in 1901 to consider the advisability of changing the legal name of the denomination has issued an extended report, in which the opinion is expressed that any change at this time is inexpedient. The report is to be submitted to the General Convention, which will assemble in Boston next October. Editor, The Daily Press:

With no intention of making a statement for publication in reference to the Spencer suit against the borough, it seems I have been incorrectly quoted in your last two issues. What I did say was that Mr. Spencer had paid $3,500 in final settlement, and that during the investigation some $6,000 or $7,000 of delinquent taxes had come in, but that I never knew the actual amount of shortage and the coming suit will furnish the facts.

ENTHUSIASTIC AUDIENCE AT THE MINSTREL SHOW

Uproarious Laughter From the Time the Casino Curtain Goes Up in the First Part.

NUMEROUS GOOD SONGS

THE END-MEN'S JOKES ARE MOSTLY LOCAL HITS.

Thomas Muir, John P. Hall and William Doud Come in for Applause—Levee Sketch a Good One.

If anyone among the audience at last night's band concert fund minstrel show at the Casino, went there laboring under the delusion that the minstrel racket was being overworked in Plainfield, he quickly saw his error. From the opening note of the overture of the rough-house retribution visited upon Dr. Graball at the close of the roaring farce, which formed the after-piece, each number was heartily appreciated and generously applauded.

The stage setting for the first part showed a levee scene of ante-bellum days. Gathered about on the steamboat landing was the Black Diamond Quartette who sang "Working on the Levee" with inimitably appropriate gestures. This was followed by the arrival of the steamboat carrying the members of the troupe.

The remainder of the first part took the form of an open air rehearsal on the levee in front of the landing-shed which was surmounted by a sign bearing the legend "Coontown Landing." There were songs by J. P. Hall, Gus Feiring, Harry Blimm, Horace Martin, H. P. Greenwood, J. C. Martin, Will Doud, Oscar Moore, Thomas Muir, and a duet, "The Larboard Watch," by J. C. Martin and Elias Southard, was sung by special request. Thomas DeMeza sang "He was a Sailor." The topical references in two or three of the songs were appreciated keenly as was attested by the rousing applause. Thomas Muir alone was encored half a dozen times.

The end-men's jokes proved decidedly popular also. To appreciate them one should take in the show tonight. As a finale to the first part the whole troupe sang "The Star Spangled Banner," standing; and as the national ensign was hoisted on their steamboat's forward flag-staff they uncovered in salute.

William Redmond, formerly of the Thatcher, Primrose & West minstrels, sang with perfect success a most difficult piece which proved beyond cavil the wonderful range of which his voice is capable.

The popular Galvin brothers, James and John, kept the audience going from one laugh into another with their original creation entitled "Have a Drink." William Murray, whose songs are often heard on the phonograph, sang a coon song and responded to an encore with the latest of Howley and Dresser's hits, a song called On a "Good old Trolley Ride." The chorus of this piece was joined in by Mr. Redmond with fine effect.

Louis Anderson, at one time with Sousa's band, played the cornet with rare feeling as well as faultless technique. Dumphena, the champion club swinger, in spite of having the handicap of a brilliant glare from the chandelier in his eyes, also gave a finished performance.

The after-piece entitled "A Subject for Dissection," caused a storm of laughter by the ridiculous situations which fairly trod on each other's heels. The characters in the after-piece were taken as follows: Dr. Graball, Joseph C. Martin; Willie Doolittle, James Galvin; and Mike O'Hoolahan, John Galvin.

The ushers are those minstrel veterans, the end-men of the Hope Y. M. A. show, Alex. Muir, chief; Benjamin Evans, George Coss, Leonce Texier, Matthew D. Sweeney.

Huge Sum for Mathewson.

President Dreyfuss, of the Pittsburg National League Club, is so anxious to land the pennant this year that he has announced an offer of $35,000 if he can get Mathewson's signature to a three years' contract. "Christy" Mathewson is a brother-in-law of Dr. P. J. Cregar, of this city and is a frequent visitor here.

After the Truants.

Constable Pangborn, of the borough, has a number of truancy cases under investigation which will be vigorously pushed, from present indications. Several other instances of failure to attend school are also under consideration by the authorities.

CO. K USING NEW RANGE

DESCRIPTION OF MILITARY BOYS SHOOTING PLACE IN THEIR ARMORY.

Company K's new armory range in the Abram building was opened for the first time Monday night. The men put in a couple of hours at it, and pronounced it satisfactory. The noise of the firing attracted a crowd of visitors from the street.

The range is seventy-five feet long. The bulls-eye is an inch in diameter, which makes the range, in effect, the same as regulation. There is a big iron plate at the end of the range to take the sting from the bullets.

The range will be used a lot, and the shooting of the men is certain to improve even beyond the high average they now have. Plans for a competitive shoot among the members are being talked of.

FREEHOLDERS ELECT OFFICERS

PLAINFIELDER AGAIN CHOSEN DIRECTOR OF UNION'S BOARD.

Capt. J. Frank Hubbard, of this city, was unanimously re-elected director of the Board of Freeholders at the organization meeting in Elizabeth this morning. Clerk J. R. Ryno and County Attorney W. R. Codington, of this city, were also re-elected. All the nominations were seconded by Democrats. Capt. Hubbard made a brief speech, in which he promised to work during his new term as hard and faithfully as in the twenty-four that preceded it.

The clerk's salary was fixed at $600, and that of the attorney at $300, the same as last year.

The Democrats filed a protest against seating Freeholder Darby, the Mountainside member. They claim that his election was without legality, and that Westfield should have controlled it. The protest was referred to the law committee and the county attorney.

The committee on appropriations was appointed as follows: Freeholders Krouse, Westphal, Brucklacher, Connolly and Woodruff. This committee will meet shortly and report at the next meeting of the Board, which is set for the 26th.

After the session the Board was dined by the newly elected officers, at the Berkley Hotel.

SCHEUER'S NEW BUILDING

STRUCTURE AT NEWARK TO BE MODERN IN APPOINTMENTS.

Plans for the new ten-story building, which is to be erected for the firm of S. Scheuer & Sons, on the site now occupied by the concern, at the southeast corner of Broad and Commerce streets, Newark, are nearly completed, according to an announcement made by a member of the firm, as told in The Daily Press yesterday. It is expected that they will be in shape to enable the architect to ask for bids by the middle of the month, so that the construction work can be gotten under way.

The plans were prepared by Cass Gilbert, of New York, who designed the new courthouse, and they provide for a structure which will cost about $175,000. The building will be constructed of lime stone and brick, the first two stories of stone and the remaining eight of brick, with terra cotta trimmings. It will be as nearly fireproof as modern construction can make it. It will have a frontage of forty-four feet on Broad street and eighty-five feet on Commerce street.

The firm will occupy the first floor and basement for its grocery business, while the remaining floors will be devoted to offices, with, perhaps, a lodgeroom on the top floor.

CHANGES IN BOROUGH CORPS OF TEACHERS

Several New Faces to be Seen in the School Room When the Fall Term Begins.

TO FILL VACANCIES

WHO THEY ARE AND WHERE THEY COME FROM.

Miss Helen T. Stahlberger to Succeed Miss Glass—Miss Bush's Place to be Filled by Miss Grace Bradley—Other Changes.

Superintendent Homer J. Wightman announces a few changes in the staff of teachers of the North Plainfield schools. Miss Susie Glass, Miss Marian Bush and Miss Gertie Snodgrass leave at the end of the term and four new teachers will be present at the opening of the next school year.

Miss Glass will be succeeded in the department of German and French by Miss Helen T. Stahlberger, an A. B. of Syracuse University, now engaged at Stamford, New York. The place of Miss Marian Bush as instructor in English, will be filled by Grace Mc Kennie Bradley, A. B. of Elmira College, at present preceptress in the Windsor, N. Y., High School. Margaret S. Hallock, holder of a B. L. degree from Mount Holyoke and now preparing pupils for Vassar College at Lindon Hall preparatory school, Poughkeepsie, N. Y., takes charge of the courses in Latin and history, vice Miss Gertie Snodgrass.

Cooking, sewing and dressmaking will be taught by Genevieve Denneen, now at South Orange. J. Edmund Skiff, who succeeded Miss Maxfield as musical director when the latter went to fill a similar position in the city schools of Paterson, continues in his present capacity.

No other changes are contemplated; the following named instructors intending to continue their connection with the borough schools: Bertha E. Peek, Beatrice King, Mary A. Yoran, Alberta E. Waterbury, Mary C. Weller, Maude L. Bateman, Verona M. Carpenter, Ruth C. Hill, Sarah Mackey, Elizabeth M. Powers, Edith Ver Planck, Lizzie Southworth, May Butler, Edna French, Emma Tantum, Emily M. Sydenham and Miss L. Holcomb, and M. K. W. Heicher, Robert M. Sander.

PRIZE AD IN DAILY PRESS

LITTLE SCHOOL MASTER'S DECISION IN WEEKLY CONTEST.

"Printers' Ink," known as "The Little School Master in Good Advertising," in its issue of May 11, awarded the prize for the best advertisement published in any newspaper in the United States to J. Stanley Voorhees, of New York, formerly of this city. The advertisement referred to was written by Mr. Voorhees for L. W. Randolph, The City Pharmacy, of Plainfield. It was entitled "Unity of Interest in Prescriptions," and was attractive, strong and convincing—brief, but right to the point. It appeared in The Daily Press on Friday, April 22.

Mr. Voorhees is a member of the firm of Voorhees & Co., specialists in "Your Advertising," 116 Nassau street, New York.

Mr. Voorhees wrote to this paper today: "The Daily Press of Plainfield is accomplishing excellent results for the merchants and business men who advertise in its columns. The Press is progressive, has a large circulation, gives good display to its announcements and brings more business for its advertisers."

S. C. Baker & Son Get Judgment.

Judgment has been rendered for the plaintiffs in the contract case of Salmon C. Baker & Son against The Rushmore Dynamo Works, in Justice Mosher's court. F. J. Blatz, Esq., was the lawyer for the plaintiffs. Clerk Barton, of C. A. Marsh's office, represented the defendants.

Sixty-Four Years Old.

James H. Searing, of Watchung avenue, yesterday celebrated his sixty-fourth birthday quietly at his home. In the evening a birthday supper was served, to which only the immediate members of the family were present, and a pleasant evening was spent.

BOROUGH'S OBJECTION TO NATIONAL DELEGATE

W.W. Howland Mars the Cut-and-dried Programme at G. O. P. Convention.

BAIRD'S DISTASTEFUL

HAMILTON KEAN TAKES HIS BROTHER'S PLACE ON STATE COMMITTEE.

L. A. Thompson is the Somerset County Representative—Former Mayor C. J. Fisk Chairman of Union's Delegation.

Only one hitch marred the cut-and-dried programme of the Republican State convention yesterday, and that came from the North Plainfield delegation. Speaking for the six men in the borough delegation, William W. Howland registered objection to the election of David Baird, of Camden, as a delegate-at-large. Mr. Baird is the party boss in South Jersey.

The objection was unexpected. Mr. Howland spoke briefly, and without direct reference to "Davy" Baird. He said he could not, in his humble judgment, support all four of the candidates named; there was one he could not vote for. He did not mention Baird's name, but the inference was plain enough, particularly when the South Jersey leader received just six votes less than the other candidates on roll-call. Later Mr. Howland said he based his opposition to Baird upon sentiment in his county, which was averse to his election. He said he did not know Baird personally, and only opposed him politically because he did not believe he fully represented the Republican party.

Mr. Howland said:

"I shall be obliged to oppose this motion, as there are several members of the Somerset delegation who are anxious to vote against David Baird, who is accused by them of being no Republican. I deeply deplore the necessity of disturbing the proceedings of the convention, only duty to my constituents and the rights of others compel me to object to electing these delegates-at-large with a viva voce vote."

No reply was made to Mr. Howland's speech.

At the election of State committeemen by the county delegations after the convention in Trenton, yesterday, Hamilton F. Kean was named to succeed his brother, Senator Kean, from this county. L. A. Thompson, of Somerville, was elected for Somerset.

Charles J. Fisk was chairman of the Union County delegation at the convention. Alexander Gilbert was chosen as a Congressional alternate to the National convention.

COMPARING BASEBALL TEAMS

SIZING UP ALIS ALONG SIDE OF WESTFIELD.

Baseball fans here are trying to compare Alis with Westfield now that both teams have played. Some contend that Alis is stronger in stick work than the Westfield colts, but is not up to them in fielding, while others believe that Alis is both stronger at the bat in the field than Westfield. As for Manager Denman's team, it has always been said that in fielding it would be hard to eclipse, but in stick work the members were deficient. The aggregation differs but little from last year and will give a good account of themselves when they meet Alis and the locals will be equally prepared to give Denman's nine a good run for their money. No doubt there will be a surprise in store for Westfield as there was last Saturday. By way of comparison it should not be forgotten that Aeolian was shut out on Saturday for the first time in three years, while their last game with Westfield resulted in their favor 2 to 0. In Saturday's game Aeolian only had one man on third and he remained but a few seconds.

G. W. Edwards Entertainer.

Among the artists and members of the Salamagundi Club, New York, who gave a luncheon Monday to Albert Neuhuys, a Dutch painter of renown, was George Wharton Edwards, of Franklin place. Mr. Neuhuys was en route to the St. Louis Exposition.

—No other store in Plainfield has the variety or quality of vegetables shown by Neuman Bros. The best to be seen here, without doubt. Especially fine Jersey asparagus.

LEAP-YEAR COTILLION AT THE HILLSIDE CLUB

Sixty Members of Local Society Have an Enjoyable Time at the Dance.

VARIETY OF FAVORS

MRS. L. G. TIMPSON AND MISS LUCY OTTERSON LEAD THE COTILLION.

Receiving Party Consisting of Four Men—Supper is Served During Intermission—The Bouquets.

One of the charming social events of the season was the leap-year cotillion given last night at the Hillside Tennis and Golf Clubhouse, under the direction of Mrs. Theodore D. Wilson, Mrs. Arthur L. Otterson, Mrs. Alfred F. H. Streuli and Mrs. Edward M. VanBuren. This committee, assisted by a number of other society women, issued invitations to the men to the number of about thirty, making a company of sixty in all.

The pretty clubhouse was never more attractive, the decorations consisting of apple blossoms and flowers. The scheme was carried into every nook and corner. The committee of women in charge selected these persons to act as a receiving party: Lewis G. Timpson, Arthur L. Otterson, Theo. D. Wilson and Alfred F. H. Streuli. In performing the honors of the evening, the men carried large bouquets of carrots and cauliflower. They served the purpose as well as the more expensive bouquets of roses and caused no end of fun.

Mrs. Lewis G. Timpson and Miss Lucy Otterson were chosen to lead the cotillion and many novel figures were introduced, while Austin's orchestra discoursed one of its most popular programmes. Among these novelties were the "shooting figure," a bit on the Log Cabin Gun Club; "hoople," "golf" and "curtain figures," the last being given with a number of dummies behind it. These unique features were enjoyed thoroughly and kept the crowd in continual merriment.

During an intermission supper was served by the club steward, Mrs. Lena Hellstrom.

Not the least enjoyable of the many features were the favors distributed among the guests. These consisted of paper hats, cigarettes, Japanese umbrellas and fans and powder puffs. The dancing was continued until a late hour and when the guests departed for their homes all agreed that the affair was a decided success and three rousing cheers were given with a will for the women. It is not unlikely that other similar affairs will be given during the season.

M'CREADY SYKES' VOLUME

"POE'S RUN AND OTHER POEMS" SOON TO BE ISSUED.

No volume of poetry exclusively by Princeton students has as yet been published, though now the celebrated epics of McCready Sykes, of Scotch Plains, narrating the valorous deeds of Princeton heroes, are soon to appear in book form. Mr. Sykes is a member of the class of '74 and is connected with "Life."

This volume will be entitled, "Poe's Run and Other Poems," and will contain all of Sykes's Princeton heroics, with illustrations by Booth Tarkington and other Tiger artists.

It has been determined also that the fame of undergraduate poets shall not die, and to this end the verses that have appeared in the Princeton Magazine, the Nassau Literary Magazine and the Tiger are being collected and will be published in book form for private subscription. Raymond Blaine Fosdick, a member of the present junior class, is the compiler.

Manager VanHorn Postpones Game.

George VanHorn, of 35 Summit avenue, is manager of the Watchung Field Club and he would like to arrange games with teams averaging sixteen years.

Somerset's Petit Jury.

FREEHOLDERS HEAR REPORTS

OUTGOING BOARD WINDS UP ITS BUSINESS AFFAIRS SATISFACTORILY.

Reports on the year's work in every department of the county government were handed in at the last meeting of the retiring Board of Freeholders yesterday afternoon. W. A. Westphal, of this city, presented a particularly good report as chairman of the jail committee.

A committee of the board attended the funeral of Freeholder N. W. Bonnell, which was held yesterday afternoon from his home in Springfield. Mr. Bonnell died Sunday. Yesterday's session would have been the last of his term. Peter Meisel was elected to succeed him at the last election.

Today the board meets to organize for the ensuing year. All the present officers, from Director Hubbard down, will probably be re-elected.

ORIGIN OF THE TOWN NAMES

JOHN TAYLOR JOHNSTON'S PART IN NAMING STATIONS.

One of the many embarrassments that railway managers encounter is that of finding names for stations, roadways, trains or colors. The late John Taylor Johnston, when president of the Jersey Central, had a happy faculty of using individual names; from Ellen Dunn, Fanny Wood, Ella Moore, Ella Rose—then Jersey belles—and L. B. Brown, a shore capitalist, Mr. Johnston twisted, respectively; "Dunellen," Fanwood," "Elmora," "Roselle," and "Elberon." I have never heard disparaging remarks from the public of these pretty cognomens, which to the leathern lung brakeman are even restful. A prize of $200 each found names for the "Clover" and "Maple Leaf Lines," and dug up the "Black Diamond Express." Out West and down South they have "Cannon Ball," "Dolly Vardin," "Kattie," "Daisy," "Sun Set" and a train painted purely white known as the "Boston White Line." It was soon abandoned because the Yankees insisted on calling it the "ghost train," and demoralized its patronage.—Newark Evening News.

ANOTHER NEW FOUNTAIN

FOURTH IN THIS CITY TO BE PLACED ON WEST FRONT STREET.

It is expected that the masons will begin the erection of the new fountain on West Front street tomorrow. By the middle of next week the water will probably be flowing. Several days will be necessary to allow the mason work to dry. The new fountain will be located directly in front of George Stevens' office. The water company will run the water into the fountain free of cost.

This makes the fourth fountain established in the city. The largest is in front of the city park. The others are placed on Muhlenburg place, and before Mrs. DeForest's property. The latter was donated by Mrs. DeForest herself.

It would surprise most of the city residents to see how much the three established fountains are used. That most in demand is the one on Muhlenburg place, but even that before the city park—a seemingly out-of-the-way place for a fountain—is used to a surprisingly large extent. It is believed that the new one, situated as it is along the line of steady traffic, will become the most used of the quartette.

HER FOURTH BIRTHDAY.

Little Miss Ruth Burhans, of Westfield, Entertained Friends.

Little Miss Ruth Burhans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Burhans, of Prospect street and Dudley avenue, Westfield, yesterday celebrated the fourth anniversary of her birth, by entertaining a party of friends at her home from 3 to 6 o'clock. The affair was to have been held on the beautiful lawn surrounding her home, but on account of the rain it had to be held indoors. The little ones thoroughly enjoyed themselves in playing games, listening to piano and phonograph selections, and partaking of the bountiful refreshments that were served.

Miss Ruth received a number of pretty and appropriate gifts.

Among those present were: Gladys Dickerson, Lillian TenEyck, Mabel Phillips, Margaret Phillips, Helen Keegan, Mildred Burhans, Ruth Burhans, of Westfield; Ethel A. Searing, of Plainfield; and George Phillips, Jr., and Kenneth Keegan, of Westfield.

MISS GRACE OSGOOD WEDS STEPHEN HAFF

Ceremony Takes Place in All Souls' Unitarian Church in Presence of Many Friends.

FOUR BRIDESMAIDS

REV. A. C. NICKERSON AND REV. ARTHUR H. GRANT OFFICIATE.

Jonas Lie the Best Man—Mrs. Guy Bender Plays the Wedding March—Honeymoon in Washington.

Miss Grace Littlefield Osgood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Osgood, of 17 Myrtle avenue, and Stephen Haff, son of Mrs. Katrina Haff, of Sherman avenue, were married at 8 o'clock last night in All Souls' church, Park avenue, in the presence of a large assemblage of guests, including several from distant points. It was a charming nuptial event and, the fact that it was the second to be celebrated in that church in its history, lent additional interest. The decorations were attractive in their simplicity, there being a pleasing arrangement of apple blossoms about the altar and pulpit platform.

The bride, gowned in white crepe de chine and carrying a shower bouquet of bride roses, was attended by four bridesmaids, her two sisters, the Misses Ellen and Myra Elizabeth Osgood, and Miss Helen Marquis Mills and Miss Eleanor Harley, of Toledo, Ohio. They wore gowns of white lawn and carried pink roses. The best man was Jonas Lie and the ushers, Joseph Otis Osgood, Jr., brother of the bride; Willard Haff, brother of the groom, and Alex. VanOss, all of this city.

While Mrs. Guy Bender, of this city, seated at the organ, was playnig the Mendelssohn wedding march, the bridal party entered the church, the ushers leading. Then followed the bridesmaids and the bride, accompanied by her father, who gave her away in marriage. Preceding up the other aisle were the groom, best man and the officiating clergymen, Rev. A. C. Nickerson, pastor of the church, and Rev. Arthur H. Grant, formerly of Montclair, but now of this city. The entire party met at the altar, where Rev. Mr. Nickerson performed the ceremony, assisted by Mr. Grant.

Afterwards the party retired from the church as the wedding march from Lohengrin was being played. The members together with the immediate relatives returned to the home of the bride's parents, where an informal congratulatory time was enjoyed. Later Mr. and Mrs. Haff departed for Washington, where they will remain two weeks. Upon their return they will reside at No. 8 Craig place.

The bride is an accomplished and highly esteemed young woman. Her father is chief engineer of the Central Railroad of New Jersey. Both she and her husband are active members of All Souls' church, Mr. Haff having been the organist there for nine years. He is engaged in business in New York as a designer.

RECORDING GOLF SCORES.

New System at Hillside Club Meets With Approval.

The new system of keeping scores has been decided a success at the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club. Heretofore, there was a somewhat slip-shod manner of recording the results of the play and it proved unsatisfactory. It would often happen that a player's friend would delegate himself to post the score, while there was more or less carelessness shown in general. Now the Golf committee personally looks after this part of the game.

Every player who is contesting for a prize is obliged to place his score card, attested, in the box provided for that purpose, even though he does not want to post the same on the score card. This helps the committee to keep a correct record of the play. It is taken for granted that the player does not want his score published if he does not post it on the card.

Swackhamer Booked for Speech.

Assemblyman Swackhamer has accepted an invitation to speak at a Democratic rally in Camden. The gathering is under the auspices of the Camden Club, which has not yet fixed upon a date.

Off for Europe.

Alexander Millar, of Madison avenue, secretary of the Union Pacific Railroad, accompanied by his wife, will sail tomorrow for a two months' trip abroad.

Now comes the pesky, poisoned fly,
And he will stay, howe'er you try
To drive him out;
Pollutes each dish before you—
Trails cream and gravy o'er you,

A pestilential fever bringing
From waters green;
"Canst keep them out?" You bet you!
Just come at once and get you

They will beget;

LITERARY.

Norman Hapgood, who knows of what he speaks in dramatic affairs, describes under this title, in the May Magazine number of the The Outlook, the career and character of the present manager of the Metropolitan Opera Company. He tells of a plan which Mr. Conried has had in the establishment of a repertory theatre, and points out how great a service Mr. Conried can do in this direction, as he has already performed and is likely to perform in the management of opera in New York.

"To See the Elephants Shoot the Chutes."

If you want to see them do it get next Sunday's New York World. There's a double page of instantaneous photographs showing just how the elephants shoot the chutes from start to finish. There's "a hello tragedy" that will interest every one who ever asked Central for a number and didn't get it. There's an article about the most remarkable case of double personality ever recorded. A Yale boy has written the story of how Yale, '04, got a look at New York. There's lots of other good reading and the finest photographs ever printed in next Sunday's New York World.

JOURNALISTIC OPINIONS.

QUESTIONS OF THE DAY DISCUSSED BY THE PRESS.

"Music" That Pays.

One collector of curios in Hackensack sends to the Press an estimate on hand organs and crank pianos in New Jersey. He avers there are 700 crank pianos, 200 organs (with and without monkey attachments) and 100 combination crank bands in full feather now. He allows $10 a day revenue to the piano managers, $5 to the organists and $3 to the others, or about $5,200 in the business. "What a windfall for a syndicate!" he writes. "I think I shall promote a trust to control the crank music in this State; there's millions in it!"—"Freeholder" in New York Press.

AMUSEMENTS.

The New York run of "The County Chairman," at Wallack's Theatre, goes on without sign of weakening. An odd feature of it is that although the 200th performance in this playhouse has been passed there has been no souvenir to mark any one of the milestones which usually serve to stimulate the distribution of those mementoes. This shows among other things that Mr. Ade's droll comedy is strong enough to stand by itself without extraneous boosting—and at a time of year when the public mind begins to turn from indoor amusements. Perhaps "The County Chairman" may continue at Wallack's clear through the summer.

Two souvenir performances at the Belasco tomorrow, will make the day memorable. An extra special souvenir matinee will be given that day to mark the 175th time Henrietta Crosman has played "Sweet Kitty Bellairs." But the evening performance likewise will be made the occasion of special celebration, for the appropriate and much desired momentos will be given that night as well as at the matinee. Of course, the sale is especially heavy for this day, and several theatre parties will attend from suburban places. Of special import also is the announcement by Mr. Belasco that next Monday will begin the last weeks of Miss Crosman's present stay in his new comedy of old Bath. Seats now being on sale for the entire engagement, which ends with the two performances of Saturday, May 28.

UP AND DOWN THE STATE

Speaker Boyd Avis has conferred with Architect Moses, of Arnold & Moses, as to the plans which have been prepared for redecorating the Assembly chamber, as authorized by an act of last winter, appropriating $8,000 for that purpose, and for refurnishing the chamber and committee rooms. About $4,000 will be expended on the chamber itself. The plans contemplate the redecoration of the side walls, the removal of the big coat of arms over the speaker's chair to a lower position on the wall, and the placing of the clock under the coat of arms.

—The Lotus Glee Club, composed of George Seymour Lenox, first tenor; G. Morgan Strickett, second tenor; Charles L. Lewis, baritone; W. Stanley Grinsted, bass, and Frank J. Smith, conductor, assisted by Mrs. Minnie Marshall Smith, dramatic reciter, will give a concert at the First M. E. church, tomorrow night. Tickets can be had at L. W. Randolph's drug store.

There's no need to go any further than the New York Journal for a sufficient reason why Hearst is unfit to be President.

That the minstrel show produced at the Casino last night for the benefit of the band concert fund was the best black-face show ever given in this city is beyond any question. The final performance will be given tonight. Don't fail to see it.

"Its conduct of State affairs under the guidance of Governor Murphy has been progressive and courageous." Republican platform.

Too bad that no reference was made to the unusual eagerness of the Legislature to be guided by Mr. Murphy.

HAPPENINGS OF THE LOCAL FRATERNAL ORDERS.

There will be initiation at the meeting of the Shepherds of Bethlehem tonight.

The members of Mizpah Lodge, No. 1, U. O. of I. O. L., are arranging for a strawberry festival to be held soon.

The fellowcraft degree was conferred on several candidates by Anchor Lodge, No. 149, F. and A. M., at its regular communication last night.

"Ladies' Night" will be observed by Watchung Council, Knights of Columbus, Tuesday night, May 17, in the lodge rooms on East Front street.

It is expected that a large delegation from Trinity Commandery, No. 17, K. T., will accept the invitation of the New Brunswick Knights to attend divine services in New Brunswick tomorrow night. The Plainfield Knights will be accompanied by their wives.

CITY JOTTINGS.

—Two new pavilions have just been completed at Asbury Park and on Saturday, May 28, Arthur Pryor's celebrated band will begin the concert season at that place.

—William Ruth, painter and decorator, of New York, has rented E. D. Barret's store, 148 East Fifth street, and on Monday will open a paint store and take orders for painting.

—According to the custom of previous years, excepting when the day falls on Saturday, the majority of the local merchants will close their places of business on Decoration Day.

—A number of Plainfielders visited the late home of Christian Schepflin at Dunellen yesterday, taking a personal inspection of the valuable collection of goods prior to the sale, which begins today and continues tomorrow.

Story of "The Morning After."

Peter Quinn, who was gathered to the municipal hotel when he didn't know the difference between his heels and his head, Monday night, was released under suspended sentence in the city court this morning. Peter says he will be good for the rest of his life.

TROLLEY EXPRESS TIMETABLE

TIME OF ARRIVAL OF JERSEY CITY-TRENTON CARS HERE.

The Public Service Corporation has completed arrangements for its through service between Jersey City and Trenton, which will be inaugurated on Friday. The large new cars having seats similar to those in a passenger coach and much like the variety used in the Philadelphia trolleys. Each car will seat about eighty persons. They are provided with high speed mechanism.

As stated yesterday four cars will be run each way, leaving Jersey City at 8:35 and 11:35 in the morning and arriving here at 11:06 and 2:06. In the afternoon cars will leave Jersey City at 2:35 and 5:35, arriving here at 5:06 and 8:06. Returning, cars will leave Trenton at 8 and 11 in the morning and 2 and 5 in the afternoon, arriving here at 10:54, in the morning, and 1:54, 4:54 and 7:54 in the afternoon and evening.

On the trip westward the cars will reach the Watchung avenue stand just after the regular cars leave there, and returning will leave just before they leave the stand. The through cars will make fairly close connection here with other cars, but it is not intended to have them come in with the other cars. Although not so stated, it is quite likely that regular stops will be arranged and no attempt will be made to handle strictly local travel. This will be left to the other cars.

The through service will be of advantage to lawyers and others having business in New Brunswick and Trenton, as they can make the trip without change from this city. This morning Superintendent Brown took a number of motormen and conductors over the line from Jersey City to Trenton for the purpose of coaching them. One round trip, consuming about ten hours will be considered a day's work for a crew. Every effort will be made to give the public the best of service and so long as it pays it will be maintained.

Royal Arcanum Prosperous.

Plainfield Council, No. 711, Royal Arcanum, is growing steadily in membership, a total of 255 now being enrolled. For some time extra efforts have been made by each member to secure at least one new member. Rev. E. Vicars Stevenson, a member of the Council, will address the members at the meeting to be held on Thursday night, May 26.

Herbert Booth to Speak.

"The Early Christians, Their Struggles and Triumphs," will be the subject of an illustrated lecture given in the First M. E. church Sunday night by Herbert Henry Booth, son of General Booth, of London. There will be 200 life model and twenty-three motion pictures. A similar lecture will be given at the same place on Monday night at 8 o'clock.

GOLD TRAIN WRECK

Million Dollar Express Goes Through Bridge.

ENGINE CREW PERISH IN THE WATER

Mystery Surrounds Extraordinary Speed Approaching Switch—Explanation Silenced by Death of the Engineer.

PORT CHESTER, N. Y., May 11.—Investigations are being made of the mysterious derailment of the Adams Express company's Boston flier at the Byram river bridge, near here, at 1:05 o'clock in the morning, but the two men who had first knowledge of the wreck, the engineer and fireman, are dead. It is certain that the train took a switch at the extraordinary speed of more than fifty miles an hour and subsequently dashed off the track, but why it did not slow up before reaching the switch is a point still unexplained. The train was on the tracks of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad.

Reports that the wreck was caused by an attempt to derail the train by robbers were called absurd by officers of the road. Superintendent Brown of the New Haven road expressed the opinion that the wreck was owing to the engineer's apparent disregard of signals, as he took the switch at a fifty mile rate when he should have slowed down to six miles. There were rumors that the engineer was dead in his cab before the wreck, but Superintendent Brown said that if that was the case the fireman would have known and have taken the throttle.

There was said to have been $500,000 in money and mail and express packages worth $1,000,000 more on the train. There were no passengers. The express messengers in each car had narrow escapes from death.

The dead are Lawrence Keegan, engineer, of Dedham, Mass., and John Howard, fireman, of Boston.

An express messenger and a train brakeman whose names have not been ascertained were injured.

The Adams express train is called "the million dollar train" because it carries more wealth than any other train on the New Haven road. It was made up of a locomotive and seven big cars loaded with valuables.

During the holidays detectives armed with Winchester rifles rode on the cars to protect the millions of dollars' worth of gold and silver coin being shipped from the New York and Boston subtreasuries and the costly goods sent out. The extra precaution of having armed men on the train was also owing to the fact that the New Haven officers had received a letter, ostensibly from a band of train robbers, that an attempt would be made to wreck the express train between New Rochelle and Port Chester.

One attempt was made, but it failed to succeed. When the wreck occurred it was first thought by the police that the robbers had succeeded, and Chief Donovan hurried to the scene with a squad of men, but all they had to do was to guard the wrecked cars containing the money.

The Adams express train was late after passing New Haven, and Engineer Keegan endeavored to make up lost time by running to connect with the boat that transfers it to the Pennsylvania railroad, where it speeds on to Washington. At Port Chester there are several bad curves and innumerable switches, and the train shot over these successfully.

The bridge over the Byram is a solid stone affair, built over a stone arch, and is about seventy feet long.

The bridge contains four tracks, and the river at that point is seventy-five feet wide and very deep.

As the Adams flier approached the bridge at great speed the man in the switch tower near the bridge looked out in wonder and instinctively cried out:

"He'll go crashing into the river!"

A few seconds later the locomotive, which was on the inner right hand track, struck the crossover switch to the outside track, lurched over, made the outside track with the cars groaning behind it and then, leaping clear of the tracks, went clattering and bumping off the ties all the way across the bridge, then slid off sideways from the bridge end and rolled with a roar of escaping steam into the river, dragging its tender in a heap on top of it.

The locomotive lay overturned and a wreck in the clay and gravel below, while the tender lay bottom up, its trucks sticking in the air and its wheels torn off.

The forward car followed the engine and tender and was splintered almost from end to end. Charles Guile, the express messenger in the car, was knocked about, but escaped with a few scratches.

Just before Howard, the fireman, died he opened his eyes and made several efforts to speak, but was unable to.

In one of the last cars was one of Tom Hall's noted race horses from Boston, said to be worth $25,000. The animal was apparently not injured by the shaking up.

The rumor that Engineer Keegan died suddenly of heart failure before he reached the switch and before he checked the speed of his train gained credence in some quarters in spite of the fact that the railroad company was inclined not to credit it. Persons who noticed the train as it passed Greenwich say that it was going at terrific speed, and some have declared that the engineer hung out of his cab window as though he might have been dead then.

FOR STREET WEAR.

Fashions In Motor Coats—Shirt Waist Suits as Popular as Ever.

For automobile and outing wear coats of mohair and shantung are the favorite materials. They are admirably suited for shedding dust. The mohairs have never before been manufactured in such silky materials as this year. The shantungs are heavier than last, and the favorite shades are ash gray, damson blue and willow green. The coat of natural colored silk, however, trimmed with black gold and cream braid, has a very smart appearance.

A CARRIAGE HAT.

Both black and brown taffeta coats are also being turned out for the same purpose.

The latest development of the sleeve frill is the employment of fine lace frills dyed to the exact shade of the gown. Chiffon is also largely used for sleeve frills.

Shirt waist suits will be more popular than ever, and these little one color costumes are infinitely more becoming than the light waist and dark skirt to the woman who is at all inclined to stoutness.

The boat shape turban is again with us and is sure to have many admirers, as it lends itself so admirably to the shaded petal trimming. Rose petals of silk or velvet are particularly effective.

In the picture we have a dainty hat most suitable for carriage wear. It is of horsehair straw, draped with lace and a bunch of pink roses.

HINTS ON ECONOMY.

Last Year's Dresses Can Be Renovated—The Season's Tailor Made.

There is quite a pronounced fancy for simple gauze and muslin frocks for evening wear.

Renovations this season are not hard to make. The principal difficulty comes in the skirts, which require more fullness, and often this may be obtained by the addition of a front panel of embroidery, the same material being used to make the sleeves fuller. Sleeves are often plain to the elbow, where they blossom out into many long frills of lace or accordion plaited chiffon. Wide collars of lace and embroidery cover a multitude of sins, not to speak of the ever present fichu. Skirts may be freshened up by the addition of ribbon ruching put on in a conventional design.

The tailor made frock is likely to prove the most expensive of the entire wardrobe, for it cannot even be partially made at home. The woman who cannot afford to invest much money in hers had better buy it ready made in some good shop.

It is no wonder the best tailor mades are expensive; they show such perfection of cut and such dainty touches in the way of handmade trimmings.

Lace stoles are mounted on chiffon and taffeta and make dainty neck pieces with which to replace the old fashioned boa. Chiffon, crepe de chine and mousseline are made up in dainty fashion with gauged centers of contrasting material. Ribbon is shirred and combined with chiffon and lace to form chic cape effects.

Pongee this season comes dyed in a variety of shades, including gray, royal blue and a rich brown. It makes a pretty coat and skirt costume. A shirt waist costume dresses well and wears well.

The picture represents a [illegible] cream veiling trimmed with [illegible] and circles formed of gallon[illegible].

Sheriff Bell Got Harlem Stakes.

NEW YORK, May 11.—Eight thousand persons journeyed to Morris park to see the card run off. The feature was the Harlem Selling stakes, one mile. Sheriff Bell, third choice, admirably ridden by Cormack, won the Harlem Selling stakes by a head from Unmasked, with Toi San third. Charles Elwood, the odds on favorite, was a bad fourth, finishing lengths behind the winner. Unmasked and Sheriff Bell ran like a team almost the entire distance, Sheriff Bell gaining the decision by a short head at the wire. Cormack was loudly cheered when he returned to weigh out. Colonsay and Hello ran a dead heat in the last race, and Colonsay was disqualified for fouling. The race was given to Hello, with Southerner second and Shorthose third.

Prestgrave Won at Louisville.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 11.—The feature of the card here was the Louisville Steeplechase stake, with $1,000 added. The event was won by Prestgrave, though he was fouled all through the stretch by Falella. Handvice finished third. Golden Link, Tartar and Volantine fell at the second jump, and Jockeys Johnson and Carter were painfully injured. Gaylor remounted Volantine, but did not finish. Jockey Johnson fell off Seminole in the last race and was seriously hurt.

Chess Tourney Results.

CAMBRIDGE SPRINGS, Pa., May 11.—At the conclusion of the tenth round of the international chess masters' tournament played here Marshall, the Brooklyn expert, took the lead by beating Showalter, Janowski not having finished his game with Fox. As this game is at least a draw, Marshall leads Janowski by at least half a point. Lasker remained in third place, Teichmann in fourth, while Marco is a good fifth, this player having to finish a game with Delmar.

Harvard Golf Championship.

BROOKLINE, Mass., May 11.—The qualifying round for the golf championship of Harvard university was played over the Country club course, thirty-four players starting. Fay Ingalls and Pierre Proul were tied for first place, each making an even 80. The other six who continue with the leaders in the match play are H. C. Egan, Henry Davenport, A. L. White, H. B. Hollins, Jr.; F. H. Ellis and W. C. Chick.

Lucian at Delmar Park.

ST. LOUIS, May 11.—Lucian, under a good ride by Jockey Wallace, won the feature of Kinloch's card at Delmar park. Kindred, carrying top weight, made a game effort at the end, but could not quite get up. An old time killing was made on Frank Rice, winner of the fifth race. The horse was backed from tens to sixes and galloped over his field.

McGee Won Kansas Handicap.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 11.—McGee, with 125 pounds up, won the Kansas City Star-Times handicap, $1,200 added, at six furlongs, coming under the wire three lengths ahead of Elfin King. Alma Dufour, an equal favorite with McGee, was third. Three favorites landed first money, while Boone, at 40 to 1, was third in the third race.

Van Ness at Worth.

CHICAGO, May 11.—Three heavily backed favorites divided the honors at Worth, with two second choices and one outsider. Van Ness won his third consecutive victory at the present meeting, when he cantered home in the second race three lengths in front of Mayor Johnson. Censor was third, several lengths in the rear.

Russia Buying Ships.

BERLIN, May 11.—A special dispatch from Hamburg says that the Hamburg-American Steamship company has sold to the Russian government the transatlantic liner Augusta Victoria and that negotiations are proceeding for the purchase of the Pretoria. The Augusta Victoria has already started for Libau.

Missouri at Hampton Roads.

NEWPORT NEWS, Va., May 11.—The battleship Missouri steamed into Hampton Roads, and Captain Cowles came ashore to meet his wife and child. The Missouri will be docked at the shipyards to receive whatever repairs are needed on account of the recent disaster at Pensacola.

LARGEST IN THE STATE

LINDEN, N. J.

Beautiful and Accessible

2 Miles from Elizabeth, 7 Miles from Newark,

14 MILES FROM NEW YORK

On Main Line Pennsylvania Railroad

Why Lots in these Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors

BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.

BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.

LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW

BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.

BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.

LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT

BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.

BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.

Japanese Naval Commander Again After Port Arthur.

NOW A HIGH ANGLE BOMBARDMENT

Communication by Railroad and Wire Reported Re-established With the Stronghold—Another Fight Near Liaoyang.

LONDON, May 11.—A Tokyo dispatch says that a high angle bombardment of Port Arthur by the fleet under Admiral Togo proceeded for several hours yesterday.

A St. Petersburg report says railroad and telegraphic communication with Port Arthur has been re-established. Two trains have come through to Mukden from Port Arthur.

The most important official news from the front for a long period is that telling of the complete re-establishment of railroad and telegraphic communication with Port Arthur, though how it was brought about and whether a battle was necessary to accomplish it are mysteries which Viceroy Alexeieff failed to clear up.

The elation of the authorities, a natural consequence of this achievement, is sobered by official dispatches showing the activity of the Japanese.

The territory between the main road to Fengwangcheng and the river Tayang has been penetrated by such a strong force of Japanese as to lead to the suggestion that another army has landed at Takushan, of which the outside world has not before heard.

According to information received by the general staff the bridge blown up by the Japanese near Port Adams has been repaired, and the permanent way is uninjured.

It is reported that Lieutenant General Stoessel, commander of the military forces at Port Arthur, has successfully engaged and driven off the enemy. The general staff explains the withdrawal of the Japanese from the railroad as being either due to pressure from General Stoessel or to the forces left by General Kuropatkin at Kaiping and other points on the railroad.

The strength of the Japanese force landed at Pitsewo, it seems, was overestimated, and either it was not strong enough to take charge of the railroad or it moved eastward along the littoral to effect a junction with the Yalu army.

A Shanhaikwan dispatch says reports have reached there of a serious action between Russian and Japanese troops south of Liaoyang. It is said that the Russians are retreating.

A steamship that has arrived at Chemulpo reports seeing twenty-four Japanese transports loaded with soldiers off that port, which is about eighty miles south of the mouth of the Yalu. The troops were not going to disembark at Chemulpo, but were bound for some other point. The steamship also passed four other transports off the western coast of Korea.

Persons who have arrived at Chefu from Newchwang say that the Russians probably evacuated the place Monday night. Many of the inhabitants had already departed, and those who remained intended to go. The forts were inactive, though guns were still left mounted in them.

Three thousand bandits were camped outside the city walls, ready to begin looting as soon as the soldiers had gone. There were also many foreign camp followers waiting for the evacuation of the town.

Lieutenant General Sakharoff, commander of the First Siberian army corps, in a telegram to the general staff at St. Petersburg, says that the Japanese having occupied Fengwangcheng are remaining there and are making reconnoissances of the main road to Liaoyang and both flanks of the road.

General Sakharoff also reports that the Japanese have occupied Huantiangsia, thirty miles northeast of Fengwangcheng.

Our Warships at Chefu.

WASHINGTON, May 11.—It is said that the two United States warships which have been ordered to Chefu will act under the instructions suggested by the American minister and the consul at Newchwang. It is believed to be desirable not to advance the ships from this nearest neutral port into the theater of war without very grave reasons. The captains of the ships therefore will communicate with Minister Conger, who in turn is expected to communicate with Consul Miller at Newchwang, though how he is to do this in the event that telegraph lines are broken is not suggested here.

Report That Port Arthur Is Open.

WASHINGTON, May 11.—Count Cassini, the Russian ambassador, has received a dispatch from St. Petersburg saying that Viceroy Alexeieff telegraphed the emperor that railroad communication with Port Arthur was restored during the night and that the telegraph line has been repaired.

Bullet Found In Wentz's Body.

BRISTOL, Tenn., May 11.—After D. B. Wentz, brother of Edward L. Wentz, son of a Philadelphia millionaire, whose body was found at Big Stone gap, Virginia, after a search covering many months, had arrived here an inquest on Wentz's body was opened this morning. A bullet has been found in his body.

Schooner Went Under In Squall.

BALTIMORE, May 11.—The maritime observer at Cove point, Maryland, reports during a thunder squall a small bay schooner capsized and sank off the station. The crew was picked up by a fishing steamer and proceeded to Baltimore.

A Trust Company is always present.
It does not change its residence.
It is never sick.
It is never out of town.
It is never away on business.
It never takes a vacation.
It cannot die.
It is always ready to act in discharge of its obligations.

These are but a few of the many reasons that make a trust company more desirable than an individual trustee.

SPORTING NEWS.

DIAMOND DUST.

The Mono A. C. will play the Laurel A. C., of Bound Brook, on the Myrtle avenue grounds tomorrow afternoon.

If possible the baseball fans would like to see Manager Johnston, of Alis, arrange a game with one of the big college teams before the season closes. An opposing team of this class would attract a large crowd to Crescent Oval.

The Murray Hills, of New York, who defeated Westfield Saturday, 7 to 1, were defeated at Trenton on Monday by the Y. M. C. A. team, 7 to 3. The same battery performed for the Murray Hills, but Bliss was not so effective as at Westfield.

Manager Hand, of the Scotch Plains baseball team, announces the following schedule for the balance of the month: May 14, Westfield at Westfield; May 21, Garwood A. C. at Scotch Plains; May 28, Aeolians at Scotch Plains; Decoration Day, a. m still open; afternoon, the strong Celluloid team, of Newark, will be the attraction.

There has been talk that Manager Johnston would land Barry, of the Murray Hills, to play a field position for Alis in place of Griffin, putting the latter on the bench as a change pitcher. Reasons for this change are given that Griffin is not so strong with the stick as the rest of the team. This report, however, is not confirmed.

GOLF.

The active season at the Park Golf Club will begin on Saturday with the weekly competitions for the President's and Park Golf Club cups. Last season these competitions were popular among the members and no doubt will be equally so this year.

YOUNG TOURISTS' RELEASED.

Panhandlers Allowed to Go by City Court This Morning.

Sentence was suspended on Thomas Sheckley and John Chapman, the brake-beam tourists who were taken from the front of a Philadelphia express Monday afternoon, in the city court this morning. They flitted westward without delay, ostensibly to reach Peoria, Ill., where they are supposed to come from.

They are the queerest pair the police have entertained for some time. They were fully equipped with time tables and road maps, and besides this unbound Bullinger outfit they displayed a carefully-kept record of places visited.

TO PRESENT ANTIGONE.

North Plainfield High School Pupils to Appear in Theatricals.

"Antigone," one of the plays written by Sophocles, is being made the subject of a deal of concientious drilling by the members of the senior class of North Plainfield High School. This is the most ambitious effort in class theatricals yet made by the young amateur Thespians and in recognition of difficulties confronting them in its production they began rehearsing about the middle of the term under the skilful coaching of Miss Marian Bush and Miss Gertie Snodgrass.

Debate Negro Suffrage.

The Young People's Club of Mt. Olive Baptist church, has prepared a notable programme for an entertainment to be held tonight. # TO OPEN A STAMP STORE

MUTUAL CONCERN TO BE CONDUCTED BY PLAINFIELD MERCHANTS.

The co-operative stamp company, organized by the merchants last week, met last night to complete final details of the organization. It was decided to open a store early next week. Half of the art store in the Y. M. C. A. building will be used.

Charles Shupp was elected to the board of directors. The local store is a branch of the one in Elizabeth, and representation from here is limited to the board of directors. At the first of the year the representation from here will be increased, on the basis of the stock purchased.

A number of new members were elected, and the merchants now in the company number between forty and fifty, about four-fifths of all those in town.

Youth's Narrow Escape.

Charles Smalley, eleven years old, of Westervelt avenue, had a narrow escape from serious injury while riding his wheel at the corner of East Front street and Watchung avenue, yesterday afternoon. He was going along west on Front street and in turning one side to escape running into a Great Dane, he collided with the Plainfield Hygeia Ice Company wagon, No. 11. The lad made a dive between the team of horses, landing beneath the wagon. While he got off with some cuts and bruises, his wheel was damaged considerable. Kenneth Robbie, boys' secretary at the Y. M. C. A., was nearby and he assisted the lad to Hodge's pharmacy, where proper treatment was given.

Ministers in Baseball.

Over in Plainfield, where the baseball fever is contagious, the ministers and the physicians have organized ball teams and will meet on the diamond. There will be an admission charged and the proceeds will go to a hospital. Now we will hear the advocates of Sunday baseball declare that if the ministers like baseball and can find time during the week to indulge in the sport, why should the men who are employed in the factories all of the week be deprived of the privilege of enjoying a game on Sunday, the only day that they have any leisure time?—New Brunswick Home News.

SIDE LIGHTS ON TIMELY TOPICS NOTED IN PASSING.

Relative to the decree of Pope Pius X, concerning church music, Bishop O'Connor, of Newark, said the other day: "The holy father wishes to eliminate female voices from the choirs This has practically been put into effect in Rome, but it is, perhaps, a simpler matter there than it is here. There they have many priests and trained choir boys. It will take a long time to effect the desired reform in the church in the United States. Our choirs have been composed mostly of women, and we have come to be almost entirely dependent upon them. It means the introduction of boy choirs." Bishop O'Connor was asked if he had taken any steps toward enforcing the encyclical in his diocese. "I have not had time to do so," he replied. "I shall have to look the ground over. I cannot say that I disapprove of women's voices in the choir, but the desire of the head of the church will, of course, always be regarded."

POLITICAL NOTES.

Cornelius N. Bliss, of New York, has not been offered and has not accepted the chairmanship of the Republican National Committee. This announcement, coming with authority from the White House, disposes at least for the present of the rumor that Mr. Bliss went to Washington to receive the tender of the place mentioned from the President. Mr. Bliss will, it is believed, continue as treasurer of the commission, a place he has filled to the entire satisfaction of the party managers.

GEN. BOOTH'S SON TO DELIVER A LECTURE

Heroism of the Early Christians, Subject for Herbert H. Booth, Salvation Leader.

IN FIRST M. E. CHURCH

TO APPEAR SUNDAY AND MONDAY NIGHTS, MAY 15 AND 16.

Brother of Emma Booth Tucker and Ballington Booth—A Large Company to Enact Some Scenes.

Herbert Henry Booth, a son of General William Booth, the founder of the Salvation Army, will speak in the First Methodist Episcopal church, Sunday and Monday evenings, May 15 and 16. The religious zeal and popular eloquence which have distinguished his father, the General, his talented sister "LaMarechale" Booth-Clibborn and Emma Booth Tucker, and his brother Ballington, mark Herbert Booth as one of the foremost preachers and lecturers in the English speaking world. Crowded audiences have greeted him everywhere during his present tour of America.

True to the family habit for doing things in novel and striking ways, Herbert Booth has dedicated his talents to the work of giving the truths of Christianity to the public in the form of pictorial and dramatic representations. He has trained a large company of actors to enact the most impressive scenes in connection with the founding of Christianity, such as the events in the lives of the Apostles, the persecutions under the Roman Emperors and the triumphs of the martyrs.

The scenes thus faithfully reproduced have been photographed, many of them in moving pictures, and are thrown upon the canvas by a powerful lantern to accompany eloquent words of the speaker. The result is strikingly impressive.

The first part of Mr. Booth's lecture on the "Heroism of the Early Christians," will be given next Sunday evening in connection with the anniversary exercises of the Epworth League. The second part of the lecture will be given in the same place on Monday evening.

HEPTASOPHS IN LETHARGY

CAN'T COAX MEMBERS TO ATTEND CONCLAVES IN THIS CITY.

If the deputy and a quorum will attend the meeting, the officers of the Heptasophs will install officers on May 19. The installation has been held back for months on account of the impossibility of getting a quorum together.

The organization, in respect to its apparent deadness, is probably the strongest in the city. For its moribund character is not even a little bit more than apparent. The organization is one of the strongest financially in the city, and some of the most prominent men here belong to it. But the idea of attending its meetings never seems to enter the heads of more than two or three of those on the membership books. They send their dues with a regularity that would be welcomed in many a bustling lodge, but they are as unlikely to attend meetings as to go to the Desert of Sahara. Owing to the settled peculiarity of the members in this respect the last election could not be held. The old officers went over in default of an election, and they are to be re-installed for another year—if they can be induced to come to the meeting.

Also, if enough other members turn out to make a quorum—and if the deputy can be coaxed into appearing at the same time. None of the members are sanguine of holding an installation as planned, but some of them are hopeful.

Suing Jersey Central.

A bill has been filed in the United States Court by George H. Pierce, of Newark, for Caleb N. Devinney, of Philadelphia, asking an injunction restraining the Central Railroad of New Jersey from using the automatic scoop for taking up water from a tank in the middle of the tracks while the train is in motion.

Y. M. C. A. Men's Meeting.

Rev. Gideon M. Shott, of Scotch Plains, will speak and Mrs. F. M. Ward, contralto, of the choir of the First Baptist church, will sing at the Y. M. C. A. meeting on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

FORESTERS' THIRTIETH YEAR

ANNIVERSARY TO BE MARKED BY THE INITIATION OF 150 CANDIDATES.

A meeting commemorative of the thirtieth anniversary of the institution of the Independent Order Foresters, will be held at the Casino, on Tuesday night, May 24. It is being planned to initiate 150 candidates and the speaker of the evening will be Dr. W. H. Montague, former secretary of State and minister of agriculture of the Dominion of Canada, who was also a former member of the House of Commons. He is a gifted and eloquent orator and it is hoped that every Forester in this vicinity may hear him.

A number of tickets have been provided for each Court in this city and neighboring towns for the friends of the members. A fine programme, in charge of Prof. Throop, of New York, will be presented. High Chief Ranger W. J. O'Brien, of Jersey City, will preside and other prominent Foresters will be present.

SECOND NIGHT OF MINSTRELS

J. P. HALL SINGS "HANNAH" AND RECEIVES A BOUQUET.

The band concert minstrel fund troupe gave its final performance at the Casino last night and edified an audience of goodly proportions. In order to allow the spectators to leave earlier, a portion of the second part was eliminated and one number, the duet "Larboard Watch," was also dropped from the first part. J. P. Hall's song, "Hannah," was encored and at the close of the first two verses of it a handsome bouquet of flowers, the tribute of four or five young women friends of North avenue, was carried up the aisle and handed to him across the footlights. "Down on the Farm," by Gus Feiring and Harry Blimm's song, "Save Your Money," were also well received. H. P. Geenwood sang "Buzzin' Around," which was encored, as was Joseph O. Martin's solo, "Rocked in the Cradle of the Deep."

Harry Blimm related the cause of breaking off his engagement to "Melind Johnsing." A solo, "The Salt of the Sea," was most acceptably sung by Oscar Moore. Will Doud sang "Wise Old Owl." One stanza of which follows:

"In Plainfield now its come to pass, hoo
The Public Soakus holds us fast, hoo
The trolley cars are old and bare, hoo
And for gas we get hot air, hoo
And if you complain, why what do you gain?
Our protest they will not hear
One thing beside coal that they wont control
That is the Plainfield beer.
We laugh ha ha, we laugh ho ho,
and laughingly we cry
'Aint they the wise old owls, they don't hear our mournful howls
And the president just laughed
When he thought of his graft,
The solemn-looking wise old owl."

Tom DeMeza had some new steps in the dance between the verses of his song, "He was a Sailor," which kept the people guessing part of the time. Louis Anderson opened the revised second part with a cornet solo. William Murray gave two coon songs and responded to a second encore with "A Good Old Trolley Ride," and the Galvin brothers in a new comedy turn.

Watch Out for This Man.

One Michael J. Kiernan, alias Capt. James Sherman, alias Capt. John Semple—using each name at a different place to avoid detection—an Irishman six feet tall, broad chested, who has served time in New York and is now a fugitive from justice, is at the present time going over New Jersey collecting fraudulently in the name of the U. S. Volunteer Life Saving Corps.

STATE RANGE ARRANGEMENT

GENERAL ORDERS FOR SEASON ARE JUST NOW ISSUED.

Co. K, the local militia, made an enviable record last year on the State rifle range at Sea Girt, capturing the regimental prize, as well as one offered by Elston M. French. In addition individual members won distinction on the range by expert shooting. The members are just as eager this year to maintain this record and every effort will be made in this direction, under the leadership of Captain Martin.

Thomas S. Chambers, assistant adjutant general, has issued the general orders covering the use of the range for the season. The range will be open from May 1 to September 30, 1904, for practice of the State militia, and from June 25 to August 24 for the practice of the National Guard. Application must be made to Brigadier General Bird W. Spencer, inspector of rifle practice, for assignment of dates for practice of the respective organizations. While on the range all members of the National Guard or State militia are subject to the orders of the officers in command to whom they must report.

Transportation will be issued on application to the quartermaster-general to the extent of the appropriation allowed, and ammunition will be issued by the quartermaster-general upon the proper requisition of the inspector general of rifle practice. Officers will be given an opportunity to qualify with the revolvers at times when their services are not required to command and instruct their men. Officers detailed for duty at the camp of instruction in rifle practice must be fully posted in their duties as instructors and have qualified as sharpshooters. Surgeons must remain on duty at all times while any of their command is on the range.

CASE THROWN OUT.

Anna Jones Failed to Appear Against John Sadler in Court.

As a result of Anna Jones' ignorance of legal procedure regarding the appearance of the principals in person in pressing a charge, her case against John Sadler, of West Front street, had to be thrown out of court by Recorder Doud last evening. The woman, who is employed as cook in a Prospect place household, swore out a warrant for Sadler's arrest yesterday, charging him with using obscene language, and threatening her with bodily injury.

Marshal Weiss had the document endorsed by Justice Nash and Detective McCarthy, in whose hands it was placed, picked up his man on the street and turned him over to the North Plainfield officials. When arraigned at 7 o'clock last evening, Sadler stated that both charges were untrue. Upon this Recorder Doud called for the complainant in the case. There was a woman there to press the charge all right, and the name was Jones too, but as she was only a sister of the original complainant, the Recorder refused to hold the prisoner any longer and threw the case out. It appeared that Anna had a "date" to cook supper at her place of employment and desiring to hold down her job as well as get satisfaction out of Sadler, she had secured the services of her sister.

MRS. M. C. COE DEAD.

Former Plainfielder Passes Away Quietly.

Word has been received of the death of Mrs. Mary Cleveland Coe, widow of the late Rev. James Roger Coe, which occurred at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. W. H. Van de Carr, at Stockport, N. Y., on April 14. Mrs. Coe was a resident of Third place, this city, for five years, prior to 1900, living there with her son, George J. Coe, now of New York. She was well advanced in years and her death was sudden.

Debate Negro Suffrage.

Prof. G. W. Hayes, president of the Virginia Theological Seminary, will speak at the Mt. Olive Baptist church tonight on the subject: "The Present Condition of the Race and Its Future Possibilities." There will also be a debate between Prof. F. Blair, of Georgia, and Rev. E. N. Daniels, of New York, on the subject: "Resolved, That the Disfranchisement of the Race is Advantageous to It."

Bound for Naples.

Miss Isabel Tweedy and her sisters, the Misses Mary L. and Florence Tweedy, of Crescent avenue, are booked to sail today in the steamship Prinz Adelbert, bound for Naples.

—The borough is at present totally free from contagious diseases.

FAIR LITIGANTS REACH SETTLEMENT

Big Sum of Money Reported to Have Been Paid to the Nelsons.

EXACT TERMS SECRET

$1,500,000 IS UNDERSTOOD TO BE THE AMOUNT.

Reasons for the Settlement, After Referee Decides Against Contestants, Made Public by the Lawyers.

Ending many months of litigation and negotiation, the contest over the big estate left by Charles L. Fair, who was killed with his wife in an automobile accident in France in August, 1902, was settled yesterday. The estate is valued at something like $7,000,000. Of this, Mrs. Hannah Nelson, and William B. Smith and Abram Nelson, her sons, are said to have received $1,500,000 to divide among them. The exact terms of setlement were not made public, but it is announced that the Nelsons are quite satisfied with the amounts.

The referee who took testimony in the case found that Mrs. Fair died before her husband. He recommended judgment for the defendants, Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt, Jr., and Mrs. Hermann Oelrichs, the sisters of Mr. Fair. Then the attorneys on both sides got together and consented to waive the filing of the referee's report for the customary eight days, and yesterday they went before Justice Bishop in the Supreme Court and consented to sign the judgment as recommended by the referee.

The reasons for the settlement as set forth in a statement issued by the lawyers were many. In the first place, the technical obligation of fraud in the complaint was extremely distasteful to both Mrs. Vanderbilt and Mrs. Oelrichs. It was charged that they withheld the information that the estate was valued at $7,000,000, and that they led Mrs. Nelson and her relatives to believe they were getting a big share of it when the California settlement provided the paying over of $185,000 to Mrs. Nelson and her sons on condition that they would release all further claims to the estate. The fact of the matter was that neither Mrs. Oelrichs nor Mrs. Vanderbilt knew just what the estate was valued at, and merely did what they were told to do in the matter—signed papers. Besides, the courts might finally decide that Mr. Fair died before Mrs. Fair, and this would give all the estate to the Nelsons as next of kin to Mrs. Fair, inasmuch as Fair had made a will in his wife's favor.

The plaintiffs, on the other hand, were moved to make a settlement because they were satisfied with the new terms offered. In addition to this the conviction of their witnesses Lucien Mas and Alfred J. Moranne in France for perjury, if affirmed, would weaken the plaintiffs' contention that Fair died before Mrs. Fair. And should the Hourdeses persist in refusing to testify, it would be difficult for Mrs. Fair's relatives to prove survivorship by eye witnesses.

In a formal statement issued last night, the lawyers said:

"Mrs. Nelson and her family, in consideration of a substantial sum to be paid to her for herself, her family, her counsel fees and disbursements, by Mrs. Oelrichs and Mrs. Vanderbilt, agreed to make no further opposition to the settlement of Mr. and Mrs. Fair's estates, but to permit the same to be distributed to Mrs. Oelrichs and Mrs. Vanderbilt. They also further agreed, as soon as these estates had been distributed, to permit the defendants to file a supplemental answer in the New York action and consented to the entry of a judgment therein in favor of the defendants and establishing the survival of Mr. Fair.

"In pursuance of this arrangement, on April 16, 1904, a decree was entered at San Francisco settling Mr. Fair's estate and distributing the same to Mrs. Oelrichs and Mrs. Vanderbilt. On May 7, 1904, a similar decree was entered there respecting Mrs. Fair's estate.

"Upon the settlement of these two estates, the supplemental answer was filed in the New York action, and on May 11, 1904, Justice Bischoff entered final judgment therein in favor of the defendants and decreeing that Mr. Fair survived his wife.

"By common consent of all persons interested in the matter, the sum paid in final settlement of this case will not be made public."

Friends of the Nelson family at New Market said today that the story is greatly exaggerated and that it is "hot air" originated by "Mayor Bill" Smith.

CIRCUS HAS COME TO TOWN

WELSH BROTHERS' GREAT SHOW ATTRACTS BIG CROWDS AS USUAL.

All roads seemed to lead to West Fourth street and Darrow avenue this morning. Young and old alike gathered there to witness the workingmen and various attaches of the Welsh Brothers circus erect their big tents and outfit. The circus came to town at a very early hour over the Central Railroad, coming from Somerville, where the show played yesterday to fine business both afternoon and night. Upon the return of the parade, numerous free shows were given on the grounds, which included a unique mid-air display by "Aeristo," entitled the "Aerial Flop," this free exhibition will again be repeated at 7 o'clock this evening.

Of the performance given in the big tent this afternoon, nothing but words of praise can be spoken of it. From the beginning to the finish it is an excellent performance. The acts that commanded special attention were given by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cousins, a duo of remarkable bare-back riders, their work is out of the ordinary, and their well groomed horses were beautiful to behold. The Miles Orton family of equestrians in a series of tandem and riding acts are also extra clever. The Brothers Melvin, three acrobatic young men, give a strong finished exhibition of acrobatic exercises. The other displays include: Santell, in herculaen feats; The Demacos, trapezists; the Flying Valenteens; Mackey and Clark; Madden & LeBar; George Colby; the Orton Sisters; Madame Collette; Miss Lottie Aymar and a full complement of clowns and all kinds of general circus performers.

Another performance will be given this evening starting at 8 o'clock, when a full programme will be given, no cutting of the show being allowed, as the Welsh Brothers make a feature of the night performance.

Tomorrow the circus will appear at Elizabeth.

SCHEPFLIN TREASURES SOLD

PAINTINGS OBTAINED AT A LOW FIGURE BY METUCHEN MAN.

All the household goods, including art treasures, belonging to the late Christian Schepflin, were sold at auction in the Dunellen home of the dead merchant yesterday afternoon. Low prices prevailed, the pictures going at particularly cheap figures.

It was one of the biggest sales ever held in this section as far as attendance went. More than 300 bidders were present, from New Brunswick, Bound Brook, Plainfield and other smaller places about here.

Interest for the curious naturally centered around the paintings, about which a good deal had been said about the countryside during Mr. Schepflin's life. His gallery contained about a dozen fine works, valued roughly at $15,000. They were bought by Charles Bloomfield, of Metuchen, for $1,600. There is a mortgage of $1,500 on the paintings, which Mr. Bloomfield assumes. The mortgage was due last January.

After the sale an effort was made to learn what Mrs. Schepflin's plans were, but all information was refused. It was said that she desired nothing made public at this time.

GOLF HANDICAP.

The Official List Includes Names of Many Prominent Plainfielders.

An advance copy of the official handicap list of the New Jersey State Golf Association shows many local players among the lowest handicaps. The committee has handicapped 597 men at 17 and under. Frank O. Reinhart leads with a handicap of 4. There are no Plainfielders in the handicap of five but J. Whitney Baker is given six. He formerly had eight. The other local golfers are rated as follows: J. H. P. Wharton, seven; Robret Abbott, W. L. Glenney, N. Pendleton Rogers, Jr., Howard deP. Wright, Dudley Barrows, Frank C. Talmadge, A. R. Fisk, eight; C. W. Abbott and R. M. Sandford, nine; C. W. Fisk and Willard Wadsworth, ten.

Echo Social's Dance.

The shirt-waist dance to be given in I. O. T. Hall tomorrow night, is under the auspices of Eugene O'Reilly and not the club.

—Finer vegetables or fruit, in wider range of variety, than those shown by Neuman Bros. cannot be seen in this city. Worthy of special note are their strawberries and Jersey asparagus—they reached the pinnacle of cultivation.

CEDAR BROOK CLUB ACTIVE

TENNIS PLAYERS PREPARE FOR THIS SEASON'S MATCHES.

Members of the popular Cedar Brook Tennis Club are getting their courts on East Seventh street in readiness for the season's play. This week a large roller has been used with good effect and it is believed that inside of another week play will begin. Charles H. Hall has been made chairman of the grounds committee and associated with him are Frederick J. Pope and Louis V. Wilson. Vice President Lucius B. Koons is chairman of the tennis committee. He will act with the officers of the club in arranging the schedule for the season. It is hoped that a series of matches may be arranged with the players from the Park Club and the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club, as well as some of the minor clubs in this city and vicinity. Last season the club turned out some very fast players and good scores were made in competition. The season is most promising for this organization.

GUM PRINTS IN PHOTOGRAPHY

A. B. LUCE TO GIVE DEMONSTRATION AT CAMERA CLUB ROOMS.

A. B. Luce, a member of the Plainfield Camera Club, will give a demonstration of gum printing in the rooms on Tuesday night. Members of the club and any person interested in this department of photography will be made welcome. Although not much is heard about the work of the Camera Club, interest in photography is maintained all the time and the members are constantly experimenting with a view to making the art a pleasure for all. No doubt in the near future arrangements will be made for a demonstration of prints made during the past year. This would tend to increase the interest and membership of the club.

CROSS AND THE JUDGESHIP

OPPORTUNITY PRESENTED KEAN TO REPAY STATE SENATOR.

State Senator Joseph Cross, of Elizabeth, who it is now generally believed to be the choice to succeed the late U. S. Judge Kirkpatrick, has never hesitated to advance Mr. Kean's interests at all times. Senator Dryden owes as much of a debt of gratitude to Senator Cross, for, after a long and exciting caucus, Senator Cross cast the deciding vote for Mr. Dryden.

Under these circumstances it is argued by Mr. Cross's friends that if it is in the power of the two United States Senators to secure the appointment for him is should be his. There is this condition that Senator Kean imagines confronts him in Union County, and that is while he can rely upon getting Mr. Cross's vote, he is not sure of getting the vote of the Senator who might succeed him in Union.

It is argued by the Union County men and by leaders in other counties that Senator Kean will have sufficient votes to elect him, even if Mr. Cross's successor should be a Democrat or one not in harmony with him.

Whatever the outcome is to be, it will be known in a few days, as it is the intention, it is said, of the United States Senators to go over the situation in Union County thoroughly immediately after convention is over, and settle the matter as soon as possible, so as not to retard the workings of the court by leaving the appointment open.

United States Senator John Kean said yesterday: "I do not know who will be appointed United States District judge to succeed the late Judge Kirkpatrick, nor when the appointment will be made."

It is generally understood, however, that President Roosevelt will appoint whoever Senator Kean selects. State Senator Cross, of Union, will be chosen, it is thought, unless political exigencies might require that a South Jersey man be named.

Candidates for Foresters' Order.

Court Plainfield, No. 1144, Independent Order Foresters, will meet tomorrow night and initiate a large number of candidates and take action on a number of applications. Deputy Supreme Chief Ranger W. Y. Bingham, of Elizabeth, will be present to examplify the unwritten work. There will be several matters of unusual interest to consider and the attendance of every member is desired. This Court is growing rapidly in membership and is considered one of the strongest in the State.

BOULEVARD THROUGH AN ATTRACTIVE SECTION

Myrtle Avenue Extension Completes a Thoroughfare of Much Beauty.

BRIDGE OVER BROOK

AVENUE TO BE BUILT IN MODERN FASHION.

Common Council Performs Its Duty—To be Open as Far as Compton Avenue—To Begin Work Soon.

The benefits to be derived from the opening of Myrtle avenue into the city, where a boulevard will be opened as far as Compton avenue, are not to be estimated at present. The Common Council has taken such action as will make this improvement in the city through a strip of land now idle and yet believed to be one of the best in the city. By the laying out of Myrtle avenue, for that will be the name of the avenue, when completed, there will be an almost straight and continuous thoroughfare into North Plainfield, through an attractive section of the city and borough.

One thing that was largely instrumental in bringing about this improvement was the desire of many for a thoroughfare away from the trolley, making it possible for persons to drive their spirited horses without fear of accident. With the constant and ever-increasing travel along West Front street, there is today little opportunity for the lover of horses to enjoy a drive. The automobile is not afraid of the trolley, in fact the auto and the trolley are considered to be in the same class, but with horses it is different.

In opening up this avenue in the city it will be necessary to cross Green brook at an angle and this will necessitate a bridge, which there seems to be no doubt but what the Freeholders of both counties will be willing and ready to vote for at the proper time. According to the plans the avenue will be amply wide and will be built in a modern manner. The Council some weeks ago appointed commissioners to adjust the matter of benefits and damages to be allowed the few owners of property affected in the city. This work has been completed and little now remains before the actual work of laying out and opening the avenue is started.

Following this improvement will come the building of residences and it is understood that already plans are in contemplation for the erection of fine dwellings in that now uninhabited section. This is sure to provide homes for many families desirous of living in a quiet section of the city and borough, yet being close to the railroad station and the trolley and not even too far off to walk to the business section of either municipality.

F. H. MARTIN ASST. PASTOR

PLAINFIELDER BEGINS WORK AT DOVER PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

F. H. Martin, of this city, who has been engaged in evangelistic work, has accepted a call to the assistant pastorship of the Memorial Presbyterian church, Dover, Morris county, and will enter upon his work Sunday. He conducted his first service last night, when he had charge of the meeting at the Crystal Street chapel, connected with the church. There are many departments of work in this church of which Rev. Dr. W. W. Halloway is the pastor, and success is predicted for Mr. Martin in his new field.

Going to Mt. Holyoke.

Among the graduates at the Classical School for Girls, Fifth avenue, New York, whose commencement was held Tuesday afternoon, was Miss Marion Dwight, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Dwight, of Mt. Morris Park, New York, formerly of Rockview avenue. Miss Dwight will continue her studies at Mt. Holyoke.

Ruggles in the Rear.

"The Ruggles in the Rear," is the name of an amusing sketch to be given by the Class of '06 in Franklin School Hall, Saturday night, May 21, at 8 o'clock. It will be followed by dancing.

Miss Josephine Kissam, of 85 Duer street, will leave town tomorrow for Oyster Bay.

POINTS FOR THE BUYERS

READY REFERENCES FOR THE LOCAL BARGAIN SEEKERS.

Big or little, give your contracts for carpenter work to W. H. Kirch. He will execute them better than anybody else you can go to here.

No better livery service than that given by J. D. Frazer, of Somerset street, is to be obtained anywhere outside of Utopia. And that isn't on the map.

Prescription work should be done more carefully than anything else in the delicate profession of medicine. E. J. Schreiner is as careful a compounder as there is in the business.

If you are having trouble with your eyes visit Charles E. Vail's jewelry store. He will examine your eyes free and if you need glasses will fit your eyes properly and at slight expense.

Before purchasing your next winter's supply of coal consult with Ten-Eyck & Harris, the coal dealers. They will not only give you the best quality of anthracite, but may be able to save you some money.

Dudley Miller, the Park avenue druggist, is serving a best soda with pure fruit syrups and ice cream. He also compounds prescriptions accurately and promptly and sells only the best drugs and medicines.

The success attained by S. Scheuer & Co., of West Front street, is gratifying and encourages the firm to even greater effort. It has always been the aim of this firm to give patrons full value, whether it be in meats, poultry, groceries or vegetables and the patronage accorded shows conclusively that it has done so.

There is no place where groceries are sold that can compare with Neuman Bros. in the display of vegetables and fruit shown. Every vegetable in the market is to be had, in quality that is a little better than the best to be secured elsewhere. All the fruits obtainable anywhere in this climate are offered, and their quality is quite as good as that of the vegetables.

JOURNALISTIC OPINIONS.

QUESTIONS OF THE DAY DISCUSSED BY THE PRESS.

Feeling itself challenged to find a suitable or available Gubernatorial candidate for the Democratic party, the Trenton Times has no difficulty in naming thirty, without mentioning or referring to James Smith, Jr., William B. Gourley, Colonel Price, Robert Davis, Robert Adrain or William J. Thompson. It leads off with Grover Cleveland, of Princeton; Richard V. Lindabury, of Bernardsville, and Robert D. Foote, of Morristown, but as all these are now impossibilities, there are, only twenty-seven left on the list. Quite naturally, The Times seems to favor Trenton, since it points out Alfred Reed, Garret D. W. Vroom, Frank S. Katzenbach, Benjamin F. Lee and Robert S. Woodruff, of that city. Newark and Jersey City come next, with four each, John R. Hardin, Thomas S. Henry, Francis Child and George S. Gray for the former, and Charles C. Black, Robert S. Hudspeth, James A. Hamill and James F. Fielder representing the latter. Camden is allowed only the choice between Howard Carrow and George Pfeiffr. The remainder may be classed as "scattering." They are: Eckard P. Budd, of Burlington; Samuel S. Swackhamer, of North Plainfield; Lewis J. Martin, of Newton; Johnston Cornish, of Washington; Thomas M. Ferrell, of Glassboro; Mayor Lankering, of Hoboken; Mayor Kenny, of East Newark; John Hinchliffe, of Paterson; James E. Martine, of Plainfield, and William C. Gebhardt, of Clinton. The list is too long and too liberal. It is doubtful if more than three or four of the gentlemen named have been seriously mentioned for the office or would accept a nomination if it were offered them.—Newark Evening News.

SNAP SHOTS.

Governor Odell has signed the Newcomb Anti-Trading Stamp bill, which was frankly admitted as intended to curtail radically the trading stamp business as widely carried on in New York State. The trading stamp companies fought it to the last day of the session, and before the Governor. The bill requires every trading stamp, except those issued by individual merchants or manufacturers, to bear a stated face value in terms of money and to be redeemable in cash or merchandise at the option of the holder.

BOOK NEWS.

It is planned to issue on Thursday of each week items of library news. This will frequently take the form of book lists, such as lists of books recently added, lists on special subjects and like topics. Frequently the lists will be annotated, the aim being to make these annotations of real service to the reader, by giving him the opinion of a trustworthy critic as to the value of the books or a few words as to their scope. Borrowers should keep these lists. The Plainfield Public Library will furnish to anyone making application a list of its books on a given subject.

Public Library Notes.

Marriage of Moro Sultan Pitiilian at St. Louis.

FASTING AND PRAYING ON THE PIKE

Great Fair of St. Louis Now Officially Pronounced Inspected and Ready For Visitors—Belgium Teaches a Good Lesson.

ST. LOUIS, May 12.—The official tour of inspection of the exhibit palaces was made today by the officials of the world's fair. This tour indicates that the exhibits are in the main fully installed, and the exposition is now declared to be ready for bringing in visitors from all parts of the country. No effort has been made to bring in outside visitors up to this time.

Baron Moncheur, minister of Belgium to the United States, has arrived from Washington. He will preside at the formal opening of the Belgium pavilion. Belgium will have a unique opening. Not an exposition official will be invited, it is stated, and there will be no speeches or ceremonies of any kind. Instead, according to the programme arranged by Commissioner General Jules Carlier, about 300 or 600 girls from the St. Louis orphanages will be the sole guests.

The Lanao Moros have started upon a programme of steady praying and feasting in honor of the approaching marriage of Sultan Pitiilian. Praying and feasting periods will be observed every third day until the ceremony takes place.

It is announced that Italy's $1,000,000 exhibit of handicraft in the palaces of Manufactures and Varied Industries will be formally opened this day week.

Geronimo, the famous Apache chief, who has been constructively a prisoner of the United States government for more than a quarter of a century, accompanied by ten Apache braves and squaws and two families of Comanches, arrived at the world's fair grounds this morning.

RACE QUESTION AT ATLANTA.

Sociological Society Discusses the Negro Problem.

ATLANTA, Ga., May 12.—"I have heard from several Atlanta ladies of the experience with negro women taught at Booker Washington's school at Tuskegee and have been told that women educated at this school are totally unreliable as servants."

This statement was made by Dr. J. C. Olmstead, a prominent physician of Atlanta, at the meeting of the Georgia State Sociological society here, and was among others of a similar nature which precipitated a lively discussion at the meeting.

Another statement made by Dr. Olmstead was that the negro was better off mentally, morally and physically as a slave. A number of the delegates to the meeting of the Sociological society took part in the discussion, among them being Rev. C. A. Langston and Dr. T. E. Oertel. Dr. Oertel characterized himself as a "reconstructed Yankee" and spoke on the subject, "The Negro as an Agent For the Spread of Disease."

Hereros Are In Retreat.

BERLIN, May 12.—Colonel Leutwein, governor of German Southwest Africa, says that the Hereros are retiring from their lines at Otjikura and Owikokorero to the northward and are moving with strong forces in the direction of Waterberg. Colonel Leutwein says that a skirmish took place at Outjo and that the Hereros withdrew toward Paresisberg. The German losses were one dead, one wounded and two missing.

Hook Mountain Find Not Kingsley.

NYACK, N. Y., May 12.—Thomas Abrams, a representative of Hugh H. Baxter of New York, after an investigation said he was positive that the body found in the branches of a tree halfway down Hook mountain was not that of Henry Baxter Kingsley of Rutland, Vt. Kingsley disappeared last November while on a visit to his cousin, Hugh H. Baxter, at New Rochelle.

Quay Able to Travel.

WASHINGTON, May 12.—The improved condition of Senator M. S. Quay of Pennsylvania permitted his departure, accompanied by Mrs. Quay, for Morganza, Pa., where some weeks will be spent at the home of the senator's brother, Jerome. The senator has been successfully treated for enlargement of the liver.

Half the Bees Lost.

ALBANY, N. Y., May 12.—Reports from the inspectors of apiaries in the state agricultural department indicate that the loss among bees the past winter was nearly 50 per cent of the colonies. The loss was greatest where hives were left unprotected out of doors.

A Steubenville Tragedy.

STEUBENVILLE, O., May 12.—Samuel Davis shot Mrs. Nun Chapel three times and then blew out his own brains. They had been living as man and wife. His brother is under indictment for the murder of Calvin Owens.

POWDER EXPLODED

Big Muddy Coal Mine Wrecked at Herron, Ill.

SIX ARE DEAD, EIGHTY INJURED

Fifty Kegs of Explosive Set Afire by Electric Wire Created Death and Havoc Among Over Three Hundred Men Underground.

CARBONDALE, Ill., May 12.—A disastrous explosion occurred in the Big Muddy Coal and Iron company's coal mine at Herron shortly after the men went to work.

About 325 men were at work in the mine when a car containing fifty kegs of powder exploded. The cause of the explosion is not known. Eighty injured men and six dead have been removed from the mine.

The mine was badly wrecked, making the rescue work difficult. Thirty mine mules were killed.

Luckily a majority of the miners were working in other parts of the shaft when the explosion occurred and were uninjured. They were thus able to assist with the rescue work.

It is not known how many men were working in the vicinity of the explosion. It is believed that several are dead and covered with wreckage. It also is feared that some of the wounded may be shut off from the rescuers and may die before being reached.

Fully fifty men were at work in the tunnel in which the explosion occurred, and all of them were thrown to the floor or hurled against the walls of the cut by the blast.

Mangled and mutilated bodies of those instantly killed were piled upon those who were so badly injured that they were unable to move after the flames had swept over them. Scores of men were lying crushed and groaning in the narrow passages of the mine when the relief work began.

The crash of the explosion was heard by miners in other parts of the mine and even by the workers on the ground above and in the shafthouse, and an alarm was immediately sent out for doctors and volunteers to rescue the injured and bring the dead to the surface.

The powder that exploded is thought to have been ignited by the premature turning on of the electric current which operates the machinery of the mines. The bodies of the dead men were frightfully mangled.

KILLED IN AMBUSH.

Two American Officers and Fifteen Men Shot by Moros.

MANILA, May 12.—Lieutenant Winfield Harper and thirty-nine men of F company of the Seventeenth United States infantry have been caught in an ambush by several hundred Moros near Simpatem.

First Lieutenant Harry A. Woodruff and Second Lieutenant Joseph H. Hall, both of the Seventeenth infantry, and fifteen men were killed, and five were wounded. The ambush occurred on the east shore of Lake Liguasan, island of Mindanao.

Lieutenant Woodruff was born in Indiana and entered the service from the state of New York. Lieutenant Hall was born in Alabama and was promoted to his lieutenancy from the ranks.

Row at Bankers' Convention.

OMAHA, Neb., May 12.—At a special session of the supreme council of the Bankers' union here a delegate denounced Supreme Commander Spinney. The denunciation brought a dozen delegates to their feet, and a storm was averted only by calling in the police. E. H. Packard, grand secretary, and his associates secured an injunction restraining Spinney and his supporters from continuing the session of the council. They disregarded the court's order and proceeded with the election of officers, Spinney being re-elected to the head of the order.

Margined Stocks Ruined Him.

BOSTON, May 12.—W. H. Bartlett, a member of the Suffolk county bar and former president of the Smith Made Suspender company, who was arrested charged with the larceny of $9,700 from the company, has been sentenced to a term of from four to seven years in the state prison. With the embezzled funds Bartlett margined stocks and lost all through a sudden slump in the market.

Fair Tickets Good to Stop Over.

CHICAGO, May 12.—All the railroads composing the Central Passenger association have decided to grant stopovers in Chicago on all tickets sold in connection with the exposition in St. Louis. A committee was appointed to confer with the Western Passenger association and arrange a common basis upon which stopovers will be authorized.

Stanley to Rest In Westminster.

LONDON, May 12.—The funeral service over the remains of Sir Henry M. Stanley will take place on Tuesday at Westminster abbey. Lady Stanley is receiving condolences from every part of the world. The king of the Belgians will send a representative to the funeral.

Nets Confiscated and Sold.

PORT STANLEY, Ont., May 12.—Captain Dun of the Dominion government cruiser Petrel seized 118 gill nets being illegally used in Canadian waters in Lake Erie. The nets were confiscated and sold.

Rain Killed Forest Fires.

SARATOGA, N. Y., May 12.—The late rainfall has extinguished most of the small fires that had broken out in the Adirondack forests.

Plainfield, N. J., May 12, 1904.

The time to advertise is all the time.

A stinging rebuke will be administered to any children under twelve years old in the Neenah, Wis., public schools who are caught kissing. The school board has ordered that they be spanked for the offense.

Should State Senator Joseph Cross be elevated to the bench, there need be no fear that the office he vacates will go a begging. Of course Elizabeth will be able to trot out half a dozen of candidates and the county seat politicians will feel it a duty to supply the man.

The Elizabeth Journal has no doubt discharged the duty it owes Senator Kean when it explains that the Senator was not opposed to Governor Murphy for Republican National chairman, but the effort was a little ahead of time. The silly season generally makes its advent with warm weather.

A Tammany Alderman warned the reporters from the newspapers in these portentous phrases yesterday:

"Gentlemen, your days are numbered. The time will soon come when the editors will no longer require your services. The time is coming when facts and statements will be prepared and typewritten copies sent direct to the editors of the newspapers."

The waste basket of every editor in Christendom is overflowing this minute with "facts and statements" contributed by watchful friends; and when the reporters are discharged all the rascals and frauds in the land will rejoice with the politicians.—New York Sun.

HANDS DWELL IN HARMONY

ARBITRATION OF UNPLEASANTNESS BETWEEN THE TWO GENTLEMEN.

Justice Hand and Charles Hand have forgiven one another and patched up the feud that started in front of the First National Bank building two weeks ago. Arbitration settled the whole matter.

According to the State law, any two parties having disagreement over any legal matters whatsoever may, by mutual consent, submit that difference to a third party as arbitrator; and the decision of that third party becomes a matter of court record and stands forth vested with all the solemnity of legality. Taking advantage of this law, Judge Hand laid the matter before Lawyer H. C. Runyon last week. Lawyer Runyon heard the whole course of the controversy before the bank building. So did everybody else in the building and all around it.

Mr. Runyon reserved decision. Yesterday he announced that it was a draw. Both contestants had shone equally in debate, he said, and he couldn't differentiate between them. The principals gracefully accepted the decision, and got together for a love feast and a talk.

"Yes," said Judge Hand, yesterday afternoon, with a peaceful sigh, "its all settled. The watches in the building have begun to run again. De lapis rotundum! What's that? Never mind. Maybe Harry Runyon will tell you. He's fine at explaining things."

—Thomas Lewis, of Richmond street, is having his home repainted and decorated.

—H. S. Harold will be accompanist at the first concert of the Y. M. C. A. Symphony Club.

GERMAN MEASLES EPIDEMIC

HOW THE CASES ARE TREATED BY LOCAL PHYSICIANS.

During the past few months there has been an epidemic of measles in the city and borough, and the physicians have been kept busy. In a majority of cases the disease has been of the German variety and not attended by any troublesome features. Physicians have usually prescribed no medicines, simply giving the ordinary advice, "keep the patient warm and out of draughts." The disease has attacked young people and children chiefly, although in a few cases old persons have not escaped.

With the German variety it is not necessary for the physicians to make a report of the case to the Board of Health, as in many instances the patient would recover before the report could be filed and any legal action taken. It lasts but two or three days and if the patient is properly cared for leaves no bad effect.

Where a person has a genuine case of measles great caution is necessary. If cold is contracted pneumonia is likely to develope and cause serious trouble. There are a few of these cases now in the city and the patients are quite ill. The physicians are unable to account for the prevalance of measles, except that at certain times in the year, especially during the latter part of the winter and early spring, it is more common than at other times. Young mothers are unusually quite anxious about their children in case of measles and they summon the physician with all possible haste. One city physician has been troubled a great deal this season with young mothers, frequently being called up on the telephone at midnight to inform the physician that this or that symptom was noted and advice was wanted. This is part of the physicians' many duties and like the good and patient man that he is he never finds fault.

The selection meets with the approval of all Arcanumites through this section, as Mr. Collins has been an untiring worker for the order for several years past.

The game at Westfield on Saturday afternoon should be a good article of baseball. Manager Denman's team is composed of some of the best material around New York, while Manager Hand's personnel names many of the best players from the All-Plainfield team which has made Westfield hustle in the past.

Joe Alberts will probably play with the locals against Westfield in the game at Recreation Park, Saturday afternoon. Joe's team, the Aeolians, have no game booked for this week, so he is enabled to play with his home team for the first time in two seasons.

Another local Sunday ball team has been organized. No home games are to be played, as Scotch Plains wont stand for Sunday baseball on Sunday afternoons. The new team will meet the Berkleys at Berkely Heights.

Scotch Plains want the band concert in "the good old summer time," so patronized the band concert minstrels held Tuesday and Wednesday nights at the Casino.

KILLED RED GROUND HOG.

Sexton Johnson Found Strange Looking Animal on Church Lawn.

An animal freak as rare as anything in the four-footed world was killed by Eugene Johnson, sexton of Grace P. E. church on the church lawn Tuesday afternoon. The rarity was a red groundhog.

It was of a bright red color from nose to tail, and presented a very queer appearance. Johnson noticed it running slowly across the lawn shortly after 3 o'clock. He had time to get a heavy stick before it disappeared, and killed it with a blow on the back. He was unable to find the hole from which it came.

Next Game on Crescent Oval.

The attraction at Crescent Oval on Saturday will be the Xavier A. C. team, of New York, and from all indications Alis will not have a walk-over. Since last Saturday's game when the Madisons defeated that team 12 to 0, there has been a shakeup and the manager promises a first-class team. The New Yorkers will have one of the strongest batteries in the Metropolitan district and the team will make a determined effort to win. The game will be called at 3:45 sharp.

Marshall Leads In Chess Tourney.

CAMBRIDGE SPRINGS, Pa., May 12.—The games left unfinished in previous rounds of the international chess masters' tournament, now in progress at the Hotel Rider in this city, have been completed. The first games scheduled were those of Fox versus Janowski, Lasker versus Barry, Pillsbury versus Schlechter and Delmar versus Marco. Lasker and Barry, however, agreed to call their game a draw without making any additional moves. Fox beat Janowski after sixty-five moves, and Marco beat Delmar. Pillsbury and Schlechter did not agree upon a draw until 146 moves had been made. The Showalter-Fox bout ended in a draw after seventy-four moves. Marshall is now leading Janowski with one point, while Lasker stands third and Marco fourth.

Poorlands at Elm Ridge.

KANSAS CITY, May 12.—Poorlands won the hurdle race, the feature at Elm Ridge, taking every jump beautifully and often being as far as ten lengths in the lead. In the fourth Elliott put up a pretty race and came in a winner by a head in front of Fossil, with Injunction, the favorite, a poor third. In the sixth race Rebo made a show of his field and pulled up, winning by fifteen lengths.

Song and Wine at Morris Park.

NEW YORK, May 12.—The feature of the racing at Morris park was the brilliant performance of Newton Bennington's Song and Wine, an added starter in the Laureate selling stakes. He picked up 125 pounds and, giving away much weight to his field, won easily by two lengths, after making all the pace. He was favorite at 6 to 5. Pasadena finished second and Santa Catalina third.

King's Trophy and Gilfain.

CHICAGO, May 12.—King's Trophy was the only favorite to win here. The other events, however, went to well backed horses. In the fourth race Gilfain, backed down from 10 to 1 to 9 to 1, won by a neck from Albula, with Hands Across, the prohibitive favorite, third. This is the first time that Gilfain has won a race since he beat McChesney as a two-year-old.

Lonsdale Won the Feature.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 12.—Lonsdale won the feature event from Ed Tierney before a large crowd. They were equal favorites. Proofreader, at a long price, finished third, a length in front of Japan. Prince Silverwings and Barbara Whiting were the only favorites to win. The defeat of Alee in the last race hurt the form players severely.

John Doyle at Delmar Park.

ST. LOUIS, May 12.—A card of six selling races was run off at Delmar park. The fields were small and speculation keen. John Doyle was the medium of a heavy play in the fourth race. The colt won ridden out by half a length from Radium, the favorite. The Bobby was backed from even to 1 to 2.

Chicago Bookbinders Strike.

CHICAGO, May 12.—Blank book binders, forwarders and paper rulers in the factories of Pettibone, Sawtell & Co. and George E. Marshall & Co. have struck in sympathy with 250 bookbinders who have walked out to compel the Chicago Typothetae to sign a blanket "closed shop" agreement. A spread of the strike in other shops is expected.

Murder Victim's Will.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., May 12.—The will of Miss Mabel Page, who was murdered at her home in Weston, has been filed here. The document gives practically the estate to her brother, Harold Wentworth Page. The estate includes the home at Weston, a $1,000 Gas bond and other property.

Ex-Mayor Grant Duke Dead.

WELLSVILLE, N. Y., May 12.—Grant Duke, a former mayor of Wellsville, a prominent business man and a member of the Elks and Shriners, is dead here.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Prayer Meeting Topic For the Week Beginning May 15.

Topic.—What Joseph and Benjamin teach about brotherly care.—Gen. xliii, 29-31, 34; xlv, 14-22. (Union meeting with the Juniors.)

Joseph and Benjamin were the two sons of Jacob and Rachel. They were brothers, the other ten sons of Jacob being but half brothers to them. Being the sons of Rachel, whom Jacob had first loved and whom he always loved above any other, it was natural that they should be favorites of their father. Until Joseph was sold into Egypt he held the first place in his father's heart, and after Jacob supposed Joseph to be dead Benjamin became Joseph's successor in his father's affections. But not only did Jacob have a special affection for these two of his sons, but they must have had a strong love for each other, as the beautiful story of Joseph's especial interest in and care for Benjamin in Egypt abundantly proves.

Joseph's attitude toward all his brethren when they came to Egypt displays a magnanimous and forgiving spirit, but his loving care for Benjamin is one of the most beautiful and touching incidents to be found even in the word of God. When his brethren returned with Benjamin, and Joseph looked upon his brother, "his heart yearned over his brother, and he sought where to weep, and he entered into his chamber and wept there." The flood gates of memory were opened, and his love for Benjamin was found to have been proof against the intervening years and the difference in political station. Joseph was a ruler in Egypt, while Benjamin was a suppliant before him, yet Joseph still remembered him and loved him. Would that it were always so. But, alas, how often this picture is reversed. One brother, in the course of life, rises higher than another, perhaps is separated from him and has no sympathy, no brotherly love, for him in the hour of trial and distress. Many in their success do not care to acknowledge the relationships of former days. But this was not so with Joseph, and his example should be an inspiration to all to keep in loving remembrance the brothers and sisters of childhood and of youth.

Joseph not only remembered his brother Benjamin, but he also made him the object of his especial care. Before he made himself known to his brethren "he took and sent messes unto them from before him, but Benjamin's mess was five times as much as any of theirs." And afterward, when they knew him, he provided for all for their home journey, but especially for Benjamin. "To all of them he gave each man changes of raiment, but to Benjamin he gave 300 pieces of silver and five changes of raiment." Where can be found a more beautiful picture of brotherly care? Let us all imitate it.

Our brothers in the flesh have special claims upon us. It is true that this relationship is physical, while with others our souls may be knit together, but at the same time it is a God given relationship, the mutual obligations of which never cease to exist. Time and distance and position cannot blot them out, and we should consider it a joy as well as a duty to love and care for the members of our household if God calls upon us to do so. And then, too, in the broader "household of faith" and the still broader household of humanity—"all men"—we should not fail in the duties of love and of service as the opportunity and ability present themselves to us. "So, then, as we have opportunity let us work that which is good toward all men, and especially toward them that are of the household of faith."

BIBLE READINGS.

Gen. iv, 9-15; xxv, 27-34; Deut. xv, 7, 8; Ps. cxxxiii, 1-3; Matt. v, 21-26; xviii, 15, 21, 22; Mark iii, 31-35; Luke xv, 11-31; Gal. vi, 10; I Tim. v, 8.

None So Deeply.

None breathed so deeply of the Holy Ghost as Christ did, and so His life was calm at the heart of all its outward tumult. It was never loveless; the Father loveth the Son. It was never perplexed; He saw clearly what the Father did. Our Lord never needed to ask the way; He had the spirit of wisdom and revelation. The same peace filled His apostles and was meant for us. If we are to have it the gaining and the keeping of it must go before all else. It is granted only to prayer and faith, and without the exercise of devotion it cannot live. Whatever else we find time for, there must be time for these. Work which interrupts them is work to which we have no divine call.—W. R. Nicoll.

Told In Dollars.

In sixteen years the United Society of Christian Endeavor has contributed $125,000 to practical home mission work, the spreading of Christian Endeavor principles throughout America. Every cent of this handsome sum was earned by the publishing department of the United Society.

Last year the World's Christian Endeavor Union contributed $2,500 to the work in India, and $1,875 to the work in China.

Sacred and Devoted.

A Christian should look upon himself as sacred and devoted, for that which involves but an ordinary degree of criminality in others in him partakes of the nature of sacrilege. What is a breach of trust in others is in him the profanation of the temple.—Lutheran.

At the St. Louis Exposition.

A plan for an institute of Christian Endeavor at the St. Louis exposition has been hatched in Iowa and will be licked into definite shape for the benefit especially of the Endeavorers of the middle and western states.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

May 15: "Epworth League Anniversary."—Special Temperance Programme.

The fascination of intoxication seems to have infected the blood of the whole race. The appetite for alcohol is not confined to any one people or land. The effect is everywhere and always the same.

The time was when the frenzy of intoxication was held to be an inspiration of the gods, and religious rites and drunkenness were closely joined. Christianity has done much to change this. But drunkenness has not been abolished even in the most Christian of lands, yet much gain is seen in these last years. Not very many years since, even in New England, no meeting house frame was raised nor minister installed without the bill of expense including a considerable item for rum and brandy. That thing is past, probably never to be revived.

Godliness is coming to be linked inseparably with total abstinence. Some branches of the church still refuse to speak on the subject; some still countenance the use of intoxicants by their members as common beverages, with no word of protest or warning, but the greater part of the church speaks plainly against the danger. The Methodist Episcopal church leads the vanguard of Christendom in unqualified condemnation of the manufacture, sale and use of alcoholic drinks as injurious to individual and society, as evil, and only evil, and to be abolished as speedily as possible.

We are utterly opposed to license of the sale of intoxicating drinks by government in any form and to any degree. This we believe to be the only safe and logical position for any one who has the welfare of society at heart.

The use of alcoholics in medicine, arts and manufactures is an entirely different question.

The right of any person to drink such beverages is also another question. The right of a person to dress, drink and eat as he pleases is to be defended. But the exercise of such rights must be and is greatly restricted as society becomes more complex. In Maine and some other states during most months of the year any person having deer meat or partridge in his possession is subject to a heavy fine. No one can eat venison then. It is prohibited. But not because it does the eater any harm.

Liquor saloons should be abolished because they are prolific sources of vice and crime. The young, the morally weak and many foreigners reared under different conditions and ideas are in great danger from this source and under the influence of the saloon become a peril and menace to the well being of the community.

It is not a right of government to license and permit an evil. This principle is well established and has been declared by the supreme court of the United States. If the saloon business is right and desirable and demanded for the good of community, then it should be recognized and protected as any other business. If it is specially dangerous, it should be safeguarded as the sale of gunpowder and explosives and poisonous drugs is now done, by limiting the sale to properly qualified persons. No license, high or low, other than a registration should be exacted. To make the traffic a source of governmental revenue is fraud if the traffic is legitimate and an unmitigated crime if the traffic is wrong. The saloon must be abolished. Let this war cry never cease.

Sincerity.

Sincerity is the parent of truth. She fears no enemies, for virtue is her steadfast friend. She abhors a lie and is no flatterer. An open heart is her device, and honor is her ultimate end. What joys are hers! She roams at will through the domain of God. The high places, where the anthems of glory eternally roll, come down to the waiting spirit with all the stops of heaven's organ open, and the keyboard, touched with seraphic fingers, sends the melody of the heavenly choir to cheer and satisfy his longing soul. His brow is decked with this priceless jewel, and, arrayed with these costly garments, he is, like the king's daughter, all beautiful within. Let it but once be determined that a man is insincere, and he is despised of his fellows and unblessed of God, but if true to his conscience he may expect the continued favor of God upon all his undertakings.—Philadelphia Methodist.

Sinking Out of Sight.

It is said in washing gold the best sinks to the bottom, seems to try to get out of sight. That is true in the highest type of Christian. I know a clergyman who forced himself into a carriage with a presidential candidate a few years ago, usurping the place of a United States senator at a great public function. The minister who did that left the church and city in which he then lived with precious few friends. Moses said, "Who am I that I should go unto Pharaoh and that I should bring forth the children of Israel out of Egypt?" God knew he was the man, and one of his best recommendations was his unconsciousness of his own power.—Rev. R. V. Hunter, D. D.

Prayer an Educator.

Prayer is to be considered as an educator of the will; as an avenue through which man claims the aid of the Eternal. Goodness in the struggle to be good. It is of no consequence that I get what I want. It is of the utmost consequence that I want what I ought and that I shall be what I ought to be; and the whole purpose of prayer is defeat unless it forwards this result.—Thomas R. Slicer.

FASHION HINTS.

Much Purple and Lavender Are Worn—Voiles Checked and Plain.

A great deal of purple and of lavender are being used for street wear.

The fashions of the moment are not a little trying to the woman of generous proportions, but still she may have this consolation—the fullness beginning below instead of at the waist line rather takes away from the width of her hips and that also the plain front panel gives her a flat, straight front effect.

Plaid effects in voile are among the latest. Small pin checks are being imported in voile as well as in taffeta, and these are trimmed with rows of trimming in plain silk to match. A black and white checked voile seen recently was trimmed with chantilly lace and made up over apple green silk.

The favorite sleeve of the moment is the half sleeve made in one piece with the shoulder. This is worn with or without a tight fitting undersleeve, and the inside is filled in with a lace ruffle.

The little loose gathered bolero of ample width, which has loose sleeves, is the smartest model for all thin silk or mohair costumes. It is short enough to allow a wide belt to be seen. This is usually of a darker shade than the costume.

The cut shows a tailor made dress of lavender mohair trimmed with tiny black buttons and a white chemisette.

NOVELTIES OF THE SEASON.

The Baby Hat—Long Shouldered Effects In Everything.

The baby hat made of lace ruffles has been so much copied in cheap materials that it will not be worn this summer by really smart women. In its place are semi-French sailor hats of shirred tulle lace and net combined with bands of tiny roses and French satin straw. These come with an accentuated roll, which is greater on one side to allow for a feather, which is fastened under the brim. In some cases this feather passes over the crown and is then run through a slit in the brim, so that the tip rests on the hair.

The long shouldered effect is more conspicuous than ever and is seen even on shirt waist costumes. A recent example in checked silk had the upper part of the sleeve run into a broad strap, which was then extended into the collar.

The cape effect has practically gone out of fashion, although a few modified forms are seen on imported gowns principally, though in the designs of yokes stitched down to within an inch or two of the edge.

The Dutch lace cap for night wear is quite the latest fashionable fad, which must not be confounded with the nightcap of our grandparents. It is composed of silk brocade finished round the face with a ruching of ribbon, while the lower part has a frill of old lace, one of its special features being that it gives to the hair the sweetest fragrance imaginable, merely a suggestion of a perfume. This scent comes from a special oil, the preparation of which is a secret, and is used on a specially treated cloth which is placed between the two layers of silk of which this cap is composed.

The picture shows a waist made of Irish lace and has bands of crepe de chine.

TRAIN GOT THROUGH

Kuropatkin Sends Ammunition Supply to Port Arthur.

BATTLE REPORTED AT MOTIEN PASS

General Zassalitch Said to Be Slain. Skrydloff, New Commander, Will Go On to Port Arthur.

LONDON, May 12.—Advices from St. Petersburg say General Kuropatkin has reported to the emperor as follows:

"Reconnoissances between Saltizaipudza and Fengwangcheng have failed to discover Japanese troops.

"A Japanese column of considerable strength has advanced from Fengwangcheng in the direction of Haicheng.

"Pulancheng station is occupied by our frontier guards, and all damage to the railway by the Japanese as far as Sanchilipu has been repaired. The work was carried out under the supervision of Lieutenant Colonel Spiridonoff. This gallant officer undertook to get through to Port Arthur a train of ammunition which had arrived at Liaoyang after the landing of the Japanese at Pitsewo. Every preparation was made to blow up the train in case of necessity in order to prevent its falling into the hands of the Japanese.

"The task was carried out, and the self sacrifice of the men of the Fourth railway battalion was crowned with complete success.

"The train arrived at Jinchau station, forty miles from Port Arthur, safely, where it was handed over to General Jokoff, who immediately dispatched it under proper protection to Port Arthur. Lieutenant Colonel Spiridonoff returned on a locomotive.

"After landing at Pitsewo the Japanese began marching toward Kinchau. On the night of Thesday their advance guard, consisting of about two regiments of infantry, passed the night on the heights above Sanchilipu, about sixty miles from Port Arthur.

"About thirty Japanese transports are lying north of Cape Terminal, below Pitsewo."

A Paris dispatch says it is rumored that there has been a big fight near Motien pass between the Russians and General Kuroki's army.

The Russians lost heavily, Lieutenant General Zassalitch being among the killed.

Vice Admiral Skrydloff and Vice Admiral Bezobrazoff have been notified of the resumption of communication with Port Arthur; so that they may attempt to reach that place.

The general staff has received the following dispatch from General Karkevitch:

"According to reports from the region of the Tayang river, sent on the evening of May 8, the Japanese had not yet occupied Takushan.

"A sotnia of Cossacks approached within nine miles of Luanmiao and became engaged in a fusillade with a Japanese company. The latter soon received re-enforcements, our sotnia finding itself opposed to a Japanese battalion and half a squadron of cavalry. Meanwhile Japanese infantry effected a crossing of the river by turning to the left of the sotnia. Commander Saraieff withdrew his men, but before arriving within six miles of Sedzekhoge he encountered the enemy's cavalry screen, which retreated under our fire.

"We sustained no losses in either encounter. The Japanese seemed to have lost an officer and a soldier."

A St. Petersburg dispatch says impending events of great importance to the military situation in Manchuria are foreshadowed in official dispatches given out late last night by the war commission.

The Japanese forces have moved from Fengwangcheng toward Haicheng, which is thirty-two miles east by north of Newchwang, and it is the opinion of the general staff that they should certainly reach their destination within two days. If the Japanese occupy Haicheng, with Port Arthur thus effectually cut off, Newchwang, which the Russians have already dismantled, would pass into their hands. The entire Liaotung peninsula in fact, save Port Arthur and perhaps Kaiping, would be commanded by them.

The satisfaction felt at the re-establishment of communication with Port Arthur is increased by the knowledge that a train load of ammunition has been safely delivered to the fortress. This was done in the presence of the enemy's army, which landed at Pitsewo and which is apparently on the eve of being re-enforced by another division on board thirty transports lying off Port Adams.

A Shanhaikwan report says that besides acting energetically in southern Manchuria and moving on Haicheng General Kuroki has kept in mind the necessity of outflanking General Kuropatkin at Liaoyang, as is shown in the fact that he has started a division consisting of forty guns and 1,500 cavalry toward Saimadza. In view of General Kuropatkin's statement that an examination of the line between Saimatsi and Fengwangcheng failed to show the presence of Japanese, the Russians are puzzled as to where they came from.

A Japanese detachment is reported officially to have occupied Kwanteinsien, but it is believed likely to be a small scouting party belonging to General Kuroki's army.

The Russian officers are looking with considerable philosophy on the division by General Kuroki of his army into three separate commands, for they expect General Kuropatkin promptly to take advantage of the numerical inferiority of the enemy.

The fact that it was considered necessary to send a [illegible] munition to Port Arthur has caused comment, and it is [illegible] in certain quarters as an indication that the Russians have not sufficient supplies of war material there.

A Harbin report says:

"There are ample supplies of munitions of war at Port Arthur, but naturally General Kuropatkin desired to send as much as possible to the fortress. During the expected siege great quantities of shells and explosives will be fired, and Russia cannot afford to permit a reproach from the defenders that they could not hold Port Arthur because of a lack of powder and shell. There are said to be enough supplies there for one year."

Home endorsement, the public expression of Plainfield people, should be evidence beyond dispute for every Plainfield reader. Surely the experience of friends and neighbors, cheerfully given by them, will carry more weight than the utterances of strangers residing in far-away places. Read the following:

George S. McGinnis, of No. 212 Somerset street, foreman of R. H. McCullough's Sash and Door Manufacturing Company, says: "I never was sick a day in my life until a pain struck me across my back and a lameness over the kidneys. I did not pay much attention to it at first thinking it would soon pass away, but instead of this it grew worse. I saw Doan's Kidney Pills so highly recommended by those who had used them for such troubles that I went to L. W. Randolph's drug store and got a box. I used them according to instructions and felt somewhat relieved. Continuing the treatment by the time I had finished the third box the pain in my back and lameness disappeared."

AMERICANS IN MEXICO.

Their Chances of Success in Business Have Been Growing Smaller in Past Ten Years

As compared with ten years ago, there are many times more persons engaged in manufacturing in the various industrial lines in Mexico to-day. But Mexico cannot be called a manufacturing country, nevertheless, and, although the press of the country fails to chronicle the disastrous failures which too frequently happen, not only among those who are swept from comparative wealth to poverty by unsuccessful speculation, but also those of the manufacturing class, it cannot be denied unfortunate conditions exist.

The chances of an American succeeding in business in Mexico ten years ago, whether in mining or other investments or in manufacturing, were much better than to-day. There are ten Americans in Mexico to-day to one ten years ago. There are about 10,000 Americans and English in the City of Mexico and probably 20,000 native and Europeans who also speak the English language.

More than one line of important industry was controlled by English houses 25 years ago, dry goods and hardware especially. In the lines referred to, without exception, there is not an English house doing business in the republic of Mexico to-day.

The Tallow Candle.

Prof. Crooks thinks that if the electric lights were universal to-day, the candle, if suddenly introduced, would be thought a wonderful invention, as it enables a person to obtain light in its simplest and most portable form, and without the use of cumbrous machinery or the necessity of attaching the lamp to any fixed point by means of wire before it can be lighted.

Jews Going to Argentina.

Baron Hirsch has thus far sent about 4,000 Russian Hebrews to the Argentine republic, and hopes to have a Hebrew community there of 100,000 within ten years. He sends them out in companies of 50 families, each provided with a rabbi and a doctor, and he expects them to settle in villages, giving a special tract for each company.

A MATTER OF DUTY.

Mother of Chief Engineer Wallace Made a Sacrifice.

CHICAGO, May 12.—John F. Wallace, general manager of the Illinois Central railway, has accepted an appointment as chief engineer of the Panama canal at a salary of $25,000 a year. He will leave early in June for the isthmus.

It was Mrs. David A. Wallace, his mother, who caused Mr. Wallace to accept the position. After the place had been offered to him by President

JOHN F. WALLACE.

Roosevelt he left Washington for Wooster to consult his mother, determined to accept only on condition that she approved. Mrs. Wallace is seventy-two years old. He told her of the president's request that he take the engineering post and spoke of what it involved. "Shall I accept?" he asked, adding, "It rests entirely with you."

Mrs. Wallace thought of the eight or ten years' absence, of the disease, danger that the work involved, of her own years and of the probability that she should never see her son again. But she answered: "It is your duty. Go." Thereupon Mr. Wallace wired his acceptance.

Mr. Wallace is past president of the American Society of Civil Engineers, American Railway Engineering and Maintenance of Way association and Western Society of Engineers. He is also a member of the Institute of Civil Engineers of Great Britain, American Railway association, American Railway guild and the Engineers' club of New York.

Crown Prince as a Sportsman.

BERLIN, May 12.—Crown Prince Frederick William has won new laurels as a sportsman by sharing the emperor's prize at the Potsdam Equestrian society's contests with Captain von Holtzing of the First uhlans of the guard. The competitors had to pass a hedge, then a hedge and a ditch four yards wide, then another hedge and finally a high barricade in rapid succession. Only the crown prince and Captain von Holtzing succeeded in the effort. It will be remembered that the emperor not long ago required the crown prince to keep to his quarters for a week for reckless riding. The emperor doubtless is now convinced that his son is able to take care of himself. The crown prince insisted on renouncing his share in the trophy in favor of Captain von Holtzing.

State Prison For Robbery and Arson.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., May 12.—Judge Elmer of the superior court sentenced R. W. Alexander, charged with burglary in Greenwich, to an indeterminate sentence of from ten to thirteen years in state prison. Alexander, who is colored, robbed the house of J. Fillmore Studwell and later set fire to it in the presence of the owner, who was obliged to turn his attention to the fire. Alexander escaping in the meantime. It is said that Alexander is wanted in Passaic, N. J., for a crime committed in 1900.

"Sooners" on Crow Reservation.

WASHINGTON, May 12.—A warning has been issued by the interior department against trespassing on the portion of the Crow Indian reservation in Montana recently ceded by the Indians. A number of "sooners" have gone on the lands and selected some of the choicest portions. The secretary notifies them that they will acquire no rights by this course, and he cautions all people to keep off the reservation until the opening proclamation is issued.

Fairbanks For Vice President.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., May 12.—The Republican state convention here has adjourned after electing four delegates at large to the national convention, nominating two presidential electors at large, naming a new state committee largely composed of anti-Lily Whites and adopted a platform indorsing President Roosevelt for the presidency and declaring in favor of Senator Fairbanks of Indiana for vice presidential nominee.

Wants Verdict Suicide or Accident.

BRISTOL, Tenn., May 12.—The coroner's verdict in the Wentz inquest is "suicide or accidental killing."

ABDUCTED BY AUTO.

Miss Belle Crane at Paris Relates Tale of Kidnaping.

PARIS, May 12.—United States Consul General Gowdy recently received a letter from an American girl saying that she was locked up in a provincial jail without any charge having been made against her. The consul general sent a representative to the jail and secured the girl's release and return to Paris. He then cabled to her parents, residing at Decatur, Ga., requesting funds for her return to America. The girl related a sensational story. She claimed to have been abducted by an American seeking to marry her and says she accompanied him on an automobile tour, was locked up in a room in a country hotel, escaped and attempted to walk across the country, but was arrested as a wanderer by the French authorities.

Investigation has developed the fact that the young woman referred to is Miss Belle Crane of Decatur, Ga., who went from America to London about a year ago to give concert readings. Miss Crane was well known at Atlanta, Ga. Her father is B. C. Crane, who holds a prominent position with the Virginia-Carolina Chemical company at Decatur. He had heard nothing from his daughter for several weeks, but about eight days ago, in response to a cablegram from American Consul General Gowdy that Miss Crane was in Paris and wished to return home, he cabled $200 to pay the expenses of her return passage.

Miss Crane went to Europe in company with a party of friends from Cincinnati. She had contracted with a Mr. Angel, an American, who was going to Europe, accompanied by his wife, to give a series of concert readings, but upon the death of Mrs. Angel the plan was dropped, and Miss Crane went to live with a Miss Lestrade in London. Several weeks ago she left London for Paris.

Y. M. C. A. CONVENTION.

Roosevelt's Letter of Regret Praises Their Good, Practical Work.

BUFFALO, May 12.—Fourteen hundred delegates, including men prominent in all walks of life, assembled here to take part in the thirty-fifth international convention of the Young Men's Christian Association of North America. Two sessions were held, at which the delegates were welcomed to the city and permanent organization of the convention was effected under the presidency of the Hon. B. F. MacFarland, president of the board of commissioners of the District of Columbia. The delegates attended a banquet in City Convention hall, at which 1,500 persons were present. A letter of regret from President Roosevelt was read by President MacFarland as follows:

"It is a matter of sincere regret to me that I am not able to be present at the international meeting of the Young Men's Christian association. I believe with all my heart in your work, for you have not confined yourselves merely to talking about what could be accomplished, but have striven in practical fashion to realize in some degree on this earth the ideals of Christianity. I feel that every Young Men's Christian association throughout this land is a valuable adjunct to good citizenship. With my best wishes."

The convention will be in session until May 15.

SPORTING NEWS.

DIAMOND DUST.

The doctors practiced on Cedarcroft field yesterday afternoon in preparation for their game with the clergymen on June 11.

The report that the Aeolian team, of Garwood, would disband is denied emphatically. The rumor probably started for the announcement that the team would play no more home games after Saturday, May 14.

The game at Westfield Saturday will be against Scotch Plains. The interest in this contest centers in what will be done or not done by Jimmy Montross. Jimmy won his seven games while with Westfield last year and in the Westfield-Plainfield Consolidated series two years ago Jimmy was a tower of strength against the down the line team. The 'Plains outfit consists of several popular local players and they don't consider themselves as pushed aside from the game and will work like Trojans Saturday to show there is some merit and brilliancy in their work. Scotch Plains always had a habit of springing surprises when they were against doughty propositions and there is no telling what they have up their sleeve to tuck against Westfield.

BICYCLING.

Under the auspices of the New Jersey division of the Century Road Club of America, a century run of cyclers will be held on Sunday, June 12. The course will be as follows: Jersey City, Hoboken, Weehawken, Hudson County Boulevard to Bergen Point, Staten Island to Tottenville, New Brunswick and Plainfield, returning by the way of the Irvington-Milburn race-course, through the Oranges, Belleville to Jersey City. The pace will be twelve miles an hour and the start will be made from the headquarters of the division at 7 o'clock. The entry fee includes souvenir badge, dinner and other expenses.

GOLF.

In addition to the weekly competition for the Golf committee cup at the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club on Saturday, there will be the initial play for the Women's Handicap cup, at 10 o'clock in the morning. The next play for this cup will be Saturday morning, June 11.

TENNIS.

Entries are rapidly being filed for the novice tennis tournament at the Y. M. C. A. This contest is to be followed by one for experts, for the association championship.

HOTEL HOBO.

Another Free Lodger Taken From the North Avenue Railroad Station.

Another eviction disturbed the serenity of the Hobo Hotel, which is ordinarily the basement of the old North Avenue station, last night. Officer Charles Flynn yanked the one guest, Louis Randolph, from his slumbers to a cheerless cage in the jail. Louis promised to stay away from the basement hereafter, and Judge Runyon suspended sentence this morning.

Richard M. Hodge's Lecture.

At last night's meeting of the Young People's Association, of Hop chapel, the subject of "Story-telling in Connection with the Bible," was interestingly treated by Richard Morse Hodge. Mr. Hodge is an instructor in the Teacher's College, Columbia University, and Union Seminary also.

The Feast of the Ascension was observed by the Roman Catholic and Protestant Episcopal churches today, with services prescribed for the occasion by the rituals.

DOCTORS PRACTICE BASEBALL

LOCAL PHYSICIANS PREPARE FOR GAME WITH MINISTERS.

In preparation for their baseball game with the ministers of the city, many physicians were out for practice on the Cedarcroft School field yesterday afternoon. Dr. J. Hervey Buchanan pitched, until the opposing side made forty-two runs and he then gave way to Dr. P. B. Cregar, who held the opposing batsmen down to a few scratch hits. He was caught by Dr. W. K. Browning. Among the others who did good work with the stick were Drs. P. J. Zeglio, W. Kempton Browning and Albert Pittis. Each one made two and three base hits with frequency. Dr. Long displayed excellent ability as a base runner. Already the physicians are confident of winning the game with the ministers.

WATER CO.'S OFFICERS.

Frank Bergen is Again Elected President and J. F. Hubbard, Secretary and Treasurer.

At the meeting of the directors of the Plainfield Water Supply Company, held at its office here, Frank Bergen, of Elizabeth, was re-elected president; Captain James Frank Hubbard, of this city, was again chosen secretary and treasurer; and J. Frank Hubbard, Frank Bergen, John Kean, James Maguire and Hamilton F. Kean were chosen as directors.

SOCIAL REALM.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster, of Providence, R. I., are visiting the latter's father, H. E. Bowen, of Watchung avenue.

Clifton Wharton and family, who have been spending the winter in New York, will occupy the Burke house in Netherwood for the summer.

There is to be a society wedding of elaborate character in June, according to rumor. The contracting parties have not yet been announced, although many of the preparations for the affair have been made.

Two-Handed Mixup.

William Callahan's playfulness caused a two-handed mix-up this morning at the corner of Madison avenue and West Second street. In passing Peter Seader, the hackman, who was driving a park phaeton he made a pass at the latter with his whip causing Seader's horse to bolt. Before Seader could gather his animal in, he found himself in collision with the rig of letter-carrier Patrick Reville. Reville's cart suffered about the wheels mostly, the hackman's rig having the cross-bar torn from between the shafts. Seader's control of his horse prevented what might have easily proved a serious runaway. The park phaeton was removed to Warren Stewart's shop for repairs.

A. O. U. W. vs. Y. M. C. A.

Manager William Symons, of the Y. M. C. A. baseball team, has scheduled a game with the Westfield A. O. U W. team for Saturday on the Myrtle avenue grounds. The visitors are rated as a strong amateur team. The game will be called at 3:45 o'clock.

Lafayette Downs Its Rival.

Lafayette College defeated Lehigh, yesterday, in an exciting game of ball, by the score of 3 to 2. Badgley, who wanted to pitch for Alis this season, occupied the box for Lehigh. Five hits were made off his pitching and his team made four errors.

SPORTS AND ATHLETICS

"My crouch has had much to do with my prize-ring success," said James Britt, who recently defeated young Corbett for the featherweight championship of the world, in an interview the other day. "It is natural for me and is the only way I can fight. I can't fight standing up, as the others do, and no one can imitate my position. If a boxing instructor were to attempt to teach his pupils the crouch he would turn out a lot of poor fighters. Jeffries is the only champion who ever used the crouch, and he only uses it under certain conditions and then occasionally. Terry McGovern crouches forward, but my position is the only one that gives length of reach and affords protection. I carry the fight to my opponent from the crouch. I think I am the only fighter who can lead from this position. This was what bothered Corbett. I was on top of him all the time, and he always backed away from a mixup."

James Britt.

"A lot of people think the crouch is a defense thought out to protect a short-reach man or a man unable to stand punishment round the belt line," was suggested.

"That wasn't it with me," he replied. "It struck me as a natural defense when I was a kid, and why isn't it the right thing? Show me where they can get you. You have your sides protected, and the gloves can easily cover the chin and neck. It is a long way to your body, and an opponent is forced to batter the top of your hard skull and that hurts his hands. If a man can hit out of the crouch as I can, why isn't it the thing?"

"Don't it cramp a man's lungs and narrow them up so that he is weakened from the exertion in a long fight?"

"Well, if you had seen me go the limit with Corbett and be much stronger than he was at the end you wouldn't think it shut off the wind any. The crouch is taken the same way a man bends over to a desk, from the hips. The arms are brought in so that it seems to crowd them. My method of fighting is just the same as when I began as an amateur in the Olympic Athletic club, and, by the way, I am the only boxer who has ever been retained as a member of this club after becoming a professional. Of course I have developed a great deal, but I never took a lesson in my life. I have studied the whole matter out by myself. I propose to do something that no champion has ever done before. Before I fight any one else I will give Young Corbett an opportunity to win back the championship, and I will tell you why. To me Mr. Corbett looks the easiest of them all. I don't know why he came back here and raised such a howl, he certainly didn't need to do it to get a second fight."

A prominent baseball "fan," who spent some time in Hot Springs before the opening of the season during the sojourn there of Cy Young, Billy Dineen, Lou Criger, and Buck Freeman, of the Boston Americans, makes the astonishing assertion that this year Cy Young will spring a new style of delivery upon the batsmen of the American league. Some years ago it was announced that Young was about ready for retirement. He has been using his fast ball so much that there was a general impression that he had about worked himself out. The following season the big twirler from Ohio made his appearance on the diamond with a new slow ball that allowed him to give his speedy delivery a rest, and he continued to pitch winning ball. Last year Young performed better on the rubber than ever before in his career. All the while, however, he was studying some new method by which he might remain in the game a few years longer, and he confesses that he has solved the problem, and this year will see something added to his stock in trade that will make him quite as valuable to the Bostons as he was last season.

Cy Young.

Arthur Devlin, playing third base for the Giants, and who is regarded as the find of the season on his showing to date, has played in each of the ten games McGraw's team has been in this season. In that time he has been to bat 40 times, scored ten runs, made 13 base hits, stolen two bases, and batted out a double and a home run, for a total of 17 bases. Devlin played with the Newark team of the Eastern league last season, and was known to fans in that city as "Stonewall" Devlin. He learned the game while attending college at Georgetown, and was a member of the championship team of which Harry White, of the White Sox, was the star twirler.

A team of athletes will be brought from Ireland to compete in the Olympian games at the St. Louis exposition. They will make the trip under the auspices of the Greater New York Irish Athletic club. Among the men expected to compose the team are Dennis Horgan, shot-putter, with a record of 48 feet 2 inches, who won the championship at Manhattan field in 1900, with a put of 46 feet 1¼ inches; Peter O'Connor, Irish broad jump record holder, who cleared 24 feet 11¼ inches from a board take-off, and the Leahy brothers, also jumpers; Dennis Murray, who defeated Arthur Duffy in a handicap sprint on his tour, the present 100 and 220 yard Irish champion; J. J. Daly, cross-country champion, and J. J. Holloway, a pole vaulter and all-around athlete.

HAPPENINGS OF THE LOCAL FRATERNAL ORDERS.

One application was received at the meeting of Freedom Castle, K. G. E., Tuesday night. There were no initiations. The attendance was slim.

A number of Plainfielders attended the fifteenth annual convention of the Grand Court of the State of New Jersey, Foresters of America, at New Brunswick Tuesday. Among the important measures introduced was the recommendation by President Edward Guthrie, of Jersey City, to increase the per capita tax. The proposition was voted down. The report of the president showed an increase in membership for the year of 2,004. The number of courts was increased by eighteen. President Guthrie urged that all courts should be incorporated, and advised that all courts stop the practice of holding lotteries, drawings, etc.

The following officers were elected: Grand ranger, M. F. Corwin, Jersey City; grand sub chief ranger, C. Schwartz, Long Branch; treasurer, D. Sturman, Hoboken; secretary, T. M. Donnelly, Jersey City; recording secretary, William Bentley, Paterson; senior woodward, Fred Koenig, Hoboken; junior woodward, Morris Solomon, Newark; senior Beadle, Thomas Armstrong, Bayonne; junior beadle, James F. ### The Sunshine Band Raises $156 for the Foreign Mission Field.

The Sunshine Mission Band held its annual meeting last night at the Crescent Avenue church. Miss Goddard had charge of the meeting, at which the reports of secretary and treasurer were read. The treasurer's report showed a total of $156 raised during the year. Of this sum $80 was sent to the mission work in Syria and $30 was devoted to the support of two famine orphans in Western India. A balance is left on hand of about thirty dollars. The meeting was addressed by the pastor, Rev. J. Sheridan Zelie. Dolls were distributed to the members of the band.

THE CHEWING SEASON.

It Is in the Spring Time That the Jaws Have Their Hardest Work to Do.

"Do people chew more gum in winter or in summer?" was asked of a man who, in the pursuit of his duties, was emptying the cash box and filling up the stock receptacles of a chewing gum machine on an elevated station platform, says the New York Sun.

"Well, I should say there wasn't much difference," was the reply. "People chew gum the year 'round.

"On very cold and stormy days like some of those we have lately had, for instance, people don't chew so much. They come out on the platform with their coats buttoned up and they don't unbutton them to get at the cent they want to put in the slot; though some may come out even then with the cent in their fingers, all ready. But such very cold days are likely to cut off the sales a little, in exposed places, anyway.

"If there is a time when people do chew more gum than they do at others, it would be, I should say, in March and April; in the spring, when the air is bright and springlike and refreshing and people feel good and get hungry and want something to chew on.

"Then, perhaps, the people buy more chewing gum; but as a general proposition people chew gum the year 'round."

Curious Justice.

Justice in the British possessions on the west coast of Africa is peculiar at times. A writer in a London publication tells the story of a couple of officials—Brown and Jones—who one night were cycling home from the club without lights and were pounced upon by a zealous policeman. Summoned before the district commissioner's court, they found themselves the only persons competent to try the case. So Brown sat upon Jones and fined him five shillings, adding a few remarks as to the danger of neglecting a salutary regulation. Then Jones ascended the bench, smarting, and, having addressed Brown in terms that would have fitted a murderer, said that he was determined to put a stop to such pernicious practices and imposed a fine of ten shillings.

Corea's Empress an American.

The empress of Corea is an American. She was Miss Emily Brown, daughter of a missionary, and for some time lady-in-waiting to the late Empress Miu, who was mysteriously murdered in 1895. After that event the emperor invited Miss Brown to enter his harem. She declined. He then offered to make her his empress, and she accepted.

CROSS' RESIGNATION WOULD CAUSE TROUBLE

Another Fight If Union's State Senator Should be Elevated to the Bench.

THE PRESENT SITUATION

ACKERMAN, RUNYON AND COYNE AS CANDIDATES.

Two Plainfield Men, Followers of Different Leaders, Would be Boomed for Vacant Senatorial Office—Condition in County.

Ever since County Chairman Hamilton Kean sat down to dinner with the Plainfield bolters, there has been harmony in the Republican ranks of Union County but harmony in this instance is spelled with a small "h," and in some quarters it is believed that there is apt to be a fresh outbreak in the camp if Joseph Cross, of Elizabeth resigns the State senatorship to accept an appointment as the successor of the late U. S. Judge Kirkpatrick. The vacancy would cause a scramble among aspirants for the position and it is not improbable that the Kean and Fowler forces would be quickly engaged in a mix-up again.

Ernest R. Ackerman, of this city, will be boomed for the position if the vacancy occurs and he will naturally pull support from the friends of Senator Kean here as well as throughout the county. He is generally considered in every way qualified to fill the office and the fact that he was defeated for the nomination some years ago by Mr. Cross himself is taken as adding strength to his candidacy. Whether Mr. Ackerman's boom would meet with the opposition of the regular Republican administration here is not known, but the fact that Judge William N. Runyon was backed for the place as against Mr. Cross at the last convention leaves room for doubt.

Now comes the word from Elizabeth that the friends of former Assemblyman Edward Coyne are backing him for the place. He is strong throughout the county, but both he and Mr. Ackerman are on the same footing so far as regularity is concerned. Mr. Ackerman has worked hard for his party's success and the only crime he has committed is loyalty to the party tickets when it was under fire of the bolters.

It was said today by good authority that Judge William N. Runyon would be a candidate for Senator Cross's place provided the latter resigns. If this be so, he will naturally receive the support of the local administration, for which he has made many sacrifices. When seen by a reporter for The Daily Press, Judge Runyon was reticent about committing himself, but admitted that his friends are urging him to come out in case a vacancy occurs.

The situation will be somewhat complicated because there would probably be two other Plainfielders on the Republican ticket at the regular election in the fall. Collector Frank H. Smith has every assurance that he will be the party candidate for registrar of deeds. There is no opposition to him as yet nor is there likely to be any. It is hardly possible that the two principal offices will be given to Plainfield, especially since this city went Democratic at the last election for the first time in many years. Wm. T. West, of Roselle, is also mentioned for the senatorship and he is popular here as well as in Elizabeth and throughout the county.

James C. Calvert, of Elizabeth, is a candidate for the county clerkship and Mr. Coyne hails from the same place. Here again is a complication for it is extremely improbable that two nominations will be given Elizabeth. On the whole, the proposed succession of Senator Cross to the vacant judgeship is a serious matter and is apt to keep the politicians awake between now and the time when the appointment of an United States district judge is made.

Moving Flag Pole.

Captain William Hand took some men and tackle to Westfield this morning to move the Jr. O. U. A. M. flag pole. The pole stands at the corner of Broad and Prospect streets and when the sidewalk was laid a short time ago it was found that the pole came four feet inside the edge of the stones. As the staff is a very tall one and is set in concrete, the job is far from being an easy one.

LOTUS GLEE CLUB HEARTILY APPLAUDED

Encores Aplenty for the Superb Quartette at the First M. E. Church.

MISS SMITH'S RENDITION

RECITATIONS WIN THE APPRECIATION OF THE AUDIENCE.

Ovation to Charles L. Lewis—Great Solo Work—Good Profit is Made—The Programme.

Before a large and appreciative audience that nearly filled the First M. E. church, the Lotus Glee Club, assisted by Mrs. Minnie Marshall Smith, gave a concert of unusual excellence, last night. The work of the quartette, as well as that of Mrs. Smith was of the first order and the selections were such as to call forth the heartiest of applause. Nearly every number received an encore and the artists were generous in their response.

Perhaps her best effort of the evening was Mrs. Smith's presentation of "Berglot," by Bjornson, accompanied with music composed by Edward Greig. In this selection Mrs. Smith's exceptional ability was displayed and her reputation as a dramatic reciter strengthened. "A Midnight Courtship," containing many amusing situations, won approbation, as did also other selections in a lighter vein given as encores.

In presenting the musical numbers there was not a rough spot. The quartette sang in perfect harmony, while the solo work was enjoyed to the full. Charles L. Lewis received a flattering ovation in his rendition of "The Grenadiers," while George Seymour Lenox, first tenor; G. Morgan Stricklett, second tenor and W. Stanley Grinsted, as second base, generously shared in the unstinted praise accorded. Each member was in fine voice and the work of Frank J. Smith, as director and accompanist, was all to be desired. The reception given to the club and Mrs. Smith was most gratifying to them and a substantial sum was realized from the affair.

INDIVIDUAL COMMUNION CUPS

COMMITTEE TO ASCERTAIN SENTIMENT OF TRINITY CONGREGATION.

Another step toward the adoption of an individual communion service was taken by the Consistory of Trinity Reformed church, at its meeting last night. A communication was received from the Ladies' Christian Work Society of the church offering to purchase such a service as the Consistory might select. This offer was accepted by a unanimous vote and a committee of four was appointed to ascertain the concensus of opinion of every member of the congregation.

While the committee has the authority to adopt this service, it is the desire that the members of the congregation have an opportunity to express themselves for or against and for that purpose return postal cards will be sent out. Upon the result of this largely depend future action in the matter. However, the Consistory fully believes that the vote will be practically unanimous in favor of the change.

Dr. J. C. Anderson at Reunion.

Dr. Jefferson C. Anderson, of West Fourth street, attended the fifth annual reunion of his class of '99, New York Homeopathic Hospital, New York, held at the Waldorf-Astoria, last night. There were thirty-seven members of this class, and all but a half dozen were present. The others are scattered far and wide, one being in Canada, another in San Francisco, still another in Europe, while two are missionaries. Only one member of the class gave up his profession to enter mercantile business.

Crowd Enjoyed Circus.

As was the case last year when he show was given here, it was necessary to turn away a thousand people at Welsh Brothers' circus last night. The place was packed with at least 3,000 people long before the big show began and the crowd wildly applauded the daring feats of the acrobats as well as the marvellous tricks performed by the horses.

Mrs. George T. Schenck, of Dunellen, won the prize at the Union County W. C. T. U. School of Methods contest in Cranford yesterday.

MARK TWO DECADES OF FAITHFUL SERVICE

Surprise for Rev. Charles L. Goodrich, Pastor of the Congregational Church.

ENJOYABLE EVENING

MUSICAL PROGRAMME AND SOME ADDRESSES.

Address of Welcome by Rev. M. E. Dwight—A. C. LaBoyteaux's Remarks—The Features of the Affair.

Twenty years ago yesterday Rev. Charles L. Goodrich, of the Congregational church, assumed the pastoral duties of his first charge, in which he has ever since continued, and to mark the event the members of his congregation arranged to surprise him at a reception last night.

Seating themselves in the main part of the church edifice, which had been tastefully decorated with flags and flowers, the gathering was treated to the following programme: Organ voluntary, Mrs. B. T. Barnes; address of welcome, Rev. M. E. Dwight; woodbird song, choir quartette, Miss Cornelia Miller, Mrs. R. K. Miner, F. S. Cutter and J. W. Sanford, accompanied by the organist, Mrs. B. T. Barnes. A. C. LaBoyetaux followed the quartette with a few words of congratulation on behalf of the Sunday-school and Miss Weeks and Miss Fisher presented some flowers.

A letter from Madame Whiton, the mother of J. M. Whiton, was read by Miss Whiton. Madame Whiton is still confined at home, suffering from the results of an attack of pneumonia. After another selection, "Hush thee my Baby," by the quartette, Miss F. F. Clark gave a reading entitled "Queries."

J. M. Whiton in a few well-chosen words, presented the pastor with a purse of gold. When Mr. Goodrich had responded to this surprise, which affected him deeply, all joined in singing "Auld Lang Syne." Refreshments were served and a social period enjoyed by all. The committee in charge of the arrangements included Mr. and Mrs. William VanAlstyne, Mr. and Mrs. J. Kirkner, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Wadsworth, Mr and Mrs. J. E. Morse, Mr. and Mrs. A. Weseman, Capt. and Mrs. William Hand, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Raynolds, Miss Seads, Mr. and Mrs. J. M Whiton, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Suffern, Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Updike, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Weeks, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Gray, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. LaBoyteaux, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Powlison and Mrs. J. V. Beekman. Mrs. E. L. Suffren was chairman and Mrs. L. B. Morgan vice chairman.

PAINTINGS AT A SACRIFICE

WORKS IN OIL OWNED BY C. SCHEPFLIN BRING ONE-THIRD THEIR VALUE.

One of the many valuable paintings sold at the home of the late Christian Schepflin at Dunellen, on Wednesday, it is said, cost Mr. Schepflin $5,000, and yet the entire collection only brought $1,750 Owing to the fact that Mrs. Schepflin signed her rights away, she was not entitled to her legal share. However, a valuable cabinet, presented to her husband by the Middlesex Bowling Green Club, was presented to her. She expressed a wish for this. All of the effects were sold for considerable less than their true value, and it is doubtful if a sufficient sum will be realized to cover the mortgage.

Hon. Wm. Newcorn at Celebration.

Past Great Sachem William Newcorn, of Miantonomo Tribe, was in Camden last night, taking part in a big celebration by the Camden Indians. Red Men from Philadelphia, Atlantic City, Trenton and other places took part in the celebration. A feature of the evening was a big parade, in which seventeen bands took part. Mr. Newcorn made a speech at the banquet later.

Boys' Baseball League Games.

The struggle for the Boys' League pennant will be carried a step farther to a finish this afternoon. The Whittiers will meet the Leals and Y. M. C. A. will bump into P. H. S.

Leap Year Social.

Under the auspices of Howell Division, Sons of Temperance, a leap-year social will be held Monday night, May 23.

HORSE SHOW EVENTS INCLUDE 30 CLASSES

Executive Committee Meets and Arranges for the First Annual Exhibition.

HORSEMEN INTERESTED

VALUABLE PRIZES TO BE OFFERED BY THE COMMITTEE.

Discussion as to Seating Accommodations—As to Caring for the Stock—Those at the Meeting.

Further progress was made in preparation for the coming horse show to be held June 17 and 18, at a meeting of the executive committee held last night. It was announced that there would be nearly thirty classes, including harness, saddle, pony and four in-hand. About twenty classes will be reserved for open events and the remainder for local horsemen from Union, Somerset and Middlesex Counties. Already the committee has received assurances that the entry list will be filled up and there is now no question about the affair being a great success.

Owners of fine horses throughout Northern Jersey, as well as other parts of the State, have already sought information, indicating their desire to enter the several classes. There was an informal discussion regarding prizes to be offered, and it was decided to secure a valuable collection.

Other matters discussed were the seating capacity at the Plainfield Driving Park, where the show will be held, and arrangements for taking care of the thoroughbred stock during the two days of the show.

These members of the executive committee were present: Newton B. Smalley, J. Wesley Johnson, Robert A. Fairbairn, Dr. Knott, George H. Beaton, C. T. Waring, L. E. Waring, C. J. Fisk, Charles Blitz and E. H. Ladd, Jr.

TEMPLARS AT A SERVICE

TRINITY KNIGHTS HEAR SERMON ON "HUGH DE PAYENS."

Trinity Commandery, Knights Templar, of this city, was largely represented at an Ascension Day service held by Temple Commandery, of New Brunswick, last night. The service was held in the First Baptist church, of New Brunswick. Rev. and Sir Knight L. E. Wheeler conducted the devotions and preached a sermon on "Hugh de Payens."

After the service the Plainfielders were conducted to the New Brunswick asylum, where a musicale and reception was held. Refreshments were served.

Among those in the party from this city were Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Woolston, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Corieli, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sebring, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Codington, Dr. and Mrs. D. C. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. George McIntyre, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Liefke, Mr. and Mrs. K. Bosterle, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Brokaw, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Cowans, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Pray, B. F. Conklin, George Conklin and Edward Sebring.

The trip was arranged by Acting Commander G. M. Macintyre, assisted by Past Grand Commanders D. C. Adams, W. H. Sebring, H. W. Marshall.

Strawberry Festival Arranged.

Under the auspices of the Young Ladies' Missionary Society, of the First Baptist church, a strawberry festival will be held on the lawn adjoining the church Tuesday afternoon and night, May 31.

A social dance will be held Tuesday night, May 23, under the auspices of Friendship Lodge, Daughters of Rebecca.

—The school of methods of the Somerset County W. C. T. U. will be held in the Reformed church, Bedminster on Tuesday.

OBJECTION MADE TO NEW SCHOOL SITE

Reasons Given by Boroughites for Opposing Board's Proposition.

CONTRARY OPINION

MEMBERS OF BOARD OF EDUCATION UNANIMOUSLY FAVOR IT.

West End Hose Company's House Suggested As a Suitable Building—Would Allow a Much Smaller Expenditure.

Strong objection to the second site chosen by the Board of Education for the proposed new borough schoolhouse has developed. In several quarters the location is condemned in unmeasured terms, and opposition to it is spreading. The objections hinge on the absence of street improvements.

The lot chosen is located in the middle of the block above Walnut street. Walnut street is an unimproved thoroughfare lying some distance above Greenbrook road. Beyond Green brook Grove street is a rocky hill, without sidewalks, given over largely to loose stones and knotted grass. The roadway is full of ruts. Walnut street is only used for foot traffic; it is badly in need of grading, and has no improvements at all.

These are the objections filed to the erection of a schoolhouse on that particular site. It is suggested that the old West End Hose Company house, which the borough has offered for sale, presents a chance for a school in an ideal location. The house is only about two blocks away from the proposed lot, and in a well-paved, well-lighted neighborhood. The addition of another story, the advocates of this plan say, the house could be converted into as satisfactory a schoolhouse as any to be secured. The property could be bought cheaply from the borough, it is maintained, and the $14,000 appropriation asked for by the Board would not be necessary.

A. V. D. Honeyman, a member of the school board, was asked this morning to state the advantages of the lot. He said it was the unanimous choice of the board for a four-room house, principally because it is equally distant from the Prideville section and the district to the other side of Grove street from which the present overflow of school attendance comes. It is on high ground, he said and street improvements are sure to come. There is an ordinance ordering sidewalks on Grove street, and property owners have assured the board that they will meet the law if the new school is erected. The roadway on Grove street has been laid with the first macadam stone, and according to Mr. Honeyman only a rolling and the application of the top dressing is needed to put it into first class shape.

HE TOOK TOO MUCH POISON

FRANCIS M. WHITELY, OF THE BOROUGH, NARROWLY ESCAPED DEATH.

Rumor unlimbered a majority of some hundred tongues this morning and filled the borough with wild and unfounded stories of an attempt at suicide by Francis M. Whitely, of Steiner place, a former special marshal under Chief Campbell.

Whitely, who has suffered from stomach trouble for the past four years, took an overdose of laudanum by mistake during a severe and painful attack of his malady at 9 o'clock yesterday morning. His physician was summoned and although the patient responded to treatment slowly, he succeeded in restoring him to consciousness this morning. He will recover.

False Alarm.

Passers-by on West Front street, near Madison avenue, this morning about 10:30 were startled by a loud report like that of a heavy revolver. Patrolman Overbaugh found that the noise was caused by a balky gas engine in the ice cream foundry behind St. Stephen's confectionery store.

Surprised A. B. Caleen.

About thirty friends of Arthur B. Caleen, of Orchard place, surprised him last night. "Pit" and "Flinch" were the features of the evening's amusements which included piano selections as well. Following the refreshments at midnight, dancing was kept up until an early hour.

MISS HOLMES IS DERANGED

HIGH SCHOOL PUPIL WILL BE TAKEN TO MORRISTOWN ASYLUM.

Miss Lillian Holmes, daughter of Isaac L. Holmes, of West Fourth street, will be confined to the Morristown Asylum, papers for her commitment having been made out. The unfortunate girl has been acting so strangely of late that it is considered imperative that she receive treatment at the home for the insane. Dr. C. B. Lufborrow and Dr. H. H. Lowrie have made an examination and they have advised her commitment.

Miss Holmes has been a pupil in the High School and her peculiarities attracted the attention of her schoolmates and teachers. Among her notions was one that she could destroy the pupils and the building in a novel way. She was formerly employed at the local telephone office. Her half-sister is now an inmate of the asylum.

STILLMAN FLAT FOUNDATION.

Concrete in Coffer-Dam to Support the New Structure.

About half of the concrete footing for the foundation of the new Stillman building on Madison avenue was put in the coffer-dam at the Madison avenue end of the excavation today. This concrete sub-foundation will be four feet in thickness, beginning three and a half feet below the bed of the brook, and on top of it is to be built a stone wall nine feet high, reaching to the level of the cellar-bottom.

Civil Engineer Frank J. Hubbard, assisted by C. M. Rogers, C. E., have designed this foundation with special reference to safety in case of floods and it has been declared safe by Building Inspector T. O. Doane no matter if all the dams in Washington Valley should go out.

Plainfielders at Banquet.

J. Herbert Case and E. H. Feickert, of the Plainfield Trust Company, were among those attending the third annual banquet of the New York Chapter, American Institute of Bank Clerks, held last night at the Hotel St. Denis.

MISS B. M. F. RANDOLPH NOW MRS. H. B. AYERS

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Fitz Randolph the Bride at Church Wedding.

RECEPTION FOLLOWS

REV. DR. A. H. LEWIS AND REV. G. B. SHAW OFFICIATE.

Miss Evaline DuBois Miller Maid-of-Honor—Description of the Bride's Gown—To Reside in Pennsylvania.

Miss Bessy Mae Fitz Randolph, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Fitz Randolph, of Belleview avenue, and Hobart Bentley Ayers, of Allegeny, Pa., were married last night in the Seventh-Day Baptist church at 7:30, in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends from this city and distant points. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. A. H. Lewis, former pastor of the church, assisted by Rev. George B. Shaw, the present pastor.

The edifice was decorated with palms and apple blossoms, there being a pleasing arrangement about the pulpit platform.

Miss Jessie M. Utter, as organist, rendered a select programme from well-known composers. As the bridal party entered the church she played the wedding march from Lohengrin.

The bride was attended by Miss Evaline DuBois Benton, of this city, as maid-of-honor, and these bridesmaids: Miss Louise Ayers, of Westerly, R. I., sister of the groom; Miss Alberta Irwin, of Brooklyn; Miss Clara Elizabeth Babcock, of Springfield, Mass.; Miss Katharine VanZandt, of Blawenburg, N. J. Asa Fitz Randolph, brother of the bride, was best man and the ushers were Henry W. Parker, of Manchester, N. H.; Irin Fitz, of Columbus, Ohio; Frederick C. Clarke, of Schenectady, N. Y., and J. Oakley Hobby, Jr., of New York city.

The bride's gown was of white crepe de chine over white taffeta, trimmed with point de'Venice. She wore a veil of white tulle and carried a shower bouquet of lilies-of-the-valley. A brooch of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom and designed by him, was the only adornment. The maid-of-honor's gown was of white crystalline mousslin with chiffon and lace trimmings. She carried pink and white sweet peas in shower bouquet. The bridesmaids were gowned in white silk mull with mechlin lace and white ribbon girdles and they carried shower bouquets of apple blossoms.

The bridal party in entering the church was preceded by the ushers, followed by the bridesmaids, maid-of-honor and the bride, accompanied by her father, who gave her away in marriage. At the altar they met the groom and best man, where the ceremony was performed. In leaving the church the Mendelssohn wedding march was rendered.

A reception for the bridal party followed at the home of the bride's parents, where the best wishes of all were extended to the popular couple. The home was decorated chiefly with apple blossoms. Mr. and Mrs. Ayers left during the evening for a honeymoon. Upon their return they will reside in Allegheny, Pa., where the groom holds a responsible position as superintendent of the American Locomotive Works' plant. Both he and his bride enjoy a large acquaintance.

In the exchange of gifts the bride presented to the maid-of-honor and bridesmaids monogram hat pins in gold, while the groom's gifts to the best man and ushers were gold stick pins set with pearls. The bride was also the recipient of a large collection of costly and handsome gifts.

There will be a parade of all the Pythian organizations in the city, headed by the Uniformed Rank, in uniform. On Sunday, June 5, the Rank will go to Portchester, N. Y., to decorate the grave of Harvey L. Patterson, a member who was killed in the Westfield wreck.

IRVINGTON - MILBURN RACE

ANNUAL CYCLING EVENT FOR DECORATION DAY MORNING.

Plans are complete for the famous twenty-five mile road race which will have its sixteenth running over the Irvington-Milburn course on Decoration Day. The race, as usual, will be held under the auspices of the Bay View Wheelmen, and "Happy Days," Will R. Pitman will be the referee. Ever since its initial year, this race has been the blue-ribbon event in cycling in this country, and year after year the best riders have been attracted to the fine course where low records have been made.

The course, so well known to cyclists, is through some of the prettiest New Jersey country and is always in good shape for road racing.

It is expected that several former winners will start on Decoration Day, but as rule this race goes to some dark horse. For weeks past numberless riders have been in training for the event in the hope of winning one of the prizes.

The race will be started at a point about one mile southwest of the Hilton Hotel, at 10:30 o'clock sharp. The men will report to the clerk of the course at the starting point and will be arranged according to handicap. Riders will be limited to one hour and thirty minutes to finish in. The prizes are two gold medals, and a gold watch for time prizes, and eight up-to-date bicycles for positions. There are many other gifts to be awarded, including racing suits, sweaters, tires, lamps, saddles and several other articles. In addition a banner will be presented to the club having the largest number of entries To the club having the greatest number of men to finish a silver cup will be presented. ### SIDE LIGHTS ON TIMELY TOPICS NOTED IN PASSING.

Frank Hedden has a lot of fine hens in his stable on Fourth street. Every day he collects a dozen or more fresh eggs and takes the home. He had the usual dozen in his pocket of a new spring coat Tuesday night, when he stopped in D. S. Miller's pharmacy to make a purchase. Frank forgot about the eggs and tried to squeeze through the narrow space between a showcase table and a counter. The table was just high enough to reach the egg pocket. When pocket and table came together Frank remembered the eggs. He had to. They made themselves heard. And felt. And the things he said caused a bottle to fall from the top shelf. Frank had to cut the pocket out to get rid of the mess, and the outside of the coat isn't entirely clean yet.

Undoubtedly, says a writer in the May Woman's Home Companion, the Daughters of the American Revolution ranks first in war, first in peace, and first in the hearts of our countrywomen. This surpassing society of 40,000 members contributed three hundred thousand dollars for relief work during the Spanish-American War, and in piping times of peace commemorates things Revolutionary, from placing a silver tablet on the old Dutch oven in the Avery homestead at Mount Pleasant, New York, in which Captain Avery's wife was forced by the British to bake bread, to preserving the historic Wallace House at Somerville, New Jersey, wherein Washington made war maps in 1778 79. That the society possesses national headquarters at Washington, costing twenty thousand dollars a year; the official approval of Uncle Sam, who voluminously prints its reports, and a monthly magazine for publication of Revolutionary data, further makes it distinctive among patriotic societies of American women. As a crowning memorial, moreover, to men and women of the Revolution—"Continentals in ragged regimentals" and their heroic wives—these fair descendants will build a magnificent three-hundred-and-fifty-thousand-dollar Continental Hall in the heart of the capital city.

Corporation Notice.

Public Notice is hereby given that at a meeting of the Common Council of the City of Plainfield, New Jersey, held on Wednesday, the thirteenth day of April, 1904, an ordinance of which the following is a true copy, to wit:

Plainfield, N. J., May 13, 1904

From the fact that the price of camphor has been cut to 29 cents a pound, a Metropolitan paper makes the induction that the cost of living is rapidly decreasing. You don't have to spend that much to reduce the cost. Try jumping overboard.

The Camden-Post Telegram's explanation of the reason why W. W. Howland, on behalf of the North Plainfield delegates objected to the selection of "Davy" Baird, of Camden, as a delegate-at-large to the Republican National convention is amusing. It says incidently:

"The real reason for this division in the Somerset delegation can be found in a local factional fight, something entirely foreign to Mr. Baird's candidacy, an outcropping of political differences which resulted in Republican disaster at the last two elections in that county."

As a matter of fact, this reason, which is no doubt the product of an editor's political ignorance, is sheer nonsense. Mr. Howland's views are and have been during all recent political fights in Somerset County in perfect harmony with the policy of his party. The only difference existing between the North Plainfield delegates and the others from Somerset County was that Mr. Howland and his colleagues of the borough had the courage to protest against the selection of a man who is obnoxious to the better element of the Republican party, not only in Somerset County but in the State at large. The Post-Telegram is wrong in its conclusion when it says:

"The fact that not a single delegate outside of Somerset joined in the opposition to Mr. Baird, and that he received all but six votes out of 920 in the convention, is conclusive evidence that the Somerset fluke in no wise represented any general opposition or is to be taken seriously as an indication of disapproval of his candidacy."

The fact that "Davy" Baird received all but six of the votes cast is conclusive evidence in this case that the delegates generally had not the courage to express their convictions.

HOLY NAME SOCIETY'S AFFAIR

PROGRAMME PRESENTED BY A ST. JOSEPH'S CHURCH ORGANIZATION.

Unqualified success attended the annual reception of the officers of the Holy Name Society, of St. Joseph's church, last night.

There was a pleasant musical programme, including songs by Miss Justina Smith, the church soloist; comic songs and recitations by William O'Keefe; songs and recitations by Robert McCormack; violin selections by Miss Seal, accompanied by Miss Smith; and violin and piano duet by Eugene O'Reilly and a member of his orchestra. Michael Armstrong played a number of new phonograph records. The programme was climaxed with an old-fashioned Irish jig by Robert McCormack and Patrick Reagan.

The committee in charge consisted of Andrew Kenney, chairman; Robert McCormack, Thomas Meany, John William McCullough, James Daly, William Daly, Jeremiah Callahan and Arthur Seal.

Miss Mary Duffy, of this city, has been visiting Mrs. James Corcoran, of Raritan.

Miss Edna Moffett, of Central avenue, who has been ill with the measles, has recovered.

DEBATED NEGRO SUFFRAGE

NOT DECIDED WHETHER DISFRANCHISEMENT IS BENEFICIAL TO THE RACE.

Prof. J. F. Blair, of Brooklyn and Rev. M. Daniels, of New York, engaged in debate at the Mt. Olive Baptist church last night. The subject of debate was "Resolved; That the disfranchement of the Negro of the South is beneficial to him," Rev. Mr. Daniels taking the affirmative and Prof. Blair the negative.

Rev. Mr. Daniels took the ground that the constitutions, which in the South, except Georgia, have replaced shot-gun supremacy and ballot-box stuffing, have, at the same time, allowed the negro with progressive tendancies to develope economically and socially if not politically.

Prof. Blair, who described himself as a "sable son of Ham," began his work of demolition immediately upon assuming the floor. In an attack on Mr. Daniels' arguments to show "how flimsy they were," he exhibited more fervor than logic and closed by saying that his opponent's talk was as "pointless as a circle."

At the close of the debate Parson Jackson arose and told the audience that the decision of the judges was superfluous as his little son had decided the respective merits of the speakers by saying that Prof. Blair was the "goodest" and Mr. Daniels the "bestest."

Adjourning to the basement those present partook of a most satisfactory collation and left well pleased with the evening's programme.

Several classic pieces of music were rendered by the Tony Progressive Mandolin and Guitar Club; James and R. L. Tony, guitars; Henry Banks and Edward Jay, mandolins, and Thomas Tony, violin. Alfred White directed the music, which included a chorus of well-trained voices. Mrs. Kate Mayhew was chairman of the committee in charge, which was as follows: Miss Lulu Dempsey, Mrs. Martha Yettmn, Mrs. Rhoda Hancock and Mrs. Lelia Fields.

FIRST TROLLEY EXPRESSES.

Jersey City-Trenton System Was Started Today.

The initial trips of the through line trolley cars between Jersey City and Trenton were made this morning, two cars reaching this city, east and west bound, about 11 o'clock. Superintendent Brown was aboard the west bound car No. 1945. There were about fifteen passengers. The report was made that the car had been on time at every point, leaving Jersey City at 8:35, despite the fact that the power was weak.

The westbound car passed the first trolley from Trenton at the turnout corner of Front and Somerset streets. This car, No. 1948, carried less than a dozen passengers.

Mistaken Identity.

It was a mistake to describe the "red groundhog" killed by Sexton Johnson, of Grace church, as a freak of nature. It wasn't a groundhog at all, but a pet prairie dog belonging to Miss Marion Bush. It wandered away and very unfortunately attracted Sexton Johnson's attention. Miss Bush advertised for her pet yesterday in the hope of regaining it, and she expresses her feelings over its harsh death in the letter column today.

DUNELLEN.

The Dunellen boys are in fine trim for their game against the Parkway F. C., of Newark, tomorrow afternoon. The new diamond has been put in excellent shape since the last game and is as fast a diamond as Dunellen ever possessed. Captain Smith has greatly strengthened his team by putting Howard Craig in the outfield. Craig covers short for the Plainfield High School team and is a good all-round player.

It is now reported, on good authority, that the P. S. C. cars will begin running to the West end of the borough before Sunday. This is what the boroughites have needed for a long time as it will do away with all the inconveniences experienced by the patrons in waiting for Plainfield cars at the old terminal, corner of North and Jefferson avenues.

The pupils of the Whittier High School classes are being drilled every afternoon for the play that they will given in the Presbyterian chapel next Thursday night. "Sunbonnets" is the title of the play, the proceeds of which will be used toward defraying the expenses of the graduates' reception.

Mrs. Mahlon Dayton and children have returned home after a visit with relatives in Bryn Mawr.

Mrs. Lucy Titsworth is entertaining her daughter, Mrs. Maud Green, of Brooklyn.

Mrs. John Otto is on the sick list.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

The local ball team should have a larger rerpesentation at Recreation Park tomorrow afternoon, when Manager Hand's team meets Westfield's crack team in battle. While the locals have only had one chance to practice this season, still they should keep Manager Denman on the anxious seat, if not come home with a victory. Game will be called at 3:45.

Following is the Scotch Plains line-up for their game at Westfield tomorrow afternoon: Allen, c; Montross, p; Baldwin, 1b; Knright, 2b; Crusius, ss; Williams, 3b; Alberts, Flannery, Martin or Taylor, in the outfield. Mr. Cullin, who gave such satisfaction umpiring local games through this section last season, will have charge of the indicator.

The Board of Education met in the school parlors Wednesday night. Business relating to teachers' contracts for the coming year was transacted. There will be few, if any changes, in the corps when school reopens in September.

A number of young people from town will attend the shirt-waist dance and reception given by the "Tuesday Night" Dancing Class, tonight, in the I. O. T. rooms, corner Park and North avenues.

The delight and wonders of the circus parade was too much for a number of the school children yesterday, resulted in many vacant seats at the morning session of the school.

THE FORUM.

Communications from readers of The Daily Press on all subjects of local interest are invited. All such communications must be stripped of personalities, and must be signed by the writer. His name will not necessarily be published. The editor is not responsible for views expressed in this column.

Editor, The Daily Press:

The animal described in yesterday's issue as a "red ground hog" was not "a freak of the animal world," but the lost prairie dog, advertised in a neighboring column of your paper. Most of the boys of Sixth street would have recognized him as Chiquito, for many months the delight of all the children in the neighborhood, the gentlest, most engaging of pets, and at last the victim of ignorance and mistaken zeal.

I am sure that all lovers of animals, especially the owners of small and harmless pets will join with me in bitter protest against the merciless impulse which urge so many men and boys to kill an inoffensive animal just because it happens to belong to an unfamiliar species. Marion Bush.

DALNY DESTROYED.

Russians Have Blown Up City Created by the Czar.

EMPEROR ANXIOUS TO GO TO THE WAR

Port Arthur Battle Reported—Tokyo Denies That Railway Connection Has Been Re-established With the Stronghold.

LONDON, May 13.—Advices from St. Petersburg say that Viceroy Alexieff has telegraphed to the czar announcing that the Russians have blown up the docks and piers at Port Dalny, in the Liaotung peninsula, presumably to render more difficult a Japanese landing at that point.

Later telegrams received indicate that the whole of Port Dalny has been destroyed by the Russians.

The city consisted first of the administration portion, in which are located railroad shops for making cars, etc.; repair shops, shops for steamship construction and repair, with various offices of the port, steamships and railroad, residences of mechanics and general employees, together with hotels, parks, churches, schools, clubs and places of amusement.

It was created by order of the czar, and over $6,000,000 has been expended on the harbor system. It has been estimated that the cost of completing the various works would be nearly $20,000,000, but this does not in any way represent the total cost of the erection of this great commercial port now in ruins.

Rumors are widely current here that fighting is in progress at Port Arthur, but there is no official news confirming the reports.

A junk that has arrived at Chemulpo brings a report that heavy explosions were heard at sea early yesterday. It is believed here that these explosions occurred either at Port Arthur or Dalny.

An American miner who left Anju on May 8 has arrived here and reports that a force of 2,900 Russians recently spent the night at Unsan. He says also that large bodies of Russian troops were reported to be in that vicinity.

Emperor Nicholas is arranging to go to Kharkoff on May 23 to bid farewell to the Tenth army corps upon its departure for the far east.

It is learned from the highest source that the emperor is exceedingly anxious to go to the front. To his intimates recently he has spoken much on the subject.

General Karkevitch, in a dispatch to the general staff, says that on May 8 part of the Japanese vanguard appeared in the valley of the Sedzi river and that a considerable body of the enemy continues to occupy Douanmyo. Another detachment, composed apparently of one battalion of infantry and half a squadron of cavalry, is situated about five miles north of Takushan.

Other information indicates that on May 10 a Japanese force of 10,000 infantry and fifty guns, chiefly mountain guns, halted for the day at Hungkaipusze and advanced on May 11 toward Siuyen.

General Karkevitch reports as follows:

"According to information received from Fengwangcheng one of the guards divisions advanced along the Haicheng road and about a division and 1,500 cavalry were to advance by the Fengwangcheng road to Samatra.

"Up to the present there has been discovered at Kwantiensien Japanese guards consisting of a battalion of infantry and three squadrons of cavalry with a mountain battery.

"Some sixty Japanese transports and warships appeared at sea between Pitsewo and Cape Terminal. Detachments of sharpshooters were sent to reconnoiter, and a small detachment of infantry was sent from Polandien.

"The troops sent to reconnoiter announced that the Japanese were landing near Cape Siaokohuseitsa, in Kinchau bay, near the mouth of the Tchengyu river, and were posting a division of 10,000 in the neighboring villages. The Russian population was withdrawn from Pitsewo.

"The railway is still free of the enemy.

"Japanese detachments consisting of one and a half to three companies each kept watch and passed the night east of the railway. They then proceeded southwest.

"According to Chinese information 20,000 Japanese landed east of Pitsewo with field artillery and siege guns, and Pitsewo was occupied by 1,500 men.

"A Japanese detachment of four or five companies attacked our posts near the village of Shihei, killing four of our frontier guards and wounding eight.

"On May 10 the Japanese left the railway line, and railway communication with Port Arthur was re-established.

"Detachments of the Japanese advance guard have occupied the villages of Mutsiatun and Siatiatin, nine miles south of Polandien. Other detachments of the Japanese advance guard have taken up positions seven and a half miles west of Pitsewo.

"A squadron of the enemy's cavalry approached within fifteen miles east of Wufungtien, but turned back on meeting our scouts.

"The village of Tantsiefang was found occupied by a detachment consisting of cavalry, artillery and infantry. Cannon fire was opened by the Japanese on coming into contact with our small detachment, which had penetrated within three and three-quarter miles of Pitsewo."

A Tokyo report says official inquiry shows that Viceroy Alexieff's report that railroad communication with Port Arthur has been restored since Monday is untrue.

A Shanhaikwan dispatch says firing is reported to have been heard south of Newchwang yesterday.

A Shanhaikwan report says the main force of the Japanese is said to be concentrated near Port Arthur, with siege guns, and their intention is believed to be to attempt a repetition of the strategy of the naval and military forces of the United States before Santiago and to drive the Russian fleet out to battle.

Three hundred and fifty Russian soldiers are at Newchwang, and the city is quiet.

The censorship at Newchwang is severe. United States Consul Miller has not been allowed to answer Minister Conger's request for a statement as to the local situation.

Japs Might Grab Mails.

WASHINGTON, May 13.—Apparently to avoid the risk of Russian mail falling into the enemy's hands, the Russian government has requested the United States to change the route of all mails sent from or through this country for Manchuria and Siberia. Until now the mails for Siberia and Manchuria have been sent over the Siberian railway, going first to San Francisco and thence via Chinese or Japanese ports to a Siberian railway point. Instead they will now go across Europe.

Say Japs Fired on Red Cross.

WASHINGTON, May 13.—Secretary Hay has been notified that the Russian government has made a formal protest against the action of the Japanese forces which landed at Pitsewo, on the Liaotung peninsula, recently in firing on a Red Cross train going north from Port Arthur and carrying a number of wounded Russian soldiers. The protest was laid before the Japanese government by the French minister at Tokyo.

Japanese Loan Oversubscribed.

LONDON, May 13.—Subscriptions to the Japanese loan of $50,000,000 have been closed. It is estimated that the loan has been oversubscribed twenty times.

WILL NOT ACCEPT VERDICT.

Father of Young Wentz Does Not Credit Suicide Theory.

PHILADELPHIA, May 13.—Dr. John S. Wentz, father of Edward L. Wentz, whose body was found on Monday at Big Stone Gap, Va., after a search of many months, does not accept the finding of the coroner's jury that the young millionaire committed suicide or accidentally shot himself.

"My son was murdered. He was the victim of revenge. There is no basis for a verdict of self destruction," he declared.

"We shall employ every effort to ferret out the case to the bottom, and I am confident that when the true explanation is known it will corroborate my belief."

"Suicidal or accidental killing," the wording of the verdict, caused a sensation when it was returned to Dr. Malcom Campbell of Blackwood, Va., the coroner. Many facts have been learned that point definitely to the death of Wentz as due to a slayer's bullet.

Wentz Buried at Woodland.

PHILADELPHIA, May 13.—With simple services the body of Edward L. Wentz, who met death in the Black mountains of Tennessee, was buried in Woodland cemetery here. Neither the detectives nor the family will accept the verdict of accidental death returned by the coroner's jury.

WILL ADVANCE TO LASSA.

Secretary Brodrick Says Government Has Sent Ultimatum to Tibet.

LONDON, May 13.—Indian Secretary Brodrick informed the house of commons that the government had decided that recent events in Tibet made it inevitable that the British mission must advance to Lassa, the capital, unless the Tibetans consented to negotiate at Gyangtse within a given date. The Chinese amban has been notified to this effect. At the same time, added Mr. Brodrick, the government does not intend to depart from its policy regarding Tibet, as previously announced. All the necessary measures will be taken to secure the lines of communication.

It is reported that the Tibetans have taken the offensive against the British at Gyangtse. From a fort about six furlongs away they are steadily bombarding the camp with a half dozen guns carrying solid cannon balls of a pound weight.

Body Found Floating.

CATSKILL, N. Y., May 13.—The body of an unknown man, aged forty-five and weighing 150 pounds, has been found floating in the river off Athens. The body was clothed in a black serge suit and new laced shoes, and in the pockets were found two half pint whisky flasks. The coroner thinks the body has been in the water three or four months. The remains were buried in the potters' field.

Swift Justice For Negro.

AUGUSTA, Ga., May 13.—In order to prevent a lynching a special term of the Columbia county court will be called immediately to try Ben Thomas, a negro, for an alleged criminal assault on a white woman, the daughter of a prominent farmer. The negro, it is charged, entered the girl's room three nights ago, choked her and committed the crime before the other inmates of the house knew of her danger.

Crashed Into Big Bunch.

NEW ORLEANS, May 13.—A stone barge crashed into the steamship Bratten at the Northeastern railroad wharf, tearing a big hole in the ship's side. The Bratten was towed to the Algiers side of the river and beached. Her cargo, consisting of 90,000 bunches of bananas, probably will be saved.

LINDEN, N. J.

Beautiful and Accessible
2 Miles from Elizabeth, 7 Miles from Newark,
14 MILES FROM NEW YORK
On Main Line Pennsylvania Railroad

Why Lots in these Cemeteries commend themselves to Heads of Families and Investors

BECAUSE of the $1,000,000 Trust Fund provided for by the Trustees in each Cemetery, the income from which will keep the properties perpetually beautiful at NO EXPENSE TO LOT OWNERS.

BECAUSE such a guarantee, not found in any other cemetery, assures lot owners that the grounds WILL BE MAINTAINED PERMANENTLY AS BEAUTIFUL PARKS AFTER THE INCOME FROM THE SALE OF LOTS HAS BEEN EXHAUSTED.

LOTS SHOULD BE PURCHASED NOW

BECAUSE MORE ADVANTAGES ARE OFFERED TO LOT BUYERS in a new Modern Park Cemetery than in those established many years and, in most cases, no provision made for perpetual care without extra expense to lot owners. THERE ARE A GREATER NUMBER OF IDEAL LOCATIONS TO SELECT FROM, PRICES OF LOTS ARE ALWAYS LOWER AND TERMS MORE ADVANTAGEOUS.

BECAUSE life is most uncertain and EVERY ONE SHOULD ANTICIPATE THE INEVITABLE BY MAKING A CHOICE NOW OF A FINAL RESTING PLACE.

LOTS WILL PROVE A GOOD INVESTMENT

BECAUSE they are sure to increase in value and can be purchased NOW at the INITIAL, or LOWEST PRICE and upon the most ADVANTAGEOUS TERMS.

BECAUSE the properties are ACCESSIBLE TO 4,000,000 PEOPLE, and considering the RAPID GROWTH OF GREATER NEW YORK and its TRIBUTARY CITIES and TOWNS, it is only a question of a SHORT TIME when LOTS in ROSEDALE and LINDEN PARK will EQUAL IN VALUE those of our MOST NOTED cemeteries.

Looked as if Kohinoor Won.

NEW YORK, May 13.—Buckley A., at 8 to 1, won the Vap Nest Selling stakes at Morris park by a head from the favorite, Kohinoor, with Rob Roy third, a head away. Champlain was forth, a head behind the third horse. The judges were loudly hissed for their decision, and a great crowd gathered around the judges' stand. To the majority of the spectators around the finish it looked as if Kohinoor, the favorite, had won, with Buckley A. second and Champlain third. Tanya, favorite, broke the track record for four and a half furlongs, Eclipse course, by covering the distance in 51½ seconds.

Chess Tournament at Cambridge.

CAMBRIDGE SPRINGS, Pa., May 13.—Since the beginning of the great international chess masters' tournament at the Hotel Rider in this city there has been no day so exciting when the players met in the eleventh round. When it was seen that Lasker had a bad game against Schlechter, Pillsbury a winning game against Showalter and Marshall had Janowski beaten, there was no end of comment among the spectators, who were present in large numbers. Marshall still leads Janowski, while Lasker is third and Marco fourth.

Sport on Churchill Downs.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 13.—Another big crowd saw a fine day's racing at Churchill downs. The feature event, the Bashford Manor stakes, for two-year-olds, was easily won by Oiseau, an added starter, who was at odds on in the betting. Munro lay back with him until they turned into the stretch, and then he came on and won as he pleased by three lengths from Florentine. The jumping race furnished another accident, Jockey C. Johnson being badly hurt when Golden Link, heavily played, fell at the sixth jump.

Toscan at Worth.

CHICAGO, May 13.—The one and one-sixteenth miles handicap, the feature at Worth, was won by Toscan, backed from 7 to 1 down to 6 to 1. Port Royal, the heavily backed favorite, finished second and Dan McKenna third. Port Royal would have finished in first place in a few more jumps, as he was coming fast and lost only by a short head.

Martimas Made a Record.

KANSAS CITY, May 13.—Martimas, a heavily backed favorite, won the World stakes, $1,200 added, at Elm Ridge from a good field in the fastest time made on the local track, going the seven and one-half furlongs in 1:33¼. Loone, in the first race, at 15 to 1, had his own way and won easily from Foncasta, the favorite.

Dwyer Learned Opponent's Trick.

A Trust Company is always present.
It does not change its residence.
It is never sick.
It is never out of town.
It is never away on business.
It never takes a vacation.
It cannot die.
It is always ready to act in discharge of its obligations.

These are but a few of the many reasons that make a trust company more desirable than an individual trustee.

KING'S DAUGHTERS IN ANNUAL MEETING

Mrs. Charles A. Reed is Chosen President of the City Union.

THE WORK IS REVIEWED

TREASURER'S REPORT FOR LAST YEAR OF THE CAMP.

Mrs. Dorsey Hyde, First Vice President—Mrs. S. A. Krom Tells What Has Been Accomplished by the Union.

The annual meeting of the City Union of King's Daughters was held yesterday afternoon in the lecture room of the First Baptist church. After a hymn was sung, Rev. Joseph O. McKelvey opened with prayer followed by a short talk on the work and aims of the order.

The various circles reported through their own secretary. Mrs. S. A. Krom told of the financial condition of the union. The total receipts for the year, exclusive of the special funds collected for the baby camp, amounted to $1,190.39. The welcome assistance of S. St. John McCutchen, who raised above $1,000 for the camp last year, was again accepted in the matter of securing funds to make some necessary alteration and additions to the buildings.

The baby camp will probably open for the season about June 1. Miss Olive Delaney will be in charge as nurse and Mrs. Delaney will act as matron. Miss Delaney's report as public nurse showed a total of 919 calls during last year.

The latter part of the meeting was given up to the election of officers. These were selected: President, Mrs. Charles A. Reed; first vice president, Mrs. Dorsey Hyde; recording secretary, Mrs. Frank W. French; corresponding secretary, Mrs. A. M. Most, and treasurer, Miss H. Helen Philips. Miss Philips acted as custodian of the baby camp funds last year and her re-election puts her in charge of all the funds of the union.

The meeting closed with a hymn and the benediction by Rev. Mr. McKelvey.

Must Foot the Bill.

Just after going to press yesterday, a telegram was received at this office that the Oshkosh Glee Club, which has been engaed to assist at the Internation Melange of Song and Dance at the Casino on May 19 and 20, will be entertained at their own expense while in town. The members are now getting estimates for board and it is understood that Timbo & Co., of North avenue are after the contract. There is no truth in the report that Dockstader has anything to do with the show.

Co-Operation a Failure.

It is said that the Co-Operative Paint Store on West Second street has quit business, the ladders, brushes and some of the supplies having been purchased by Woolston & Buckle and some of the other materials were purchased by other local dealers, while the remainder was shipped back to New York For a time the business paid, it is said, but upon the termination of the strike, trade fell off.

The bride-elect is an accomplished young woman and very popular. Mr. Whitley is well-known here and at New Market as a ball player. Last season he pitched for the New Market team. This year he will probably wear a Y. M. C. A. uniform. At present Miss Lefler is visiting her brother, Edward L. Lefler, of Boston.

SWEDES PLAN TO RAISE $500

CONCERT TO BE GIVEN BY A LOCAL CHURCH ORGANIZATION MAY 19.

Those who attend the concert to be given in the Congregational church on Thursday night, May 19, for the benefit of the Swedish Evangelical Pilgrim church, will assist a worthy cause. This energetic organization has an indebtedness of $1,40C and wants to raise $500. If this can be done throught the generosity of the people of Plainfield, the congregation feels able to care for the rest of the indebtedness.

Talented artists will contribute their services for the concert. William Holmes, of the First Baptist church choir, will have charge and also sing. The programme will be presented by W. Paulding DeNike, the well-known 'cellist; the Esterpean Glee Club, a mixed quartette composed of Mrs. Robert L. Gidden, soprano; Mrs. Stephen H. Tugwell, contralto; Elmer D. Cutting, tenor, and William Holmes, baritone. They will sing the favorite serenade and quartette from "Robin Hood." Those who heard Mrs. Gidden sing in "Patience," will be pleased to hear her again.

In addition to these musical numbers, Miss Aimee Emmons will recite the famous quarrel scene between Lady Teazle and Sir Peter, from Sheridan's famous comedy, "The School for Scandal." For further particulars see advertisement in The Daily Press.

DANCE AT THE PARK CLUB

LAST OF SERIES OF THREE BACHELOR AFFAIRS PROVES ENJOYABLE.

The last of the series of three bachelor dances during the season by Reeve Stockton, Harry McGee and Harry Hall, was given at the Park Club, last night, there being between fifty and sixty guests present. Like the other two dances this one was replete with pleasant features and it was early this morning when the merry dancers wended their way homeward.

During the evening the german was led by Miss Helen Buchnell and Harry McGee. These were the patronesses for the affair: Mrs. Theodore D. Wilson, Mrs. Arthur L. Otterson, Mrs. George S. Ring, Mrs. Joseph M. Shellabarger, Mrs. Edward M. VanBuren and Mrs. Clifford McGee.

The music for the dances was furnished by VanEps' banjo trio and piano and it was one of the features of the evening.

Refuses to Vacate.

George Brown, as agent of a Newark realty company, brought suit for possession of premises to issue against John Lassiter in Justice Hand's court yesterday afternoon. The owners notified Lassiter to move, giving him a month's notice. He claimed to be a yearly tenant and as such demanded three months' notice. He tendered the rent last month, but Mr. Brown refused to receive it. Justice Hand reserved decision. Harry C. Runyon, Esq., is the defendant's lawyer, and a Newark attorney represents Mr. Brown.

THEY'LL GET THE ORIENT

PERSEVERANCE LODGE WILL INTRODUCE CANDIDATES TO THE STARS.

There are to be things done at Perseverance Lodge, K. of P., next Friday night. Several unterrified knights are to take the Orient degree. The slapping machine has been oiled up, and the goat will be starved into a terrible state of rage. As usual, the candidates will be introduced to the goat with a red rag pinned to a prominent section of their trousers.

Several high officers of the order are to be present to witness the sacrifice. Some of the Pennsylvania State officers are expected also, and a big social time will follow the initiation. Red Cross nurses will be in attendance on the candidates.

IMPROVING THE SPRINKLING

CONTRACTOR GETTING DOWN TO SYSTEMATIC WORK FOR SEASON.

Although the municipal street sprinkling system has been in operation about two weeks, Contractor John Keely has scarcely got the business down to fine points. He has a prepared diagram of the various routes and territory covered and this forms the basis for the system now in use. It is generally observed that since the work began there has been less kicking than usual, and this is evidence that the taxpayers are somewhere near satisfied with the work.

With so many streets to cover it is a difficult matter to effectually water them so that they will meet with the approbation of every one. Mr. Keely says that he is determined to give the taxpayers the best possible service so that at the end of the season they will feel as though they have received something for their money.

Tomorrow the Public Service Corporation, according to the city ordinance, begin to sprinkle along their tracks in this city. This fact will go a great ways in helping Mr. Keely in his work. Since May 1 he has been obliged to sprinkle the trolley company's tracks to protect his own territory. The trolley cars raise so much dust that unless he sprinkled along the track it would only serve to dry up the other part of the street that much quicker and would more than offset the other work. For doing this neither the city or Mr. Keely has received any compensation from the trolley company. It is considered no more than fair, however, that the company should stand its share of this expense for it has benefitted as much as anyone by the sprinkling and at the same time been a source of convenience to the patrons of the cars.

Mr. Keely hopes before the end of the month to have his system in perfect working order and he will then be able to cover the whole territory within the prescribed time and more satisfactorily. His idea is to have the drivers work towards the outskirts in the early part of the day and then work back toward the centre toward quitting time at night This gives the streets a final soaking which, in very dry weather, keeps them moist over night.

SECRETLY WED.

Patrolman's Daughter Has Been a Wife for Many Months—Was Married in October.

The friends of Miss Myers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Myers, of 1351 North avenue, and William Perrin, of Grandview avenue, learned with surprise today of their marriage. The young couple announce that the event was celebrated in New York last October and despite their best efforts were unable to keep the affair a secret any longer. The parents were informed of the fact and while no objection was made to the marriage they would have much preferred to have the couple wait until they were a little older. Mr. and Mrs. Perrin will reside here. The groom has a position in New York and formerly carried a Daily Press route.

East Enders Won Game.

The East End Juniors defeated the Richmond Street Seconds on the North avenue grounds yesterday afternoon by the score of 9 to 8. The batteries were for the East End Juniors, Crudup, F. Somerset and A. Somerset; for the Richmond Street Seconds, Slocum and Mattox.

Approaching Marriage.

Announcement is made of the approaching marriage of Miss Mabel Symons, daughter of Paul Symons, of East Third street, and Walter Roll, of the borough. The affair will be celebrated Wednesday, June 1, at the home of the bride.

GUILTY OF TRUANCY, BOY AWAITS SENTENCE

Borough Board of Education Takes Action Against Lad of Thirteen Years of Age.

HE PLAYS "HOOKEY"

TRIAL IN JUSTICE MATTISON'S COURT THIS MORNING.

Warning to Other Youngsters—John Conshee—Mr. Honeyman Appears for the Board—May 28 Date of Sentence.

Before Justice Mattison, of the borough, this morning, the case was heard of the Board of Education against John Conshee, a truant from school, of the age of thirteen years. Because of his tendancy, John is yet unable to read and write. His mother is a widow, who desires him to attend school, but says she cannot control him. The boy lives at 223 Duer street. Last year he attended school forty-four days out of 180 and since September 8, he has been truant fifty-one and a half days.

A. V. D. Honeyman appeared for the Board of Education, and there were present the boy, who had been arrested by ex-Marshal Pangborn, Superintendent H. J. Wightman and Truant Officers McDonald and Lunger. After testimony, the boy was adjudged disorderly under the provisions of the new school law. Saturday, May 28, was fixed as the date for sentence. Whether the boy will be sent to jail, or paroled until the Juvenile Offenders' Court at Somerville meets, or what shall be done with him, has not been determined, but it is understood that if he attends school hereafter everyday he will be given a chance to reform.

Other tenants are to be brought before Justice Mattison next week.

PORT ARTHUR FALLEN?

In Decisive Conflict 10,000 Men Are Killed.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

London, May 14—Advices from Paris say that a rumor is current there to the effect that Port Arthur has fallen, and 10,000 men were killed in the battle preceding the capture.

Nothing confirmatory of the rumor can be obtained here.

PETITION AGAINST LOCATION

SCHOOL SITE PROPOSED NOT SATISFACTORY TO MANY BOROUGHITES.

Opposition to the site to be submitted by the borough Board of Education for the proposed new schoolhouse appears to be spreading. From the dissatisfaction over the new choice of the Board a reconsideration of the opinion passed on the old one has begun to take form.

It is felt by many of those interested in question that the old Grove street site is after all the best that could be chosen. This feeling has reached such a point that a petition asking the board to take up the old site again is being circulated among the voters. Over seventy of the men who voted against the site at the recent public meeting, when it was submitted to referendum, have signed the petition.

The one great objection to the old site was that it is filled in ground. Since the vote was taken experts have testified that ground filled in as that one was is the best and most sanitary foundation for any buildings. The nearness to the brook, another objection, could be rendered of no account so far as damage to the building walls or foundations is concerned by the erection of a stone or concrete wall. In another column is published a communication from David J. Carney relative to the subject. The public meeting will be held Monday night.

Building in Westfield.

William H. Abbott, North avenue real estate broker, has broken ground, corner of Broad and Prospect street, Westfield, for the erection of a three-story brick building. There will be stores on the first floor and flats above.

New Public Fountain Running.

The work of erecting the new fountain on West Front street has been completed. Water connection was made this afternoon.

PLAINFIELD ON TRIAL TRIP

CENTRAL'S NEW FERRYBOAT IS COMPLETED AFTER LONG DELAY.

The ferryboat Plainfield, which has been building at the Crescent shipyards in Elizabeth, started on a trial test yesterday. The boat has been built for the Liberty street ferry line of the Central Railroad of New Jersey. It cost $250,000 and its completion has been delayed six months owing to the United States Shipbuilding Company going into the hands of a receiver. To completion of the boat winds up the work that was being done at the Crescent yards. It is expected that the yards will be idle now until the business of the defunct shipbuilding trust is wound up by Receiver James Smith, Jr.

WESTFIELD SUSPECTS HELD

JUSTICE TOUCEY DEMANDS $1,500 FROM MEN ACCUSED OF ROBBERY.

John McGilvray and Timothy McCarthy, accused of robbing the Westfield station on April 28, were held to answer the charge before the Grand Jury yesterday. Judge Toucey, of Westfield, before whom the prisoners were arraigned for preliminary hearing, held the pair under $1,500 bail. McCarthy secured a bondsman, but McGilvray failed to get bail and was remanded.

In a salesman at a Newark outfitting store, the police produced a new witness against the men. This salesman, John Apora, testified positively that the accused men purchased suits and general clothing outfits the day after the robbery. C. L. Roane, the Westfield freight agent, and D. F. Carigg, the night operator and agent, and J. P. Q. Goitra, the carpenter from whom the chisel found on the station floor was taken, also testified against the men.

McCarthy's father went on his bond. McGilvray is locked up in the county jail in default of bail.

FOR CHARITY'S SAKE.

Plainfield Relief Association to Hold a Cake Sale.

Owing to the fact that so many men have been employed during the past season cutting wood at the headquarters of the Plainfield Relief Association, it has been found necessary to build a shed to provide additional room. The present quarters are inadequate. To meet the expense of this work it is proposed to hold a cake and candy sale at the Relief rooms, 544 West Front street, on Thursday afternoon, June 2, from 3 to 6 o'clock.

Not Sent to Asylum Yet.

Miss Lillian Holmes, who was adjudged to be insane a few days ago, and for whom commitment papers were made out with the intention of taking her to Morris Plains, is still at her home. Yesterday she accompanied members of her family to Newark, for what purpose those interested in the case do not know. Overseer of the Poor Alex Ayers said today that everything is in readiness for taking the unfortunate woman to Morris county, but there is an apparent delay which he cannot explain. It is possible that the young woman may be taken away today.

Smalleytown Boy in Trouble.

Fred Wilson, of Smalleytown, and a youth named Martin, of this city, appeared before Justice Smalley this morning, charged with the theft of several articles of utility, including a canvas hay cover worth $22. Bail was furnished by former Assemblyman Edward Cooper, a neighbor of the prisoner's father. Joseph Zeglio, of Warrenville, went bail for young Martin.

Hope Common Destroyed.

Hope Common, once the scene of many great baseball games, is now a thing of the past. Owing to the noises that were made by the baseball fans in their enthusiasm the residents near the Common complained to O. B. Leonard, the owner, and he has put a stop to all ball playing there. The Common has been ploughed up.

Max Munger Engaged.

Announcement is made of the engagement of Miss Sue S. Weber, of Cumberland, Md., and Max Munger, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Munger, of Washington avenue. The wedding will take place early next month. Miss Weber is a sister of Mrs. Ernest R. Ackerman, of West Eighth street, and has been making her home here.

A Fourteen Inning Game.

The North Plainfield Juniors defeated the Watchung Athletic Club on the Mountain avenue grounds Thursday afternoon in a fourteen inning game by a score of 6 to 5.

THEIR MOTHERS AS COUNSEL

PARENTS OF LADS ARRAIGNED IN CITY COURT EXPLAIN THE MATTER.

Harry Ashton, who confessed to ten years of age, was arraigned before Judge Runyon in the city court this morning, charged with hitting Christopher Meyer, aged eight. Harry's mother and Christopher's mother were there to explain things. Harry's mother advanced explanations that didn't explain satisfactorily, and when Harry himself confessed to hitting Christopher on five or six different occasions, Judge Runyon dropped a sentence of $5 and twenty days on him. The sentence was suspended, but the magistrate warned Harry—and his mother—that it would be enforced to the letter if he appeared in court again.

LEMON SOCIAL AT GRACE M. E.

YOUNG PEOPLE HAVE A JOLLY GOOD TIME IN THE CHURCH EDIFICE.

A "lemon social" was held at Grace M. E. church last night under the auspices of the Epworth League.

One lemon was the fee for admission.

The programme opened with a piano solo by Miss Weston. This was followed by a "conversation game" in which cards were used, each one being inscribed with five topics of conversation such as The War in the East, Lemons, My Summer Vacation, My Favorite Amusement, Things Good to Eat. These were filled out the same as orders of dance, five minutes being allotted to each subject.

While this game was in progress, the lemons which had been taken at the door were transformed into lemonade, the seeds being counted carefully. The prize for the largest number from one lemon went to Miss Charlotte Huff, who turned in one containing twenty-one seeds and the booby-prize was awarded to Andrew Wilson for a specimen without any seeds at all.

The refreshments being ready, the floor was strewn with the letters l-e-m-o-n cut from white bristol board. Anyone succeeding in getting one specimen of each of these five letters was entitled to a glass of the lemonade which was very good and a piece of cake which was better still.

NEW STYLE BAGGAGE CHECKS

MEDAL CHECKS TO BE SUBSTITUTED BY CARDS AS A HEALTH MEASURE.

The New Jersey Central is about to abolish the old brass baggage checks, some of which have been in use on the road for over a quarter of a century. The contention is that the old style metal checks carry disease germs and for sanitary reasons there will be a change to the card-board system. The new system will require baggagemasters to hand out a clean card every time a trunk is checked and the passenger when in a hurry will be required to wait until the official fills out the blank on the check.

To Prevent Horses Slipping.

In order to correct the trouble for drivers at the corner of West Fourth street and Park avenue, the street department put men to work yesterday to lower the iron culvert and cover it with a layer of macadam. It is maintained by the street department that the slipping of the horses was not caused by a loose cover, but by sharp turning on the smooth iron. The trouble, however, was there, and the proper steps have been taken to remove it. With the macadam in place there will be no chance for the horses to slip unless under extraordinary circumstances.

Mayor Bill a Patron of Music.

Harry C. Winters, of this city, entertained Mayor Bill Smith and a number of the latter's guests with harmonica solos yesterday. Mayor Bill is very fond of harmonica playing and frequently hires Mr. Winters, who is an expert player, to render long programmes on the old-fashioned instrument.

Additions to Ball Schedule.

Manager George Johnston, of the Alis Club, has about closed two games with the Hobokens to be played on Crescent Oval within a few weeks. In place of the game with Madison on May 21, Johnston is promising a game with the Everett College team, which has not lost a game this season.

C. A. Sturtevant's Patent.

Charles A. Sturtevant, of this city, has been granted a patent on a delivery mechanism for sheet folding machnies.

C. M. RILEY WEDS A BELLE OF SUMMIT

North Plainfielder the Groom at An Elaborate Ceremony This Afternoon.

LARGE ATTENDANCE

REV. A. C. NICKERSON, OF THIS CITY, OFFICIATES.

Howard W. Riley, Brother of the Groom as Best Man—Jonas Lie An Usher—A Reception Follows.

Champlain L. Riley, of North Plainfield, was married this afternoon to Miss Ida E. Holt, of Summit. The ceremony was performed at the bride's home.

The groom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Riley, of Myrtle avenue. The bride is the daughter of Robert S. Holt, the partner of C. W. McCutchen in the firm of Holt & Co.

For a home wedding, the nuptials were held on an elaborate scale. Special cars carried guests to Summit from New York, and the house was lavishly decorated. There was a large gathering of relatives and friends, mostly from the metropolis. Few of the guests were from this city. A reception followed the ceremony

Rev. A. C. Nickersen, of All Souls' Unitarian church, pastor of the groom, preformed the ceremony. The bridal party was large. Miss Constance B. Holt, a sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Howard W. Riley, brother of the groom, was best man. There were four bridesmaids: Miss Grace L. MacMullen, of New York; Miss Marie Libby, of Summit; Miss Ethel Miller, of West Nyack, N. Y.; Miss Ethel Mason, of Washington, D. C. The ushers were Jonas Lie, of North Plainfield; Robert S. Holt, Jr., of Summit; James H. Morse, Jr., of New York, and Charles W. MacMullen, of New York.

Miss Ann K. Colton, a young niece of the bride, was train bearer, and the Misses Evelyn Holt and Beatrice Miles, of Summit, were flower girls.

Many handsome and costly gifts were received by the bride.

Upon their return from the honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Riley will make their residence in Summit. Mr. Riley holds a high position on the staff of Clark & MacMullen, of New York, a prominent firm of consulting engineers.

STREET WORK.

Terrill Road Being Put in Proper Shape by the Street Commissioner's Men.

Continuing the work begun last autumn, the street men are repairing the roadway on Terrill road from South avenue southward. The work takes in that section of Terrill road, which is the dividing line between this city and Fanwood, that an agreement between the two municipalities puts under the charge of the city. The agreement was made last year, after the plan of working the road repairs on each side of the road, along the boundary line, had proved a failure.

The roadway on the Fanwood side is supposed to be in perfect shape. When the city men get through the thoroughfare on their side will be as good as a new stretch of roadway. The road has been rounded, the gutters have been deepened, cinders have been used to fill in hollows, and field stones have been laid in boggy places. Last year cracked stone was used liberally on the street.

Sick Fire Horse.

One of the iron-grey team used at the West Second street fire house, who was taken out of service four weeks ago and put out on Debele's farm, had a severe attack of colic last night. Dr. L. S. Pocock was called to the farm and after working over the animal for some time succeeded in getting him on his feet. The doctor believes that the horse will be all right in a few weeks. He is young and was considered one of the best horses in the department.

To be M. D.'s.

Miss Martha Tracy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Evarts Tracy, of West Eighth street and Miss Anna Degenring, of Elizabeth, are members of the senior class of the Woman's Medical college, of Pennsylvania, who will be graduated at the Academy of Music, Philadelphia on Wednesday, May 18, at 10 o'clock.

Dinner in Guests' Honor.

Mrs. C. T. Lincoln, of West Eighth street, entertained a few New York friends at dinner last night.

Opposition to School Site.

Editor, The Daily Press:

"The citizens of the borough will again be called upon next Monday evening, at a meeting of the Board of School Trustees, to decide on a site for a new school building.

"The meeting recently held for a similar purpose whereat the proposition then submitted was voted down by a small majority, did not honestly voice the true sentiment of the voters of the borough, for the reason that the lines were so tightly drawn by the opposition that many voted against the proposition for no other reason than to oppose the scheme, because Mayor Smalley and his friends favored it.

"This is true. It has since been often admitted by numerous individuals who assisted the opposition. Now the Board of Trustees are asking the citizens to vote for a site for a school building that is even more objectionable than the one which was voted on and defeated a short time ago. The location now proposed is an ideal spot for an observatory, but it is one almost absolutely useless for a school house.
